Maine Weddings #177

Friday, January 30, 2015

Home to Valentine's Day, February has become known as a month for lovers. With that in mind, Maine magazine offers its wedding issue this time each year, featuring 26 real weddings and a wealth of inspiration for those who are planning a special day in the Pine Tree State. Today we speak with Valerie Kyros, owner and stationer of Papier Fleuriste in Portland, who has years of experience in the area of weddings. We also speak with Kate Seremeth, Maine magazine art director, and Kelly Clinton, Maine magazine managing editor, about the enjoyment they derive from bringing the wedding issue to life.

Bethel #176

Friday, January 23, 2015

Bethel is known for being home to one of Maine's largest ski resorts, Sunday River. It is also a place of great natural beauty, every season of the year. This informs the creative spirit which can be found in places like Gould Academy, and the Mill Hill Inn in Bethel. Today we speak with Matt Ruby, Gould Academy Head of School, and Woody Hughes, nationally renowned potter and owner of the Mill Hill Inn.
