

KSPC ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST
First Quarter 2021
From January 1, 2021 – March 31, 2021

Issues:

1. Trans Rights - A Missouri dad and a Washington daughter defend trans rights.
2. Black Voter Rights - Brown discusses Black electoral power as a tool towards empowering the African-American people and building towards the promise of democracy too long delayed and denied.
3. Digital Privacy - Birrell comments on the technology used in contact tracing apps for COVID-19 and how tech companies are attempting to ensure the protection of privacy and security rights.
4. Equal Wages - Women accounted for all 140,000 jobs lost in the US economy during December 2020.
5. LGBTQ Rights - President Biden orders federal LGBTQ job rights on his first day

Programs

Title: Building Bridges
Type: Public Affairs
Source: Pre-Recorded
Time Broadcast: 01/03/21, 9:19PM
Show Length: 29 mins

Description:

LaTosha Brown talks about how voters in Georgia are channeling their anger into energy in response to Trump's efforts to spread misinformation and fear, in the upcoming Senatorial runoff race to elect Democratic challengers, Raphael Warnock and Jon Ossoff. Black Voters Matter Funds LaTosha Brown says people plan to vote come heck or high water. Brown discusses Black electoral power as a tool towards empowering the African-American people and building towards the promise of democracy too long delayed and denied.

Title: This Way Out: The International Lesbian & Gay Radio Magazine
Type: Public Affairs
Source: Pre-Recorded
Time Broadcast: 01/05/21, 10AM
Show Length: 29 mins

Description:

From 1993: Deb Price's syndicated column changed attitudes back when printed newspapers actually did shape public opinion; two LGBTQ movement legends, Harry Hay and Jim Kepner, got together in 1975 to discuss the beginnings of what came to be called "queer theory" — listen through this "gay window"; capped by her live reading of a classic poem by Pat Parker!

Title: Sagecast - The Podcast of Pomona College

Type: Public Affairs

Source: Pre-Recorded

Time Broadcast: 01/06/21, 2PM

Show Length: 35 mins

Description:

In this episode, we chat with Associate Professor of Neuroscience Elizabeth Glater, a scholar whose research explores genetics and behavior. Glater gives us a glimpse of her research, which examines the ways the nervous system allows animals to generate behavioral responses to their environment. More specifically, Glater and her lab use the nematode C. elegans to investigate the genetic and neuronal basis of food choice behavior. She also shares about her students, the classes she teaches and her experience of shifting to online teaching in the spring. Hosted by: Mark Wood and Patty Vest Produced by: Jeff Hing

Title: This Way Out: The International Lesbian & Gay Radio Magazine

Type: Public Affairs

Source: Pre-Recorded

Time Broadcast: 01/12/21, 10AM

Show Length: 29 mins

Description:

Elegant words of note to start the new year: a pair of selections from the marathon Global Queer Read-In we presented online last June (produced by Brian DeShazor with Rebecca Drapkin) that speak to the theme of "Coming Out & Making It Real": Grammy-winning singer-songwriter and multi-instrumentalist Sophie B. Hawkins performs her own "Not Beating Around The Bush" and reads a selection from "Mrs. Dalloway" by Virginia Woolf; and Broadway star and community activist Anthony Wayne performs a selection from "Men Of The House: A B-Boy Blues Novel" by James Earl Hardy!

Title: Sagecast - The Podcast of Pomona College

Type: Public Affairs

Source: Pre-Recorded

Time Broadcast: 01/13/21, 2PM

Show Length: 27 mins

Description:

In this episode, Assistant Professor of Computer Science Eleanor Birrell joins us to talk about her research interests in security and data privacy. Birrell shares about her interest in design and development of systems for better managing sensitive data in the modern world and explains why the current system of notice and consent is inadequate to protecting our digital privacy. Finally, Birrell comments on the technology used in contact tracing apps for COVID-19 and how tech companies are attempting to ensure the protection of privacy and security rights.

