January – February – March 2023

January

- 1/5/23 WROY/WRUL News sits down with Matt Healy of Catalyst Health Plans to discuss the health insurance landscape, options available to folks of all ages, and important questions they should ask when shopping for health insurance providers
- 1/12/23 WROY/WRUL News covers White County Board meeting. Newly elected White County Sheriff Jordan Weiss expressed his frustration with the condition of the Sheriff's Office, County Morgue, Ambulance Building and State's Attorney's Office. Weiss stated "he wasn't elected to be a maintenance man." Weiss asked why funds couldn't be taken out of the ARPA for him to make repairs but could be for an ongoing project in the County. Ultimately Weiss was told to get bids for repairs that needed to be made. A request for maintenance man was denied.
- 1/10/23 WROY/WRUL News covers Village of Norris City meeting. Among topics covered include The board also approved Mayor Land signing the Water Sales Agreement for Broughton. There was a discussion concerning the village's Nepotism Policy. It was decided to put together a committee with board members Joe Skaggs and Wayne McKenzie, to look into whether to amend the existing policy or do away with it altogether.
- 1/16/23 In Wayne County court, Judge Molt denies request for an acquittal or new trial for Brody I Murberger who was convicted of killing Megan Nichols in 2014. He was found guilty in October of 2022. Murbarger's lawyers cited because of local and national coverage and social media, he did not receive a fair trial. Appearing on the states behalf was Michael Filigario and Myra-Yelle Clark who said the jury selection was properly handled by the judge. Judge Molt stated after a study of the law and case he found no reason for a change of venue.
- 1/25/23 Ongoing coverage and culmination of high profile trial. A jury of 7 men and 5 women returned a verdict of guilty for Criminal Sexual Assault against 42 year old Ronald Howell of Norris City. Howell was arrested on December 22nd. The victim who is now 15 alleged that the assault took place when she was between the age of 5 and 9. Questions in the community surrounded the case and ranged from procedure, the investigation, and connections in the case. The victim took the stand during trial as did Howell. Closing arguments got underway at 1:30 PM and concluded a 3PM. Jurors returned the guilty verdict at around 9:30 PM. Sentencing is scheduled for April 25th.
- 1/27/23 Ongoing coverage and investigative reporting following 2005 closure of Carmi hospital and subsequent rise and fall of Phoenix Foundation. In an interview, WROY/WRUL News talks with the Carmi Mayor and City Attorney to help uncover where the money went, who was to blame, and why no legal action may ever be taken against individuals.

- 1/29/23 Post trial coverage of Ron Howell Predatory Sexual Assault Case includes interviews with State's Attorney, Defense team, and multiple jurors reveals how each side approached the case and how the jury arrived at the conviction.
- 1/31/23 Op/Ed piece by Harmony Way Bridge Commissioner Linda Henning. Since the bridge's closing in 2012, WROY/WRUL News has continued to follow efforts to re-open the span and invited commissioners to answer the question, "What would you tell those who say the effort to reopen the bridge is a fool's errand?" Henning provides response.

February

- 2/1/23 White County Judge to Issue Ruling on Lawsuit Regarding Illinois Weapons Ban. After an Effingham County Temporary Restraining Order was affirmed, White County Judge T. Scott Webb heard arguments from representatives of Attorney General Kwame Raoul's office, and from Tom DeVore, who is representing over 1,600 plaintiffs, including former Illinois State Senator and Republican nominee for governor Darren Bailey; 68 federal firearms dealers and 92 counties, saying the case is "under advisement" and that he would issue a ruling after further review.
- 2/2/23 White County is still the king of oil production. That's according to the latest report from the Illinois Petroleum Resources Board detailing 2022 oil production by county in the state. More than 7.2 million barrels of crude oil were produced based on first purchaser reports throughout the state. Of those, more than 28%, 2,038,796 barrels came from White County alone. That's more than the next 3 counties (Marion, Crawford, Fayette) combined. All that and White County's production was down by 127,000 barrels versus 2021. IPRB's Seth Whitehead discusses energy in Illinois with WROY/WRUL News.
- 2/3/23 Ongoing coverage and investigation following 2005 closure of Carmi hospital and subsequent rise and fall of Phoenix Foundation. In an interview, WROY/WRUL News talks with Angie Helsel, who was the Director of Nursing and right hand of administrator Lil Fortner of the Phoenix Foundation. Helsel provides insight on what she knew, saw, and thinks happened.
- 2/6/23 Interview with Carmi Compassion Center leaders. WROY/WRUL reporters talk with leaders about the poverty rate in the area, what needs specifically the community has and how they're trying to address those needs.
- 2/10/23 Coverage in cooperation with ProPublica surrounding newly unsealed documents which revealed further depths of abuse at Choate Mental Health Facility. Reports from the Illinois Department of Human Services' watchdog office reveal shocking instances of cruelty, abuse and poor care of patients who have mental illnesses and developmental disabilities at the southern Illinois state-run facility.
- 2/14/23 Several downstate Republican legislators joined together at the Capitol calling for action to address the rising cost of energy impacting Illinois families and businesses. Gathering a day before the Governor's 2023 Budget and State of the State Address, the legislators say providing long-term relief for Illinois families should be one of Gov. JB Pritzker's top budget priorities and have introduced a number of proposals for short-term relief.

