

Quarterly Issues and Program List

WTVW

2018 Q2

Pursuant to the disclosure requirements in 47 C.F. R. 73.3526(11)(i), and during the quarter referenced above, this station provided information to its viewers regarding the following significant issues, including:

- Legal Matters
- Community
- Technology
- Transportation
- Minority Issues
- Consumer Issues
- Politics
- Crime/Law Enforcement
- Education
- Environment
- Health
- Business & Industry

Programs

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration	Title of Program	Narrative Description
----------------	--------------	-------------	-------------	-----------------	-------------------------	------------------------------

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration	Title of Program	Narrative Description
7 (WTVW)	Legal Matters	6:30 p.m.	April 2	2:00	Eyewitness News at 6:30	Henderson Mayor Steve Austin says Kentucky's new pension plan may cost the city millions - and you could be the one paying for it. Austin says cities are being left in the cold on the pension issue unfolding in Frankfort, and the only way to solve it is cutting costs with city services or raising taxes.
7 (WTVW)	Community	6:30 p.m.	April 3	1:45	Eyewitness News at 6:30	In his seventh State of the City speech, Mayor Lloyd Winnecke covered many of Evansville's successes, and addressed areas in need of improvement. More troubling issues are rises in both violent crime and overdose deaths last year, but the mayor says those are priorities in 2018, and going forward.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

7 (WTVW)	Technology	9:00 p.m.	April 10	1:30	Eyewitness News at 9	Facebook dropped a bombshell today when it admitted that up to 87 million users' data may have been shared with Cambridge Analytica during the 2016 election. That's almost 30-million more users than Facebook originally estimated weeks ago. Now, Facebook is revising its security.
7 (WTVW)	Transportation	6:30 p.m.	April 16	1:30	Eyewitness News at 6:30	The Evansville Street Maintenance team has spent countless hours fixing 9,000 potholes in the city just this year. Some holes even have to be fixed multiple times. But, they've found a solution called the Total Patcher.
7 (WTVW)	Community	9:00 p.m.	April 23	2:00	Eyewitness News at 9	The USS LST 325 has been in its current location since 2005, and while moving two nautical miles down the Ohio River to the space once occupied by the Tropicana Riverboat Casino may seem straight forward, the preparation has been complicated.
7 (WTVW)	Minority Issues	9:00 p.m.	April 26	1:45	Eyewitness News at 9	Agents with the U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement have detained several restaurant worker immigrants.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

7 (WTVW)	Consumer Issues	6:30 p.m.	May 3	1:30	Eyewitness News at 6:30	A North Carolina food processing company that supplies meat to Kroger is recalling more than 35,000 pounds of ground beef because it might be contaminated with bits of hard plastic.
7 (WTVW)	Politics	9:00 p.m.	May 9	2:00	Eyewitness News at 9	Some voters in Mike Braun's home city of Jasper are celebrating his win, while others are starting to learn more about the new Republican nominee.
7 (WTVW)	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:30 p.m.	May 15	1:45	Eyewitness News at 6:30	In response to 911 calls, police located Barry Freeman in the 2400 block of North Kentucky Ave. Friday night. Neighbors told police Freeman had shot a gun. When police tried talking to him, authorities said he ran and fired an AR-15 and a shotgun at police vehicles.
7 (WTVW)	Education	9:00 p.m.	May 21	1:30	Eyewitness News at 9	It's not everyday college students get to help NASA with a project, but a group of USI students had that chance. The students built the UNITE CubeSat, a micro satellite that sits, for now, in Evansville on a desk in a classroom. In less than a year, it will be orbiting the earth.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

7 (WTVW)	Environment	9:00 p.m.	May 29	1:45	Eyewitness News at 9	Citing safety concerns, Newburgh's famous canopy will be cut down the middle this week. Dozens of trees will be chopped to give power lines room to breathe.
7 (WTVW)	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:30 p.m.	June 5	1:45	Eyewitness News at 6:30	According to a study from the University of Indianapolis, suicides by firearm rates have decreased by 7.5% over the past decade in the state. Researchers credit the "Red Flag," or Jake Laird law. The law went into effect in 2005 and allows law enforcement to take guns from people showing red flags that they might hurt themselves or others.
7 (WTVW)	Consumer Issues	9:00 p.m.	June 6	1:30	Eyewitness News at 9	Social media has become a popular place for posting lost pets or to find one a new home. But a recent McLean County animal abuse case shows not everyone on those sites could be rightful owners. Shelters now warn you if you're thinking about selling a pet online, visiting a potential buyers home can clear up a lot of questions.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

7 (WTVW)	Crime/Law Enforcement	9:00 p.m.	June 16	2:00	Eyewitness News at 9	A manhunt is underway to find three inmates who escaped the White County Jail. In a press release, The White County Sheriff's Office says three inmates escaped through a brick wall around three Saturday morning. Sheriff deputies say a pipe was used to break a hole in the outside concrete block and brick wall.
7 (WTVW)	Health	6:30 p.m.	June 25	1:30	Eyewitness News at 6:30	The US House's passage of bipartisan opioid legislation. The Substance Use-Disorder Prevention that Promotes Opioid Recovery and Treatment (SUPPORT) for Patients and Communities Act, HR 6, contains more than 50 individual pieces of legislation.
7 (WTVW)	Business & Industry	9:00 p.m.	June 29	2:15	Eyewitness News at 9	A day after the U.S. Senate approves the 2018 Farm Bill, with provisions on industrial hemp, Kentucky hemp farmers and processors call it a good start.
7 (WTVW)	Politics	9:00 p.m.	June 30	1:45	Eyewitness News at 9	The group SNAP Works for Hoosiers is announcing its support for the US Senate's passage of the Farm Bill Thursday.