

Rock Region in DC - 1

DM/

3/19/19 Tue PM/Wed AM

Central Arkansas public transit could benefit from national bipartisan support for infrastructure spending. Charles Frazier, the CEO of Rock Region Metro, traveled to Washington D.C. as part of a national delegation of transit officials requesting federal funding.

NEWS17 0:14 "...down the road

Frazier said an increase in federal dollars could also help pay for new projects, like an expansion of the transit hub in downtown Little Rock.

Rock Region in DC 2Way

DM/

3/19/19 Tue PM/Wed AM

Rock Region Metro's CEO Charles Frazier hopes a trip to the nation's Capitol will bring more federal money to public transit in the state. KUAR's David Monteith interviewed Frazier prior to his presentation to the nation's elected leaders, and asked first about the reason for the trip.

NEWS18

3:45

SOC