Date: 1/13/2014 Station: FM

Program Name: Breakpoint

Issue: Time for Smarter Sentencing

Time Aired: 10:25 AM

Duration: 3:59

Description: John Stonestreet discussed the Smarter Sentencing Act that is before Congress. The Act would allow judges additional discretion to reduce sentences for certain classes of drug offenders; to address indefensible sentences like those commuted by the president; and to take steps to ensure that the punishment for certain drug offenses actually fits the crime, which, all too often, it doesn't. The good news is that this bill can be passed without compromising public safety.

Date: 1/16/2014 Station: FM

Program Name: Legal Alert

Issue: How important is Internet filtering?

Time Aired: 11:30 AM

Duration: :90

Description: Discussed how pornography has destroyed families via innocent exposure on the internet and how it is critical for parents to have internet filtering on computers, tablets and smart phones. The filtering is not just for children but for adults as well.

Description: Discussed how a little love and respect can transform a marriage

Date: 1/27/2014 Station: FM
Program Name: CitizenLink
Issue: Indiana House Votes to Amend Marriage Move
Time Aired: 5:37 AM; 3:20 PM; 11:30 P
Duration: 2:00
Description: The Indiana House voted 52-43 to pass a modified version of a proposed marriage amendment. Changing the wording resets the clock, meaning it would have to pass again in the next session of the Legislature. The first sentence of the amendment defines marriage as a union between one man and one woman. It remains, but the next sentence was removed. The second sentence prohibits civil unions and domestic partnerships. Marriage has not been redefined in Indiana. The approval of a marriage amendment would mean that state judges would be unable to say that state law is unconstitutional.
