

Programs and Issues for WQCT
2nd Quarter of 2020 (April-June)

Program: Medical Hour: Important County News

Issue: Pandemic Response

Date: 04/01/2020

Time: 10:00 AM

Duration: 15 minutes

Narrative: Jim interviewed the Williams County Health Department Director, Jim Watkins, about Williams County's Response during a Global Pandemic. They discussed safety precautions that citizens are recommended to take during this time. They also discussed ways in which the county is being proactive with keeping Covid-19 out of our county.

Program: Important County News

Issue: Covid-19

Date: 04/03/2020

Time: 6, 7, 8am, noon, 4pm and 5pm news

Duration: 2 minutes

Narrative: The Williams County Health Department (WCHD) is reporting the first lab-confirmed case of coronavirus (COVID-19) for a Williams County resident. Jim O'Reilly, our news director, interviewed Victoria Smith the Health Educator for the County. WCHD along with hospitals, healthcare providers, and community partners have been actively preparing to respond to possible cases of COVID-19 in our community.

Programs and Issues for WQCT
2nd Quarter of 2020 (April-June)

Program: United Way Hour

Issue: Covid-19 Relief

Date: 04/17/2020

Time: 10:00 AM

Duration: 30 minutes

Narrative: Jim Funderburg interviewed the Executive Director of the United Way of Williams County, Chasity Yoder. They discussed the Williams County economic COVID-19 relief fund that is assisting individuals during this time. They also chatted about how this Pandemic is impacting the local economy and struggles with community members.

Program: Medical Hour

Issue: Mental Health

Date: 04/21/2020

Time: 10:00 AM

Duration: 60 minutes

Narrative: Jim interviewed counselors from Shalom Counseling and Mediation Center. They took calls from community members and provided help for those who need it during these stressful times. They also focused on ways in which listeners can help to maintain close to healthy mental health during the Pandemic.

Programs and Issues for WQCT
2nd Quarter of 2020 (April-June)

Program: Education Hour

Issue: Future of Four County Career Center

Date: 05/19/2020

Time: 09:00 AM

Duration: 45 minutes

Narrative: Jim Funderburg interviewed Tim Meister from the Four County Career Center. They discussed what life has been like for their staff and students during Covid-19. They also discussed what the future may look like if the Pandemic continues to get worse and the various protocols being put into place for Educational Institutions.

Program: Education Hour

Issue: Future of Defiance College

Date: 05/26/2020

Time: 09:00 AM

Duration: 45 minutes

Narrative: Jim Funderburg interviewed Lisa Marsalek from Defiance College. They discussed how different it has been being all online at the end of their semester during Covid-19. They also discussed what the future may look like if the Pandemic continues to get worse and the various protocols being put into place at the Collegiate Level in the State.

Programs and Issues for WQCT
2nd Quarter of 2020 (April-June)

Program: Medical Hour

Issue: Covid-19 Testing

Date: 06/05/2020

Time: 12:00 PM

Duration: 60 minutes

Narrative: Jim Funderburg talks with the director at Health Partners of Northwest Ohio, Elizabeth West. They discussed Covid-19 testing will be happening for free all next week for those who want to easily get tested. They discussed the whole process and how this will benefit the county by getting tested.