Fourth Quarter 2022

Night Moves: 11:00 P.M. & 11:30 P.M.(Rerun from previous week) on Tuesdays 30 minutes

Night Moves: Exploration of Contemporary Sexuality (NM) is a weekly 30-minute public service FM radio program on sexual health. There are three (3) hosts, Ann Hardee, a registered nurse, Cay Crow, a sex therapist, and a guy named Ray. NM's mission is providing tasteful information with a humorous slant. Night Moves contains three (3) segments. The first segment is informative based on current research and topics in popular culture. The second segment is a guest interview, both local and international. In the third segment, the hosts answer questions and comments from listener's emails.

Topic: Asexuality, Life without Sex
Air Date: 10/4/2022
Rerun Air Date: 10/11/2022
Summary: My guest is Cay Crow, AASECT Cert. sex therapist, she supervises other sex therapists. She'll share her experiences and knowledge about asexuality, a life without sex, or is it? It's popular belief that "everyone wants sex". Not so, for people that identify as asexual. When someone comes out as asexual, others believe that there is no such thing, or it's a problem that needs to be fixed. We discuss persons that identify as asexual, and if they have a libido (sex drive) and if they give themselves sexual pleasure? Why asexual people are called the invisible orientation and the purpose of romantic orientation. She shares her knowledge that many that identify as asexual are also non binary. She shares her thoughts of if an asexual should get therapy or treatment to overcome their lack of desire?

Topic: Belize Love and Society
Air Date: 10/11/2022
Rerun Air Date: 10/18/2022
Summary: Guest is Lucy Laffoon, an attorney in Colorado. Her family is from Belize but she grew up in the USA. Belize is in central America, located below Mexico and Guatemala and has a similar culture as the Caribbean islands. We discuss what its like growing up in paradise and the Caribbean culture? The culture seems more open about sexuality, but there is little sex education in schools. She shares her thoughts on how young people learn about sex and if women's services, such as birth control and abortion, are easily available. From my observation, Belize is a very male orientated society. We discuss her being a career woman, a lawyer, and if it makes dating more difficult in Belize. I ask about LGBTQ being accepted in Belize and influence of the church on the Belize society. Visit this beautiful country.

Topic: Cheating and Infidelity, The Worst Part?
Air Date: 10/18/2022
Rerun Air Date: 10/25/2022
Summary: It may not be a surprise to learn that about 20% of people and more men cheat on their partner. Most cheat because they see an opportunity, think they can get away with it, and sometime blame their partner. My guest is Natalie, her husband cheated with 2 neighbor women. I ask how she found out? What is the worse part? How did it effect future relationships? She gives advice to those going through a partner cheating. Cay, sex therapist, shares her experiences in working with couples where one of them has cheated on their partner/spouse.

Topic: Men Benefits from Abortion
Air Date: 10/25/2022
Rerun Air Date: 11/1/2022
Summary: Safe sex, using barrier methods, is a fact of life in 21st Century sexuality. Virus' demand a big respect. They are nasty, little devils. They can play havoc with our bodies. The hosts discuss how to make using barrier protection fun and playful. Be prepared with supplies. How to bring up the safe sex talk with a potential partner in a fun and playful way. Guest is Dr. Blair Merrick, National Health Service, London UK. We discuss about screening for sexual dysfunction in the UK. It's interesting that they don't encourage condoms for oral sex to prevent HPV transmission. You must hear his case study about the knitting needles.

Topic: Cunnilingus Technique
Air Date: 11/1/2022
Rerun Air Date: 11/8/2022
Summary: Our guest is Cay Crow, Certified Sex Therapist, she shares her experiences in working with couples. Our culture doesn't give us enough information about sex, especially sexual pleasure. That leaves most of us to figure out what are our individual sexual needs are, how we find appropriate partners, communication, sexual health, and being sure that we operate in an atmosphere of consent. Long term passion among couples is HIGHER in those who have a good sex life. Communication is the key to good sex. Communicating what we want in sex is difficult because we never actually ask ourselves. "what turns us on"? Or we don't know what we want, because we haven't explored our own bodies. From our childhoods we've learned to be uncomfortable and embarrassed with discussing sex. We don't ask for what we want in bed because we fear rejection or humiliation. Our guest, Cay, gives suggestions of how to ask for what you want in bed including sharing fantasies that can be intimate and exciting.

Topic: Religion Causing Shame in Sexuality
Air Date: 11/8/2022
Rerun Air Date: 11/15/2022
Summary: Our guest is Danielle Kramer, a sex therapist, works with clients that have trauma from growing up in Christian religious fundamentalism. Shame and little information of sex is what I, Ann, was taught when growing up in church. Now these teachings have a name, called "The Purity Culture". This insists women remain virgins until marriage, and a woman's value is based on their virginity. They believe women don't and shouldn't have natural sexual desire. The message is, "men must have sex and women tolerate it". Women should be ashamed of their bodies, because we might tempt men into doing bad things. In Texas, and their "Abstinence Only" program, that passes for sex education. It's not required to give accurate medical information, except women are taught "don't have sex". There is no consent in sex and sex abuse is blamed on the woman or girl. Purity culture seems to be scared for women/girls into being pure, which causes shame. Shame causes problems in sexuality and relationships.
