

Week of Broadcast

Topics

- 10/3/2022 FW UNITED's late night basketball program is back for another season
A new Blue Star Banner has been installed as part of the City's efforts to recognize military personnel currently serving our country
Fort Wayne has been named a top city for college graduates to start a career
The City of Fort Wayne's proposed budget for 2023 has been presented
- 10/10/2022 Discussions continue on the proposed '23 budget for the City of Fort Wayne
Fort Wayne has been named a top minor league sports market by Sports Business Journal
Eric Balliet, a Fort Wayne firefighter who passed away, is being remembered with the renaming of a stretch of Main Street in downtown Fort Wayne in his honor
October is Domestic Violence Awareness Month – The City of Fort Wayne is involved in education efforts to help people in need
- 10/17/2022 The Faces of the Fort art program has a new mural in downtown Fort Wayne
Safety Village will soon see upgrades
The FWFD recently received a grant
2023 budget discussions continue between the City Administration and City Council
- 10/24/2022 A new public art sculpture is active at the Goshen Ave. roundabout through a partnership with City of FW Public Works and the FW Public Art Commission
The City's Community Development Division has a new program to help residents overcome accessibility challenges in homes
Pickleball courts are expanding in FW through the Parks and Recreation Department
Leaf pickup season led by the Fort Wayne Street Department will begin Oct. 31
- 10/31/2022 The Poka-Bache Connector Trail initiative recently had an economic impact study unveiling showing the positive impact that recreational trails can have
Fort Wayne's Public Works and Community Development divisions are working on a rebuild of South Anthony Blvd
The Nebraska Neighborhood has a new mural that was done in partnership with the City of Fort Wayne and Fort Wayne Public Art Commission
- 11/7/2022 FW Parks & Rec recently received public feedback on efforts to develop a five-year master plan for the department
All In Allen continues to advance as the community's next comprehensive plan
Neighborhood Planner Dan Baisden recently represented the City at a community development conference in Texas
The 2023 budget for the City of Fort Wayne has been approved
- 11/14/2022 FW Parks and Rec has received a grant to go toward an improvement project

Fort Wayne's leaf pickup program continues

Fort Wayne has been named a top real estate market by two national publications

- 11/21/2022 City Utilities has won a statewide award for having the best tasting water
American Rescue Plan Act funds have been set aside for some local tourism and public health agencies through the Mayor's office and City Council
A New Markets Tax Credits allocation has been approved for Fort Wayne and the surrounding area
- 11/28/2022 Leaf pickup efforts led by the City's Street Department are ongoing
Starbucks has opened a new store in southeast Fort Wayne in partnership with the City's Community Development Division
The annual Blue Star Banner program has wrapped up the 2022 season
- 12/5/2022 Riverfront Fort Wayne has received a sensory-friendly designation
The community's winter weather contingency plan for 2022/2023 has been announced
The City of FW has received a favorable bond rating for an upcoming Parks Dept. investment
- 12/12/2022 Winter Solstice special event coming later this month
Leaf pickup update from the Fort Wayne Street Department
Holiday safety tips from the Fort Wayne Fire Department
Holiday safety tips from the Fort Wayne Police Department
- 12/19/2022 Bulk collection through the City Solid Waste Dept. is changing
Mayor Henry recently recognized 75 City employees for milestone years of service
Public Works year in review with a record year for neighborhood infrastructure improvements
- 12/26/2022 American Rescue Plan Act funds will go toward assisting local small businesses and nonprofits
The Schaab Metal building will become part of riverfront development efforts
Abigail Reyes is the new public information officer for Animal Care and Control
Elizabeth Webb is the new public information officer for Community Development
The Pontiac Street roundabout area has new lighting and other amenities