Second Quarter 2021

KSYM 90.1 FM is a student staffed and operated non-profit college radio station. The Alamo Community College District owns and houses KSYM on the campus of San Antonio College. The station serves both the students enrolled in the Radio and Television Broadcasting Program and the community to which we broadcast our programming. As a non-profit station, KSYM has a duty to provide our listeners with information on events important to our community. Priorities are given to ACCD events, other local educational institutions, local community events, and national/international events respectively.

A. Public Service Announcements:

Public Service Announcements air once every hour. They pre-recorded to play from our automated system. This category covers events and information beneficial to the community emanating from local, state, or national non-profit organizations and governments.

Topic: Sex and Society in Mexico
Air Date: 5/25/2021
Rerun Air Date: 6/1/2021
Summary: I encourage everyone to travel and explore other cultures. It opens and expands your mind. Spending a month in the Mexican Caribbean, I was able to interview Joe G. in Puerto Morelos, Mexico about sex and society in Mexico. I asked him about young women losing their virginity at their coming out party, without information about sex. He assured me that it doesn't happen, especially to his daughter. On the other hand, at age 18, he took his son to a house of prostitution. Interestingly, told me that woman cost $15.00 US, for 15 minutes, and 2 positions. We discussed premarital sex, the practice of safe sex, birth control, abortion and the influence of the catholic church. I asked about sexual practices between couples, popularity of pornography, and the importance of women's pleasure and orgasm. He told me that marriage was more casual in MX. Many do not see the need for formal/legal marriage. He felt that LGBTQ or gay people were accepted in Mexican culture.

Topic: Death and Sex, The Intersection
Air Date: 6/8/2021
Rerun Air Date: 6/15/2021
Summary: My guest is Cay Crow, AASECT Certified Sex Therapist. We discuss the importance of mindfulness in sex by drawing parallels between sex and death. This is based on the book: The Five Invitations: Discovering What Death Can Teach US About Living Fully. Humans have a 2 biological imperatives; to procreate and avoid death. A different understanding of death may be a powerful elixir for living life more abundantly. One of the invitations is "Don't wait until you're dying to figure out what's important in life." Working with clients over the years as a sex therapist, they often know what they secretly long for whether it is a road trip across the country or to be dominated by someone in a clown suit or other taboo sex practice! People sacrifice these secret desires to what society or culture expects of them. Another invitation is "Find a place of rest in the middle of things". The place of rest could be the afterglow of sexual connection; take time to bask the moment and your relationship