Hosted by: Mark Wood and Patty Vest Produced by: Jeff Hing

Title: This Way Out: The International Lesbian & Gay Radio Magazine

Type: Public Affairs

Source: Pre-Recorded

Time Broadcast: 01/19/21, 10AM

Show Length: 29 mins

Description:

Queer teens get support to navigate the dating years; the loving culture of Margaret Mead and Ruth Benedict fills more than a "Rainbow Minute"; the U.S. political crisis features queer foes and justice fighters, an N.H.S. agency challenges the U.K. High Court trans teen treatment ruling, there's a gay "first" in Greece and two trans "firsts" in India, and "Global Citizen" Elton John gets another honor!

Title: Sagecast - The Podcast of Pomona College

Type: Public Affairs

Source: Pre-Recorded

Time Broadcast: 01/20/21, 2PM

Show Length: 53 mins

Description:

This week, we're joined by Professor of Psychological Science and Africana Studies Eric A. Hurley, whose research in cognitive development focuses on understanding and improving the social and educational outlook of African American and other minority children. Our conversation with Professor Hurley explores the power of cultural values in shaping students' educational experience and the importance of understanding those values in creating an educational environment in which they can thrive.

Title: This Way Out: The International Lesbian & Gay Radio Magazine

Type: Public Affairs

Source: Pre-Recorded

Time Broadcast: 01/26/21, 10AM

Show Length: 29 mins

Description:

A Black lesbian writer unmask childhood sexual abuse in "Love with Accountability"; one final words-and-music "salute" to the "Orange Menace"; Latvia legislates bias against queer families, LGBTQ Congress members activate Trump's impeachment, Biden's queer scorecard climbs, a Canadian Catholic school district pulls "porno" LGBTQ online resources, Israel eases legal gender change, and more global news!

Title: Sagecast - The Podcast of Pomona College

Type: Public Affairs

Source: Pre-Recorded

Time Broadcast: 01/27/21, 2PM

Show Length: 49 mins

Description:

This week, our guest is Pomona College Professor of Economics Gary Smith, who specializes in financial markets and debunking myths in statistical analysis. In this conversation, Professor Smith discusses, among other things, the real-world applications of economics that continue to fascinate him and his collaboration with alumnus Jay Cordes '93 on several books about misuses of "big data," including, most recently, The Phantom Pattern Problem.

Title: This Way Out: The International Lesbian & Gay Radio Magazine

Type: Public Affairs

Source: Pre-Recorded

Time Broadcast: 02/02/21, 10AM

Show Length: 29 mins

Description:

A Rainbow review of the Biden/Harris Inauguration; David Kato remembered as Musevini maintains power; President Biden orders federal LGBTQ job rights on his first day, Buttigieg "refreshes" Senators at his confirmation hearing, other Cabinet nominees support queer equality, a trans person is tapped for a first-ever federal post, Biden's White House website reflects gender diversity ... and oh, those Bernie mittens memes!

Title: Sagecast - The Podcast of Pomona College

Type: Public Affairs

Source: Pre-Recorded

Time Broadcast: 02/03/21, 2PM

Show Length: 50 mins

Description:

Assistant Professor of Music Gibb Schreffler joins us for this faculty episode of Sagecast. A first-generation college graduate, Schreffler shares insight about his journey from his youth punk rock scene to academia. As an ethnomusicologist, Schreffler focuses his research on historical work-songs of American maritime culture known as chanties, as well as the music and dance of South Asia's Punjab region. He gives us demonstrations of a work song, and also plays the tumbi, a traditional Punjabi instrument.

Title: TUC Radio
Type: Public Affairs
Source: Pre-Recorded
Time Broadcast: 02/07/21, 9:30PM
Show Length: 29 mins

Description:

The early history of the civil rights movement comes to life in this story of Fred Gray's life and education, as speaks for the first time in his life to a Republican audience - at least an audience that told him they were Republican. Fred Gray ends by saying that racism is still alive and even re—emerging in this country and makes an appeal to end it. He said this in 2009.

