COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

As a member of the community we serve, we consciously choose to participate in community endeavors that will improve the community we live in and improve the quality of life for those living in this shared community.

The Great Food Drive is Underway

TEGNA station and website launches 15th annual drive to feed hungry families

PORTLAND, OR — The fourteenth annual KGW Great Food Drive is underway for the month of March. The KGW Great Food Drive is a major public service campaign that addresses hunger issues in communities throughout Oregon and southwest Washington. The goal is to collect enough food and cash to provide more than 800,000 pounds of food for local area residents.

Throughout the month, KGW, Tillamook, Rivermark Community Credit Union, and local Toyota Dealers will strive to help supply Oregon Food Bank Network with essential food to be distributed to its network of 21 regional food banks and more than 970 hunger-relief agencies across Oregon and Clark County, Washington. Donations can be made in several ways:

- Purchase Tillamook dairy products. Tillamook will donate a portion of proceeds from any Tillamook dairy product purchased during the month of March in Oregon and Clark County, Washington.
- Donate 10 or more cans of food at any participating local Toyota dealership and receive $10 off a parts or service visit.
- Make a cash or food donation at any participating Rivermark Community Credit Union.
- Make a cash donation at participating Safeway stores
- Donate funds online. Visit www.kgw.com/food for complete details.

“Hunger remains a troubling issue in our community,” said DJ Wilson, KGW president and general manager. “The cost of living has outpaced the ability of many working families to make ends meet and feed their children. We are grateful for the continuing commitment from our corporate partners who join with us each year to make this a top priority in their community work.”

“As a farmer-owned co-op, at Tillamook we believe that everyone deserves to have access to real, wholesome food to feed themselves and their families. Both the farmers and the employees of our 108-year-old Oregon business are fully committed to fighting hunger and addressing its causes. We are proud to be the presenting sponsor of the KGW Great Food Drive for the 11th year in a row. Your help is needed now more than ever, so please join us by donating to the Great Food Drive,” said Patrick Criteser, president and CEO of the Tillamook County Creamery Association.

“We recognize that many Oregonians do not have access to a sufficient quantity of affordable and nutritious food,” said Scott Burgess, President and CEO of Rivermark Community Credit Union. Rivermark is proud to support the KGW Great Food Drive which helps address one of the region’s most pressing social issues. You can help make a difference by donating cash or food items at any participating Rivermark branch.”

“Toyota and its dealers feel honored to be able to give back to the community. This year, our goal is 1 Million pounds so we are inviting you to get involved, too. During the month of March, donation bins will be located at all 14 participating Toyota dealer sites. Your donation will be making a difference for your local community,” said Russ Humberston, Pacific Northwest Toyota Dealer Association president.

About the Oregon Food Bank Network

Oregon Food Bank’s mission is to eliminate hunger and its root causes...because no one should be hungry. With sufficient public will and support of the entire community, we believe it is possible to eliminate hunger and its root causes. Oregon Food Bank collects and distributes food through a network of four OFB branches and 17 regional food banks serving Oregon and Clark County, Washington. The OFB Network helps nearly 1 in 5 households fend off hunger. OFB also leads statewide efforts to increase resources for hungry families and to eliminate the root causes of hunger through advocacy, nutrition education and helping communities strengthen local food systems.
