KUER News Carriage	1	1	1		1			-	1	r	1					1		1
Q2 2021 - Apr 1 - Jun 30
Headline	Air Date	Reporter	Length	FCC Category	COVID	Story Type		ME 6:32	ME 6:43	ME 7:04	ME 7:32	ME 8:04	ME 8:30	ME 8:43	Noon	ATC 4:04	ATC 4:32	ATC 4:44	ATC 5:04	ATC 5:32	ATC 5:44	ATC 6:04	ATC 6:32	ATC 6:44
The Clock Is Running Out On An Effort To Create A New State Park North Of Moab	3/1/2021	Kate Groetzinger	01:04	Politics and Government		Wrap	Time is running out to create a new state park north of Moab. The measure received a lot of support in the Utah House of Representatives last week (2/22). It still has to pass the Senate, though. From KUER's Southeast News Bureau, Kate Groetinger reports Kate Groetinger reports 6:0:	4			7:32
Carbon Cost	3/1/2021	Nate Hegyi	00:50	Agriculture and Environment		wrap	The Biden administration announced Friday (2/26) it is overhauling how it calculates the economic toil of greenhouse gas emissions. The changes could allow agencies to place tighter restrictions on oil, gas and coal producers in the region. Nate Hegyl of												17:04				18:32
Utah Lawmakers Consider Two Competing Bail Reform Bills: A Repeal And A Fix	3/1/2021	Sonja Hutson	01:48	Crime and Law Enforcement			There are two competing proposals in the Utah Legislature to change a bail reform law that took effect in October. KUER's Sonja Hutson explains.										16:32					18:04
Utah Welcomes Black Lives Matter History Bus And Mobile Museum	3/1/2021	Ivana Martinez	01:01	Race, Identity and Culture		wrap	Black Lives Matter Utah unveiled its Black History Museum Bus over the weekend. About 40 people braved the snowy winter morning in Salt Lake City for the ribbon cutting. KUER's Ivana Martinez has more on the new exhibit at the Leonardo Museum.									16:04				17:32
Going The Distance For Vaccines In The Mountain West	3/1/2021	Robyn Vincent	04:22	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19	Feature	Delivering vaccines to residents across the Mountain West is tricky when you consider transportation. Vulnerable people in cities need rides to appointments. Rural residents without transportation often live several miles from vaccination sites. From the		6:43	3				8:43
AG Emissions	3/1/2021	Maggie Mullen	00:55	Agriculture and Environment		Wrap	Climate change is hurting agriculture in several ways. Then again, the industry could be doing more itself to solve this existential crisis. That came up last week in a hearing as part of the House Agriculture Committee {2/25}. From the Mountain West News			7:04	4		8:32
A Bill To Create A Visitor Center For Bears Ears Is Gaining Support But Tribes Have Yet To Sign On	3/2/2021	Kate Groetzinger	01:02	Politics and Government		Wrap	A bipartisan bill to help build a visitors' center at Bears Ears National Monument is moving through the Utah Legislature. It passed a senate committee unanimously this morning (Tuesday). From KUER's Southeast News Bureau, Kate Groetzinger has more.									16:04				17:32
Vaccine Efficacy	3/2/2021	Robyn Vincent	00:54	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19	Wrap	Health officials hope the new Johnson and Johnson vaccine will be a game-changer in vaccinating under-served people in our region. But there's some unnecessary confusion over the shot's efficacy. The Mountain West News Bureau's Robry Vincent reports.			7:04	4		8:32
Dixie State University Name Change Bill Moves To Full Senate, Doesn't Require 'Dixie' To Be Dropped	3/2/2021	Lexi Peery	01:04	Race, Identity and Culture		Wrap	Dixie State University may or may not be getting a new name. That's according to the latest version of the bill to rename the southern Utah school. From KUER's Southwest news bureau Lexi Peery reports II was approved by a Senate committee last night.	6:32	2			8:04
Utah Legislature's Latest Inland Port Bill Creates 'Bank' To Fund Infrastructure Projects	3/2/2021	Emily Means	01:00	Business, Economics and Finance		Wrap	For the past three years, the Utah Legislature has made tweaks to the state's inland port project. KUER's Emily Means has more on THIS year's measure, which passed a Senate committee yesterday (Monday). 6:00	4			7:32
Renegotiations Related To The Colorado River Are Coming Up, How is Utah Approaching Them?	3/3/2021	Caroline Ballard	05:56	Agriculture and Environment			Gene Shawcroft, Utah's newest Upper Colorado River Commissioner, will be in charge of renegotiating rights to the river. KUER's Lexi Peery spoke with him about how the state is preparing for talks related to the river.											16:44						18:44
After Calls For Utahns To Switch Parties For The 2020 Primary, Lawmakers Pass A Bill To Make That Harder	3/3/2021	Sonja Hutson	01:11	Politics and Government		Wrap	The Utah Legislature passed a bill today {Wednesday} that limits when voters can switch their party affiliation in the run-up to a primary election. KUER's Sonja Hutson reports the Senate approved it without debate										16:32					18:04
Pandemic 'Endgame' Nears After Utah Legislature Advances Bill To Stop Statewide Mask Mandate	3/3/2021	Emily Means	01:01	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19	Wrap	An end to statewide pandemic restrictions is in sight. That's after the Utah House passed a bill this morning (Wednesday) outlining a timeline. KUER's Emily Means has more. TAG: The bill still needs a final vote in the Senate. Representative Harrison is a									16:04				17:32
In Rapidly Warming Colorado River Basin, The Negotiating Table Is Being Set		Luke Runyon	04:18	Agriculture and Environment		Feature	Seven states make up the Colorado River basin. Late last year, they said they're ready to start re- negotiating water policies. The dimate-stressed river supplies water for 40 million people in the southwest. But before the talks can begin, the region's I		6:43	3				8:43
Vaccine App	3/3/2021	Madelyn Beck	00:53	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19	Wrap	A lot of people are turning to pharmacies to get their COVID-19 vaccine. But it's challenging to figure out when there are open appointments. As the Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck found, one man has a solution.	6:32	0			8:04	Ļ

Utah Legislature Advances Two Bills To Encourage New Affordable Housing Construction	3/3/2021	Emily Means	01:42	Business, Economics and Finance		Wrap	The Utah Senate advanced affordable housing legislation yesterday {Tuesday}. KUER's Emily Means has more. TAG: KUER's Sonja Hutson exercitivities to this actor.	6:04			7:32
SNAP & Students	3/3/2021	Savannah Maher	00:31	Business, Economics and Finance		Voicer	contributed to this story. During the pandemic more Americans are eligible for the federal Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program - better known as SNAP or food stamps. That includes college students. The Mountain West News Bureaut assanah Maher reports.	0:04		7:04	7:32		8:32
Spanish FB	3/4/2021	Stephanie Serrano	01:02	Race, Identity and Culture		Wrap	Facebook is not flagging Spanish language misinformation at the same speed it tracks-down fake news in English. That's according to data from a human rights non-profit. The Mountain West News Bureau's Stephanie Serrano reports.								16:3:	2		18:04
ATV Bill Dead	3/4/2021	Kate Groetzinger	01:06	Business, Economics and Finance		Wrap	An effort to regulate all-terrain vehicles in Moab was killed by the Utah Legislature last week. But people on both sides of the issue say the fight isn't over. From KUER's Southeast News Bureau, Kate Groetzinger has more.	6:04			7:32
COVID Politics	3/4/2021	Stephanie Serrano	00:58	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19	Wrap	Texas lifted its mask mandate yesterday (Wednesday). And Utah lawmakers introduced a bill that would end its statewide mandate. That would require support from two-thirds of House and Senate members and the governor's signature. This all runs contrary to	6:5	32			8:04
Hard Hit Long-Term Care Facilities In Utah Are Seeing 'Enormous Success' With Vaccines	3/4/2021	Lexi Peery	01:02	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19	Wrap	Over 80 percent of long-term care facilities in Utah have had at least one COVID-19 outbreak. Now, with vaccinations underway, the outlook for these places is starting to look up. From KUER's Southwest news bureau Lexi Peery has more.								16:04		17:32
For Black And Brown Activists, The Burden Of Leadership Adds To The Physical Toll Of Racism	3/4/2021	Ivana Martinez	04:18	Race, Identity and Culture		Feature	Last summer, thousands of people took to the streets in Utah to protest for racial justice. It was part of a national movement following the police killings of George Floyd and Breonna Taylor. It was just the latest example of Black activists being at the		6:43					:43
Off Piste Pandemic	3/4/2021	Robyn Vincent	00:49	Agriculture and Environment		Wrap	Researchers in Nevada are launching a survey. They want to quantify how the COVID-19 pandemic is affecting backcountry use. The Mountain West News Bureau's Robyn Vincent reports.			7:04			8:32
What Can And Can't Be Learned From New Crowd-Funded Utah Teen Treatment Database	3/4/2021	David Fuchs	05:01	Medicine and Health		Two-Way	The teen treatment industry is bigger in Utah than anywhere else in the country. KUER and The Salt Lake Tribune released a database Thursday containing the past five years-worth of inspection reports and confirmed investigations for every residential teen									16:44				18:44
Utah Legislature Approves Increased Restrictions On Paid Signature Gathering For Ballot Initiatives	3/5/2021	Emily Means	01:06	Politics and Government		Wrap	The Utah Legislature has passed a bill that could make it tougher for a citizen-led initiative to get on the ballot. KUER's Emily Means has more on the piece of legislation headed to the governor's desk.								16:04				18:32
Week 7: Pass Bills, Not Germs	3/5/2021	Sonja Hutson	22:02	Politics and Government		Podcast	This week, we're zooming out a bit to look at what it's been like to legislate during a session shaped by the COVID-19 pandemic. We talked with lawmakers, lobbyists and journalists about what they miss the most (and why it's the cafeteria's tater tots) an
OPEC & Oil	3/5/2021	Madelyn Beck	00:52	Business, Economics and Finance		Wrap	Oil prices picked up recently. That spike may continue. Oil-producing countries agreed yesterday (3/4) to keep curbing their production. That is countries in the influential group OPEC. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck explains.								16:3:	2		18:04
Spanish FB	3/5/2021	Stephanie Serrano	00:47	Business, Economics and Finance		Voicer	Facebook isn't flagging Spanish language misinformation at the same speed it works to track-down fake news in English. That's according to data from a human rights non-profit. The Mountain W est News Bureau's Stephanie Serrano reports.			7:04			8:32
45 Days: Ben Winslow	3/5/2021	Sonja Hutson	04:41	Politics and Government		Two-Way	The 45 Day Utah legislative session wraps up in just a few hours. Because of the pandemic, this session has been unlike any other. Our reporters									16:44				18:44
Utah College Enrollment Held Steady During the Pandemic, But Not For Salt Lake Community College	3/5/2021	Jon Reed	01:02	Education		Wrap	Many colleges across the country saw significant drops in errollment because of the pandemic. Schools in Utah mostly held steady though. Some even saw more students attending compared to last year. But as KUER's Jon Reed reports, that's not the case for S	6:04			7:32
BLM Headquarters	3/5/2021	Nate Hegyi	00:41	Politics and Government		Wrap	Reports, mails not the case for S A Congressional Senate committee vote yesterday (Thursday) brought Deb Haaland (Holland) one step closer to becoming the nation's next Interior Secretary. If she's confirmed she'll have to consider whether to move the Bureau of Land Management headquarte	6:04	32		1.32	8:04

							Robert Kirby is something of a notorious writer in
'Winding Up The Self-Righteous': Humor Columnist Robert Kirby Looks Back At Career Built On	3/5/2021	Elaine Clark	04:44	Arts and Entertainment		Two-Way	Utah. He spent 26 years as a humor columnist for the Salt Lake Tribune. In that time, he never shied away from lampooning the powerful, the
Human Irony							self-righteous and more often than not — himself. His writing ma			6:43					8:43
Oral Histories	3/5/2021	Savannah Maher	00:44	Crime and Law Enforcement		Voicer	A group of Indian law scholars is arguing for Indigenous knowledge to be admissible as court testimony. The Mountain West News Bureau's Savannah Maher reports.												17:04			18:32
Tribal Investment	3/8/2021	Savannah Maher	00:31	Politics and Government		Voicer	President Biden is expected to sign the massive COVID-19 relief bill this week. It includes the largest one-time investment the federal government has ever made in Indian Country. Savannah Maher (Mahr) of the Mountain West News Bureau has more.										16:32				18:04
Utah's Mask Mandate Set to Expire April 10 — Will Salt Lake County Institute Its Own?		Sonja Hutson	01:08	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19	Wrap	Utah's statewide mask mandate is ending April 10th. KUER's Sonja Hutson reports a mask requirement could be here to stay in the state's most populous county.									16:04				17:32
Oral Histories	3/8/2021	Savannah Maher	00:58	Race, Identity and Culture		Wrap	A group of Indian law scholars is arguing for Indigenous knowledge to be admissible as court testimony. The Mountain West News Bureau's Savannah Maher reports.				7:04			8:32
What Do Tampons Have To Do With The Tax Code?	3/8/2021	Maggie Mullen	04:10	Medicine and Health		Feature	The pandemic has caused huge revenue shortfalls in state budgets across our region and the country. In some places, that's meant a renewed conversation about taxes. But one of those conversations may not be what you would expect. The Mountain West News Bu			6:43					8:43
What Passed And What Failed — A Recap Of The 2021 Legislative Session	3/8/2021	Emily Means	01:38	Politics and Government		Superspot	Utah's legislative session wrapped up just before midnight on Friday. Lawmakers passed more than 500 bills and a 23 billion dollar budget. KUER's Emily Means reports.	6:04				7:32
WY Masks	3/8/2021	Maggie Mullen	00:55	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19	Wrap	Wyoming Governor Mark Gordon announced he will remove a statewide mask mandate along with other health orders next week. The Mountain West News Bureau's Maggie Mullen reports.												17:04			18:32
Tribal Investment	3/9/2021	Savannah Maher	00:56	Politics and Government		Wrap	President Biden is expected to sign the massive COVID-19 relief bill this week. It includes the largest one-time investment the federal government has ever made in Indian Country. Savannah Maher of the Mountain West News Bureau has more.				7:04			8:32
Insect Decline	3/9/2021	Stephanie Serrano	00:38	Agriculture and Environment		Voicer	Another study is showing a decline in butterflies across the American West. This latest research led by the University of Nevada says warmer auturns due to climate change are to blame. From the Mountain West News Bureau reports, Stephanie Serrano reports.												17:04			18:32
NPS Plunge	3/9/2021	Robyn Vincent	00:57	Business, Economics and Finance	COVID- 19	Wrap	It may have seemed like public lands were crowded in 2020. The reality is – national park visitation plunged last year. From the Mountain West News Bureau, Robyn Vincent reports. // {OUTRO: Here in Utah, the number of v												17:04			18:32
Students On The Navajo Nation In Utah Are Finally Getting Internet Service At Home	3/9/2021	Kate Groetzinger	01:05	Education		Wrap	The San Juan School District is close to completing a project to bring the internet to its students on the Navajo Nation. Not all students are online yet, but teachers say it's already making a difference. From KUER's Southeast News Bureau, Kate Groetzing										16:32				18:04
Health Departments Unused Vaccine Appointments Start To Pick Up With Changing Eligibility	3/9/2021	Jon Reed	01:04	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19	Wrap	The New York Times ranked Utah as one of the most efficient states in the country in using up its COVID-19 vaccines. But three have also been lots of appointments going unfilled. As KUER's Jon Reed reports, that's changing as the state coens up elidibilit	6:04				7:32
Seasonal Allergies Making You Miserable? Science Says It's Because Of Climate Change	3/10/2021	Caroline Ballard	04:43	Medicine and Health		Two-Way	Itchy eyes. Runny nose. Foggyeverything. Yep - the weather is warming and that means it's time to break out the antihistamines. But does it feel like allergy season starts earlier every year? Well, you're not imagining things. A new study shows rising											16:44					18:4
Analysis Of New Crowd-Funded Utah Teen Treatment Database Raises Questions About Effectiveness Of Inspections	3/10/2021	David Fuchs	03:50	Medicine and Health		Two-Way	Last week, the Salt Lake Tribune and KUER released a database of documents that show how the teen treatment industry is regulated in Utah. It contains the past five years worth of inspection reports for every youth residential treatment center in the stat			6:43					8:43
Lifting The Statewide Mask Mandate Could Leave Businesses In A Tough Place Again	3/10/2021	Jon Reed	01:03	Business, Economics and Finance	COVID- 19	Wrap	Utah's statewide mask mandate could go away next month. For some, that signals the end of the pandemic may be near. But as KUER's Jon Reed reports, that could also leave small business owners in a tough placeagain.	6:04				7:32
Insect Decline	3/10/2021	Stephanie Serrano	00:58	Science and Technology		Wrap	Another study is showing a decline in butterflies across the American West. This latest research led by the University of Nevada says warmer auturns due to climate change are the culprit. Stephanie Serrano of the the Mountain West News Bureau reports.		6:32				8:04

