

Vacation Day 1

DJB

1/28/19(MonPM/TuesAM)

Tuesday is “National Plan For Vacation Day,” and state tourism officials are encouraging Arkansans to do just that. It’s part of a nationwide effort to raise awareness of the benefits of taking time off. Joy Barlogie (BAR-luh-gee), Research and Development Manager for Arkansas Tourism, says all total unused vacation days in the U-S amount to a $236-billion-dollar economic opportunity

News03

0:21

“...you’ve taken that time off.”

The U-S Travel Association says more than half of Americans fail to use all of their vacation time every year, amounting to 662 million unused vacation days. Ideas for vacations in the Natural State can be found at Arkansas.com.

Vacation Day 2

DJB

1/28/19(MonPM/TuesAM)

State tourism officials are urging Arkansans to use their vacation time, both for the economic impact and the personal wellness impact. Tuesday is National Plan For Vacation Day,” a nationwide effort to get people to use some of the roughly 662 million vacation days that go unused each year. Arkansas Tourism Director Jim Dailey says the effects of taking some time off can be felt once you return to work.

News04

0:19

“...those communities they visit.”

Dailey says a full list of vacation planning ideas can be found at Arkansas.com.