Title: This Way Out: The International Lesbian & Gay Radio Magazine
Type: Public Affairs
Source: Pre-Recorded
Time Broadcast: 02/09/21, 10AM
Show Length: 29 mins

Joe Biden liberates U.S. transgender troops; a “Rainbow Minute” chronicles how Dr. Tom Dooley won in Vietnam; Honduran lawmakers protect constitutional marriage inequality, Singapore activists fight anti-trans policies and a gay sex ban, Taiwan judges draft a policy to okay foreign queer marriages, gay men are caned for sex again in Aceh, the EuroCourt upholds rights of Romanian trans men, and honored Australians protest a homophobe’s top award!

Title: Sagecast - The Podcast of Pomona College
Type: Public Affairs
Source: Pre-Recorded
Time Broadcast: 02/10/21, 2PM
Show Length: 47 mins

Description:

In this episode, Professor of Mathematics Edray Goins takes us back to his childhood in South L.A. and shares how he became fascinated with science, first with physics and finally with mathematics. As a young Black mathematician, Goins didn’t have academic role models, thus he now dedicates his time to train and mentor minorities in college who will be the next generations of scientists and mathematicians. Goins, who specializes in number theory and algebraic theory, looks forward to teaching future classes at Pomona on how mathematics and statistics can inform public policy in order to tackle big issues such as the COVID-19 crisis.

Title: This Way Out: The International Lesbian & Gay Radio Magazine

Type: Public Affairs

Source: Pre-Recorded

Time Broadcast: 02/16/21, 10AM

Show Length: 29 mins

Description:

Buttigieg boards the Biden rights train; queer youth dress for more than success; the 19-year-old college kid with 2 moms who became an Iowa State Senator; Turkish students' rainbow protest raises Erdogan's ire, Japan is pressed on queer bias protections before the Olympics, Victoria enacts stiff penalties for queer cure quackery, German actors band together for a coming out manifesto. and country star T.J. Osborne exits the closet!

Title: Inside the Benton: The podcast of the Benton Museum of Art at Pomona College

Type: Public Affairs

Source: Pre-Recorded

Time Broadcast: 02/12/21, 2PM

Show Length: 39 mins

Description:

Discover how the Benton Museum of Art evolved into the institution it is today. In this episode, listeners will first hear from former museum director Kathleen Stewart Howe to learn about the museum's previous incarnation and the planning of the new Benton Museum of Art. Then the museum's current director, Victoria Sancho Lobis, reflects on her first year at the Benton and her vision for the future. Original music composed by Jake Turner.

Title: Sagecast - The Podcast of Pomona College

Type: Public Affairs

Source: Pre-Recorded

Time Broadcast: 02/17/21, 2PM

Show Length: 46 mins

Description:

In this week's episode, we're joined by Grammy Award-winner soprano Melissa Givens. An assistant professor of music at Pomona, Givens tells us about her original plans to study pre-med in college, how they changed, and what led her to pursue a professional and academic career in music.

Title: Inside the Benton: The podcast of the Benton Museum of Art at Pomona College

Type: Public Affairs

Source: Pre-Recorded

Time Broadcast: 02/19/21, 2PM

Show Length: 30 mins

Description:

Join host Hannah Avalos as she talks to current Pomona College student Sam Chan and former Pomona art history professor Frances K. Pohl about the Italian artist and visual poet Mirella Bentivoglio. Chan and Pohl describe their different encounters with the artist: Chan recently discovered her work through independent research, while Pohl had a long-standing personal relationship with the artist. The two reveal how Bentivoglio, featured in the exhibition In Our Care, created works that capture lived experience and critique issues like capitalism and feminism, all with wit and subtle humor. Original music composed by Jake Turner.

Title: This Way Out: The International Lesbian & Gay Radio Magazine

Type: Public Affairs

Source: Pre-Recorded

Time Broadcast: 02/23/21, 10AM

Show Length: 29 mins

Description:

A fond farewell to trans-gressive electronic music star Sophie; an Israel-American comedy-horror film is on the dinner menu; out Congressman David Cicilline condemns Trump's riot responsibility; gay Chechen refugees are abducted from their Russian "safe house", drag queens march for democracy in Myanmar, the U.S. Housing Department backs Biden's anti-bias vow, gay Navajo Arlando Teller joins Buttigieg's Transportation team, and New Zealand issues a "Progress" Pride stamp!

