

THIRD QUARTER: July 1, 2016 - September 30, 2016
Cumulus Broadcasting Fayetteville, NC - WFNC-FM - Quarterly Issues Report
Issue	Program Summary	Run Date	Length	Quarter
Celebrating Independence Day with honor and safety	A look at appropriate ways to honor Independence Day with regards to flag protocol, education and military traditions. A list of parades, concerts and events scheduled to celebrate the holiday. A look at fireworks safety.	7/3/2016	:29:40	3
NC Symphony	Associate conductor David Gray speaks about the North Carolina Symphony, one of the most successful state-supported orchestras in the country. The Symphony has performed for Fayetteville's Independence Day celebration for the past 11 years.	7/10/2016	:29:50	3
Teens in the digital sphere	Sean Mulrone, founder of Teens Of America, talked about issues facing and about young people. The importance of	7/17/2016	:29:30	3
Politics - Locals at the Republican National Convention	Linda Devore is the former chair of the Cumberland County Republican Party and a North Carolina delegate at the Republican Convention. She called in from Cleveland, Ohio. Richard Pittinger, North Carolina Congressman, called in from the RNC.	7/24/2016	:29:30	3
Animal Care - Dog Days At The Park	Autumn Blake, board president of the Fayetteville Animal Protection Society (FAPS) and the event coordinator for the Cape Fear Botanical Garden, Marissa Zimmerman on the charity event, Dog Days At The Park.	7/31/2016	:29:45	3
Mental Health - Care Clinic	Heather Watson, a social worker at the Care Clinic, talked about substance abuse, how it affects the person, family and community, and getting help.	8/7/2016	:29:50	3
Crime - FPD Chief Harold Medlock	Fayetteville Police Chief Harold Medlock on police procedures and safety; community relations; and proper actions and behavior during a traffic stop by police and citizens.	8/14/2016	:29:30	3
Mental Health - Care Clinic	REPLAY - Heather Watson, a social worker at the Care Clinic, talked about substance abuse, how it affects the person, family and community, and getting help.	8/21/2016	:29:50	3
Police Department Status - Chief's Retirement	Fayetteville Police Chief Harold Medlock on his pending retirement - reasons for the sudden retirement announcement; looking back over his 3 years in Fayetteville; successes and challenges; body cameras, open data initiative, lock zone, surveillance cameras.	8/28/2016	:29:40	3
City Development/Improvements	Cumberland County Commissioner Charles Evans on community meetings, Murchison Road development, new baseball stadium. Fayetteville City Councilman Jim Arp on I-295, driver safety and red light cameras, new baseball stadium and recruitment of team.	9/4/2016	:29:50	3
Family - Grandparents Day Cummunity-Cumberland County Fair	Jan Pettey, a local who was instrumental in getting Grandparents Day established nationally, talked about ways to celebrate. Also, including elders who may be in assisted living facilities with little or no family. Hubert Bullard, the director of the Cumberland County Fair and Katie Mikos, the marketing director of the Crown Center Complex, talked about the 25th Cumberland County Fair and several special improvements this year.	9/11/2016	:29:45	3
Women's Health	Dr. Michael Sunborg spoke about Gynecological and Ovarian Cancer Awareness Month. Prevention advice and treatment options. Bob and Catherine McArthy, owners of Home Instead Senior Care, talked about dealing with family members afflicted with Alzheimers Disease and www.missingseniors.com	9/18/2016	:29:50	3
Women's Health	REPLAY - Dr. Michael Sunborg spoke about Gynecological and Ovarian Cancer Awareness Month. Prevention advice and treatment options. Bob and Catherine McArthy, owners of Home Instead Senior Care, talked about dealing with family members afflicted with Alzheimers Disease and www.missingseniors.com	9/25/2016	:29:50	3