	Subject:	Description of Issue of Concern
July 2nd July 3rd	-Create Your Dream Home Art Contest for Kids -Cristo Rey St. Viator College Preparatory High School -Affordable Senior Housing -Nevada Prison Education Project	- Local youth are invited to create their "dream home" from a box for a chance to win electronics, gift cards, school supplies and more. Local moving company Move 4 Less is sponsoring the Create Your Dream Home Art Contest. The only rule is for kids to let their imaginations run wild in decorating or making a box – a minimum of 18" wide – into their desired home. - Cristo Rey St. Viator College Preparatory High School, which opened in North Las Vegas three years ago, kicked off a summer campaign to solicit new business partners for the school's innovative corporate work-study program. - Ovation Design & Development, a local multi-family housing developer, held the grand opening of Arioso, a 195-unit affordable rental community for qualified low-income seniors in the southwest Las Vegas valley. - CSN had their graduation and Kesha Westbrooks is one of the student commencement speakers. She is a proud graduate now going into social work, and the Nevada Prison Program had positive impact on helping her finish her degree. She now also works with the Nevada Prison Education Project.
July 9th July 10th	-Vote Vets -LGBTQ Center of Southern Nevada -NPHY Nevada Partnership for Homeless Youth	- Major General Paul Eaton, United States Army (retired) discussed President Joe Biden's Middle East trip on July 13-16, and one of the most critical issues that will be addressed during the visit, the work to complete an international deal to limit Iran's nuclear program. - The LGBTQ Center of Southern Nevada held a pirate-themed back-to-school fair on Saturday, July 16 with costumed characters dressed as pirates, treasure maps leading the way to 1000 backpacks and school supplies, and community partners offering access to essential resources. - The nonprofit Nevada Partnership for Homeless Youth (NPHY) launched its inaugural NPHY Education Drive to provide homeless youth with the support they need in order to thrive in school, while providing funding for activities and education necessities throughout the school year.

July 16th July 17th	-Battle for Vegas Charity Ballgame -YMCA of Southern Nevada Health Fair -1 October Memorial -Suicide Prevention Lifeline 988	- The Battle for Vegas allows fans to watch their favorite sports stars in action as the teams “battle” it out for Las Vegas’ ultimate bragging rights, all for a good cause. The softball showdown features two all-star teams of professional athletes, led by Reilly Smith of the Vegas Golden Knights and his teammates against friends from the Las Vegas Raiders. - SilverSummit Healthplan and the YMCA of Southern Nevada hosted a free Back-to-School Community Health Fair & Pool Party at the Durango Hills YMCA. Free to community members of all ages, the event featured several raffle prizes and giveaways including backpacks and school supplies, bicycles, gas cards, baby cribs and more. - As part of an extensive effort to create a lasting 1 October memorial, Clark County officials and the 1 October Memorial Committee kicked off calls for the public and professionals to submit ideas for a memorial to remember the victims of the incident, honor the survivors and first responders and everyday heroes who inspired the nation with their bravery, and recognize the resiliency and compassion of our community. - Renowned mental health expert Dr. Christine Moutier talks about the launch of the new 988 Suicide Prevention Lifeline.

	-Cactus Elementary	- Earth Day marks the start of the environmental movement in 1970, and for the past 52 years has resulted in policy change and a greater awareness of the environment. - Cactus Elementary is an innovative new free public charter school that offers students a curriculum centered around mental health, social identity, academic excellence and civic engagement, including an on-campus farm, food pantry, cactus garden and more.
July 30th July 31st	-Junior Achievement of Southern Nevada -Education Loans -NeighborWorks America	- JA Worldwide was nominated for the 2022 Nobel Peace Prize. As one of the world’s largest youth-serving non-government organizations, JA Worldwide has been preparing young people for employment and entrepreneurship in over 100 countries for more than 100 years. Junior Achievement of Southern Nevada, a member of the global JA network, has been delivering hands-on experiential learning in work readiness, financial literacy, and entrepreneurship to K-12 youth throughout the region since 1996. - Parents and students have a lot on their plate when it comes to getting ready for college. Now that many students are heading back to campus this fall families may be looking for ways to handle rising costs and living expenses. SoFi, the digital personal finance company, offers competitive private student loans to help families pay for the cost of education. - While Americans cope with record inflation, concerns about a recession, and the ongoing impact of the pandemic, roughly a third of Americans are looking for a new place to live, and more are increasingly interested in owning their own homes, according to a new survey from NeighborWorks America.
Aug 6th Aug 7th	-National Nonprofit Awareness Day	- Black Pearl Promotions invites the community to come out and help recognize and raise awareness for the many local nonprofit organizations in Southern Nevada that have a positive effect on the community in which we live. This event is designed to give nonprofits (large and small) an opportunity to come together in one place, at the same time,

