3rd Quarter 2016

October 10, 2016

ISSUES

WQUD-FM addresses issues of concern to our local community on a daily basis, live on the air, with programming and public service announcements and free promotions for non-profit events. Issues that we faced in the third quarter of 2016 were as follows:

Agriculture: Interviews with Ag industry leaders, daily moisture reports from 6 local communities via listeners when it rains or snows, and a farm and market report every weekday, three times during the AM drive daypart and twice during the PM drive daypart.

Arts and Entertainment: WQUD promotes local country and rock artists by playing “Local Licks” in the programming and invites musical guests to play live in studio. There is also a pre-recorded “Entertainment Calendar” that runs at least once per day part on Thursday-Sunday of every week.

Community: WQUD reads a “Community Calendar” live on the air three times every weekday that includes non-profit organization events, public service announcements, and benefits. WQUD also donates to charities with various events every year and an ongoing aluminum can drive that sends proceeds to a different local charity roughly once a month.

Economy: WQUD tackles local economy issues with discussions on local news and interviews with some industry leaders.

Education: Quality education for our children is of the utmost importance

Environment: WQUD helps in protecting our environment with promotions and information for non-profit organizations helping the environment like Living Lands and Waters, and reporting on environmental issues from flooding to future development via news and interviews.

Family Issues: Healthy and happy families are vital parts of our community.

Local Government: Elections, board and city votes, and concerns with our schools are amongst the many topics we cover with local news every weekday and consistent interviews with sheriffs and local politicians.

Mental Health: Good mental health is vital to a vibrant community and WQUD provides information to people to feel confident they know what they should about our local community.

Public Welfare: Food pantries are always a big need and information on where and when people can get food is regularly shared on the station and the station's social media outlets.

Science and Technology: A focus on the future is regular discussion during interviews with industry leaders on the AM drive program and advances in space, launches, technologies, and space station sightings are highlighted on our live show from 6-10 pm.

Tourism: WQUD promotes people getting out into the Quad Cities

Traffic: Bridge and metro traffic can bring people to a standstill and four AM drive traffic reports and five PM drive traffic reports are a regular part of weekday programming.

PROGRAMS

Local Section:

This section lists regular segments on full-time live programming and special interviews and programs that detail the station's local issue involvement and the ability to provide Quad Citians with first hand accounts from industry leaders, politicians, and public service workers like police and firefighters. WQUD treats local issues and the people facing them as a priority and here are some of those for this quarter.

A.D. in the Morning is on from 6-10 am every weekday morning and features national news on the top of the hour (7, 8, 9 am) and local news at the bottom of the hour (730, 830, 930 am) . It's a hybrid news talk and music show that includes segments featuring local musicians, farm and market report, and traffic during the 7 and 8 o'clock hours. Breaking news, emergency declarations, and the latest from our local municipalities are also featured.

Community interviews covering local topics and issues included:

- Illinois District 71 Representative candidate Tony McCombie
- Whiteside County Deputy John Booker and a monthly chat about the Crimestoppers program

Public Service Announcements

WQUD strives to help as many organizations as it can with live PSAs, live interviews, recorded ads, and social media posts that promote their events or promotional awareness of the particular organization.

The Community Calendar:

The Community Calendar is read live on WQUD every weekday during the AM Drive (approx. 920 am), PM Drive (approx.. 420 pm), and Evening (approx.. 840 pm) dayparts and it is comprised of community events, non-profit fundraisers and benefits, and ways to help the community out from blood donations to food bank locations. The Community Calendar has been a staple for our station since it began and continues to grow and length and awareness amongst our listeners and beyond.

In this quarter, the community calendar provided live PSAs, running around 10 sec each, three times every weekday for the following charities, organizations, and municipalities during times they had scheduled events or awareness promotion. Not all events on the calendar during the quarter are listed.