			1				A Democratic firebrand in Commenter has								1		· · · ·	1
Katie Porter	3/10/2021	Nate Hegyi	00:58	Politics and Government		Wrap	A Democratic firebrand in Congress has a new role overseeing the oil and gas industry. California Representative Katie Porter says she's taking aim at polluters. Nate Hegyi of the Mountain West News Bureau has more.											17:04			18:32
Wildfire Tool	3/10/2021	Madelyn Beck	00:41	Agriculture and Environment		Voicer	A new report could help you analyze the wildfire risks to homes in your state, county or even community. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports.									16:3	2			18:04
Disabled And Chronically III Utahns Say COVID-19 Vaccination Gives Them A Chance To Reclaim Normal Life	3/10/2021	Emily Means	01:01	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19	Wrap	Utah made COVID-19 vaccines available to people ages 16 and older with underlying medical conditions last month (February). KUER's Emily Means reports that's opened the door for younger people with disabilities to start getting vaccinated.								16:	04		17	:32
Capitol Riot Probe	3/11/2021	Robyn Vincent	01:02	Crime and Law Enforcement		Wrap	Republican Representative Lauren Boebert of Colorado still faces scrutiny for her possible involvement in the Capitol insurrection. The Mountain West News Bureau's Robyn Vincent reports.									16:3	2
Snow Storm	3/11/2021	Savannah Maher	00:41	Agriculture and Environment		Voicer	A potentially historic snowstorm will hit parts of the Mountain West this weekend. Savannah Maher of the Mountain West News Bureau reports.											17:04
After 2,000 COVID-19 Deaths In Utah, Gov. Spencer Cox Reflects On One Year Of The Pandemic	3/11/2021	Emily Means	01:01	Politics and Government	COVID- 19	Wrap	Utah Governor Spencer Cox reflected on the past year of the COVID-19 pandemic during a press conference this morning {Thursday}. KUER's Emily Means has more.								16:	04		17	:32
Wildfire Tool	3/11/2021	Madelyn Beck	00:58	Agriculture and Environment		Wrap	A new report could help you analyze the wildfire risks to homes in your state, county or even community. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck has more. // According to Headwaters Economics, 62% of Utah homes are either directly or indirectly at ri		6:32				8:04
Washington County Reservoirs Likely Won't Reach Capacity This Year. What Does That Mean For Recreation?	3/11/2021	Lexi Peery	00:57	Agriculture and Environment		Wrap	More people are visiting reservoirs in Washington County. But there's less water there to greet them because of exceptional drought conditions in the region. From KUER's Southwest news bureau Lexi Peery reports.	6:04				7:32
Across The Mountain West, COVID-19 Exposes Long-Standing Food Insecurity	3/11/2021	Stephanie Serrano	03:57	Business, Economics and Finance		Feature	The pandemic's economic toll has left many in the Mountain West struggling to feed their families. In fact – two states in our region have some of the nation's highest rates of child food insecurity. Nevada is tied with Louisiana at number 1. New Mexico			6:43				8:4	3
Vax Card	3/12/2021	Maggie Mullen	00:53	Business, Economics and Finance	COVID- 19	Wrap	If you've scrolled through social media recently, you might have seen it: people celebrating their COVID-19 vaccines by sharing pictures of their vaccination cards. The Federal Trade Commission is asking people to find other ways to mark the occasion. The											17:04			18:32
Snow Storm	3/12/2021	Savannah Maher		Agriculture and Environment		Wrap	A potentially historic snowstorm will hit parts of the Mountain West this weekend. Savannah Maher of the Mountain West News Bureau reports		6:32				8.04								10.02
Utah Poet Explores Family History And Latina Identity In New Collection	3/12/2021	Caroline Ballard	04:52	Arts and Entertainment		Two-Way	What makes up a person's identity? That's a question Utah-based poet Jacqueline Balderama wrestles with in her recent collection of poetry 'Now in Color." It's a meditation on her own family's history and her latina identity. I spoke with Balderama abou										16:44				18:4
Kane County Asks State To Lower Transmission Level, Says Jail Outbreak Skews Data	3/12/2021	Lexi Peery	00:59	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19	Wrap	Kane County has one of the highest COVID-19 two-week incident rates in Utah. But the county commission is asking the state not to designate it as a high transmission area. From KUER's Southwest hews bureauLexi Peery reports.								16:	04					18:32
Navajo Nation Will Begin To Reopen Based On High Vaccination Rate And Falling COVID-19 Cases	3/12/2021	Kate Groetzinger	01:04	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19	Wrap	The Navajo Nation will begin lifting COVID- related restrictions on Monday. That's due to a steep decline in cases across the reservationincluding in Utah. From KUER's Southeast News Bureau, Kate Groetzinger has more.	6:04				7:32
Bicycle Shortage	3/15/2021	Nate Hegyi	01:02	Arts and Entertainment	COVID- 19	Wrap	Warmer weather is just around the corner. For many in our region that means bicycling. But if you're looking to purchase a brand new bike for the season you may be out of luck. The Mountain West News Bureau's Nate Hugyl explains.				7:04	-		8:32
Vax Cards	3/15/2021	Maggie Mullen	00:29	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19	Voicer	COVID-19 vaccination cards. You may be seeing a lot of them shared on social media.It's a way people are celebrating their vaccinations. But the Federal Trade Commission is urging people to find other ways. Maggie Mullen of the Mountain West News Bureau e		6:32		7:04
Utah May Have to Return $100 Million in Federal Coronavirus Relief Money Due to State Tax Cuts	3/15/2021	Sonja Hutson	01:01	Business, Economics and Finance		Wrap	A provision in the latest Covid relief package prevents states from using federal funds for tax cuts. That's if the cuts came after March 1st like Utah's. KUER's Sonja Hutson explains that means the state might have to return 100 million dollars in aid	6:04				7:32

The Nausia Language Coss To							NASA is using the Navajo language to name
The Navajo Language Goes To Mars: NASA Engineer Explains Historic Collaboration	3/15/2021	Kate Groetzinger	01:01	Race, Identity and Culture		Wrap	features on the surface of Mars. From KUER's Southeast News Bureau, Kate Groetzinger tells us more about this unlikely collaboration between the space agency and the Navajo Nation.								16:	2			18:04
Graduation Plans	3/15/2021	Maggie Mullen	00:52	Education	COVID- 19	Wrap	Graduation day is on the horizon for college seniors. Whether the ceremonies are in person or online depends on the school. From the Mountain West News Bureau, Maggie Mullen reports. // Brigham Young University's commencement ceremonies are on April 22, a										17:04			18:32	2
Haaland and Colorado River	3/16/2021	Luke Runyon	00:48	Agriculture and Environment		Wrap	More than 60 percent of Utahns rely on the Colorado River for water. Over the next several years, states and other stakeholders will be renegoliating how the river is managed. Newly confirmed Interior Secretary Deb Haaland {HOLLAND} will oversee that proc								16:04		-	17:32
tahns With Disabilities Navigate adblocks To Accessing COVID- 19 Vaccinations	3/16/2021	Sonja Hutson	01:14	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19	Wrap	Utahns with disabilities are facing accessibility issues when trying to get the COVID-19 vaccine. (OPT Challenges include signing up for appointments online, finding transportation to vaccine clinics, and filling out medical forms.) KUER's Sonja Hutson ha	6:04				7:32
Salmonella Birds	3/16/2021	Madelyn Beck	01:03	Agriculture and Environment		Wrap	A salmonella outbreak is killing birds in parts of the Mountain West. It's also spreading. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck has more.				7:04		8:32
New Suicide Prevention Efforts argeted At Latino Community In West Valley City	3/16/2021	Jon Reed	01:04	Medicine and Health		Wrap	Latinos are two and a half times more likely than white people to die by suicide in Utah. KUER's Jon Reed reports Utah leaders are launching a new campaign about suicide prevention for their community. // If you or someone you know needs help, call the Na								16::	2			18:04
Renewable Jobs	3/16/2021	Madelyn Beck	01:01	Business, Economics and Finance		Wrap	Renewable energy made historic gains last year. But the number of U-S renewable energy "jobs" went down. From the Mountain West News Bureau, Madelyn Beck explains.										17:04			18:32	2
n Haaland, Republicans See A reat To Fossil Fuels. Tribes See An Opportunity To Diversify	3/16/2021	Savannah Maher	04:08	Business, Economics and Finance		Feature	Deb Haaland (HOL-land) was confirmed yesterday (Monday) as the new head of the Department of the Interior. She's the first Native American to hold a cabinet position. Utah Republican Senator Mitt Romey voted against her nomination. He said he was concern			6:43				8:43
COVID Homeless	3/17/2021	Robyn Vincent	01:01	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19	Wrap	New research shows people experiencing homelessness are 30 percent more likely to die from COVID-19 than the general public. The Mountain West News Bureau's Robyn Vincent reports.				7:04		8:32
alt Lake County Officials Gear Up or Another Wildfire Season, Urge People To Be Proactive	3/17/2021	Lexi Peery	00:58	Agriculture and Environment		Wrap	Fire authorities in Salt Lake County are gearing up for the 20-21 wildfire season. As KUER's Lexi Peery reports, they told the county council yesterday {Tuesday} that they should be preparing all year long.	6:04				7:32
Renewable Jobs	3/17/2021	Madelyn Beck	00:41	Business, Economics and Finance		Voicer	Renewables made historic gains last year. But the number of U-S renewable energy 'jobs' went down. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck explains. // According to the Bureau of Labor Statistics and B-W Research Partnership Utah lost more than 2		6:32				8:04
We're Not Immune To It': Utah's sian American Community Reacts To Atlanta Shooting	3/17/2021	Ivana Martinez	01:04	Race, Identity and Culture		Wrap	Last night (Tuesday), a man killed eight people in a series of spa shootings around Atlanta. Six of the victims were Asian women. KUER's Ivana {ee-VAWN-uh} Martinez tells us how Utah's Asian-American community is responding to the tragic events. TAG:								16:04			17:32
A Grand Compromise: Tourism obby And Grand County Work Fogether On Hotel Tax Reform	3/17/2021	Kate Groetzinger	00:59	Politics and Government		Wrap	National parks in Utah are often in rural counties. These counties have to pay for services and infrastructure for millions of tourists. That's becoming a problem as more people visit the state. From KUER's Southeast Utah Bureau, Kate Groetinger tells us								16:	2			18:04
Wildfire Smoke	3/17/2021	Maggie Mullen	00:44	Agriculture and Environment		Wrap	Cleaner air has been considered a silver lining to the pandemic. But, according to new data, last summer's wildfire smoke cancelled out those improvements in the U-S. From the Mountain West News Bureau, Maggie Mullen reports.										17:04			18:32	2
172 Bills	3/17/2021	Sonja Hutson	00:55	Politics and Government		Voicer	Governor Spencer Cox signed 172 bills yesterday (Tuesday). KUER's Sonja Hutson gives us the highlights.		6:32				8:04
Haaland Visit	3/18/2021	Kate Groetzinger	00:40	Agriculture and Environment		Voicer	gives us the nightights. Interior Secretary Deb Haaland (HOL-land) plans to visit Ulah next month. She'll tour Bears Ears and Grand Staircase-Escalante National Monuments. From KUER's Southeast News Bureau, Kate Groetzinger has more.		0.02		7:04		8:32
Bills Bills Bills	3/18/2021	Sonja Hutson	00:45	Politics and Government		Voicer	Utah Governor Spencer Cox signed another 130 bills into law yesterday {Wednesday}. KUER's Sonja Hutson explains.				7:04		8:32							18:32

							Last year March Madness was canceled. But the					1			 1	1	 1	1	1
Wyoming Cowgirls Head To Big Dance After Winning First	3/18/2021	Stephanie Serrano	04:20	Arts and Entertainment		Feature	N-C Double A tournament is back. More than one hundred teams will fight for both the women's and men's national basketball titles.
Mountain West Championship							And there's a team in our region that's making its own history. The Mountain W		6:43					8:43
White Supremacy Propaganda	3/18/2021	Nate Hegyi	00:43	Race, Identity and Culture		Wrap	The Mountain West saw a dramatic increase in white supremacist propaganda last year. That's according to a new report from the Anti- Defamation League. Nate Hegyi of the Mountain West News Bureau reports.		6:32			8:04
It's Been A Year Since The Magna Earthquake. Is Utah Prepared For The Next One?	3/18/2021	Jon Reed	01:02	Agriculture and Environment		Wrap	Today marks the 1 year anniversary of the Magna earthquake that shock the Salt Lake Valley, KUER's an Reed has more on the quake's lingeri geffcstand what we've learned, // For more on earthquake preparation, the Utah State Historic Preservation Of	6:04			7:32
All Utahns Ages 16 And Up Will Be Eligible For A COVID-19 Vaccine March 24	3/18/2021	Sonja Hutson	01:05	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19	Wrap	All Utahns 16-years-old and older will be eligible to get a COVID-19 vaccine starting next Wednesday. KUER's Sonja Hutson tells us that's about a week sconer than Governor Spencer Cox estimated before.								16:04			17:32
Misinformation	3/18/2021	Stephanie Serrano	01:03	Race, Identity and Culture	COVID- 19	Wrap	There's a new campaign putting pressure on Facebook to combat political and COVID-19 disinformation in Spanish. From the Mountain West News Bureau, Stephanie Serrano reports.									16:32			18:04
Moab May Be Running Out Of Water. That's Prompting Residents To Rethink Conservation And Development.	3/19/2021	Kate Groetzinger	04:15	Agriculture and Environment		Feature	Some communities in the West that are solely reliant on groundwater are starting to run into problems. That's the case in Moab. The tourist hot spot gets most of its supply from an underground aquifer. But recent studies found there's less water than prev		6:43					8:43
Region Asian Reax	3/19/2021	Robyn Vincent	01:02	Race, Identity and Culture		Wrap	Heatbroken — but not surprised. That's how some Asian-Americans describe their reaction to Tuesday's mass shooting of several Asian women in Georgia. The Mountain West News Bureau's Robyn Vincent reports. // {OPT: President Joe Biden has ordered flags be			7:04			8:32
Drought Emergency Nothing New For Utah Farmers, But State Officials Hope The Message Reaches Public.	3/19/2021	Jon Reed	01:06	Agriculture and Environment		Wrap	Governor Spencer Cox declared a state of emergency earlier this week due to Utah's drought conditions. KUER's Jon Reed has more on what that means and who it affects.	6:04			7:32
Blackfeet Nation	3/19/2021	Savannah Maher	00:55	Medicine and Health		Wrap	Tribes in the Mountain West are far ahead of the curve when it comes to COVID-19 vaccination. From Mountain West News Bureau, Savannah Maher (mar) says that's allowed some tribes to begin re-opening.								16:04			17:32
A Year Apart: How The Pandemic Has Impacted Local Health Department Directors	3/19/2021	Lexi Peery	01:33	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19	Superspot	Last March, Utah reported its first COVID-19 cases. Since then, the state has seen more than 380-thousand infections. Now, a year later, KUER is sharing stories about how the coronavirus changed everything. From KUER's Southwest heves bureau, Lexi Peery te										17:04			18:32
Misinformation	3/19/2021	Stephanie Serrano	00:50	Business, Economics and Finance	COVID- 19	Voicer	A new campaign is putting pressure on Facebook to combat Spanish political and COVID-19 disinformation. The Mountain West News Bureau's Stephanie Serrano reports.		6:32			8:04
A Colorado River Showdown Is Looming. Let The Posturing Begin	3/22/2021	Lexi Peery	04:19	Agriculture and Environment		Pinwheel	A showdown is looming among the states that rely on the Colorado River for water. Negotiations are set to start on the river's future among worsening drought conditions. Right now, western water leaders are attempting to work out their internal issues bef		6:43					8:43
Blackfeet Nation	3/22/2021	Savannah Maher	00:42	Medicine and Health		Voicer	Tribes in the Mountain West are far ahead of the curve when it comes to COVID-19 vaccination. The Mountain West News Bureau's Savannah Maher (mar) reports that's allowed some to begin re-opening.		6:32			8:04
Gassy Cows	3/22/2021	Stephanie Serrano	01:01	Agriculture and Environment		Wrap	New research finds that feeding cows seaweed can cut their methane emissions by 82 percent. Cattle and other runinates produce more than a third of the greenhouse gases related to human activity. The Mountain West News Bureau Stephanie Serrano reports.			7:04			8:32
Kane County Commission Says Masks Not Required, But State Mandate Still In Effect	3/22/2021	Lexi Peery	01:00	Business, Economics and Finance	COVID- 19	Wrap	The Kane County Commission has issued a statement saying masks aren't required in the county. But the Utah Department of Health says the statewide mandate is still in effect. From KUER's Southwest news bureau Lexi Peery has more.								16:04			17:32
Ventilation	3/22/2021	Maggie Mullen	00:39	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19	Voicer	The C-D-C has eased social distancing in schools. Now they recommend staying just three feet apart. But when it comes to pandemic safety, indoor air quality may be a bigger problem. The Mountain West News Bureau's Maggie Mullen reports. // Ush health off									16:32			18:04