	-Malaria No More	and connect with the public while at the same time celebrating their contributions to the community. - Rising temperatures, changing rainfall patterns, and extreme weather events are complicating efforts to eliminate malaria. About 8.4 billion people – or almost 90 percent of the projected global population – could be exposed to malaria or dengue fever by 2080 if greenhouse gas emissions continue to surge, according to a recent study published in The Lancet Planetary Health. North America is included in that risk area, as the report predicts a potential “northward shift” of both the malaria and dengue-epidemic belts.
Aug 13th Aug 14th	-Boys & Girls Clubs of Southern Nevada -EDF Action -Boulder City Lions Club	- Ross Stores, Inc. partnered to help Boys & Girls Clubs of America with a three-week point-of-purchase program called, “Help Local Kids Learn,” which supports the nonprofit organization’s Power Hour homework program for Club members. - A new agreement in the Senate, the Inflation Reduction Act of 2022, could deliver lower energy costs, healthier communities, and significant progress in the fight against climate change. - Boulder City Lions Club is holding their 26th Annual Charity Golf Tournament in November, to support helping people with vision and hearing needs.
Aug 20th Aug 21st	-Nevada Donor Network Transplant Games -National Nonprofit Awareness Day	- Nevada Donor Network’s (NDN) Team Nevada returned after a successful showing at the 2022 Donate Life Transplant Games of America including winning 22 gold medals, five silver medals and seven bronze medals. - Participants and leaders from various non-profits talk about their organizations and how they give back to the community at a live event.
Aug 27th Aug 28th	-CSN School Start	- Starting this fall semester students will have even more opportunities at the College of Southern Nevada as the college is offering six new programs. Those programs include two Bachelor’s of Applied Science, one in Environmental Conservation and one in Environmental Lab Sciences, two associates of arts in Computer Science and in Cloud Systems Administration and

	-Made in Vegas Art Competition -Collaboration Center Foundation	two certificates of achievement, one in Advanced Manufacturing and one in Computer Science. - Hundreds of submissions were received for the second annual art competition, with local artists competing for the chance to be offered a year-long contract with the world's largest art dealer and the opportunity to display their winning works inside the Park West Fine Art Museum & Gallery on the Las Vegas Strip. - Celebrate the beauty of a night under the stars while giving back at the 2nd Annual Night en Blanc gala to benefit the Collaboration Center Foundation (CCF) and the organization's campus and program expansion designed to serve all individuals with unique abilities and disabilities.

Time: 5:00 am, 6:00 am, 6:30 am, 7:30am

Duration: “20 minutes of a 60-minute program”

Cristo Rey St. Viator College Preparatory High School, which opened in North Las Vegas three years ago, has kicked off a summer campaign to solicit new business partners for the school’s innovative corporate work-study program. The program is unique for a school in that it allows for students to gain real-world work experience while also taking on rigorous college preparatory curriculum. The school, which mostly is comprised of students of families with limited economic means, has many quality business partners that pay fees for the entry level student workforce throughout the school year.

Issue: VoteVets

Show: Audacy Radio Public Affairs Program

Date: Saturday, July 9th and Sunday, July 10th, 2022

Time: 5:00 am, 6:00 am, 6:30 am, 7:30am

Duration: “20 minutes of a 60-minute program”

Major General Paul Eaton, United States Army (retired) discussed President Joe Biden’s Middle East trip on July 13-16, and one of the most critical issues that will be addressed during the visit, the work to complete an international deal to limit Iran’s nuclear program. Iran is making major strides towards producing nuclear weapons. A deal would help block the path to a bomb, but hesitation from Tehran and political fighting on Capitol Hill has kept the deal’s fate in limbo.

Issue: LGBTQ Center of Southern Nevada

Show: Audacy Radio Public Affairs Program

Date: Saturday, July 9th and Sunday, July 10th, 2022

Time: 5:00 am, 6:00 am, 6:30 am, 7:30am

Duration: “15 minutes of a 60-minute program”

The LGBTQ Center of Southern Nevada held a pirate-themed back-to-school fair on Saturday, July 16 with costumed characters dressed as pirates, treasure maps leading the way to 1000 backpacks and school supplies, and community partners offering access to essential resources. The Center supports a diverse and inclusive community, including the vulnerable population living in the neighborhood. They plan to serve 1000 students thanks to the support of Healthplan of Nevada, Molina Healthcare, SilverSummit Healthplan and UNLV School of Public Health.

Issue: NPHY Nevada Partnership for Homeless Youth

Show: Audacy Radio Public Affairs Program

Date: Saturday, July 9th and Sunday, July 10th, 2022

Time: 5:00 am, 6:00 am, 6:30 am, 7:30am

Duration: “15 minutes of a 60-minute program”

Last year, there were over 10,000 youth experiencing homelessness enrolled in the Clark County School District. These young people don’t experience the excitement of back-to-school shopping, and most don’t have the opportunity to play sports or partake in extracurricular or graduation activities due to the costs of these traditional rites of passage. To change this and provide these youth with the support they need in order to thrive in school, while providing funding for activities and education necessities throughout the school year, the nonprofit Nevada Partnership for Homeless Youth (NPHY) has launched its inaugural NPHY Education Drive.

