

ISSUE	DATE	TIME AIRED	TITLE	GUEST	TIME	DESCRIPTION
Solar Eclipse - Education - For Fun -	10/04/23	8:45am	Backyard Astronomy	Gary Boyle	7:55 Min	Gary was in to talk about Astronomy. Gary was calling from Canada to talk about the upcoming partial eclipse that will take place on Saturday, October 14th. Gary had a lot of fun information about our universe and the good times to be looking towards the sky. Reminder: never look into the sun.
Fundraiser - senior help - age independently -	10/11/23	8:45am	Sip & Sample Autumn Stroll	Mary Wallace	3:55 Min	Mary was in the studio to talk to our listeners about this Saturdays 2 nd Annual My Glacier Village Sip and Sample Autumn Stroll from 1-5. In 2018 My Glacier Village started to help empower seniors who want to age independently by offering rides, grocery shopping and small around the house tasks. All they need to do is submit a work order. They have created a fundraiser to help raise awareness of the needs around the valley for our seniors and to help fund their mission. The Sip and Stroll is for everyone not just seniors. The Montana Trolley runs around downtown starting at the Freestone. Jump on the trolley and stop at all the stops for mini meals. Tickets are $50.
Military Ball - education - family fun - toys for tots - raffles	10/18/23	8:45am	Marine Corp Ball	Tim Norton	3:19 Min	Tim was in to talk about the upcoming 248th Marine Corp Ball, November 11 th at the Wachholz center. Tickets are available online for $85 a piece. Tickets come in tables of ten. There is only 400 tickets available. There will be dinner, dancing, door prizes, a toys for tots collection. Guest of Honor Sargent Major Troy Black - he is the highest active enlisted member of the military. He will be out and about meeting with local veterans.

ISSUE	DATE	TIME AIRED	TITLE	GUEST	TIME	DESCRIPTION
Childcare – Employers empowering employees	10/25/23	8:45am	Family Forward MT	Caitlin Jensen	4:35 Min	Caitlin, Executive Director of Zero to Five in Montana. Zero to Five is a State wide early education program. They work through community partnerships to help young families in Montana. Family Forward Montana was created to help support employers to make policies to help retain employees with young children. To get involved check them out online.
kids/teens – mental health – education – social media – help	11/08/23	8:45am	Protect Kids Online	Kristen Bride	8:00 Min	Mental health has skyrocketed for teens, some by 60%. The Council for Responsible Social Media is calling on congress to pass the Kids Online Safety Act, a bill that would establish responsible safeguards to protect children on social media. Kristen Bride was talking with our listeners about the project. Her son Carson was bullied online and took his life in 2020. Kristen is taking action to make social media accountable for keeping kids safe. For more information check them out online.
Donations – toys for Christmas – volunteering – happy holidays	11/15/23	8:45am	Toys for Tots	Kelly King	6:09 Min	Kelly was in the studio talking with Hammer about this years Toys for Tots giveaway. This year they have 220 boxes out. Pickup is December 11 and Distribution is December 13-15. They are expecting over 2,000 kids who are in need of toys this year. Donate a unwrapped toy for a kid through age 12. Volunteers are always needed. Check them out on their Facebook page for more information!

ISSUE	DATE	TIME AIRED	TITLE	GUEST	TIME	DESCRIPTION
Community Work – Veteran Care – Scholarships – youth care – Volunteering	11/22/23	8:45am	The Elks Club Kalispell	Elizabeth Wood	5:16 Min	Elizabeth and Hammer are talking about the Elks Club here in Kalispell. The Elks have be in Kalispell since 1901. They are a members only club but they encourage the public to become a member. The Elks have moved into downtown Kalispell. They are all excited to be in their new place. The Elks do a lot with the public including the the kids Hoop Shoot, a soccer shoot, they are huge on Scholarships and give a lot to the kids. They love our Veterans and help with their food bank and give them scholarships at FVCC and they work with the Vets home in Columbia Falls. For more information stop on by and talk to one of their members or check them out online
Donations – helping special needs – highest bidder wins it all – Holiday spirit	11/29/23	8:45am	4 th Annual Mann Mortgage Festival of Trees	Tonia Mann and Maddi Mann	3:30 Min	Tonia and Maddi are in talking to Hammer about the upcoming 4 th Annual Mann Mortgage Festival of Trees coming up this Friday, December 1st. They have 25 different trees that are decorated for their guests to bid on. This year proceeds go to benefit Michealas Miracle Blessing Foundation. They are a non profit that serves special needs children and adults better improve their lives and help with medical needs.

ISSUE	DATE	TIME AIRED	TITLE	GUEST	TIME	DESCRIPTION
Empowering Girls – Coding – Helping the Community – Free Program	12/06/23	8:45am	Code Girls United	Maryann Smith	8:38 Min	Founder and president Maryann Smith was in talking to Hammer about Code Girls United. A non profit free after school program for 4th - 8th grade girls with hands on work with coding, technology and business. Founded in 2016 in the basement of Sykes restaurant. Now busing the girls from 5 different schools to their own offices and classrooms at the Gateway Center. The girls pick a problem they want to solve with an app and then they have to create a business plan and a design. Then they create their app and compete in app competitions. All is done in a fun learning environment. They have also teamed up with the Kalispell Police Department to create an app for them.
Childcare – Employers empowering employees	12/13/23	8:45am	Family Forward MT	Caitlin Jensen	4:35 Min	(REPLAY) Caitlin, Executive Director of Zero to Five in Montana. Zero to Five is a State wide early education program. They work through community partnerships to help young families in Montana. Family Forward Montana was created to help support employers to make policies to help retain employees with young children. To get involved check them out online.
winter activities – ice – fish wildlife parks	12/20/23	8:45am	Fish Wildlife and Park	Dillon Tabish	4:45 Min	Dillon was on the phone with Mike talking about the upcoming events going on at Lone Pine Park. They invite you to join them for Snowshoeing 101, junior ranger to go kits are available, snake Saturday is alive and well, plus so much more. Dillon also talked a little about the ice conditions out there on our lakes. This year we have not had the ice we are used to so use caution. Minimum of 4 inches of ice is needed for ice fishing.

ISSUE	DATE	TIME AIRED	TITLE	GUEST	TIME	DESCRIPTION
No Programs	12/25- 12/31		Christmas Break			