Title: Sagecast - The Podcast of Pomona College

Type: Public Affairs

Source: Pre-Recorded

Time Broadcast: 02/24/21, 2PM

Show Length: 48 mins

Description:

This week we're joined by Assistant Professor of History and Africana Studies Ousmane Traoré, whose research focuses on the history of imperialism and colonialism in Africa. Originally from Senegal, Traoré shares the story of how he once flew in the Senegalese President's airplane on his way to France for his undergraduate studies.

Title: Inside the Benton: The podcast of the Benton Museum of Art at Pomona College

Type: Public Affairs

Source: Pre-Recorded

Time Broadcast: 02/26/21, 2PM

Show Length: 28 mins

Description:

Within and Beyond Our Gallery Walls | Episode 3: Contemplating the Border with Susan

Harbage Page—To accompany the exhibition CrossBorder Photography: Images of the US and Mexico from the Permanent Collection, student co-curator Madeline Mount-Cors sits down with photographer Susan Harbage Page to discuss the evolution of the artist's practice as it relates to her personal experience and to her commitment to humanizing the narratives of cross-border migrants. Original music provided by Jake Turner, Class of 2021.

Title: This Way Out: The International Lesbian & Gay Radio Magazine

Type: Public Affairs

Source: Pre-Recorded

Time Broadcast: 03/02/21, 10AM

Show Length: 29 mins

Description:

The Inter-American Commission on Human Rights finds Jamaica's anti-gay male sex laws in violation of LGBTQ constitutional rights, two Russian lesbian mothers denied asylum in Finland are vindicated by the U.N. Committee on the Rights of the Child, ILGA-Europe's 10th Annual Review gives dire warnings, the Equality Act gets a new vote in the House but faces difficulty in the Senate, and 2020 reports tally shocking Brazilian transgender murders and skimpy reporting in the U.S. on anti-trans violence, and more international LGBTQ news reported this week by Melanie Keller and Michael Taylor Gray (produced by Brian DeShazor).

Title: Sagecast - The Podcast of Pomona College

Type: Public Affairs

Source: Pre-Recorded

Time Broadcast: 03/03/21, 2PM

Show Length: 49 mins

Description:

This week, we welcome Visiting Professor of Anthropology Arlen Chase, who specializes in Mesoamerican archeology. Our conversation with Professor Chase ranges from the origins of his love of archeology in general and of Mayan culture in particular to his groundbreaking fieldwork in a site in Belize known as Caracol. He also discusses his trailblazing use of a technology known as LiDAR, which has transformed the field of archeology.

Title: Building Bridges

Type: Public Affairs

Source: Pre-Recorded

Time Broadcast: 03/07/21, 9:31PM

Show Length: 29 mins

Description:

"SHE" Deserves More: Women in the Low-Wage Workforce During the Pandemic with

Shailly Gupta Barnes, Policy Director at the Kairos Center. She coordinated and edited Souls of Poor Folk: Auditing America report for the Poor People's Campaign: A National Call for Moral Revival

"I was making $5/h... and got laid off around the start of the pandemic. They told me they didn't need me anymore because of the coronavirus. Our work has always been undervalued, underpaid and our rights have been unprotected." Sheree Allen, organizer, leader of the Fight for $15 and North Carolina Raise Up

Women accounted for all 140,000 jobs lost in the US economy during December 2020. Women are disproportionately represented among the low-wage workforce (64% with most paid less than $12/hour) and women of color have been especially hard hit during the pandemic (67.1% of Latina and 53.6% of Black women lost employment income since March

Title: Inside the Benton: The podcast of the Benton Museum of Art at Pomona College

Type: Public Affairs

Source: Pre-Recorded

Time Broadcast: 03/05/21, 2PM

Show Length: 30 mins

Description:

Listen in as podcast host Hannah Avalos chats with the Pomona College team who brought about CrossBorderPhotography: Images of the US and Mexico from the Permanent Collection: students Madeleine Mount-Cors, Maelvi Nuñez, and Grace Sartin, and Professor Rosalía Romero. They all discuss the underlying goals and urgency of this exhibition in addition to reflecting on the curatorial process.