- 2/15/23 Coverage on February White County Board meeting. Board members covered more than two dozen agenda items and heard updates from 7 county office holders. The only point of contention in the meeting revolved around the consideration of appointees to the Board of Review. Supervisor of Assessments Gary Baxley made his recommendations of Republicans Mike Brown and Ron Wooten along with Democrat Jim Taylor. Mike Ray will no longer serve on the Board prompting Amanda Cannon to vote against the motion.
- 2/17/23 Farm Bureau and local attorney urge diligence surrounding purported wind farm in Hamilton and White Counties. Tenaska Renewables out of Nebraska is purportedly looking to establish a commercial wind project in the Hamilton/White County area. That has some on edge and questioning why especially after seeing prospective leases. White and Wayne County Farm Bureau Manager Doug Anderson is urging any landowners approached or presented with a lease to consult with a qualified attorney before signing anything.
- 2/21/23 Tenaska Renewables answers back and provides scope to proposed wind farm development. Tenaska's project manager for this particular development, Kyle Gerking provides insight on several concerns raised by locals.

March

- 3/7/23 Norris City Village Board Meeting coverage. Village officials say they're going to pursue legal action in an effort to reclaim TIF monies from a local business. The business owner, says even though they've relocated, they have and are in compliance still with the agreement. Additionally, the board approved keeping the current village ordinance that prohibits residents from owning chickens on their property. Only board member McKenzie voted "no".
- 3/7/23 Carmi City Council names new fire chief following sudden resignation of former chief. Former Captain Daniel Ballard is appointed to the position after two decades with the department. The Carmi Fire Department also has a new Secretary/Treasurer. Sherry Anderson was appointed to that position. The Carmi Fire Department has been in operation since the early 1880's.
- 3/22/23 Indian Creek Trustees allegedly attempt to remove road commissioner during township meeting. A pair of township trustees put a burr under the saddle of some Tuesday night. It was no secret thanks to social media that many were expecting fireworks at the Indian Creek Township meeting, resulting in a packed house. It's been rumored there was an effort to try and remove David Wheeler from his elected position as Indian Creek Township Road Commissioner. At Tuesday nights gathering, two trustees attempted to put a vote on next month's agenda which, if successful, would've given voters the option to dissolve the road commissioner position. Those trustees were Evan Bryant and Terry Daubs. Three other trustees, Jeromy Johnson, David Spence, and Supervisor Ron McAnulty however voted no. At that point, commissioner Daubs abruptly got up and walked out of the meeting prior to official adjournment.

- 3/28/23 WROY/WRUL News hosts public forum a week ahead of April 5th election. The two plus hour event features candidates facing off for City of Carmi Council in Ward IV as well as nine candidates fighting for four open seats on the Carmi-White County Unit 5 School Board.

