Quarterly Issue/Program List
Community Events & Specials
4th Quarter 2019

Events and Organizations included:

Superhero Saturday – Batwoman Launch

CW Iowa 23 handed out superhero swag to fans and customers at Jay's CD & Hobby in Des Moines, to celebrate the launch of show 'Batwoman.' October 5th, Iowa Live hosts were there to take photos with fans in the "super" sized hero photobooth area. In addition to getting Batwoman tote bags, frisbees, comic books and other swag for free, customers also received a store discount on everything superhero.

Trick or Treat Night

Each year CW Iowa 23 joins with Homemakers Furniture to offer the community a warm and safe environment for children to go Trick or Treating. This free event took place on Thursday, October 24th. Jackie Schmillen helped host the event, dressing as Batwoman.

Halloween Zoo Brew

Like Zoo Brew, Halloween Zoo Brew took place at the Blank Park Zoo, offering adults 21 and over a unique zoo experience. This specific event, Friday, October 11th, carried a Halloween twist. Lou Sipolt and Jackie Schmillen hosted the fun event.

Free Pictures with Santa

Each year Homemakers Furniture in Urbandale and media sponsor CW Iowa 23 offer area children the opportunity to meet and take a picture with Santa for free. Again, this year, Jackie Schmillen helped host the event. The event took place on November 9th & 10th.

Public Service Announcements (PSAs)

CW Iowa 23 partnered with the Ad Council and the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration in their Project Roadblock Buzzed Driving is Drunk Driving Campaign. The last week in December, CW Iowa 23 aired several PSAs encouraging viewers to drive sober or get a ride home.

CW Iowa 23 joined with the Iowa Broadcasters Association in their National Guard and Wildwood Hills Ranch Campaigns. These announcements educated viewers on the value of being a member of the National Guard as well as the help that is available for youth.