Employer Trust	3/22/2021	Madelyn Beck	00:57	Medicine and	COVID-	Wrap	As health officials battle vaccine hesitancy and reluctance around masks and social distancing, they could turn to business employers for help.
Employer Trust	3/22/2021	Madelyn Beck	00:57	Health	19	vv rap	The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports.												17:04			18:32
Latinx Utahns Faced Disproportionately High Rates Of COVID-19 — Now They're Being Vaccinated At Lower Rates	3/22/2021	Sonja Hutson	01:35	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19	Superspot	Racial minorities in Utah make up a disproportionately small percentage of people who have received a COVID-19 vaccine. That's according to data from the Utah Department of Health. KUER's Sonja Hutson explains.	6:04				7:32
Panguitch To Open Innovation Hub In Hopes Of Attracting And Retaining Remote Workers	3/23/2021	Lexi Peery	00:51	Business, Economics and Finance		Wrap	Garfield County is getting its own innovation center. With funding from local governments and the state people in Panguitch will be able to use the space for remote work and business start ups. From KUER's Southwest news bureau Lexi Peery has more.										16:32	2			18:04
K-12 Ventilation	3/23/2021	Maggie Mullen	01:06	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19	Wrap	At least one state in our region is tracing a number of recent COVID-19 outbreaks to schools. The Mountain West News Bureau's Maggie Mullen explains there are options to mitigate that. // Utah health officials have reported more than 35 thousand COVID-19		6:32				8:04
Utah Schools Are Working To Address Inequality, Create More Inclusive Environments For Students	3/23/2021	Jon Reed	01:02	Education		Wrap	During a panel discussion last night (Monday), superintendents from the Davis, Ogden and Weber school districts discussed how they're tackling systemic inequalities. KUER's Jon Reed has more on their efforts.	6:04				7:32
Mass Shootings	3/23/2021	Robyn Vincent	00:56	Crime and Law Enforcement		Wrap	Monday's mass shooting in Boulder, Colorado underscores the state's high rate of those kinds of incidents. But Colorado isn't alone. The Mountain West News Bureau's Robyn Vincent reports.												17:04			18:32
A Year Apart: How COVID-19 Changed The Game In Utah Politics	3/24/2021	Caroline Ballard	04:21	Politics and Government	COVID- 19	Two-Way	16:25 and 18:25; In March 2020, the first COVID- 19 cases were reported in Utah. Since then, the state has seem more than 382,000 infections and more than 2,000 Utahns have died from it. Now, after a year apart, KUER is sharing stories about how the corona
Mitt Romney Wants To Incentivize Americans To Have More Children With New Proposal	3/24/2021	Emily Means	01:03	Politics and Government		Wrap	Utah Senator Mitt Romney discussed his Family Security Act during a panel discussion yesterday {Tuesday}. As KUER's Emily Means reports, the Republican wants Americans to have more bables.	6:04				7:32
Mental Health	3/24/2021	Stephanie Serrano	00:55	Medicine and Health		Wrap	The pandemic Social justice protests in response to police bruality an insurrection at the nation's capital. Now our nation is dealing with two mass shootings. The Mountain West News Bureau's Stephanie Serrano spoke with trauma experts on how to												17:04			18:32
Utah Ranch For 'Troubled Teens' Could Lose Its License For Subjecting Kids To Forced Labor	3/24/2021	David Fuchs	00:44	Medicine and Health		Voicer	The Office of Licensing is Utah's main regulator of teen treatment businesses in the state. Yesterday (Tuesday) the office took the rare step of issuing its most severe penalty against a facility. KUER's David Fuchs (Fox) has more.										16:32	2			18:04
Parental Choice Will Drive Reopening Of Schools On Navajo Nation	3/24/2021	Kate Groetzinger	01:00	Education	COVID- 19	Wrap	The Navajo Nation is considering lifting its restriction on in-person education. That would allow schools in San Juan County that serve Navajo students to re-open. But only if parents are ready. From KUER's Southeast News Bureau, Kate Groetzinger has more									16:0	4					18:32
Nature Sounds	3/24/2021	Madelyn Beck	01:00	Medicine and Health		Wrap	A new study shows that listening to nature could have significant health benefits. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports.				7:04			8:32
Montana Governor Given Written Warning After Trapping, Killing Of Yellowstone Wolf	3/24/2021	Nate Hegyi	03:53	Agriculture and Environment		Feature	A few years ago - Greg Gianforte of Montana made international headlines when he body- slammed a reporter. He was running for congress then. Now he's Montana's gowernor. His personal actions are getting global attention again after he trapped and shot a			6:43					8.43
Mass Shootings	3/24/2021	Robyn Vincent	00:42	Crime and Law Enforcement		Voicer	Monday's mass shooting in Boulder, Colorado underscores the state's high rate of those kinds of incidents. But Colorado isn't alone		6:32				8.04
A Year Apart: How Utah's Small Businesses Have Fared During The Pandemic	3/25/2021	Jon Reed	01:37	Business, Economics and Finance	COVID- 19	Superspot	In March 2020, the first COVID-19 cases were reported in Utah. Since then, the state has seen more than 300 thousand infections and more than 2,000 Utahns have died from it. Now, after a year apart, KUER's Jon Reed looks back on how small businesses have	6:04	0.02			7:32	0.04
USPS Cuts	3/25/2021	Savannah Maher	00:58	Politics and Government		Wrap	Sweeping service cuts could be coming to the U- S Postal Service. That could have an outsized impact on rural areas. The Mountain West News Bureau's Savannah Maher reports.		6:32				8:04
Gov. Cox Gets Vaccine, Announces Financial Relief For Family Members Of People Who Died From COVID	3/25/2021	Emily Means	01:03	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19	Wrap	Utah's governor and First Lady got their first dose of the COVID-19 vaccine today {Thursday}. KUER's Emly Means has more from the day's press conference.									16:0	4		17:3	2

Weaponizing Tragedy	3/25/2021	Robyn Vincent	00:58	Race, Identity and Culture		Wrap	At least one extremism expert is sounding the alarm about far-right actors using the mass shooting in Boulder to sow division. The Mountain West News Bureau's Robyn Vincent has more. Several states in Mountain West are ahead of										17:04			18:32
Vaxx Speeding Up	3/25/2021	Maggie Mullen	00:45	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19	Voicer	COVID vaccine to all adults. Maggie Mullen of the Mountain West News Bureau reports.								16	32			18:04
A Whale, A Roundabout And A Colony Of Gnomes Are At A Crossroads In Ninth And Ninth	3/26/2021	Benjamin Bombard	04:58	Arts and Entertainment		Feature	A public art debate is swirling in Salt Lake City's Ninth and Ninth neighborhood. The debate centers on a roundaboul. It pils the defenders of the current residentis there against a surprising newcomer to the neighborhood. KUER producer Benjamin Bombard ha									16:44					18:44
A Girl, Her Hands Zip Tied, Was Forced To Sit In A Horse Trough At A Utah 'Troubled-Teen' Center	3/26/2021	David Fuchs	05:27	Crime and Law Enforcement		Feature	Utahns can now see SOME of what happens behind the closed doors of the state's teen treatment industry. That's thanks to a new, searchable trove of state inspections and investigations of youth facilities published by KUER, the Satt Lake Tribune and APM			6:43			8	43
Interior Department Kicks Off Energy Leasing Review With Wide Range Of Voices	3/26/2021	Kate Groetzinger	01:04	Agriculture and Environment		Wrap	The U.S. Interior Department's leasing review is in full swing, following a call yesterday with a range of stakeholders. President Joe Biden requested the review back in January, when he indefinitely paused energy leasing on federal public lands. From KUE	6:04			7:32
Utah's Incarcerated Youth Higher Education Program Is Set To Start This Summer	3/26/2021	Lexi Peery	01:01	Education		Wrap	Some incarcerated youth in Utah will soon be able to take college classes. A bill recently signed by the governor sets up the program. From KUER's Southwest news bureau Lexi Peery has more.								16:04			17:32
Snowboarder Trial	3/26/2021	Madelyn Beck	01:04	Crime and Law Enforcement		Wrap	Not enough jurors showed up for a trial in Colorado this week. Some fear that could have significant implications for avalanche safety in the region. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports.								16	32			18:04
Virtual Gardening	3/26/2021	Stephanie Serrano	00:35	Agriculture and Environment		Voicer	The pandemic launched a ton of people into the world of gardening for the first time when stay-at- home orders were placed. Now, anyone across our region can refine their harvesting skills by tuning into free virtual workshops next month. The Mountain West										17:04			18:32
A Year Apart: Utahns Reflect On Their Lives Since The Pandemic Began	3/26/2021	Ross Terrell	01:49	Race, Identity and Culture	COVID- 19	Superspot	In March 2020, the first COVID-19 cases were reported in Utah. Now, KUER brings you stories from residents who reflect on how their life has been impacted by the pandemic over the past year.//That was Casey Thredgold, James Longstaff, Diane Bradford, Meg		6:32			8:04
Proposed Apartment On Salt Lake City's West Side Leaves Residents Wondering Where To Go Next	3/29/2021	Emily Means	04:11	Business, Economics and Finance		Feature	The Rose Park neighborhood on the west side of Salt Lake City has historically had some of the most affordable housing in town. It's also one of the most racially diverse neighborhoods in the city. But as new housing developments pop up, some community me			6:43			8	43
Southern Utah University Might Just Have The Cheapest 4-Year Degree Program In The Country	3/29/2021	Jon Reed	01:04	Education		Wrap	Southern Utah University has what it says might be the cheapest 4-year degree in the country. KUER's Jon Reed has more on the recently- launched program.			7:0	4		8:32	_
Snowboarder Trial	3/29/2021	Madelyn Beck	01:28	Crime and Law Enforcement		Superspot	Not enough jurors showed up for a trial in Colorado this week. Some fear that could have significant implications for avalanche safety in the region. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports.		6:32			8:04
Vaccine Passport	3/29/2021	Madelyn Beck	00:58	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19	Wrap	Certain schools, airlines and organizations could soon ask for proof that someone has gotten a COVID-19 vaccine. It could be something like a virtual vaccine passport. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports.										17:04			18:32
Allegations Of Harassment At Salt Lake County GOP Bring Up Unresolved Incidents With Utah Democrats	3/29/2021	Emily Means	01:29	Politics and Government		Superspot	Prominent Utah Republicans quickly responded to The Salt Lake Tribune's report about the Salt Lake County GOP. The governor and the chair of the state's Republican Party condemned the behavior after several women came out with allegations of bullying. As								16:04			17:32
Government And Service Providers Partner To Remove Vaccine Barriers For Unsheltered People In Salt Lake County	3/30/2021	Emily Means	00:58	Medicine and Health		Wrap	Salt Lake City hosted a COVID-19 vaccination clinic for people experiencing homelessness this afternoon (Tuesday). KUER's Emily Means has more on how the effort is going for unsheltered people in Salt Lake County.								16:04			17:32
Surge	3/30/2021	Savannah Maher	00:46	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19	Voicer	Federal officials are warning of another coronavirus surge if Americans let their guards down. The Mountain West News Bureau's Savannah Maher reports our region could be especially vulnerable.										17:04			18:32
Vaccine Rollout Highlights Tribal Health Programs' Strengths Despite Chronic Underfunding	3/30/2021	Savannah Maher	04:20	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19	Feature	The COVID-19 Vaccine rollout has been swift on tribal lands across the Mountain West. Some urban Native people in our region have felt left behind though. The Mountain West News Bureau's Savannah Maher {mar} peorts.									16:44					18:4

							Tribal Governments have been leaders in the
Push To Vaccinate Indigenous Americans Leaves Some Urban Indians 'Out Of The Loop'	3/30/2021	Savannah Maher	04:15	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19	Feature	nation's coronavirus response. They imposed some of the earliest and strictest lockdowns to slow the spread. Now, they're far ahead of the vaccination curve. The Mountain West News
Utah's Bail Reform Law Will Be Repealed in May. What Happens	2/20/2021	Sonja Hutson	01:04	Crime and Law		Wrap	Bureau's Savannah Maher {mar} A major bail reform law in Utah passed last year is set to be repealed in May. But some prosecutors and defense attorneys plan to			6:43					8:43
Next?	3/30/2021	Sonja Hutson	01.04	Enforcement		wiap	adhere to the current law as much as possible even after it's gone. KUER's Sonja Hutson explains.	6:04				7:32
Climate Change Economist	3/30/2021	Nate Hegyi		Business, Economics and Finance		Wrap	Many oil, gas and coal-dependent communities in the region are concerned about the Biden administration's aggressive stance on climate change. But a recent poll (3/30) of hundreds of economists shows that reducing emissions now will save us financially in										16:32				18:04
Vaccine Passport	3/30/2021	Madelyn Beck	00:49	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19	Voicer	Certain schools, airlines and organizations could soon ask for proof that someone has gotten a COVID-19 vaccine. It could be something like a virtual vaccine passport. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports.		6:32				8:04
Ski Pass	3/30/2021	Nate Hegyi	00:59	Business, Economics and Finance	COVID- 19	Wrap	Last autumn many ski resorts in were concerned about how their season would play out because of the pandemic. But many fared better than expected. The Mountain West News Bureau's Nate Hegyi has more.				7:04			8:32
Invisibility And Fragility: Asian Americans In Mountain West Reflect On Atlanta Mass Shootings	3/31/2021	Robyn Vincent	04:28	Race, Identity and Culture		Feature	A recent national survey found that Asian Americans have experienced more harassment than any other racial or ethnic group during the pandemic. The Mountain West News Bureau's Robyn Vincent spoke with Asian Americans in the region about the rise in anti-A			6:43					8:43
Surge	3/31/2021	Savannah Maher	01:06	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19	Wrap	Federal officials are warning of another coronavirus surge if Americans let their guards down. Our region could be especially vulnerable. The Mountain West News Bureau's Savannah Maher reports. // Utah health officials reported 371 new cases of COVID-19 y		6:32				8:04
A Year Apart: Epidemiologist Reflects On What We Got Right — And Wrong — In The Pandemic Response	3/31/2021	Caroline Ballard	04:44	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19	Two-Way	In March 2020, the first COVID-19 cases were reported in Utah. Now, after a year apart, KUER is sharing stories about how the coronavirus changed everything. In February 2020, I spoke with epidemiologist Dr. Andrew Pavia about how COVID-19 might play out											16:44				18:4
Advocates Say Transgender Day Of Visibility Is One For Celebration And Education	3/31/2021	Lexi Peery		Politics and Government		Wrap	Today (Wednesday) is Transgender Day of Visibility. It comes at a time when trans youth are being targeted by controversial legislation across the country. From KUER's Southwest news bureau Lexi Peery has more.									16:04				17:32
Salt Lake Tribune Is Now Accepting 'Redaction Requests' For Past Coverage	3/31/2021	Ivana Martinez	00:54	Crime and Law Enforcement		Wrap	The Salt Lake Tribune is accepting requests from people who want their name or image removed from past coverage. KUER's Ivana Martinez has more.										16:32				18:04
Wildfire Season	3/31/2021	Maggie Mullen	00:36	Agriculture and Environment		Voicer	It's not quite summer, but wildfires are already here. The East Myton Fire is burning more than 27 hundred acres in eastern Duchesne (doo- SHAYNE) County right now. The Mountain West News Bureau's Maggie Mullen reports this is a sign of things to come.												17:04		18:32
Migration	3/31/2021	Madelyn Beck	00:50	Science and Technology		Wrap	Spring bird migration is underway. Th Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports on how you can help flocks on their way.												17:04		18:32
A Year Apart: Tourism In Southern Utah Is Returning To Normal After a Rocky 12 Months	3/31/2021	Kate Groetzinger	01:34	Business, Economics and Finance	COVID- 19	Superspot	In March 2020, the first COVID-19 cases were reported in Utah. Since then, the state has seen more than 355-thousand infections. Now, after a year apart, KUER is sharing stories about how the coronavirus changed everything. From KUER's Southeast News Bure	6:04					8:04
A Bid To End The Death Penalty Goes Beyond Partisan Lines	4/1/2021	Maggie Mullen	03:59	Crime and Law Enforcement		Feature	Last month – Wyoming lawmakers considered putting an end to the death penalty in the state. The repeal elfort had bona fide bipartisan support. The Mountain West News Bureau's Maggie Mullen has the story. // Utah is one of 28 states with the death penalty			6:43					8:43
Wildfire Season	4/1/2021	Maggie Mullen		Agriculture and Environment		Wrap	It's not quite summer, but wildfires are already here. The East Myton Fire is burning more than 27 hundred acres in eastern Duchesne County right now. The Mountain West News Bureau's Maggie Mullen reports this is a sign of things to come.		6:32				8:04
COVID Childcare	4/1/2021	Jon Reed	00:57	Education		Wrap	Utah is expected to receive about 425 million dollars in federal relief funding for child care services. Before the pandemic, some people described Utah as a child care desert. But as KUER's Jon Reed reports, advocates are hoping the new money can help ch	6:04				7:32
New Executive Order Aims To Close Resume Gaps For Older Adults' Looking To Get Back In The Workforce	4/1/2021	Sonja Hutson	01:10	Business, Economics and Finance	COVID- 19	Wrap	Utah's governor and lieutenant governor want to help older adults who have been out of work get jobs again. KUER's Sonja Hutson has more on the effort announced today {Thursday}									16:04				17:32

