4th QUARTER PROGRAMS AND ISSUES WDUN 2024

In addition to local newscasts at the top and bottom of each hour 24/7, here are some of the local programs aired to address community concerns.
Issue:
Amped Kids Foundation Annual talent show
Addressed:
A 6-minute program
When:
10/3/2023 at 8:10a
Description:
Amped Kids Foundation founder and president, April Rooks, joined the morning show to talk about the foundation's upcoming talent show for young people. The foundation works with children in foster care to provide free instruments and music lessons. Mornings on Maine Street's Bill Maine hosted the talent show the following Saturday 10/07/2023.
Issue:
State of education in Georgia
Addressed:
20-minute program
When:
10/12/2023 at 10:35a
Description:
Georgia State Board of Education chairman Jason Downey joined the Martha Zoller Show to talk about education issues in the state including the Georgia Match Program which helps students know which state colleges that have a spot for them. The inclusion of career-based education, the importance of parental involvement, and how people can reach out to the state board.
Issue:
How the inland port located in Hall County, Ga. will affect our community.
Addressed:
18-minute program
When:

10/20/2023 at 9:20a
Description:
Hall County Commissioner Greg Poole and Hall County Administrator Zach Propes appeared on the Martha Zoller Show to discuss the inland port that is to be built in our community in 2024-2025. They discussed the impact to infrastructure and job creation.
Issue:
Community Trick-or-Treat event
Addressed:
5-minute program
When:
10/31/2023 at 7:42a
Description:
Gainesville Main Street Manager Nichole Parham joined the morning show to discuss the community trick-or-treat event in downtown Gainesville. It took place that afternoon between 3p and 6p. WDUN AM/FM's afternoon show Drive@5 broadcast from the free event that drew over 2-thousand participants.
Issue:
Preview of the 2024 Georgia General Assembly
Addressed:
10-minute program
When:
11/6/2023 at 9:45a
Description:
Georgia Lt. Gov. Burt Jones joined the Martha Zoller Show to talk about issues the General Assembly will address in the upcoming session. Issues included budgeting and a proposed legislation that would reduce the number of statues and services that are duplicative.
Issue:
Community Veterans Day concert
Addressed:
5-minute program

When:

11/9/2023 at 8:10a
Description:
Believer's Band director David Arvold joined Mornings on Maine Street to share details on the free concert honoring veterans. Morning show host, Bill Maine, emceed the event on 11/11/2023
Issue:
Upcoming Georgia General Assembly
Addressed:
5-minute program
When:
11/21/2023 at 7:40a
Description:
Greater Hall Chamber of Commerce director Kit Dunlap joined Mornings on Maine Street to preview the upcoming Eggs and Issues Breakfast hosted by the Chamber. The event features the local legislative delegation and allows the public a chance to hear what their elected officials are looking to accomplish in the upcoming session.
Issue:
State Court Judgeship sought by local judge.
State Court Judgeship sought by local judge. Addressed:
Addressed:
Addressed: 8-minute program
Addressed: 8-minute program When:
Addressed: 8-minute program When: 12/12/2023 at 9:35a
Addressed: 8-minute program When: 12/12/2023 at 9:35a Description: Local Magistrate judge, Andy Maddox, joined the Martha Zoller Show to announce his candidacy for a
Addressed: 8-minute program When: 12/12/2023 at 9:35a Description: Local Magistrate judge, Andy Maddox, joined the Martha Zoller Show to announce his candidacy for a recently vacated State Court Judgeship.
Addressed: 8-minute program When: 12/12/2023 at 9:35a Description: Local Magistrate judge, Andy Maddox, joined the Martha Zoller Show to announce his candidacy for a recently vacated State Court Judgeship. Issue:
Addressed: 8-minute program When: 12/12/2023 at 9:35a Description: Local Magistrate judge, Andy Maddox, joined the Martha Zoller Show to announce his candidacy for a recently vacated State Court Judgeship. Issue: Upcoming Georgia General Assembly session

12/26/2023 at 9:35a

D
Desc	rıp	tioi	1

Local legislator, State Representative Lee Hawkins, joined the Martha Zoller show to discuss the upcoming session of the Georgia General Assembly.