QUARTERLY ISSUES REPORT, JANUARY-MARCH, 2023

Show # 2023-01

Date aired: 1-1-23 Time Aired: 5:00 AM

Jacquelyn C. Campbell, PHD, RN, FAAN, expert on domestic violence, violence against women and intimate partner violence, Professor and the Anna D. Wolf Chair at the Johns Hopkins School of Nursing, National Program Director for the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation's Nurse Faculty Scholars Program

Dr. Campbell developed the Danger Assessment, a groundbreaking questionnaire designed to assess a woman's risk of being killed by an abusive partner. She talked about recent updates to the tool that address concerns for immigrant women and same-sex partners. She said it's helpful for an abused woman to document for herself how often abuse is happening, levels of abuse and other patterns.

Issues covered:

Domestic Violence
Women's Concerns

Length: 9:21

Bryan Caplan, PhD, Professor of Economics at George Mason University, blogger for EconLog, author of "The Case against Education: Why the Education System Is a Waste of Time and Money"

Although it is immensely popular--and immensely lucrative--Dr. Caplan believes that higher education is grossly overrated. He said that decades of growing access to education have not resulted in better jobs for the average worker, but instead in runaway credential inflation. He is in favor of serious cuts in government education funding to curb this wasteful rat race, along with a renewed emphasis on vocational education.

Issues covered:

Education
Career
Government Spending

Length: 8:01

Cyrus Farivar, Senior Business Editor at Ars Technica, author of "Habeas Data: Privacy vs. the Rise of Surveillance Tech"

Mr. Farivar discussed how judges and activists have thought about privacy and surveillance in America in recent decades. He believes that laws need to be updated to address advances in surveillance technology, such as the mass use of license plate readers and facial recognition software.

Issues covered:

Constitutional Rights Privacy

Length: 5:04

Show # 2023-02

Date aired: 1-8-23 Time Aired: 5:00 AM

Todd Spencer, President of the Owner-Operator Independent Drivers Association

Trucking is critical to virtually every aspect of the US economy. Mr. Spencer talked about the biggest challenges faced by truck drivers. He said drivers often spend 30% of their work week being detained by inefficiencies in the supply chain, waiting for shippers and receivers. He discussed the lack of adequate training of new truckers. He also talked about road congestion and needed improvements in the nation's highway system to better accommodate trucks.

Issues covered:

Length: 8:39

Transportation
Supply Chain Issues
Employment

Natasha Slesnick, PhD, Professor of Human Development and Family Science in the Department of Human Sciences, and EHE Associate Dean for Research and Administration at Ohio State University

Prof. Slesnick led a study that suggests that giving some homeless mothers with young children a place to live may do little to help them if it is not combined with support services. She outlined the most significant challenges faced by homeless mothers and their children, and the most effective forms of support.

Issues covered:

Length: 8:45

Homelessness
Government Programs
Drug Abuse

Donna Thompson, PhD, MBA, retired college educator, an advocate for children's literacy and creator of The Adventures of Carly and Charly, a book series "written" by cats for kids

Ms. Thompson discussed the importance of encouraging reading in young children, and the major obstacles created by electronic screens. She talked about the long-lasting health and wellness benefits connected to reading, and why it is so important for parents to set a good example in reading habits.

Issues covered:

Show # 2023-03

Date aired: 1-15-23 Time Aired: 5:00 AM

Nora Volkow, MD, Director of the National Institute on Drug Abuse, part of the National Institutes of Health

Fentanyl overdoses are the leading cause of death for Americans ages 18 to 49, more than car accidents or suicides. On average, one person dies of a fentanyl overdose in the United States every seven minutes, and the number of Americans killed by the drug has jumped 94 percent since 2019. Dr. Volkow discussed why the problem has skyrocketed and what steps the federal government is taking to address it. She said that, while the epidemic was worse in certain rural areas of the US in past years, the problem has now overwhelmed every city and state. She talked about the importance of education and treatment programs, and also explained why fentanyl is a particularly troubling issue for pregnant women.

Issues covered:

Substance Abuse and Treatment Government Policies

Length: 17:52

Sam Quinones, author of "The Least of Us: True Tales of America and Hope in the Time of Fentanyl and Meth"

The opioid crisis' damage to US communities cost the economy $1.5 trillion in 2020 alone, according to a congressional analysis. Mr. Quinones talked about steps that cities and towns can take to try to repair community bonds, most effectively on the neighborhood, school and church level. He believes that stronger law enforcement is necessary to force drug abusers into treatment, whether they want it or not.