Women's Sports	4/1/2021	Stephanie Serrano	00:33	Arts and Entertainment		Voicer	New analysis shows television news and ESPN's SportsCenter continue to focus the lion's share of their coverage on men's sports. The Mountain West News Bureau's Stephanie Serrano reports.										17:04		18:32
Women's Sports	4/2/2021	Stephanie Serrano	00:33	Arts and Entertainment		Voicer	New analysis shows television news and ESPN's SportsCenter continue to focus the lion's share of their coverage on men's sports. The Mountain West News Bureau's Stephanie Serrano reports.										17:04		18:32
Community Colleges	4/2/2021	Madelyn Beck	00:51	Education		Wrap	College enrollment saw a significant dip throughout the U-S last year. Rural community colleges were hit especially hard. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports.										17:04		18:32
Health Providers Step Up Outreach On Navajo Nation, As Demand For COVID Vaccine Drops	4/2/2021	Kate Groetzinger	00:58	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19	Wrap	COVID-19 vaccinations on the Utah portion of the Navajo Nation are starting to slow down. Shots have been available to all adults there for over a month. From KUER's Southeast News Bureau, Kate Groetzinger has more.								16:04			17:32
Vaccine Incentive	4/2/2021	Savannah Maher	00:57	Medicine and Health		Wrap	COVID-19 vaccine hesitancy is high among prison workers. One state in the region has a unique plan to address that. The Mountain West News Bureau's Savannah Maher has more.			7:1)4		8:32
The Birds Are Back In Town: Spring Migration Underway In The Mountain West	4/2/2021	Madelyn Beck	04:35	Science and Technology		Feature	If you go outside and take a walk, you might sense it's finally spring. If not from the temperatures, or budding grass, you can certainly tell by what you hear. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck has the story.			6:43				8:43
Women's Sports	4/2/2021	Stephanie Serrano	00:57	Arts and Entertainment		Wrap	New analysis shows television news continues to focus the lion's share of coverage on men's sports. The Mountain West News Bureau's Stephanie Serrano reports.		6:32			8:0)4
Latter-day Saints' Handbook Update Cautions Against 'Extreme Survivalism'	4/2/2021	Lexi Peery	01:12	Religion		Superspot	The Church :DLDof Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints announced updates to its handbook earlier this week. There are new policies related to vaccines, affinity fraud and "extreme preparation or survivalism." From KUER's Southwest news bureau Lexi Peery ha	6:04			7:	32
Locals Weigh Historic Preservation And Modernization As Manti Temple Faces Renovation	4/2/2021	Lexi Peery	05:20	Religion		Feature	Utah's Sanpete County is home to one of the oldest temples for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. The Church is planning to renovate the building and that includes removing historic and cherished murals. KUER's Leav Peery has more.									16:44				18:44
Mask Caution	4/5/2021	Robyn Vincent	00:42	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19	Voicer	Colorado is the latest Western state to ease its mask mandate amid a national rise in COVID cases. The Mountain West News Bureau's Robyn Vincent reports.											17:32
Parts Of Utah In High Fire Danger, Officials Concerned About Human- Caused Starts And Dry Conditions	4/5/2021	Lexi Peery	00:35	Agriculture and Environment		Voicer	The official start of Utah's fire season is still two months away. But officials are already concerned about human-caused fires and current weather conditions. From KUER's Southwest news bureau Lexi Peery reports								16:32				18:32
Climate Crops	4/5/2021	Stephanie Serrano	01:03	Agriculture and Environment		Wrap	Global warming will threaten agricultural crops. The heat waves that could be brought on by climate change could make that even worse. The Mountain West News Bureau's Stephanie Serrano reports.			7:	04
New Residency Aims To Connect Artists And Scientists On Path To Climate Solutions	4/5/2021	Jon Reed	01:04	Agriculture and Environment		Wrap	A new residency at the University of Utah is working to bring artists and scientists together to explore sustainability issues. KUER's Jon Reed has more on the collaboration.	6:04				8:0)4
Missing and Murdered	4/6/2021	Nate Hegyi	00:56	Crime and Law Enforcement		Wrap	The Interior Department has created a new unit to tackle the longstanding crisis of missing and murdered Indigenous people. Congress has appropriated 7 million dollars towards the effort. The Mountain West New Bureau's Nate Hegyi reports.			7:1	04
Haaland in the West	4/6/2021	Savannah Maher	00:37	Politics and Government		Voicer	Secretary of the Interior Deb Halaand is visiting the region this week. She met today {Tuesday} with the Governors of nine Pueblo communities in New Mexico. The Mountain West News Bureau's Savannah Maher reports.								16:32				18:32
Utah Valley University Ranks Highest In The State For Student Earnings After College	4/6/2021	Jon Reed	00:59	Education		Wrap	The college data company Optimal has come out with a new list that ranks schools based on the average salary of graduates. As KUER's Jon Reed reports, no Utah schools cracked the top 50.	6:04				8:0	04
Paris Hilton Joins Celebration Of Utah's New Restrictions On Troubled-Teen Treatment Centers	4/6/2021	David Fuchs	00:32	Politics and Government		Voicer	Governor Spencer Cox, several lawmakers and celebrity Paris Hilton gathered this afternoon {Tuesday} at the Utah State Capitol. KUER's David Fuchs {Fox} has more.											17:32
More People In Kane County Means More Poop, Officials Hoping To Better Educate Public	4/7/2021	Lexi Peery	00:31	Agriculture and Environment		Voicer	Kane County saw a wave of tourists last year because of the pandemic. With tourists came challenges with crowding, graffiti, and poop. From KUER's Southwest news bureau Lexi Peery reports.								16:32				18:32

Survey Says Roughly 16% Of Utah Women Left the Workforce During the Pandemic	4/7/2021	Sonja Hutson	00:28	Business, Economics and Finance	COVID- 19	Voicer	The top two reasons Utah women left the workplace during the pandemic was caring for their kids and their employers losing business. That's according to a new survey from Utah State University's Utah Women and Leadership Project. KUER's Sonja Hutson has m	6:04			7:04
Voting At Bat	4/7/2021	Robyn Vincent	00:29	Politics and Government		Voicer	Project. KOEK's Sonja Hutson has m	0.04			7.04								17:32
Salt Lake City Bringing 'Downtown Ambassadors' To Help Address Safety Issues On West Side	4/7/2021	Emily Means	00:56	Crime and Law Enforcement		Wrap	Salt Lake City leaders announced a new plan yesterday (Tuesday) to address safety concerns on the west side of the city. Residents and business owners have compliand about crime, drug use and homeless encampments there. KUER's Emily Means has more.	6:04					8:04
Salt Lake County Decides Not To Issue A New Mask Mandate, But Salt Lake City Will	4/8/2021	Sonja Hutson	00:54	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19	Wrap	The Salt Lake County Council will NOT institute a new mask mandate when the statewide one ends on Saturday. KUER's Sonja Hutson has more.	6:04					8:04
Haaland	4/8/2021	Kate Groetzinger	00:37	Politics and Government		Wrap	Interior Secretary Deb Haaland (Holland) met with tribal and Utah state leaders yesterday (Wednesday) to talk about Bears Ears National Monument. Former-president Donald Trump shrunk the monument by 85% in 20-17. From KUER's Southeast News Bureau, Kate Gr										16:32			18:32
Indian Child Adoption	4/8/2021	Savannah Maher	01:00	Race, Identity and Culture		Wrap	On Tuesday (4/6), the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals broadly upheld the Indian Child Welfare Act – or ICWA. (lik-wha) Judges did find some key parts of the law unconstitutional though. The Mountain West News Bureau's Savannah Maher reports.				7:04
Salt Lake City School District Hoping Delayed School Start Times Will Mean More Sleep, Better Outcomes For Stu	4/9/2021	Jon Reed	00:29	Education		Voicer	Students in the Salt Lake City School District will be able to sleep in a little more next fail. The district voted on it this week. KUER's Jon Reed tells us why it's delaying the start time for some schools by an hour. Interior Secretary Deb Haaland (HOL-land)										16:32			18:32
Haaland Presser	4/9/2021	Kate Groetzinger	01:21	Agriculture and Environment		Superspot	visited San Juan County this week (4/7-4/9). She's conducting a review of Bears Ears National Monument ordered by President Joe Biden. From KUER's Southeast News Bureau, Kate Groetzinger has more.	6:04					8:04
Vaccine Passport Pushback	4/9/2021	Madelyn Beck	00:55	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19	Wrap	Several leaders in our region have rejected the use of vaccine passports. That's proof that you've gotten the COVID-19 vaccine. Their actions so far range from denunciations to executive orders. Those wouldn't affect private
Interior Budget	4/12/2021	Nate Hegyi	00:59	Politics and Government		Wrap	businesses, but those busines The Biden administration recently (Friday) unvelled its budget plan for managing the nation's public lands. It contains big funding boosts for conservation. The Mountain West News Bureau's Nate Hegy has more.				7:04			8:32
How Recent Elections Impacted New Utah Voting Laws	4/12/2021	Sonja Hutson	01:08	Politics and Government		Wrap	Several new Utah voting laws will take effect next month. KUER's Sonja Hutson explains how they're related to recent Utah elections.									16:04			17:32
Child Tax Credit Expansion	4/12/2021	Savannah Maher	00:45	Politics and Government		Voicer	President Joe Biden's American Rescue Plan includes a temporary boost to the Child Tax Credit. From the Mountain West News Bureau, Savannah Maher tells us what that means for rural parts of the region.				7:04			8:32		10.04
Student Debt Is At An All-Time High. Could Insuring Degrees Be A Solution?	4/12/2021	Jon Reed	04:48	Education		Feature	There is a lot of attention right now on college debt – It's reached record heights during the pandemic. Americans owe a collective $1.6 TRLLION dolars in student loans. The federal government is considering canceling some of it. Still, that work hel			6:43					8:43
Masks Forever?	4/12/2021	Stephanie Serrano	00:57	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19	Wrap	This past year, we saw the lowest number of flu- related hospitalizations recorded since 2005. According to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, that's because people are taking more public health precautions related to the pandemic – like wear		6:32				8:04
Some Judges Say Their Courtrooms Won't Be Returning To Old Practices After Bail Reform Repeal	4/12/2021	Sonja Hutson	01:07	Crime and Law Enforcement		Wrap	A landmark piece of Utah bail reform legislation will be repealed under a new state law next month. But, some judges say their courtrooms won't fully return to the old way of doing things. KUER's Sonja Hutson explains.	6:04				7:32
	4/13/2021	Stephanie Serrano	01:11	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19	Wrap	The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and the Food and Drug Administration are issuing a "pause" on distribution of the Johnson and Johnson COVID-19 vaccine. They're investigating the potential link between extremely rare reports of blood clots a									16:04			17:32
Iron County Commission Creates Constitutional Defense Council To Review Federal And State Mandates	4/13/2021	Lexi Peery	01:03	Politics and Government		Wrap	The Iron County Commission passed an ordinance yesterday to create a "Constitutional Defense Council." From KUER's Southwest news bureau, Lexi Peery reports.	6:04				7:32
Interior Budget	4/13/2021	Nate Hegyi	00:36	Politics and Government		Wrap			6:32				8:04

							This week, the N-C-A-A came out in support of transgender athletes. Thirty-two state legislatures
Trans Bill	4/13/2021	Robyn Vincent	00:32	Race, Identity and Culture		Voicer	have introduced bills this year limiting the participation of such athletes. The N-C-A-A stopped short though of a commitment to pull championships from stat								16:3	2			18:04
Utah's Whopping C+ On White House Infrastructure Report Was The Best In The Country	4/13/2021	Jon Reed		Business, Economics and Finance		Wrap	Utah received the highest grade of any state in the countryin a White House report on public infrastructure. But it still only got a C-plus. KUER's Jon Reed has more on the state's needs.										17:04			18:32
Rural Rec Data	4/13/2021	Robyn Vincent	00:59	Agriculture and Environment		Wrap	Visitors have come to Western communities during the pandemic to enjoy public lands in the region. It's been a LOT of people but right now, we don't have a good way to track that crucial data. From the Mountain West News Bureau, Robyn Vincent reports.				7:04		8:3	2
Colorado River Tribes Aim To Establish 'One Unified Voice' In Policy Talks	4/13/2021	Luke Runyon	04:20	Agriculture and Environment		Two-Way	Tribal leaders are optimistic, but they say they need concrete proof that other stakeholders will hear their perspectives. Luke Runyon of K-U-N- C in Colorado spoke with Jordan Joaquin (WAH- keen) about the negotiations. He's the president of the Fort Yuma-			6:43				8:43
Smoke Danger	4/14/2021	Maggie Mullen	00:56	Agriculture and Environment		Wrap	This time of year, it's not unusual for our region to be smoky thanks to prescribed burns. We're also seeing an increasingly early wildfire season. A new study says smoke from fire is more harmful to humans than pollution from other sources. The Mountain								16:3	2			18:04
Trans Bill	4/14/2021	Maggie Mullen	00:55	Medicine and Health		Wrap	This year, 32 states introduced legislation to ban transgender athletes. Many of them copied legislation that passed in Idaho last year. From the Mountain West News Bureau, Maggie Mullen reports. // Here in Utah, a bill to ban transgender girls from compe		6:32				8:04
Parental Loss	4/14/2021	Stephanie Serrano	00:46	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19	Voicer	Research into COVID-19 deaths shows a 20 percent increase in parental loss compared to a typical year. In our region, nearly 22,000 people have died thus far. Many of them left children behind. The Mountain West News Bureau's Stephanie Serrano reports.										17:04			18:32
Teacher Retention At A Five-Year High, Despite Concerns Pandemic Pushed People Out	4/14/2021	Jon Reed	01:04	Education	COVID- 19	Wrap	Despite fears that the pandemic would cause a lot of teachers to quit, that doesn't seem to have happened in Utahso far. As KUER's Jon Reed reports, this school year had the highest retention rate in the last five years.								6:04			17:32
More Women Leaders In Utah's GOP? Here's How It's Playing Out At The County Level	4/14/2021	Emily Means	00:56	Politics and Government		Wrap	Republican parties for several counties in Utah now have new leaders. They held elections last weekend. Scome Utah Republicans have called for more women in leadership. Members chose five women to chair their parties. KUBR's Emily Means reports that didn't	6:04				7:32
Gov. Spencer Cox On His First 100 Days in Office	4/14/2021	Sonja Hutson	04:22	Politics and Government		Two-Way	Today marks Utah Governor Spencer Cox's 100th day in office. There was a recent poil from the Desertet News and the Hinckley Institute of Politics two-thirds of Utahns approve of the job he's done so far. KUER's Sonja Hutson talked with Cox about what h			6:43				8:43
After Years Of Living Inside A Church, A Honduran Mother Is Granted Freedom	4/15/2021	Ivana Martinez	01:08	Immigration and Refugees		Wrap	Today (Thursday) marks the first day of freedom for Vicky Chavez. She's an undocumented immigrant who took sanctuary in a Salt Lake City church. KUER's Ivana Martinez has more.								6:04			17:32
BLM Director	4/15/2021	Madelyn Beck	00:39	Politics and Government		Voicer	The Biden administration hasn't officially announced a nominee to lead the Bureau of Land Management. But multiple outlets are reporting that it will be a woman from our region. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports.										17:04			18:32
White House Council	4/15/2021	Savannah Maher	01:05	Politics and Government		Wrap	The Biden Administration announced today {Thursday} it will restore the White House Council on Native American Affairs. The Mountain West News Bureau's Savannah Maher has more.										17:04			18:32
Utah Governor Encourages Recently Infected People To Sign Up For COVID Vaccines	4/15/2021	Emily Means	01:06	Medicine and Health		Wrap	People who have been recently infected with coronavirus are now encouraged to sign up for vaccines. KUER's Emily Means has more from Utah Governor Spencer Cox's news conference today (Thursday).								16:3	2			18:04
New Study Finds Indigenous People Used Fire To Manage Utah Forests Over 1000 Years Ago	4/15/2021	Kate Groetzinger	01:10	Science and Technology		Wrap	Researchers in Utah found that Indigneous people used fire over a thousand years ago to improve forest health around Fish Lake. From KUER's Southeast News Bureau, Kate Groetzinger reports.		6:32				8:04
Moab Free Health Clinic And Governor Spencer Cox Aim To Address Health Inequalities In The State	4/15/2021	Molly Marcello	04:06	Medicine and Health		Feature	Stable income, safe housing, and social support have greater combined impact on your health than any one behavior, according to the World Health Organization. These are called social determinants of health. Addressing them is one of Governor Spencer Cox's			6:43				8:43

