48 HOURS

04/04/20 48 HOURS: “Reuschel vs. Reuschel” - a report on the trial of Mike Reuschel for the attempted murder of his wife, Sue Reuschel. On February 3, 2018, police in Gainesville, Florida responded to a home invasion at the home of Mike and Sue Reuschel. According to Mike, an intruder entered the home and stabbed Sue, though Detective David Visconti did not find evidence consistent with that. After waking up from emergency surgery, Sue revealed there was no intruder and claimed Mike was the assailant; he was arrested for attempted murder. Mike’s daughter, Caroline, asserted Sue fabricated her story and recalled Sue being a heavy drinker, who exerted control over Mike’s behavior and was jealous of her. Surprisingly, Sue took an active role in planning Caroline’s wedding and paid for an expensive wedding dress. At her wedding, Caroline noticed a scar on Mike’s face and he revealed that Sue had been physically abusive for years. Sue was arrested for domestic battery in November 2017, a fact that only came out during Mike’s trial. According to Sue, Mike revealed that Caroline’s wedding went over budget by $150,000, which led to an argument that became physical. Afterwards, Sue agreed to move to a condo they owned and get counseling for anger and drinking problems. In February 2018, Sue returned to Gainesville to attempt a reconciliation. At dinner, a text from Caroline led to a fight. Mike and Sue drove home separately, with Sue sending Mike angry texts the whole way, including ones asking for a divorce. Sue stated that she was in the guest room when Mike came in, got on top on her and stabbed her in the stomach, cut her fingers, and slashed her wrists. He then laid in the bed next to her until she agreed to the story about an intruder. In Mike’s version of events, he entered the guest room to find Sue holding a knife and in an ensuing struggle, the knife entered her stomach without him realizing; they then laid in bed and discussed future vacation plans. Mike further claimed Sue cut her own wrists and came up with the intruder story for fear she would be arrested. Defense expert Michael Berkand testified the blood splatter around the bed was consistent with Mike’s statements. Prosecutors contested Berkland’s testimony and his credibility; they pointed to his fear of losing half of his fortune in a divorce as motive. After a four hours of deliberation, the jury returned with a guilty verdict on all counts. Mike received additional charges after a jailhouse informant claimed he tried to hire a hitman to kill Sue. After family and colleagues testified at his hearing, Mike was sentenced to 30 years in prison. On-screen text graphic: The murder-for-hire charges against Mike Reuschel were dropped. Interviewed: Caroline Reuschel, Mike’s daughter; Detective David Visconti, Gainesville Police Department; Didi Hoffman, Mike’s first wife; David Byron, trial co-prosecutor; Sean Brewer, trial co-prosecutor; Michael Berkland, blood stain pattern analyst; Mike Reuschel (by phone). 48 HOURS: LIVE TO TELL: “Surviving Ted Bundy” – Karen Kleiner, Karen Chandler, and Cheryl Thomas, all attacked by serial killer Ted Bundy, tell their stories and their subsequent road to recovery. In the early morning hours of January 15th, 1978, Karen Kleiner was awakened by the slamming of her bedroom door, just before a man struck her with an object. He attacked her roommate Karen Chandler, after he noticed her stirring. Alarmed by the return of a Chi Omega sorority sister to the house on the Florida State University (FSU) campus, the man fled. The two women were taken to the emergency room and when they awoke, learned that the man had murdered and sexually assaulted two of their sorority sisters. Sheriff Ken Katsaris found bite marks on the deceased victims and was informed of another attack six blocks away, this time on Cheryl Thomas. He also received word from Colorado authorities about an escaped criminal in the area, Ted Bundy. Weeks later, another possible victim came to light, 12-year-old Kimberly Leach. On February 15th, Ted Bundy was arrested in a stolen car and immediately became a suspect. While none of the victims could positively identify Bundy, a Chi Omega sister saw his profile the night of the attacks and positively identified him from a lineup. Sheriff Katsaris obtained a warrant for a mold of Bundy’s teeth, which experts matched to the bite marks. During the trial, Bundy took an active role in his defense, deposing witnesses and serving on his own defense team for the FSU trial. On July 24th, after seven hours of deliberation, Bundy was found guilty on all counts and sentenced to death. He would subsequently be found guilty for Kimberly Leach’s death and given a second death sentence. Bundy appealed through the 1980s and after exhausting all appeals, offered information on more victims, in exchange for his sentence to be changed. He was executed January 24th 1989. On-screen text graphic: Ted Bundy confessed to at least thirty murders. But it is believed he may have killed over a hundred women in at least six states. Interviewed: Ken Katsaris, former Leon County sheriff; Karen Chandler, victim; Kathy Kleiner, victim; Cheryl Thomas, victim; Tony Cimino, Kathy’s friend; Larry Simpson, former Leon County assistant state attorney; Michael DeShields, Kathy’s son; Scott Rubin, Kathy’s second husband. 48 HOURS (continued)

