ISSUE:

How are state representatives addressing the pay gap between men and women?

Discussion of Issue:

The national trend of women earning less than men has gained attention at the local level. The Colorado State representatives are working to create and pass a bill to provide equal pay for women.

Programming: KTSC-FM addressed this issue through several different kinds of programs, including public affairs discussions, news stories, and PSA'S. The following are illustrative examples of such programming:

- a. T-Wolf Talk 04/12/15 8:30 a.m. – 8:58 a.m.
Colorado State House of Representatives Daneya Esgar discussed the Colorado State legislature and the new bill to grant equal pay for women. She explained how there are differences in pay between men and women and what Senators and Representatives are doing to try and bridge the gap in pay between genders in the State of Colorado and at the Capitol level in Washington, D.C. (Local).
