

Crawford CC

DJB

1/5/2021(TuesPM/WedAM)

A member of Arkansas' congressional delegation says he plans to oppose the Electoral College results handing a victory to President-elect Joe Biden. 1st District Republican Congressman Rick Crawford said he would join more than 100 other House members and a handful of senators in challenging the results. Speaking with K-A-T-V Channel 7, Crawford said he doesn't expect his action to have any effect on the outcome of the presidential election.

News02

0:14

"...take place again."

The group of Republican lawmakers plan to reject the results of the electoral vote count on Wednesday, and are calling for an audit of election results. Critics of the group and of President Trump have called the move to reject the results undemocratic as it supersedes the authority of state elections officials.