<sup>1</sup> The report reflects data collected from June 01, 2013 to May 31, 2014. [The 12-month period covered by the Report is based on anniversary of license renewal filing deadline. The FCC also allows stations a “10-day grace period” at the end of a reporting period to stop collecting data and concentrate on filing out the Report. If you have used any of the 10-day grace period, disclose it in this footnote. For example, if the official end of the reporting period is July 31, 2010 and you used all of the 10-day grace period at the end of each reporting period, the dates noted here would be July 22, 2009 through July 21, 2010.]