Title: This Way Out: The International Lesbian & Gay Radio Magazine

Type: Public Affairs

Source: Pre-Recorded

Time Broadcast: 03/09/21, 10AM

Show Length: 29 mins

Description:

The U.S. House of Representatives embraces equality (featuring comments by lawmakers Marie Newman, Marjorie Taylor-Greene, Rand Paul, Patty Murray, Sheila Jackson Lee, Mike Johnson, Vicky Hartzler, Andy Biggs, Chuck Schumer, Pramila Jayapal, Mark Takano, David Cicilline, Virginia Foxx, Nancy Pelosi, and Mondaire Jones, plus Dr. Rachel Levine, and with music by Sean Chapin); a Malaysian man beats an anti-gay state Islamic law in the nation's top court, India's government says queer couples aren't "family", while Thailand's government stalls on a Civil Partnership Bill, and popular Ghana D.J. Wanlove dares the government to arrest him for his queer support!

Title: Sagecast - The Podcast of Pomona College

Type: Public Affairs

Source: Pre-Recorded

Time Broadcast: 03/10/21, 2PM

Show Length: 60 mins

Description:

This week, we're talking with Pomona College Professor of Religious Studies Zhiru Ng, who specializes in Eastern religions. Our conversation with Professor Ng ranges from her childhood in Singapore and the importance—and burden—of filial piety in Chinese culture to the concept of emptiness, the stages of meditation and the power of Buddhist thought as a way of relating to the world.

Title: Inside the Benton: The podcast of the Benton Museum of Art at Pomona College

Type: Public Affairs

Source: Pre-Recorded

Time Broadcast: 03/12/21, 2PM

Show Length: 40 mins

Description:

Join host Hannah Avalos as she discusses the Benton's holdings of Cahuilla basketry with Pomona College student Kali Tindell-Griffin and Indigenous scholar Dr. Meranda Roberts. Learn about the importance of listening to Indigenous voices as we reckon with the past and imagine a more just and inclusive future. Original music provided by Jake Turner, Class of 2021.

Title: Building Bridges

Type: Public Affairs

Source: Pre-Recorded

Time Broadcast: 03/14/21, 9:30PM

Show Length: 29 mins

Description:

Now we celebrate International Working Women's Day and Women's History Month from 1911 to 2021 " from The Triangle Shirtwaist Fire of 1911 which led to International Women's Day our first stop is the protest to demand "Stop Liox/Wash Supply's union-busting campaign against immigrant laundry workers."

The protesters also seek to highlight working-class solidarity, from NYC's laundry workers and the Hunts Point market workers in the Bronx, who inspired with their January strike -- to Bessemer, Alabama, where Amazon workers, largely African American women, are fighting to unionize.

My picket sign in hand on which is written From 1911 to 2021 by CUNY adjuncts to publicize support for the fired woman workers well join the women laundry workers and then march past Amazon-owned Whole Foods, to show solidarity with Amazon workers, and then to the site of the Triangle Shirtwaist Fire - From 1911 to 2021.

Title: This Way Out: The International Lesbian & Gay Radio Magazine

Type: Public Affairs

Source: Pre-Recorded

Time Broadcast: 03/16/21, 10AM

Show Length: 29 mins

Description:

Quarantined queer music-makers create "Sunday, Someday"; current U.S. state lawmaker attacks on LGBTQ rights recall North Carolina's fiasco; a "Rainbow Minute" goes "Over the Rainbow"; Rachel's show wins cable TV's rating wars; queer parents are welcomed by the largest evangelical adoption agency based in the U.S., Polish women are acquitted of "rainbow Mary" charges, and Mexican beach-goers rescue gay kissers from Quintana Roo cops!