Parental Loss	4/15/2021	Stephanie Serrano	01:01	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19	Wrap	Research into COVID-19 deaths shows that, compared to a typical year, there's been a 20% increase in parental loss. In our region, nearly 22- thousand people have died so far, and many of them left children behind. From the Mountain West News Bureau, Steph			7	':04			8:32
With First-Ever Colorado River Shortage Almost Certain, States Stare Down Mandatory Cutbacks	4/16/2021	Luke Runyon	00:41	Agriculture and Environment		Voicer	A new federal report shows later this year the Colorado River's biggest reservoirs are likely to drop to levels not seen since they were filled. From K-U-N-C in Colorado Luke Runyon has more.										16:32				18:04
BLM Diretor	4/16/2021	Madelyn Beck	00:56	Politics and Government		Wrap	Some news outlets are reporting the Biden administration will nominate a woman from Montana to lead the Bureau of Land Management. It's not official yet, though. From the Mountain West News Bureau, Madelyn Beck reports.		6:32				8:04
Democrats Want To Clean Up Abandoned Oil Wells, But In Utah Bonding Is The Problem	4/16/2021	Kate Groetzinger	00:45	Agriculture and Environment		Wrap	The Biden administration is focused on addressing abandoned oil and GAS wells as part of its effort to combat climate change. At least three bills have been filed to address the issue. House Natural Resources subcommittee held a hearing for one of them ye					7:32
Death Doulas Give Time To Those Running Out Of It	4/16/2021	Madelyn Beck	04:29	Medicine and Health		Feature	The pandemic has, understandably, made a lot of people thinking more about death and dying. It's natural to want to know HOW lit'll go in the end of life. An emerging profession may help families answer that question. From the Mountain West News Bureau, Ma			6:43					8:43
Southern Utah Cities Are Encouraging Time Of Day Watering,' Though Early Research Says It May Not Matter	4/16/2021	Lexi Peery	01:05	Agriculture and Environment		Wrap	It's been almost a month since Governor Spencer Cox issued a state of emergency because of the drought in Utah. Now, municipalities across the state are introducing watering restrictions. From KUER's Southwest news bureau Lex/ Peery reports.										16:32				18:04
Oil and Gas	4/16/2021	Kate Groetzinger	01:10	Agriculture and Environment		Wrap	Interior Secretary Deb Haaland issued an order today (Friday) revoking energy-friendly policies established under former President Donald Trump. From KUER's Southeast News Bureau, Kate Groetzinger has more.											1	17:04			18:32
Domestic Threats	4/16/2021	Robyn Vincent	00:37	Crime and Law Enforcement		Voicer	New data show a sharp rise in domestic terrorism plots and attacks in recent years. Those come primarily at the hands of far-right actors. The Mountain West News Bureau's Robyn Vincent looks at the numbers in our region.									16:04			17:3	2
Rural Hesitancy	4/19/2021	Maggie Mullen	00:50	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19	Wrap	Rural counties in our region are showing some of the highest vaccine hesitancy rates in the country. That's according to federal data. The Mountain West News Bureau's Maggie Mullen has more.											1	17:04			18:32
Domestic Threats	4/19/2021	Robyn Vincent	01:01	Crime and Law Enforcement		Wrap	New data show a sharp rise in domestic terrorism in recent years. That comes primarily at the hands of far-right actors. From the Mountain West News Bureau, Robyn Vincent looks at the numbers in our region.		6:32				8:04
When Water Is Scarce, Some Researchers Go Underground To Find Out Why	4/19/2021	Alex Hager	04:18	Agriculture and Environment		Feature	It can be easy to take water for granted – drinking, showering, spring planting it all happens without a second thought when supplies aren't low. And in the arid West, scientists have a lot of tools to figure out just how much water will be available ea			6:43					8:43
Sexual Assault Kit Processing Time Cut In Half Since Backlog Cleared	4/19/2021	Sonja Hutson	01:08	Crime and Law Enforcement		Wrap	The average processing time for sexual assault kits in Utah has been cut in half since the backlog was cleared seven months ago. KUER's Sonja Hutson has more.			7	':04			8:32
Coyote Energy	4/19/2021	Michael Elizabeth Sakas	00:26	Agriculture and Environment		Voicer	A zero-emission power plant that runs on fossil fuels could be built in southwest Colorado. Michael Elizabeth Sakas (SAA-kahs) of Colorado Public Radio reports.										16:32				18:04
Child Abuse Cases Returning to Normal Levels As Pandemic Wanes. But Long-Term Impacts Likely To Remain	4/19/2021	Jon Reed	01:02	Medicine and Health		Wrap	April is Child Abuse Prevention Month and advocates in Utah are looking back on how the pandemic has impacted victims. As KUER's Jon Reed reports, some alarming trends have emerged over the past year.									16:04			17:3	2
Utah Political Leaders React To Derek Chauvin Guilty Verdicts	4/20/2021	Sonja Hutson	00:56	Crime and Law Enforcement		Wrap	State and local leaders in Utah are calling for events to be peaceful after Derek Chauvin (SHOW-vin) was found guilty for the murder of George Floyd in Minneapolis. KUER's Sonja Hutson has more on reactions to the verdict.												17:	2		18:32
Carbon Xprize Winner	4/20/2021	Cooper McKim	00:43	Agriculture and Environment		Wrap	Two winners have been announced in the $20 million dollar Carbon X-PRIZE. The competition aims to demonstrate scaled-up technology that turns carbon dioxide into more valuable products. One winner used flue gas from natural gas combustion. The other - fr		6:32				8:04
SLC Council Will Consider Approving Police Overtime Costs Amid Continued Calls To Defund Them	4/20/2021	Emily Means	00:55	Crime and Law Enforcement		Wrap	The Salt Lake City Council will consider a budget amendment this evening. Critics say this will INCREASE police funding. It's one of several requests from the department since last June. That's when the council voted to reduce its budget in response to pr	6:04				7:32

							We often hear about efforts to support and
Pests and Plants	4/20/2021	Madelyn Beck	00:51	Agriculture and Environment		Wrap	conserve rare species - like the spotted owl, or Joshua trees. But new research finds that some very ordinary plants and animals deserve our attention as well. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelvn Beck reports												18:04
Plants & Pests	4/21/2021	Madelyn Beck	00:45	Agriculture and Environment		Voicer	Rare plants and animals aren't the only ones that need protection, according to new research. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports.			7:04			8:32						18:04
COVID & Sports	4/21/2021	Stephanie Serrano	01:02	Medicine and Health		Wrap	The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention says that after school ACTIVITIES are creating COVID-19 clusters. That's contributing to the rise in cases. With youth SPORTS resuming all across our region, the Mountain West News Bureau's Stephanie Serano Mountain Mesta News Bureau's Stephanie Serano Mesta News Bureau News Bur		6:32			8:04
As Latter-day Saint Sex Therapist Faces Expulsion, Others Are Concerned About Ramifications	4/21/2021	Lexi Peery	01:02	Religion		Wrap	Natasha Helfer is a sex therapist. She's also facing potential exoution from the Chruch of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints That's because of how she talks about things like pomography and same-sex marriage. From K-U- E-R's Southwest news bureauLewi	6:04			7:32
Wolves	4/21/2021	Madelyn Beck	00:46	Agriculture and Environment		Voicer	Some lawmakers in our region are concerned that wolf packs are getting too big to control. So they're trying to make hunting easier. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck has more.								16:32				18:04
Biden Climate Summit	4/21/2021	Nate Hegyi	00:53	Agriculture and Environment		Wrap	President Joe Biden is meeting with world leaders tomorrow (Thursday) to talk about climate change. The summit comes as he considers establishing new goals to aggressively reduce greenhouse gas emissions over the next decade. The Mountain West News Bureau										17:04			18:32
Does Religion Help Or Hurt Sexual And Gender Minorities? Research Shows The Answer Varies Widely.	4/21/2021	Caroline Ballard	04:52	Religion		Two-Way	A new meta-analysis of more than 70 studies takes a close look at what impact religion can have on the mental health of gender and sexual minorities. Tyler Lefevor is an assistant professor at Utah State University and a psychologist. He conducted the ana									16:44					18:44
Officials Say It's Time To Shift The Strategy To Reach Hesitant Groups As More Utahns Get Vaccinated		Jon Reed	01:04	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19	Wrap	State data shows Utah's week long average for vaccine doses has fallen by about 23% over the last week. KUER's Jon Reed has more on what's behind the slowdown.							16:04				17:32
Tribal Funds	4/22/2021	Savannah Maher	01:04	Politics and Government		Wrap	The latest federal coronavirus relief package includes 20 billion dollars for tribal governments. But as a deadline approaches on disbursing the funds – there are still questions. The Mountain West News Bureau's Savannah Maher reports.								16:32				18:04
COVID-19 Transmission Is Up In Some Counties, But Statewide Cases Have Plateaued	4/22/2021	Sonja Hutson	01:07	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19	Wrap	Overall, COVID-19 cases in Utah are plateauing, according to state health officials. But some counties are seeing spikes. KUER's Sonja Hutson has the latest on Utah's COVID situation.							16:04				17:32
Wolves	4/22/2021	Madelyn Beck	01:01	Agriculture and Environment		Wrap	Some lawmakers in our region are concerned that wolf packs are getting too big to control. So they're trying to make hunting easier. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports.			7:04			8:32
Utah's Tech Industry is Growing. Its Lobbyists Say Utah Needs Socially Progressive Laws To Keep It Going.	4/22/2021	Sonja Hutson	04:53	Science and Technology		Feature	Utah's tech industry is growing. Companies and the state want that to continue. But industry leaders argue that in order to do that the state's reputation needs some work. Tech lobbytsts are pushing for more socially inclusive legislation at the state C			6:43			8:43
Davis Sexual Harassment	4/22/2021	Sonja Hutson	00:39	Politics and Government		Voicer	A former Utah LEGISLATIVE staffer is accusing Democratic state Senator Gene Davis of sexual harassment. K-U-E-R's Sonja Hutson reports.		6:32			8:04
Two Utah School Districts Have Dropped Doctor's Note Requirement For Student Mask Exemptions	4/22/2021	Kate Groetzinger	00:57	Education	COVID- 19	Wrap	Utah's public school students are REQUIRED to wear masks unless they have certain medical conditions. But at least TWO school DIST- RICTS in the state are now granting exemptions for students without a doctor's note. From K-U-E- R's Southeast News Bureau,	6:04			7:32
Video Visits At Utah State Prison Connect Incarcerated People And Their Loved Ones During The Pandemic	4/23/2021	Emily Means	01:39	Crime and Law Enforcement		Superspot	The Utah Department of Corrections recently made video visitation available to everyone incarcerated at the state prison. In-person visits have been canceled since the start of the pandemic. During that time, prisoners have only had contact with loved one							16:04				17:32
Shiwits Band, Other Researchers Are Learning More About Desert Tortoises Through Field Work And Stories	4/23/2021	Lexi Peery	01:00	Agriculture and Environment		Wrap	Southern Paiute (PIE-ute) land in Washington County could hold some important information about Mojaw (MO-hah-vay) Desert TORTOISES! To learn more researchers are taking a holistic approach to studying this endangered animal. From K-U-E-RS Southwest n	6:04			7:32

Gun Attitudes	4/23/2021	Robyn Vincent	01:00	Politics and Government		Wrap	Colorado Governor Jared Polis (POE-lis) signed TWO gun control bills into law this week without the support of any Republican lawmakers. A new survey finds the partisan divide on gun control is wider than ever. The Mountain West News Bureau's Robyn Vincen		6:32				8:04
Tribal Funds	4/23/2021	Savannah Maher	00:44	Politics and Government		Voicer	The latest federal relief package includes 20 billion dollars for tribal governments. But some tribal leaders in our region have unanswered questions about the funding. The Mountain West News Bureau's Savannah Maher (mar) reports.				7:04		8:32
Tribes and Pot	4/23/2021	Savannah Maher	00:59	Politics and Government		Wrap	The Crow Tribe in Montana is the latest in our region to announce it will enter the recreational cannabis market. The Mountain West News Bureau's Savannah Maher has more.									16:32			18:04
Why A Montana Bill Making It Easier To Kill Grizzly Bears Could Backfire	4/23/2021	Dante Filpula Ankney	04:23	Agriculture and Environment	F	Feature	Grizzly bears were added to the endangered species list about 50 years ago. Their populations have since rebounded. To some that means Grizzlies are no longer endangered. A group of Republican senators has proposed legislation to STRIP federal protections			6:43				8:43
Census Numbers	4/26/2021	Savannah Maher	01:01	Politics and Government		Wrap	registation to of 2020 census data was released today (Monday). Two states in our region will each gain a Congressional seat based on the results. The Mountain West News Bureau's Savannah Maher reports.			0.40				0.43			17:04			18:32
Migration Myth	4/26/2021	Nate Hegyi	00:39	Business, Economics and Finance		Voicer	In 2020 the press was filled with stories about droves of wealthy out-of-staters fleeing cities and the pandemic and moving to the Mountain West. New data from the U-S Postal Service are giving a glimpse at what really happened. The Mountain West News Bur									16:32			18:04
New Crime Lab Opens In Southern Utah To Cut Down On Investigation Timelines	4/26/2021	Lexi Peery	00:53	Crime and Law Enforcement		Wrap	A new southern Utah crime lab opened today (Monday) in Cedar City. Local and state leaders hope it will cut down on the length of investigations for law enforcement in southern Utah. From KUER's Southwest news bureau Lew Peery has more.								16:04			17:32
Tribes and Pot	4/26/2021	Savannah Maher	00:43	Business, Economics and Finance		Voicer	The Crow Tribe in Montana has announced it will enter the recreational cannabis market. The Mountain West News Bureau's Savannah Maher has more.				7:04		8:32
Rep. Blake Moore On His Unusual Start To His First Term And How He Views His Role As A Freshman In Congress	4/26/2021	Emily Means	04:52	Politics and Government	T	'wo-Way	Republican Representative Blake Moore is one of Utah's two rookie members of Congress. KUER's Emily Means sat down with Moore to talk about what he hopes to accomplish during the rest of his term. She began with the very unusual start to his time in offic			6:43				8:43
Investing in Housing	4/26/2021	Nate Hegyi	00:58	Business, Economics and Finance		Wrap	Housing prices continue to SOAR across the region. And-there's an unexpected buyer that's partly to blame. The Mountain West News Bureau's Nate Hegyi (hedge-EE) reports.		6:32				8:04
Most Of Utah Is Facing An Extreme Drought. But What's The Best Way To Save Water?	4/26/2021	Kate Groetzinger	00:58	Agriculture and Environment		Wrap	Governor Spencer Cox has asked Utahns to save water, as most of the state is experiencing an extreme drought. But what's the best way to do that? From K-U-E-R's Southeast News Bureau, Kate Groetzinger has some answers.	6:04				7:32
As Nation Rethinks Policing, Colorado Offers Blueprint Toward Reform	4/27/2021	Robyn Vincent	04:42	Crime and Law Enforcement	F	Feature	How far has the nation come in enacting police reform—since George Floyd's death nearly a YEAR ago? A state in our region has passed some of the BOLDEST reform to date. The Mountain West News Bureau's Robyn Vincent has the storv.			6:43				8:43
Migration Myth	4/27/2021	Nate Hegyi	00:52	Business, Economics and Finance		Wrap	In 2020 the press was filled with stories about droves of wealthy out-of-staters FLEEING cities and the pandemic and moving to the Mountain West. New data (DAY-da) from the U-S Postal Service are glving a glimpse at what REALLY happened. The Mountain We		6:32				8:04
Utah Launches 'Grow Your Own' Teacher Program Statewide	4/27/2021	Jon Reed	01:01	Education		Wrap	Finding new teachers can be a challenge for public schools in Utah. But some districts are using a different model to recruit teachers from their own communities. KUER's Jon Reed has more on Grow Your Own Educator programs and a new law Hat will expand t	6:04				7:32
Utah Is The Country's Fastest Growing State — But It Didn't Get A Fifth Congressional Seat	4/27/2021	Ross Terrell	01:09	Politics and Government		Wrap	Utah's population grew by about 18 percent over the past decade. That makes it the fastest growing state in the country. But as KUER's Ross Terrell {tuh-rell} reports, Utah isn't getting an extra Congressional seat.									16:32			18:04
Addiction Treatment	4/27/2021	Madelyn Beck	00:38	Medicine and Health		Voicer	Utan isn't getting an extra Longressional seat. The U-S Department of Health and Human Services is easing restrictions on a medication. It's is one of the most effective treatments for opioid addiction. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports.									10:32	17:04		10:04	18:32

