This quarter's numbers reflect an ongoing concern with health as Covid-19 positive numbers rise once again, and flooding in southeast Kentucky leading to many stories on weather, transportation, housing, and human services.

Partisan politics continue to be in the spotlight in state and federal government because of divisive rhetoric related to health, equality and education. Numbers are expected to increase next quarter.

Arts and Culture stories have increased this quarter as the coverage for the fall sports season include competition at the collegiate and high school levels.

Weather stories are expected to remain consistent as the season changes and bad weather becomes more probable.

Issues to be of importance to WMKY News in the next quarter will be local events, Health, the reaction to mid-term elections both locally and nationally, and higher education. Generally, we also see more stories related to education, arts and culture, and human services moving into the holiday season.