Title: Sagecast - The Podcast of Pomona College

Type: Public Affairs

Source: Pre-Recorded

Time Broadcast: 03/17/21, 2PM

Show Length: 45 mins

Description:

This week, we welcome Associate Professor of History Pey-Yi Chu, a historian of Russia and the former Soviet Union, who discusses her research aimed at understanding the environment through the history of science and technology, with a special focus on the history of the frozen tundra known as permafrost.

Title: Inside the Benton: The podcast of the Benton Museum of Art at Pomona College

Type: Public Affairs

Source: Pre-Recorded

Time Broadcast: 03/19/21, 2PM

Show Length: 28 mins

Description:

Alia Ali: Project Series 53—Benton intern Mei Ge interviews the artist Alia Ali on the occasion of Ali's Project Series exhibition. The two talk about the artist's goals and intentions as well as the process of putting together the multimedia installation.

Title: This Way Out: The International Lesbian & Gay Radio Magazine

Type: Public Affairs

Source: Pre-Recorded

Time Broadcast: 03/23/21, 10AM

Show Length: 29 mins

Description:

Queer youth calculate “Rainbow Capitalism”; remembering the first since 1991 LGBTQ-inclusive New York City St. Patrick’s Day Parade 5 years ago this week; Ted Cruz clouds Vanita Gupta confirmation hearings with an anti-equality ploy; a “no promo homo” bill is promoted in Ghana, anti-cult Nigerian cops nab “suspected gay party” guests, new adoption laws threaten queer Panamanian and Polish parents, and Sydney’s COVID-safe Mardi Gras celebration eggs on thugs!

Title: Sagecast - The Podcast of Pomona College

Type: Public Affairs

Source: Pre-Recorded

Time Broadcast: 03/24/21, 2PM

Show Length: 50 mins

Description:

This week we're joined by Henry E. Sheffield Professor of History, Sam Yamashita. A longtime Pomona College professor, Yamashita shares about his early childhood passion for baseball growing up in Hawaii. A Confucian specialist with mastery of both classical Chinese and classical Japanese, Samuel Yamashita has written extensively about early modern and modern Japanese intellectual and cultural history, focusing most recently on Japan during World War II and Japanese and fusion cuisine. In addition to his ongoing research in these areas, Yamashita is also writing a history of Japanese food from prehistory to the present and exploring Pacific Rim fusion cuisine as a transnational culinary phenomenon.

Title: Inside the Benton: The podcast of the Benton Museum of Art at Pomona College

Type: Public Affairs

Source: Pre-Recorded

Time Broadcast: 03/26/21, 2PM

Show Length: 30 mins

Description:

Inside the Benton host Hannah Avalos as she explores the making of the current exhibition Alison Saar: Of Aether and Earthe with both the artist and Benton curator Rebecca McGrew.

Title: This Way Out: The International Lesbian & Gay Radio Magazine

Type: Public Affairs

Source: Pre-Recorded

Time Broadcast: 03/30/21, 10AM

Show Length: 29 mins

Description:

A Missouri dad and a Washington daughter defend trans rights; queer Grammy wins break records; the Vatican nixes same-gender blessings, a Japanese district court rules for marriage equality, a Tunisian queer democracy activist is arrested, a transwoman anchor makes news in Bangladesh, and Maddow's Spoken Word blows out the Grammys!

Title: Sagecast - The Podcast of Pomona College

Type: Public Affairs

Source: Pre-Recorded

Time Broadcast: 03/31/21, 2PM

Show Length: 46 mins

Description:

Assistant Professor of Politics Tom Le joins us to kick off Season 4 of the Pomona College Sagecast. His research areas include Japanese security policy, the U.S.-Japan alliance, war memory and reconciliation, militarism norms, military and security balance in East Asia and East Asia regionalism. Among his areas of expertise: constraints and restraints on Japanese militarism and Japan-South Korea relations. His current work includes examinations of the impact of population demographics and technology on security and antinuclear movements and the environment. In addition to his research, Le also talks to us about his first-generation college experience and why it's important to have mentors. Finally, he talks about Kobe Bryant's death and why the impact was felt by such a broad spectrum of people.