									1
Restaurant Jobs	4/27/2021	Stephanie Serrano	01:02	Business, Economics and Finance	COVID- 19	Wrap	Restaurants are hiring. But many say they're having a hard time finding job applicants. Restaurant employment remains below pre- pandemic times according to the Bureau of Labor Statistics. The Mountain West News Bureaus Stephanie Serrano has more.										17:04				18:32
Utah's First Lady Abby Cox Launches Initiative To Help Combat State's 'Empathy Crisis'	4/27/2021	Sonja Hutson	01:12	Politics and Government		Wrap	Utah's First Lady Abby Cox launched an initiative today {Tuesday} aimed at solving the state's — quote— rempathy crisis." KUER's Sonja Hutson has the details.								16:04			17:32	2
Moab And Grand County Pass New Noise Limits To Deal With ATV Complaints	4/28/2021	Kate Groetzinger	01:02	Agriculture and Environment		Wrap	Moab passed a new noise ordinance last night {Tuesday} to deal with all-terrain vehicles. Grand County passed one last week. The changes were prompted by complaints from residents, who say the sound of A-T-Vs is disrupting their lives. From KUER's Southea								16:04			17:32	2
Natasha Helfer Has Been 'Excommunicated' From The Church — Here's What She Has To Say Now	4/28/2021	Lexi Peery	04:58	Religion		Two-Way	Natasha Helfer is a mental health and sex therapist. She lives in Salt Lake City. Last week she had her membership withdrawn from The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints after being charged with apostasy. Helfer has been outspoken about her vi									16:44					18:4
Addiction Treatment	4/28/2021	Madelyn Beck	01:03	Medicine and Health		Wrap					7:04		8:32
Bears Ears Could See Record Visitation This Year. Advocates Say That Puts Cultural Sites In Danger.	4/28/2021	Kate Groetzinger	01:00	Business, Economics and Finance		Wrap	20-21 is shaping up to be one of the busiest years EVER for visitation in and around Bears Ears National Monument. That's according to advocates who say tourism is wreaking havoc on the fragile landscape. From K-U-E-R's Southeast News Bureau, Kate Groetzi	6:04			7:3	2
POC Moms at Risk	4/28/2021	Robyn Vincent	01:01	Medicine and Health		Wrap	New research examines the loss of obstetrics units in rural hospitals. The Mountain West News Bureau's Robyn Vincent has the details.									16:32				18:04
POC Moms at Risk	4/29/2021	Robyn Vincent	00:43	Medicine and Health		Voicer	New research examines the loss of obstetrics (ob-STET-ricks) units in rural hospitals. The Mountain West News Bureau's Robyn Vincent has the details.		6:32			8:04
Cross Boarder Indigenous Rights	4/29/2021	Nate Hegyi	00:52	Race, Identity and Culture		Wrap	A recent Canadian Supreme Court ruling has broad implications for U-S tribes with historic ties to lands in Canada. The Mountain West News Bureau's Nate Hegy reports.										17:04				18:32
Utah Businesses Struggling To Find Workers As The State's Economy Recovers	4/29/2021	Jon Reed	01:08	Business, Economics and Finance		Wrap	Utah's economy is starting to return to pre- pandemic levels. But as K-U-E-R's Jon Reed reports, businesses are having a hard time finding the workers they need.	6:04			7:3	2
How The Pandemic Forced A Youth Homeless Shelter In Colorado To Adapt	4/29/2021	Savannah Maher	04:32	Business, Economics and Finance	COVID- 19	Feature	Many states across the Mountain West have HIGH numbers of people experiencing homelessness. Per capita – Nevada is at the top - followed by Colorado And sprinkled throughout the region are hundreds of unsheltered youth. The Mountain West News Bureau's S			6:43				8:43
Transmission Lines	4/29/2021	Maggie Mullen	00:52	Business, Economics and Finance		Wrap	On Tuesday, the Department of Energy announced more than 8 billion dollars in loans to construct and improve the country's transmission grid. As the Mountain West News Bureau's Maggie Mullen reports – new transmission lines could jumpstart renewable ener				7:04		8:32
As Utah Corrections Department Reaches Vaccine Milestone, ACLU Pushes For More Access In Local Jails	4/29/2021	Emily Means	01:04	Crime and Law Enforcement	COVID- 19	Wrap	The Utah Department of Corrections reported today (Thursday) that every immate at its Draper and Gunnison locations has been offered a COVID-19 vaccine. That doesn't include new arrivals. KUER's Emily Mean has more on how the department is handling its va								16:04			17:32	2
Vaccine Data	4/29/2021	Maggie Mullen	00:35	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19	Voicer	When it comes to who is getting vaccinated against COVID-19, racial disparities are a problem. That's despite wide eligibility. The information comes from new Kaiser Family Foundation data. The Mountain West News Bureau's Maggie Mullen reports.									16:32				18:04
Colorado River Shortage	4/30/2021	Luke Runyon	00:47	Agriculture and Environment		Wrap	The Lower Colorado River Basin is preparing for its first-ever water shortage DECLARATION. It's likely coming later this year. From K-U-N-C, Luke Runyon has more.		6:32			8:04
Who Will Lead the Utah Republican Party Next? State Delegates Decide This Weekend.	4/30/2021	Sonja Hutson	01:39	Politics and Government		Superspot	Five candidates are vying to be the Utah Republican Party's next chair. State delegates will decide who gets the TOP job during the party's convention tomorrow (Saturday). K-U-E- R's Sonja Hutson has more.	6:04			7:3	2
A Warmer Climate May Spell Doom For Western Butterflies	4/30/2021	Ivy Engel	04:28	Agriculture and Environment		Feature	Many people have heard about the decline in monarch butterfly populations. It's linked to human expansion and the rise of global temperatures. But monarchs aren't the only butterflies dealing with these threats. Wyoming Public Radio's lvy Engle (AlN-gul).			6:43				8:43
ronman Is Expected To Bring Over $8 Million To Washington County This Weekend	4/30/2021	Lexi Peery	01:00	Business, Economics and Finance		Wrap	The Ironmar ace is returning to southern Utah. Last year's event was canceled due to the pandemic. From KUER's Southwest news bureauLexi Peery has more on the race's expected economic impact.			0.43				0.43	16:04			17:32	2

Lumber Housing	4/30/2021	Maggie Mullen	00:55	Business, Economics and Finance	Wrap	In parts of the Mountain West housing prices just keep going up. The latest sign that they probably won't slow down anytime soon is the cost of lumber. The Mountain West News
						Bureau's Maggie Mullen reports. Despite wide eligibility for COVID-19 vaccines, racial disparities are persisting. That's according										16:32			18:04
Vaccine Data	4/30/2021	Maggie Mullen	00:57	Medicine and Health	Wrap	to the latest vaccine data from the Kaiser Family Foundation. The Mountain West News Bureau's Maggie Mullen reports.				7:04			8:32
'A Place In This Party For Everyone': Utah GOP Delegates Elect Carson Jorgensen As State Party Chair	5/3/2021	Sonja Hutson	00:39	Politics and Government	Wrap	The Utah Republican Party has a new leader: Carson Jorgensen (JOHR-gen-sen). He is a Sanpete county RANCHER and a former congressional candidate. State delegates elected
T arty Orien						him at the party convention on Saturday. KUER's Sonja Hutson has more.		6:32				8:04
Community College	5/3/2021	Savannah Maher	00:58	Education	Wrap	President Joe Biden's proposed American Families Plan includes a federal tuition waiver for community college. The Mountain West News Bureau's Savannah Maher (MARR) reports on what that would mean for our region.		6:32				8:04
St. George Eyes New Tech Future On Top Of Ridge With The City's	5/3/2021	Lexi Peery	05:20	Business, Economics and	Feature	St. George is known as a tourist hotspot and a retirement destination.
Old Airport	SIGILOL I	Low Foory	00.20	Finance	- Guidie	But business and city leaders are hoping to rebrand it as a TECH hub. They want to do that by turning 180 acres ON-and-around a vacant airport —into a mixed-use community. From K-U-			6:43					8:43
Lumber Housing	5/3/2021	Maggie Mullen		Business, Economics and Finance	Voicer	The price of homes in a number of Mountain West states keeps getting higher. And now, the cost of lumber is making things worse. The Mountain West News Bureau's Maggie Mullen explains.				7:04			8:32
Sanpete County Residents 'Thrilled' About Manti Temple Mural Preservation And New Ephraim Temple	5/3/2021	Lexi Peery	01:05	Religion	Wrap	New renovation plans for the historic Manti temple will preserve its cherished murals. From KUER's Southwest news bureau Lex Peery has more on the recent announcement from the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.									16:04			17:32
Farmer Survey	5/3/2021	Stephanie Serrano	01:08	Medicine and Health	Wrap	High stress among farmers and ranchers can lead to health problems including substance abuse and even suicide. A new survey aims to understand what's stressing out ag producers in our region. The Mountain West News Bureau's Stephanie Serrano reports.										16:32			18:04
A Group Of Utah Republicans Tried And Failed — Again — To Censure Romney At The State GOP Convention	5/3/2021	Emily Means	01:02	Politics and Government	Wrap	Members of Utah's Republican party shut DOWN a resolution at the state convention Saturday, it would have censured Senator Mitt Ronney. The move was meant to formally DISAPPROV2 of Ronney's votes to convict President Donald Trump of impeachment. K-U-E- R's.	6:04				7:32
Impelled By Tragedy, Police Reform Advocates Make Meaningful, If Uneven, Progress Across Region	5/4/2021	Robyn Vincent	04:56	Crime and Law Enforcement	Feature	Black people in America continue to be killed by police – even after the conviction of an ex-police officer for the murder of George Floyd. The Mountain West News Bureau's Robyn Vincent reports on how a reckoning on racism and police brutality has rev	0.04		6:43		1.32			8:43
Farmer Survey	5/4/2021	Stephanie Serrano	00:42	Medicine and Health	Voicer	High stress among farmers and ranchers can lead to health problems including substance abuse and even suicide. A new survey aims to understand what's stressing out ag producers in our region. The Mountain West News Bureau's Stephanie Serrano reports.				7:04			8:32
Salt Lake City Seeks To Create More Equitable Outdoor Spaces For Residents	5/4/2021	Emily Means	01:04	Race, Identity and Culture	Wrap	Salt Lake City is reimagining what the future of its public lands will look like over the next two decades. KUER's Emily Means has more on how the city is trying to make parks and trails more equitable for its residents.									16:04			17:32
Rural Funding	5/4/2021	Maggie Mullen	00:56	Politics and Government	Wrap	Much of the Mountain West is rural. President Joe Biden's first budget proposal released in April spotlights the needs of those Americans. It includes increased funding for things like housing and internet access. The Mountain West News Bureau's Maggie M											17:04			18:3	2
Air Quality Concern	5/4/2021	Robyn Vincent		Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	A recent study draws a link between wildfire smoke and declining air quality in the region. The Mountain West News Bureau's Robyn Vincent recorts.		6:32				8:04
Scientists Are Studying The Changes Occuring In Glen Canyon As Lake Powell Recedes	5/4/2021	Kate Groetzinger	01:06	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	Most of Glen Canyon has been underwater for decades. Now, it is starting to re-emerge as Lake Powell recedes. From KUER's Southeast News Bureau, Kate Groetzinger has more.		6:32				8:04
SLC Budget	5/4/2021	Ross Terrell	00:42	Politics and Government	Voicer	Salt Lake City Mayor Erin Mendenhall will make her budget proposal to the city council this evening. KUER's Ross Terrell has more on what to expect.		0.52				3.04				16:32			18:04	L

Tribe Aid	5/4/2021	Savannah Maher	01:01	Politics and Government		Wrap	Two tribal nations in the region are offering COVID-19 aid across international borders. The Mountain West News Bureau's Savannah Maher (mar) reports.	6:04				7:32											1
To Close the COVID-19 Vaccine Race Gap, Utah Turns to Community Organizations	5/5/2021	Sonja Hutson	04:58	Medicine and Health		Feature	White people are nearly twice as likely as Black and Latinx Utahns to have received the COVID- 19 vaccines. That's according to an analysis by the Kaiser Family Foundation. But as K-U-E-R's Sonja (SONE-ya) Hutson reports, the state's working to close that	0.04		6:43		1.52			8:43
As Tourism Season Approaches, Washington County Hits Pause On Short-Term Rental Applications	5/5/2021	Lexi Peery	01:01	Business, Economics and Finance		Wrap	The Washington County Commission voted last night {Tuesday} to hit the pause button on short term rental applications. From KUER's Southwest news bureau Lexi Peery has more on the decision.									16:04			1	17:32
Rural Funding	5/5/2021	Maggie Mullen	00:34	Politics and Government		Voicer	Much of the Mountain West is rural. President Joe Biden's first budget proposal released in April spotlights the needs of Americans living in those areas. It includes increased funding for things like housing and internet access. The Mountain West News Bu				7:04			8:32
Schools and Race Theory	5/5/2021	Savannah Maher	01:07	Race, Identity and Culture		Wrap	This week public officials around the region denounced President Joe Biden's proposal to encourage critical race education in K through12 schools. The Mountain West News Bureau's Savannah Maher (MAHR) has more.											1	7:04			18:32
Biden's Plan To Cancel Student Loans Would Completely Erase Debt For Almost 40% Of Utah Borrowers	5/5/2021	Jon Reed	01:04	Education		Wrap	Roughly 300 thousand people in Utah are paying off student loans. That's according to an analysis from Student Loan Hero. President Joe Biden has said he wants to forgive at least SOME of their debt. K-U-E-R賴 Jon Reed has more.	6:04				7:32
July Vaccine	5/5/2021	Maggie Mullen	00:25	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19	Voicer	The share of adults in our region that has received at least one dose of a CoVID-19 vaccine ranges between about 45 and 65 percent. The Biden administration has announced a goal to raise beth runwber to 70 percent by the Fourth of July. The Mountain West N										16:32				8:04
First Lady Jill Biden Visits Salt Lake City To Thank Teachers And Community Health Workers	5/6/2021	Sonja Hutson	01:04	Education		Wrap	First Lady Jill Biden paid Salt Lake City a visit yesterday. She met with teachers, students, community health workers and several elected officials. K-U-E-R's Sonja (SONE-ya) Hutson was there.	6:04				7:32
Contraceptive Access	5/6/2021	Stephanie Serrano	00:43	Medicine and Health		Voicer	In some parts of the Mountain West like Nevada, New Mexico and Wyoming, teen pregnancy rates are higher than average. New research from the University of Colorado Boulder finds That when access to contraceptives goes up, the percentage of pairs who drop											1	7:04			18:32
Vaccine Hesitancy	5/6/2021	Robyn Vincent	00:58	Medicine and Health		Wrap	COVID-19 vaccine hesitancy is decreasing among a group that's been reluctant to get the shot. The Mountain West News Bureau's Robyn Vincent has more.										16:32				8:04
Outgoing State Epidemiologist Says Vaccinating Young Utahns Is The Most Important Next Step Against COVID-19	5/6/2021	Emily Means	01:01	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19	Wrap	Dr. Angela Dunn gave her last COVID-19 update as Utah's eh-puh-DEE-MEE-uh-logist this morning epidemiologist this morning (Thursday). She's been the face of the state's pandemic response since it started in March 2020. KUER's Emily Means has more from tod										16:32				8:04
Gender Marker Decision	5/6/2021	Sonja Hutson	00:40	Race, Identity and Culture		Wrap	The Utah supreme court ruled this morning (Thursday) that judges must grant ALL requests to change gender markers on birth certificates. KUER's Sonja (SONE-yuh) Hutson reports it's a "huge victory for transgender rights in the state.									16:04	10.02		1	17:32	0.04
July Vaccines	5/6/2021	Maggie Mullen	00:53	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19	Wrap	President Joe Biden has set a goal to get at least ONE dose of a COVID-19 vaccine to 70 percent of adults by the Fourth of July. PART of that will mean additional funding and support for rural communities in OUR region. The Mountain West News Bureau's Mag				7:04			8:32
Tribes' $20 Billion In Aid Could Be Transformative — If Feds Learn From Botched CARES Act Rollout	5/6/2021	Savannah Maher	04:47	Politics and Government		Feature	The latest coronavirus relief package includes 20 BILLION dollars for tribal governments. That money could be TRANSFORMATIVE. But last year's aid roll-out to Indian COUNTRY was badly mismanaged. Tribal leaders hope the Biden Administration has LEARNED fro			6:43					8:43
One Utahn Raises Over $53,000 To Bring A 'Queer Little Bookstore' To Salt Lake City	5/6/2021	Ivana Martinez	00:58	Business, Economics and Finance		Wrap	One Utahn wants to bring a — quote — "queer little bookstore" to Salt Lake City. It's meant to be a safe space where the L-G-B-T-Q community can gather. K-U-E-R's Ivana (EE-von-uh) Martinez has more.		6:32				8:04
Park Crowds	5/7/2021	Stephanie Serrano	01:10	Politics and Government		Wrap	Entry tickets for some National Parks in the region are going fast. Several implemented new ticketing systems to control crowds and prevent COVID-19 spread. The Mountain West News Bureau's Stephanie Serrano has more.										16:32				8:04