Issue: Battle for Vegas Charity Ballgame

Show: Audacy Radio Public Affairs Program

Date: Saturday, July 16th and Sunday, July 17th, 2022

Free to community members of all ages, the event featured several raffle prizes and giveaways including backpacks and school supplies, bicycles, gas cards, baby cribs and more, plus entertainment, food trucks, activities and games for children, and access to the YMCA’s water park. Several health agencies and nonprofit organizations were on hand to provide services and resources as well.

Issue: 1 October Memorial

Show: Audacy Radio Public Affairs Program

Date: Saturday, July 16th and Sunday, July 17th, 2022

Time: 5:00 am, 6:00 am, 6:30 am, 7:30am

Duration: “15 minutes of a 60-minute program”

As part of an extensive effort to create a lasting 1 October memorial, Clark County officials and the 1 October Memorial Committee are kicking off calls for the public and professionals to submit ideas for the project. The goal of the memorial is to remember the victims of the incident, honor the survivors and first responders and everyday heroes who inspired the nation with their bravery, and recognize the resiliency and compassion of our community. This outreach effort is the first phase of an 18-month process that will result in the committee making a formal recommendation to the County Commission for a project in September 2023 to coincide with the 6th remembrance of the shooting that occurred on Oct. 1, 2017.

Time: 5:00 am, 6:00 am, 6:30 am, 7:30am

Duration: "10 minutes of a 60-minute program"

While Americans cope with record inflation, concerns about a recession, and the ongoing impact of the pandemic, roughly a third of Americans are looking for a new place to live, and more are increasingly interested in owning their own homes, according to a new survey from NeighborWorks America. Many of those surveyed say they're concerned about making their money last and are unprepared to weather significant financial emergencies. And despite high interest, Black and Hispanic or Latinx non-homeowners say they are facing financial challenges on the road to homeownership. According to the NeighborWorks survey, people are interested in, and have a need for, guidance and information to help move toward homeownership.

Issue: Malaria No More

Show: Audacy Radio Public Affairs Program

Time: 5:00 am, 6:00 am, 6:30 am, 7:30am

Duration: "20 minutes of a 60-minute program"

Rising temperatures, changing rainfall patterns, and extreme weather events are complicating efforts to eliminate malaria. About 8.4 billion people – or almost 90 percent of the projected global population – could be exposed to malaria or dengue fever by 2080 if greenhouse gas emissions continue to surge, according to a recent study published in The Lancet Planetary Health. North America is included in that risk area, as the report predicts a potential "northward shift" of both the malaria and dengue-epidemic belts. This year's UN-climate report projects vector-borne diseases in Africa, such as malaria and dengue, may double by 2050, and triple by 2080, due to global warming. The same report projects those at risk of malaria infection could increase by 134 million by 2030 in South Asia alone.

Issue: Boys & Girls Clubs of Southern Nevada

Show: Audacy Radio Public Affairs Program

Date: Saturday, August 16th and Sunday, August 17th, 2022

Time: 5:00 am, 6:00 am, 6:30 am, 7:30am

Duration: "20 minutes of a 60-minute program"

Every year, nearly four million young people are served by Boys & Girls Clubs. To show continued support in preparing today's youth for a brighter tomorrow, Ross Stores, Inc. is again partnering to help Boys & Girls Clubs of America with a three-week point-of-purchase program called, "Help Local Kids Learn," which supports the nonprofit organization's Power Hour homework program for Club members.

Issue: EDF Action

Show: Audacy Radio Public Affairs Program

Date: Saturday, August 16th and Sunday, August 17th, 2022

Time: 5:00 am, 6:00 am, 6:30 am, 7:30am

Duration: "20 minutes of a 60-minute program"

A new agreement in the Senate, the Inflation Reduction Act of 2022, could deliver lower energy costs, healthier communities, and significant progress in the fight against climate change. The agreement comes not a moment too soon, with rising inflation and extreme weather disrupting people's lives. The most immediate effect of the bill will be to accelerate the growth of wind turbine, solar panel, and electric vehicle production in the U.S. which will help U.S. businesses be more competitive on the world stage while creating good jobs. Currently, Nevada ranks 29th in the nation for clean energy jobs.

StartUpNV launched AngelNV in 2020 to foster an angel investment network for Nevada-based startups and attract to the state scalable startup businesses and entrepreneurs with big ideas to build a more diversified and resilient economy. Operated by StartUpNV, a statewide nonprofit incubator and accelerator for Nevada-based startup companies, AngelNV Entrepreneur Bootcamp is holding a free 3-month program for founders and entrepreneurs. Now in its third year, the AngelNV program teaches startup founders the fundamentals of attracting venture capital, including perfecting their pitch, conducting market research, and developing a deck to attract investors. This year, the curriculum will also include more topics related to business model development, go-to-market considerations, and common legal issues for startups.