04/18/20

48 HOURS: “Crosley Green’s Hard Time” – an update to “Last Chance for Freedom” (OAD: 05/30/15; updated 08/19/17), which was a follow-up to both “Reasonable Doubt” (OAD: 11/01/99); and its retitled rebroadcast, which included an update: “Impossible Mission” (OAD: 07/10/00). This update continues the report on Crosley Green, who remains in a Florida prison. Despite his claims of innocence, Green was convicted and sentenced to death in 1990 for the April 1989 murder of Charles “Chip” Flynn in a Titusville, Florida orange grove. Green, along with the help of lawyers and private investigators, has spent decades trying to prove his innocence. At the time of the murder, Green was a small-time drug dealer who said he was two miles away when Flynn was killed. Green was arrested after Flynn’s former girlfriend, Kim Hallock, told police that she and Flynn had been carjacked by a black man with a gun and driven to a remote orange grove. Flynn was killed, but Hallock escaped. She identified Green from a photo lineup. Green’s nine state appeals are exhausted, but his current attorneys Keith Harrison, Bob Rhoad and Jeane Thomas, along with an original private investigator Joe Moura (now a 48 HOURS consultant) have one last hope, federal court. They believe they have enough evidence to prove that the conviction is part of a distinct pattern and practice of government misconduct in Brevard County. Three other men, Bill Dillion, Juan Ramos, and Wilton Dedge have had their convictions overturned; two of them were also prosecuted by Christopher White. Green’s attorneys believe that what makes this case different is a mountain of evidence that demonstrates Crosley Green is actually innocent. At the heart of their case are notes from Assistant State’s Attorney Christopher White’s meeting with officers Mark Rixey and Diane Clarke (who spoke to 48 HOURS for the first time for the 05/30/15 broadcast). Green’s lawyer says that their notes say they think the girl (former girlfriend Kim Hallock) killed Flynn. In June 2017, the 11th Circuit Federal Court of Appeals said it would allow Green’s attorneys to argue in person why his case should not have been dismissed. The Florida Attorney General’s Office continues to fight to uphold Crosley Green’s conviction, claiming Green failed to meet a filing deadline for his appeal. UPDATE: In July 2018, a federal judge ruled that withholding prosecutor notes from Green’s defense violated his right to a fair trial. His conviction was overturned and a new trial was ordered. The state of Florida appealed. On March 12, 2020, the Federal Appeals Court in Jacksonville heard from Green’s defense team and state attorneys. On-screen text graphic: 48 Hours will continue to follow Crosley Green’s case. Interviewed: Crossley Green; Keith Harrison and Jeane Thomas, Green’s attorneys; Diane Clarke and Mark Rixey, Brevard County officers; David Stroup, Chip’s friend; Christopher White, prosecutor; Charles Flynn, Chip’s father; Tim Curtis, who sold the car to Chip; Lisa DiMeo, criminologist; Sheila Green, Crosley’s sister; Kenneth Nunn, University of Florida law professor; O’Connor Green, Crosley’s brother; Degrah Green, Crosley’s sister; Shuma Green, Crosley’s son; Shirley Green, Crosley’s sister. (See also: “Reasonable Doubt”, OAD: 11/01/99; its retitled rebroadcast, which included an update: “Impossible Mission”, OAD: 07/10/00; and 48 HOURS: “Last Chance for Freedom”, a follow-up to both prior broadcasts, OAD: 05/30/15 - an updated rebroadcast aired on 08/19/17.) 48 HOURS (continued)

04/25/20

48 HOURS: “The Murder of Haley Anderson” – a report on the murder of Binghamton University nursing student Haley Anderson by fellow nursing student Orlando Tercero. In early March 2018, Haley Anderson’s friends were concerned after she didn’t show up to a friend’s poetry reading. They tracked her iPhone to Tercero’s apartment, where her friend Josie Artin climbed through the window and found her body in Tercero’s bedroom. Footage from surveillance cameras around the home showed Anderson entering with Tercero on March 8th, but never leaving. Investigators believed Tercero attempted suicide, based on a tie hung in a doorway and a note he left, in which they believed Tercero admitted to killing Anderson. Tercero was seen leaving the home one last time before driving to New York’s JFK airport, where he boarded a flight to Nicaragua. Four days later, his mother drove him to a hospital after another failed suicide attempt, where he was arrested by Nicaraguan authorities. Because of Tercero’s dual citizenship, he was not extradited to the United States. In October 2019, he was tried for the crime of “femicide”; the Broome County District Attorney’s office aided the prosecution. Tercero’s attorney presented a temporary insanity defense, with a court appointed psychologist as his only witness. After a 90-minute recess, the judge declared Tercero guilty. Two weeks later, he was sentenced to 30 years in prison. On February 4, 2020, Tercero appeared in appeals court, where his attorney argued for a new psychological evaluation, to be conducted by a forensic psychologist. Magistrates quickly denied the request. Additionally, the defense argued that because Tercero was indicted in the U.S. for second-degree murder, the court was obligated to adhere to the lighter sentencing guidelines associated with it. On March 10, 2020, the appellate court denied that part of the appeal as well. On-screen text graphic: Tonight’s 48 Hours is dedicated to Ana Real. Interviewed: Josie Artin, Haley’s friend; Karen Anderson, Haley’s mother; Kevin Ocampo, Haley’s boyfriend; Jesse Bua, Tercero’s friend and roommate; Sydney Matuszak, Haley’s friend; Lieutenant Cory Minor, Binghamton Police; Steve Cornwell, former Broome County (New York) district attorney; Daniel Urcuyo, Tercero’s friend (in Nicaragua); Juan David Aleman, Tercero’s friend (in Nicaragua); Ashley Lopez, Tercero’s friend (in Nicaragua); Estephanie Moroney, Tercero’s friend (in Nicaragua); and an unidentified female friend of Tercero, who asked to remain anonymous (in Nicaragua).