Diversity Report	5/7/2021	Jon Reed	01:04	Race, Identity and Culture		Wrap	Addressing RACIAL and gender DISPARITIES in Utah has become a major focus for state leaders over the last year. As K-U-E-R's Jon Reed reports, they'i have some help from a new report from the "Kem C. Gardner Policy Institute".	6:04				7:32
Contraceptive Access	5/7/2021	Stephanie Serrano	01:06	Medicine and Health		Wrap	In some parts of the Mountain West like Nevada, New Mexico and Wyoming, teen pregnancy rates are higher than average. New research from the University of Colorado-Boulder, finds that when access to contraceptives goes up – the percentage of girls who dro		6:32				8:04
Divvying Up Water	5/7/2021	Luke Runyon	04:24	Agriculture and Environment		Feature	Last year, Colorado lawmakers pointed a finger at what they saw as a growing threat – speculative investments in WATER rights. Since then – a state work group has been examining the issue. The process has brought up some thomy questions about the entir			6:43					8:43
Advocates For Tribal Water Access Are Asking Congress To Earmark Money For Projects On Native Land	5/7/2021	Kate Groetzinger	01:07	Politics and Government		Wrap	Tribal members and policy experts are pushing Congress to pass funding for water infrastructure in Indian Country. From KUER's Southeast News Bureau, Kate Groetzinger has more.									16:04		1	7:32
MISC-C in the MW	5/10/2021	Madelyn Beck	00:58	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19	Wrap	A rare but serious COVID-19-related condition has disproportionately affected Hispanic and Latino children around the nation, and in our region. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports.											17:04			18:32
Washington County Residents Sign On To Bipartisan Petition In Hopes Of Expanding Commission	5/10/2021	Lexi Peery	01:04	Politics and Government		Wrap	Some residents in Washington County are filing a petition to expand the number of seats on the commission. From KUER's Southwest news bureau Lexi Peery has more on the effort.										16:32			18:04
Park Crowds	5/10/2021	Stephanie Serrano	00:26	Business, Economics and Finance		Voicer	Entry tickets for some National Parks are going fast. Several have implemented new ticketing systems to control crowds and prevent COVID- 19 spread. The Mountain West News Bureau's Stephanie Serrano (su-RAH-no) reports.				7:04			8:32
Vaccine Surplus	5/10/2021	Maggie Mullen	04:54	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19	Feature	Several Mountain West states have some of the HIGHEST vaccine hesitancy rates in the country. In Wyoming's Natrona (na-TROH-na) county – that's left the local health department with a surplus of vaccines and EMPTY appointment slots. The Mountain West New			6:43					8:43
What Makes A Moderate Republican? It's Complicated And No One Agrees.	5/10/2021	Sonja Hutson	01:39	Politics and Government		Superspot	Senator Mitt Romney voted with former President Donald Trump 75 percent of the time. But some voters still call him a moderate or a liberal Republican. K-U-E-R's Sonja (SONE-ja) Hutson explains what ELSE some voters take into account -when placing party		6:32				8:04		0.43
30x30 MWNB	5/10/2021	Maggie Mullen	00:58	Agriculture and Environment		Wrap	Republican lawmakers in the region are criticizing the Biden administration's "America the Beautiful" Initiative. It's also known as 30 by 30. The Mountain West News Bureau's Maggie Mullen explains.	6:04				7:32
Rescue Plan	5/11/2021	Savannah Maher	01:01	Business, Economics and Finance		Wrap	This week, tribal governments got some highly anticipated guidance on the 20 BILLION dollars set aside for them in the latest coronavirus relief package. The Mountain West News Bureau's Savannah Maher reports.										16:32			18:04
Around Two Dozen Utah Cities Will Use Ranked Choice Voting This Year For Their Local Elections		Emily Means	01:01	Politics and Government		Wrap	Utah cities and towns had until yesterday to decide if they want to use RANKED choice voting in this year's local elections. K-U-E-R's Emily Means reports on why some cities CHOSE — or didn't choose — to participate.	6:04				7:32
Labor Shortage	5/11/2021	Nate Hegyi		Business, Economics and Finance		Wrap	Montana's Republican governor is ending pandemic-related unemployment benefits. It's an effort to get more people BACK to work. The Mountain West News Bureau's Nate Hegyi – locks at whether this will help ease a growing labor shortage ACROSS the region.		6:32				8:04
Oil and Gas Drilling In Utah Has Returned to Pre-Pandemic Levels. But Producers Still Worry About Leasing Ban.	5/11/2021	Kate Groetzinger	00:58	Business, Economics and Finance		Wrap	Oil and gas production is picking up in Utah. It comes as the price of crude oil recovers after hitting a record low last spring. And after an energy leasing ban on public lands was enacted earlier this year. From KUER's Southeast News Bureau, Kate Groetz									16:04		1	7:32
Tax Cut Update	5/11/2021	Sonja Hutson	00:37	Politics and Government		Voicer	Utah will likely NOT have to return money to the federal government that it spent on a tax cut earlier this year. As KUER's Sonja Hutson reports that's because of new guidance released from the U.S. Treasury Department.											17:04			18:32
Police Funding	5/11/2021	Robyn Vincent	00:41	Crime and Law Enforcement		Voicer	A new survey found broad public support for redirecting some police funds to social services. The Mountain West News Bureau's Robyn Vincent has more.											17:04			18:32
Rare COVID-19 Reaction Disproportionately Affects Hispanic/Latino Kids	5/11/2021	Madelyn Beck	00:46	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19	Voicer	A rare but serious COVID-19-related condition has disproportionately affected Hispanic and Latino children around the nation, and in our region. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports.				7:04			8:32

							There's a lot of debate about wolf reintroduction in the Mountain West. But that's not the only
				Agriculture and			carnivore environmentalists want to bring back.
Jaguars	5/12/2021	Madelyn Beck	00:57	Environment		Wrap	There's a group of scientists making the case for jaguars. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports											17:04			18:	22
							The Utah Attorney General's Office found police											17.04			10.	32
Cottonwood Audit	5/12/2021	Emily Means	01:04	Politics and		Wrap	acted appropriately when they responded to a
Cottor Wood Addit	5/12/2021	Entity wearts	01.04	Government		wiap	protest in Cottonwood Heights last summer.									6:04			17:32
							KUER's Emily Means has more. A new survey found BROAD public support for									0:04			17:32			_
Police funding	5/12/2021	Robyn Vincent	01:02	Crime and Law		Wrap	REDIRECTING some POLICE funds to social
Police funding	5/12/2021	Robyn vincent	01:02	Enforcement		wrap	services. The Mountain West News Bureau's				7.04		8:32
							Robyn Vincent has more. Snowpack plays a BIG role in the West's water				7:04		6:32									_ supply. But some researchers say
				Agriculture and			GROUNDWATER is JUST as important. That's
Grand Canyon Springs	5/12/2021	Ron Dungan	04:00	Environment		Feature	particularly true in the Colorado River WATERSHED. Now scientists are examining the walls of the Grand Canyon to understand how grou The Navaio Nation is now the LARGEST tribe			6:43				8:43								_
				Politics and			by population in the United States. The
Navajo Population	5/12/2021	Savannah Maher	00:54	Government		Wrap	Mountain West News Bureau's Savannah Maher
							{mar} has more.		6:32				8:04
Utah Lawmaker Planning A New							A Republican Utah state senator is bringing
Version Of Vetoed Social Media	5/12/2021	Sonja Hutson	01:08	Race, Identity and Culture		Wrap	BACK a proposal to crack down on social media
Free Speech Bill							companies' content MODERATION practices. KUER's Sonja (SONE-ya) Hutson explains.	6:04				7:32
							Utah announced yesterday it will opt out of pandemic-related unemployment benefits.
Assistance Ending	5/13/2021	Maggie Mullen	00:50	Business, Economics and		Wrap	It joins Wyoming, Idaho and Montana in doing
Abbiotanoo Enang	0,10,2021	maggio mailon	00.00	Finance		map	so. Governor Spencer Cox said in a statement that quote - "the market should not be competing with the government for workers				7:04		8:32
							There's a lot of debate about wolf reintroduction				7.04		0.32									_
							in the Mountain West. But that's not the ONLY
Jaguars	5/13/2021	Madelyn Beck	00:41	Agriculture and Environment		Voicer	carnivore environmentalists want to bring back. There's a group of scientists making the case for
				Environment			jaguars. The Mountain West News Bureau's
							Madelyn Beck reports		6:32				8:04
							The University of Utah is launching a workshop
A New Workshop Aims To Help Teachers Educate Students On							this summer for teachers to update their
Tribal Nations And Indigenous	5/13/2021	Jon Reed	01:05	Education		Wrap	curriculum around indigenous people and culture. As K-U-E-R's Jon Reed reports, the lack
People							of knowledge around native history has consequences for their communities tod	6:04				7:32
Romney, Curtis Introduce Round 2 Of A Bill To Troll Illinois Senator				Politics and			Two Utah's Congressmen introduced a bill today
Over Effort To Conserve 8 Million	5/13/2021	Sonja Hutson	01:08	Government		Wrap	{Thursday} to troll an Illinois senator. KUER's
Acres							Sonja Hutson explains. The E-P-A has published an update on climate											17:04			18:	32
Climate Report	5/13/2021	Savannah Maher	00:43	Agriculture and		Voicer	change. The Mountain West News Bureau's
omnaio report	0,10,2021	outunnarmanor	00.10	Environment		101001	Savannah Maher reports.											17:04			18:	32
				Business			Recent data from the Census Bureau show many residents in the region are worried about
Eviction Concerns	5/13/2021	Robyn Vincent	00:58	Economics and		Wrap	eviction or foreclosure. The Mountain West
				Finance			News Bureau's Robyn Vincent has more.									16:3	2			18	:04
							Governor Spencer Cox has said Utah will likely SUE if President Joe Biden increases the SIZE
What The History Of The				Agriculture and			of Bears Ears National Monument. But experts
ntiquities Act Could Mean For The Future Of Bears Fars	5/14/2021	r∧ate Groetzinger	05:09	Environment		Feature	say that could be a hard case to win. From K-U-
							E-R's Southeast News Bureau, Kate Groetzinger {GRET-sing-er} has more.			6:43				8:43
							For the first time since 2016, the Environmental			0.40				0.40
				Agriculture and			Protection Agency has published an update
Climate Report	5/14/2021	Savannah Maher	00:48	Environment		Wrap	detailing the effects of climate change. The Mountain West News Bureau's Savannah Maher
							{mar} reports.				7:04		8:32
							Mining in the West often results in polluted
ew Study Finds Mine Remediation Extremely Effective For Mountain	5/14/2021	Kate Groetzinger	01:07	Business, Economics and		Wrap	watersheds. But a new study shows efforts to clean up leaking mines are extremely effective.
Streams In The West	0.14/2021	rtato orobizinger	01.07	Finance		map	From KUER's Southeast News Bureau, Kate
				Medicine and	001///D		Groetzinger has more.								1	6:04			17:32
Vaccine Barriers	5/14/2021	Stephanie Serrano	00:45	Medicine and Health	19	Voicer												17:04			18:	32
							Second Amendment sanctuaries are popping up ACROSS the country. In Utah there's been a
A Look Inside Utah's Second				Politics and			push at the COUNTY level for over a year that
Amendment Sanctuary Movement	5/14/2021	Lexi Peery	01:49	Government		Superspot	COULD make its way up to state lawmakers.
							From K-U-E-R's Southwest news bureau Lexi Peerv has more	6.04				7:32
	-						All signs are pointing to an extreme fire season	0.04				1.32					-				_
							across the region this year. The Mountain West
Fire Forecast	5/14/2021	Madelyn Beck	01:02	Agriculture and Environment		Wrap	News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports. // Yesterday {Thursday} Governor Spencer Cox
				2.00 Stillord			extended Utah's state of emergency due to drought conditions.									16:3	2			18	:04

Decision To End School Mask Mandate Early Has Little Support	5/17/2021	Jon Reed	00:54	Education	COVID- 19	Wrap	During the last week of school in Utah, kids in grades K through 12 don't have to wear masks. As K-U-E-R's Jon Reed reports, that decision by the governor doesn't seem to have pleased anyone.		6:32				8:04
Utah Lawmakers Not Considering A Ban On Critical Race Theory Yet — But The Issue Remains Contentious.	5/17/2021	Jon Reed	01:00	Education		Wrap	Parents across Utah are concerned their kids are learning Critical Race Theory in school. Many hoped state leaders would ban it during a special legislative session this week. But as KUER's Jon Reed reports, it's not on the agenda.								16:04			17:32
Vaccine Barriers	5/17/2021	Stephanie Serrano	01:01	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19	Wrap	Many unvaccinated Hispanic Americans are eager to get the covid-19 shot. That's according to a new survey. But as the Mountain West News Bureau's Savannah Maher (mar) reports, that community faces barriers. // In Utah, 35 percent of Hispanic and Latino re				7:04		8:3	2
Delayed Justice: Mountain West Court Backlogs Leave Defendants In Limbo	5/17/2021	Madelyn Beck	04:22	Crime and Law Enforcement	COVID- 19	Feature	The pandemic delayed weddings, concerts and plenty of other life events. But for many it also delayed justice. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck looked into courtroom delays during the pandemic.			6:43				8:43
Cash for Kids	5/17/2021	Maggie Mullen	00:55	Business, Economics and Finance		Wrap	The Biden administration's new child benefits got the green light from the I-R-S today (Monday). That means households with children can expect to see payments as soon as July 15th. The Mountain West News Bureau's Maggie Mullen has more.										17:04			18:32	2
Herd Immunity	5/18/2021	Madelyn Beck	00:58	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19	Wrap	COVID-19 vaccine supplies are now abundant. Nationally about 60 percent of adults have had at least one shot. But in the Mountain West, most people are still unvaccinated. Madelyn Beck of the Mountain West News Bureau reports on what that could mean for h		6:32				8:04
Cash for Kids	5/18/2021	Maggie Mullen	00:37	Business, Economics and Finance		Voicer	Starting in July, the Biden administration's monthly child benefits will hit bank accounts. That announcement came yesterday. The Mountain West News Bureau's Maggie Mullen has more.	6:04				7:32
Utah Lawmakers To Discuss Spending Federal Aid, Look To End Future School Mask Mandates In Special Session	5/18/2021	Sonja Hutson	01:05	Politics and Government		Wrap	Utah state lawmakers will convene in a special session tomorrow {Wednesday.} They'll decide how to allocate federal pandemic aid and consider banning mask mandates in school, among other things. KUER's Sonja (SONE-ya) Hutson explains.				7:04		8:3	2
Bears Ears Study	5/18/2021	Lexi Peery	00:36	Agriculture and Environment		Voicer	A new study looked into plant life at archeological sites in and around Bears Ears National Monument. This comes as the Biden administration considers how to move forward on a campaign promise to restore the size of the monument in Southeast Utah. KUER's								16:	32			18:04
Abortion Laws	5/18/2021	Robyn Vincent	01:02	Medicine and Health		Wrap	The Supreme Court will soon hear a case that could limit abortion rights. The Mountain West News Bureau's Robyn Vincent looks at the implications for our region.										17:04			18:32	2
Commercial Filming	5/18/2021	Nate Hegyi	00:42	Business, Economics and Finance		Voicer	Wyoming Republican Senator John Barrasso recently introduced a bill that would make it easier for YouTubers and Instagram Influencers to film on public lands. Our Mountain West News Bureau's Nate Hegyi reports.								16:	32			18:04
Department Of Workforce Services Says Utah 'Can't Build Our Way Out' Of Housing Crisis		Emily Means	01:03	Business, Economics and Finance		Wrap	The solution to Utah's affordable housing crisis isn't to build more housing. That's what state legislators were told during a presentation this morning (Tuesday). As KUER's Emily Means reports, that goes against Utah's current strategy.								16:04	-		17:32
Utah Schools Barred From Issuing Masks Mandates For Upcoming Academic Year	5/19/2021	Ivana Martinez	00:46	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19	Wrap	Utah's statewide mask mandate in schools will end during the final week of the academic year. Now, state lawmakers are considering preventing schools' from being able to issue their own mask requirement. KUER's Ivana (EE-von-uh) Martinez has more on the b										17:04			18:32	2
Child Hunger	5/19/2021	Robyn Vincent	01:02	Medicine and Health		Wrap	Child food insecurity rates in the region have increased sharply in the last year. The Mountain West News Bureau's Robyn Vincent reports.								16:	32			18:04
Mask Guidance	5/19/2021	Stephanie Serrano	00:40	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19	Voicer	There's a lot of confusion about whether to wear a mask. The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention lifted that recommendation for people who are fully vaccinated against covid-19. Some communities in our region still require masks – others not. So h								16:04			17:32
'Everybody Knew Each Other' — Remembering Salt Lake City's Original Japantown As The Community Works To Revita	5/19/2021	Sonja Hutson	04:48	Race, Identity and Culture		Feature	Downtown Salt Lake City used to be home to a bustling and culturally rich Japantown. But almost all of It was destroyed in the 60s in order to build an arena that would later become the Salt Palace convention center. More than 5 decades latermembers of									16:44					18:4

