Re: Station WKQI(FM), Detroit, Michigan
File No. EB-04-IH-0172

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On behalf of Clear Channel Communications, Inc., the ultimate parent company of AMFM Radio Licenses, LLC (collectively, "Clear Channel"), the licensee of WKQI(FM), Detroit, Michigan, we hereby acknowledge the FCC's letter dated December 9, 2004, affording Clear Channel another opportunity to respond to the complaint alleging that the station may have violated Section 73.1206 of the Commission's rules.

Unfortunately, as was stated in Clear Channel's original response dated September 23, 2004, the disc jockey who was on the air at the time of the alleged telephone conversation is no longer employed at WKQI, and no current employee has any recollection of the alleged incident. Moreover, Clear Channel has no records, such as tapes or transcripts, relating to this matter which would enable Clear Channel to explicitly confirm or deny its occurrence.

If further questions arise concerning this matter, please contact the undersigned.

Respectfully submitted,

John M. Burgett
