First Quarter 2024

KSYM 90.1 FM is a student staffed and operated non-profit college radio station. The Alamo Community College District owns and houses KSYM on the campus of San Antonio College. The station serves both the students enrolled in the Radio and Television Broadcasting Program and the community to which we broadcast our programming. As a non-profit station, KSYM has a duty to provide our listeners with information on events important to our community. Priorities are given to ACCD events, other local educational institutions, local community events, and national/international events respectively.

A. Public Service Announcements:

Public Service Announcements air once every hour. They pre-recorded to play from our automated system. This category covers events and information beneficial to the community emanating from local, state, or national non-profit organizations and governments.

First Quarter 2024

Show Number: 2407
Show Title: NM 2407 Oppression and Sexuality
Air Date: 02/13/24
ReRun Date: 02/20/24
Summary: Hosts discuss masturbation. The history, taboos, and myths of masturbation. Schools teach young people to abstain from sex, but nothing to manage their sexual energy during adolescence. One US surgeon general suggested masturbation may be the answer, but she was fired immediately after she uttered those words. Our guest is Abi O'Donovan, from Ireland. She works with tantra and counsels men having sexual problems due to the catholic church's stance on masturbation. In questions and comments, we get lots of questions about masturbation. We'll answer a few such as pain during masturbation.

Show Number: 2408
Show Title: NM 2408 Intimacy in Long Distance Relationships
Air Date: 02/20/24
ReRun Date: 02/27/24
Summary: Beginning in the 60s social issues and human rights seem to be moving forward, for racial minorities, women, and the LGBTQ community. Now, it seems like our society is moving backward. Our guest, Cay Crow, Certified Sex Therapist and Supervisor, says its "Oppression". Oppression in our society is when our rights are suppressed or eliminated. This century, LGBTQ have been oppressed. Trans people are now such a target. Women experience oppression, and have since the beginning of time. Over many years We've made some progress. With the elimination of abortion protections, and threats to birth control, it feels like oppression. Lack of sex education in schools, keeping people ignorant, is a type of oppression. Oppression lowers self-esteem, reduces life opportunities, and can even put people in danger of rape, abuse, and other forms of violence. Unreasonable sexual demands can be oppression. Oppression has a negative effect on everyone in society. Our guest closes with a historical example.

Show Number: 2409
Show Title: NM 2409 How to ask what you want in bed
Air Date: 02/27/24
ReRun Date: 03/05/24
Summary: Our guest is Cay Crow, Certified Sex Therapist, she shares her experiences in working with couples. Our culture doesn't give us enough information about sex, especially sexual pleasure. That leaves most of us to figure out what are our individual sexual needs are, how we find appropriate partners, communication, sexual health, and being sure that we operate in an atmosphere of consent. Long term passion among couples is HIGHER in those who have a good sex life. Communication is the key to good sex. Communicating what we want in sex is difficult because we never actually ask ourselves. "what turns us on"? Or we don't know what we want, because we haven't explored our own bodies. From our childhoods we've learned to be uncomfortable and embarrassed with discussing sex. We don't ask for what we want in bed because we fear rejection or humiliation. Our guest, Cay, gives suggestions of how to ask for what you want in bed including sharing fantasies that can be intimate and exciting.
