Re: Children's Television Act Certification

Dear Affiliate:

This letter is intended to assist you in satisfying your obligations under the Children's Television Act of 1990 (the "CTA") and the Federal Communications Commission ("FCC") regulations relating thereto in connection with your carriage of our video programming service CBeebies Hispanic.

BBC Worldwide Limited hereby certifies that the list attached hereto as Exhibit A identifies all children's programs (as defined in the CTA) aired by CBeebies Hispanic during the Third Quarter of Year 2015.

As a standard practice, we formatted and aired each of the children's programs identified below so that the total commercial time (including local ad avails, promos for non-educational programs and adjacent ads running before or after the program within the same clock hour), if any, did not exceed 10.5 minutes per hour on weekends, and 12 minutes per hour on weekdays in compliance with the CTA and the FCC rules and regulations.

None of the following programs included any commercial spots (including local ad avails, promos for non-educational programs and adjacent ads running before or after the program within the same clock hour) that contained references to, characters or actors from, or that offered products related to, the underlying program.

We trust that this enables you to satisfy your obligations under the CTA in connection with your carriage of CBeebies Hispanic.

Please forward this letter (or copies) to any other appropriate individual(s) in your organization. As always, we appreciate your support.

Sincerely,

By:

Dear Affiliate:

As of January 1, 1992, the Federal Communications Commission's rules ("FCC Rules") implementing the Children's Television Act of 1990 ("Act") require cable operators to maintain certain records regarding their compliance with advertising limits imposed on children's television programming.
