

FOURTH QUARTER: October 1, 2016 - December 31, 2016

Cumulus Broadcasting Fayetteville, NC - WFNC-FM - Quarterly Issues Report

"Fayetteville Focus" is a 30-minute weekly program that looks at issues and newsmakers from Fayetteville and the surrounding area. It airs at 7:30am each Sunday morning.

| Issues | Run Date | Program Summary |
|---|------------------------|---|
| *Women's Health | 10/2/16 | Dr. Michael Sunborg on Gynecological and Ovarian Cancer Awareness Month. Prevention advice and treatment options. Bob and Catherine McArthy, owners of Home Instead Senior Care on dealing with family members afflicted with Alzheimers Disease and www.missingseniors.com |
| *Women's Health | 10/9/16 (Replay) | Dr. Michael Sunborg on Gynecological and Ovarian Cancer Awareness Month. Prevention advice and treatment options. Bob and Catherine McArthy, owners of Home Instead Senior Care on dealing with family members afflicted with Alzheimers Disease and www.missingseniors.com |
| *Public Safety *Economy *Politics | 10/16/16 | Outgoing Fayetteville Police Chief Harold Medlock introduced new chief Anthony Kelly and reflected on his time in Fayetteville. City councilman Kirk Deviere on minor league baseball returning to Fayetteville. Fayetteville Observer's Paul Woolverton on local races. |
| *Public Safety *Hurricane Matthew | 10/23/16 | Spring Lake Town Manager Tad Davis on the town's handling of Hurricane Matthew. Fayetteville City Councilman Bill Crisp on how Fayetteville is responding to the devastation. State Senator Ben Clark on how the state is dealing with the finances of hurricane cleanup. |
| *Public Safety *Politics *Public Health | 10/30/16 | North Carolina Governor Pat McCrory on the continuing response to Hurricane Matthew and the effects of HB2. Greg Pitt of the Myrover-Reese Fellowship Home on substance abuse recovery and life rebuilding. AIT's Clarence Briggs on cyber attacks and security. |
| *Economy *Public Health | 11/6/16 | City Councilman Mitch Colvin on the downtown baseball project and Hurricane Matthew recovery. Terri |

| | | |
|---|-------------------|--|
| *Education | | Thomas of the Vision Resource Center on the upcoming Out Of Sight benefit dinner. Methodist University president Ben Hancock on the fast-growing institution. |
| *Politics *Public Health | 11/13/16 | Fayetteville Observer reporter Paul Woolverton on the still-unofficial governor's election. U.S. Representative Robert Pittinger on his victory in the 9 th District. Ruthie Dent of Habitat For Humanity on the upcoming charity Gingerbread House contest. |
| *Politics *Public Health | 11/20/16 (Replay) | Fayetteville Observer reporter Paul Woolverton on the still-unofficial governor's election. U.S. Representative Robert Pittinger on his victory in the 9 th District. Ruthie Dent of Habitat For Humanity on the upcoming charity Gingerbread House contest. |
| *Politics *Public Health *Arts | 11/27/16 | NC Representative John Szoka on his re-election and continuing hurricane recovery. Ron Pringle of the Second Harvest Food Bank on needs around the holidays. The Gilbert Theater's cast of It's A Wonderful Life. |
| *Economy *Children *Veterans | 12/4/16 | City Councilman Mitch Colvin on the new city Manager and progress on the city's downtown baseball project. Ann Mathis on the efforts of the Bicycle Man charity. Retired Major Ivan Castro on his new book about his experience as a disabled war veteran. |
| *Politics *Public safety *Economy | 12/11/16 | City Councilman Chet McDougald on grading the city's response to Hurricane Matthew and the ongoing downtown baseball project. Fayetteville Observer editor Tim White on the possibility of merging the county sheriff and city police departments. City Councilman Kirk Deviere on the good and bad aspects of providing financial incentives to prospective businesses. |
| *Economy *Politics *Media | 12/18/16 | Former mayor and current Downtown Alliance president Tony Chavonne on the continuing revitalization of downtown Fayetteville. Spring Lake Mayor Chris Rey on the delayed transition in North Carolina's governor's race. The new Fayetteville beat reporter for WTVD-TV, Morgan Norwood. |

*Public safety
*Politics

12/25

Fayetteville Police Lt. John Somerindyke and Deanne Gerdes of the Rape Crisis Center on using new DNA technologies to solve an old Fayetteville crime. NC Representative Billy Richardson on the ongoing controversy that is NC House Bill 2. NC Representative John Szoka on the recent house special session and how it may affect the state supreme court.