Utah Awards $500,000 To Non- Profit For Mountain Bike Trails East Of Zion National Park	5/19/2021	Lexi Peery	01:01	Business, Economics and Finance		Wrap	The Utah Office of Outdoor Recreation has awarded a 500 thousand dollar grant to fund mountain biking trails outside of Zion {zye-un} National Park. From KUER's Southwest news bureau Levi Peery has more.			7:04			8:32
Commercial Filming	5/19/2021	Nate Hegyi	00:55	Business, Economics and Finance		Wrap	Wyoming Republican Senator John Barrasso {bah-RASS-oh} recently introduced a bill that would make it easier for some YouTubers and Instagram Influencers to film or photograph in national parks and public lands. The Mountain West News Bureau's Nate Hegyi {		6:32	7:04	•	8:04	6:32
Mask Guidance	5/20/2021	Stephanie Serrano	00:59	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19	Wrap	There's a lot of confusion about whether to wear a mask. The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention lifted that recommendation for people who are fully vaccinated against covid-19. Some communities in our region still require masks – others not. So h			7:04	4		8:32
Utah Legislature Urges School Board To Ban Teaching Principles They Associate With Critical Race Theory	5/20/2021	Sonja Hutson	01:04	Education		Wrap	The Utah Legislature is urging the state school board to ban teaching certain principles lawmakers say could be a part of critical race theory. Both the House and Senate passed non- binding resolutions yesterday (Wednesday). KUER's Sonja Hutson has more.	6:04			7:32
Cox News Conference	5/20/2021	Emily Means	00:56	Politics and Government		Wrap	Utah Governor Spencer Cox responded today (Thursday) to the state Legislature's actions during its special and extraordinary sessions this week. Lawmakers passed resolutions opposing critical race theory and a bill to ban mask mandates in schools. KUER's								16:04			17	:32
Horse Slaughter	5/20/2021	Stephanie Serrano	00:59	Agriculture and Environment		Wrap	Lawmakers have introduced a bill that would ban wild horses from being slaughtered. There have been reports of some of those horses being sent to foreign slaughterhouses. And that's after their owners had been paid 1000 dollars to adopt them. The Mountain									16:32				18:04
For The First Time Since The '90s, The Utah Jazz Will Start The Playoffs With The NBA's Best Record	5/20/2021	Ross Terrell, Caroline Ballard	04:30	Arts and Entertainment		Two-Way	The Utah Jazz wrapped up their regular season last weekend with the best record in the NBA for the first time since the late 90s. Next up, the playoffs. KUER's Caroline Ballard' I spoke with Jazz reporter Sarah Todd from the Deseret News. She says it's be										16:44				18:4
Critical Race Theory: The Latest 'Boogeyman' In Public Education	5/21/2021	Jon Reed	00:57	Education		Wrap	Some educators in Utah are calling Critical Race Theory the latest "boogeyman" in public education. As K-U-E-R'S non Reed reports, it's become a loosely-defined, catch-all phrase people are opposed to. Which is similar to what happened when Common Core st				7:32	8:04
Prescribed Burns	5/21/2021	Maggie Mullen	00:59	Agriculture and Environment		Wrap	Bigger and more frequent prescribed burns. That's what lawmakers are calling for in federal legislation introduced yesterday (Thursday). The Mountain West News Bureau's Maggie Mullen reports.											17:04			18:32
Utah Democrat Walkout During Critical Race Theory Resolution Was A 'Hollow Threat' And A Symbolic Political Mo	5/21/2021	Ivana Martinez	00:59	Politics and Government		Wrap	Earlier this week House Democrats left the floor before a vote on a resolution opposing critical race theory. KUER's Ivana {EE-von-uh} Martinez has more on the political impact of their actions.									16:32		17	:32
Mask Guidance	5/21/2021	Stephanie Serrano	00:59	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19	Wrap	There's a lot of confusion about whether to wear a mask. The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention lifted that recommendation for people who are fully vaccinated against covid-19. Some communities in our region still require masks – others not. So h			7:04	4		8:32
One Year Later: The Palacios- Carbajal Family Still Wants 'Justice For Bernardo'	5/21/2021	Emily Means	04:19	Crime and Law Enforcement		Feature	Last May, the murder of George Floyd by a Minneapolis police officer sparked a summer of protests nationwide and in Utah. Just two days before Floyd's death gripped the nation, Bernardo Palacios-Carbajal was shot and killed by Salt Lake City Police. Now a		6:4	13				8:43
Horse Slaughter	5/21/2021	Stephanie Serrano	00:50	Politics and Government		Voicer	Lawmakers have introduced a bill that would ban wild horses from being slaughtered. There have been reports of some of those horses being sent to FOREIGN slaughterhouses. And that's after their owners had been paid 1000 dollars to adopt them. The Mountain		6:32			8:04
Declining Lake Powell Levels Prompt Colorado River States To Form New Plan	5/21/2021	Luke Runyon	00:43	Agriculture and Environment		Wrap	Declining levels at the second-largest reservoir in the United States have spurred officials in Utah, Wyoming, Colorado and New Mexico to search for ways to prop it up. From K-U-N-C, Luke Runyon has more.	6:04			7:32
Something In The (Indoor) Air: A Paradigm Shift	5/24/2021	Maggie Mullen	04:21	Agriculture and Environment		Feature	When people talk about air quality, they're usually talking about the air outside. It could be affected by wildfires, smog, or factory emissions. But those conversations typically end at the front door. The COVID-19 pandemic has made many people think abo		6:4	13				8:43
Fireworks Are Banned Until July, But State And Local Leaders Are Already Thinking About Restrictions	5/24/2021	Lexi Peery	01:04	Agriculture and Environment		Wrap	Fireworks are BANNED in Utah until July 2nd. But state and local leaders are already making plans for the summer HOLIDAYS. From K-U-E- R's Southwest news bureau Lexi Peery has more.		6:32			8:04

						COVID-19 infection rates in the rural parts of the Rural COVID	5/24/2021	Nate Hegyi	00:54	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19 Wrap	region CONTINUE to drop. That's despite the fact that public health officials are struggling to get more people vaccinated. The Mountain West
						News Bureau's Nate Hegyi (HEDGE-ee) explains.			7:04			8:32
Utah Government Employees Experience Pay Disparities Based On Gender And Race, New Study	5/24/2021	Emily Means	01:04	Business, Economics and Finance	Wrap	Utah's governor's office of planning and budget released a study today {Monday} analyzing pay disparities among executive branch employees.
Shows				Politics and		KUER's Emily Means has more. Republican led state legislatures have enacted new voting restrictions in parts of the region this							16:04			17:32
Voting Restrictions	5/24/2021	Savannah Maher	01:01	Government	Wrap	year. The Mountain West News Bureau's Savannah Maher reports on what that could mean for Indigenous voters. Lawmakers in D-C are aiming to fight wildfire								16:32			18:04
Prescribed Burns	5/24/2021	Maggie Mullen	00:39	Agriculture and Environment	Voicer	with more fire. The Mountain West News Bureau's Maggie Mullen explains. Conservation groups are upset by a proposal to	6:04			7:32
Proposal To Drill Near Dinosaur National Monument Draws Ire Of Conservation Groups	5/25/2021	Kate Groetzinger	00:57	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	of the second se								16:32			18:04
Anti-Government Leader Bundy Running For Idaho Governor	5/25/2021	Heath Druzin	00:46	Politics and Government	Voicer	Far right leader Ammon (AH-mun) Bundy has filed paperwork to run for Idaho governor. As Heath Druzin (DREW-zen) of Boise State Public radio reports there's been a flurry of recent moves by right wing politicians in the state.							16:04			17:32
Making Memorial Day Weekend Plans For Utah's National And State Parks? Be Ready For Crowds	5/25/2021	Lexi Peery	01:07	Business, Economics and Finance	Wrap	Utah's state and national parks are gearing up for a busy Memorial Day weekend. From K-U-E- R's Southwest news bureauLexi Peery has more on what to EXPECT if you're planning to go out RECREATING			7:04			8:32
Oil and Gas Leases	5/25/2021	Nate Hegyi	00:46	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	The BIDEN administration is moving ahead with some new OIL and GAS leases on public lands In the region. SOME environmentalists are calling the decision HYPROCRITICAL The Mountain West News Bureau's Nate Hegyl (HEDGE-ee) reports // The B-L-M also opened	6:04			7:32
Wildfire App	5/26/2021	Madelyn Beck	00:52	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	A new smartphone app could help you prepare your home for WILDFIRE season. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck has more.			7:04			8:32
Researchers Are Split On Whether Ranked-Choice Helps Or Hurts Minority Voters	5/26/2021	Sonja Hutson	01:08	Politics and Government	Wrap	Ranked choice voting is ON the rise in Utah. K-U- E-R's Sonja (SONE-ya) Hutson has more on HOW the practice impacts MINORITY voters.	6:04			7:32
Say His Name	5/26/2021	Robyn Vincent	01:19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Superspot	YES-terday marked the ONE-year anniversary of George Floyd's murder in Minneapolis. The Mountain West News Bureau's Robyn Vincent looks at HOW the REGION has responded through police REFORM.		6:32			8:04
Fentanyl	5/26/2021	Madelyn Beck	01:35	Medicine and Health	Superspot	Overdose deaths have risen nationwide during the pandemic, including in our region. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports.								16:32			18:04
A New Mental Health Crisis Care Center In South Salt Lake Hopes To Provide 'Compassionate Care'	5/26/2021	Ivana Martinez	01:07	Medicine and Health	Wrap	Community leaders gathered today {Wednesday} to break ground on the Huntsman Mental Health Institutes' new Crisis Care Center. They say it could address the tsunami of mental health needs in Utah. KUER's Ivana Martinez has more.							16:04			17:32
Extra Utah: A Journey To The Darkest Spot In The State	5/26/2021	Benjamin Bombard	05:12	Agriculture and Environment	Feature	This summer, KUER producer Benjamin Bombard is traveling around Utah looking for places that are extra. Extreme. His first mission: to find the darkest place — above ground — in the state. He sends us this audio postcard of his first expedition // Tha								16:4	4			18:44
Park Drops	5/27/2021	Nate Hegyi		Arts and Entertainment	Wrap	Visitation to national parks dropped to a forty- year low last year due to the pandemic. The Mountain West News Bureau's Nate Hegyi reports.								16:32			18:04
Former State Representative Becky Edwards Is First Major Republican To Challenge Mike Lee In Senate Race	5/27/2021	Sonja Hutson	01:03	Politics and Government	Wrap	Former Republican Utah state Representative Becky Edwards announced today (Thursday) she's challenging US Senator Mike Lee for his seat. KUER's Sonja Hutson reports she's the first Republican to officially declare candidacy.							16:04			17:32
Fentanyl	5/27/2021	Madelyn Beck	00:49	Medicine and Health	Voicer	Overdose deaths have risen nationwide during the pandemic, including in our region. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports.			7:04			8:32
Utah's Not Last In The Country For Per-Pupil Spending Anymore, But Funding Still Isn't Making The Grade	5/27/2021	Jon Reed	01:01	Education	Wrap	Utah is no longer LAST in the country in PER- student funding. That's according to the latest data from the U.S. Census. As K-U-E-R's Jon Reed reports, it's a POSTIVE step, but there's still PLENTY of room to GROW.		6:32			8:04
Drought Response	5/27/2021	Nate Hegyi	00:47	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	Parts of the region are experiencing the WORST drought conditions in more than a century. That's prompted the Biden administration to pledge a government-wide response to the crisis. The Mountain West News Bureau's Nate Hegyl (HEDGE-ep/ reports.	6:04			7:32

1			1						1				1								-
Snowboarder Settlement	5/28/2021	Madelyn Beck	00:58	Agriculture and Environment		Wrap	Back country experts worried a legal case would keep people from reporting avalanches. That case has come to a close though. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports.												17:04			18:32
After 100 Years, Lagoon's Roller Coaster Still Has People Lining Up For Its Timeless Thrills	5/28/2021	Caroline Ballard	04:49	Arts and Entertainment		Feature	The White Roller Coaster. Lagoon Dipper. Or just "Roller Coaster." Whatever name YOU know it by, it's one of "Lagoon Amusement Park's" most POPULAR and ENDURING rides. This week, the Utah landmark turned ONE hundred years old. KUER's Caroline Ballard take			6:43					8:43
Dry Conditions and Increased Tourism Have Southwest Fire Officials Concerned About The Summer	5/28/2021	Lexi Peery	01:04	Agriculture and Environment		Wrap	Record dry conditions and rising visitation numbers in SOUTHWEST Utah have FIRE. officials concerned. They're URGING people to change their behavior. From K-U-E-R's Southwest news bureau Lexi Peery has more.	6:04				7:32
Park Drops	5/28/2021	Nate Hegyi	00:36	Business, Economics and Finance		Voicer	Visitation to national parksACROSS THE COUNTRY dropped to a forty-year low last year due to the pandemic. The Mountain West News Bureau's Nate Hegyi (HEDGE-ee) reports.		6:32				8:04
Prairie Chicken	5/28/2021	Savannah Maher	01:05	Agriculture and Environment		Wrap	This week, the U-S Fish and Wildlife Service proposed federal protections for the lesser prairie chicken in parts of the region. The Mountain West News Bureau's Savannah Maher reports.				7:04			8:32
Climate and Trees	5/28/2021	Stephanie Serrano	00:36	Agriculture and Environment		Voicer	Tree-rings at Yellowstone show 2016 was the park's hottest summer in more than twelve hundred years. New research finds that's because of climate change. The Mountain West News Bureau's Stephanie Serrano reports.												17:04			18:32
Utah State Board Of Education Considers Equity Training For Teachers And Guardrails Around Curriculum	5/28/2021	Jon Reed	01:00	Education		Wrap	The Utah State Board of Education is considering a new rule that would require districts to provide diversity and equity training for teachers. As KUER's Jon Reed reports, the trainings have became a point of contention.										16:	32			18:04
Search And Rescue Calls Are On The Rise Again In The Wasatch Mountains	5/31/2021	Sonja Hutson	01:05	Medicine and Health		Wrap	Search and rescue calls on the Wasatch front are on the RISE again this spring. K-U-E-R's Sonja Hutson reports officials say a LOW snowpack and the PANDEMIC could be to blame.	6:04					8:04
Community Wildfire Plans Don't Reflect Stronger, Faster Wildfires	5/31/2021	Madelyn Beck	01:04	Politics and Government		Wrap	The Biden Administration is doubling federal emergency funds to help communities prepare for natural disasters. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports where that one billion dollars may be needed in our region.												17:04
How FEMA's COVID-19 Funeral Assistance Program Is Working In Utah	5/31/2021	David Fuchs	01:06	Business, Economics and Finance	COVID- 19	Wrap	The Federal Emergency Management Agency or FEMA, launched a funeral assistance program in early April. The goal is to help pay for the funeral costs of Americans who have died from COVID-19. KUER's David Fucks (Fox) has more on how the program has been									16	8:04				18:04
Climate and Trees	5/31/2021	Stephanie Serrano	01:00	Agriculture and Environment		Wrap	Tree-rings at YELLOWSTONE show 2016 was the park's HOTTEST summer in more than twelve hundred years. New research finds that's because of climate change. The Mountain West News Bureau's Stephanie Serrano reports.				7:04
One Expert Says More Police In Salt Lake City Wouldn't Necessarily Lead To Less Crime	6/1/2021	Emily Means	01:07	Crime and Law Enforcement		Wrap	Officials with the Salt Lake City Police Department say they're DOWN around 80 officers. Meamwhile, crime is UP since 2019. K- UJ-E-R's Emily Means looks at HOW police staffing can impact criminal activity.		6:32				8:04
Wilfire Insurance	6/1/2021	Madelyn Beck	00:56	Business, Economics and Finance		Wrap	This year's wildfire season IS expected to be severe. And experts warn.— INSURANCE could be the difference between REPLACING a lost home or NOT. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports.	6:04				7:32
For Some Western Tribes, COVID- 19 Closures Have Meant 'Having Their Homeland Back'	6/1/2021	Stephanie Serrano	04:26	Business, Economics and Finance		Feature	During the HEIGHT of the pandemic, MANY Native American RESERVATIONS in the region CLOSED to visitors. THAT caused some economic loss. But the closures ALSO allowed tribal citizens to experience their land FREE of outsiders. The Mountain West News Bureau'			6:43					8:43
Energy Developers And Uranium Miners Eye Land Near Bears Ears National Monument	6/1/2021	Kate Groetzinger	01:11	Agriculture and Environment		Wrap	Energy developers want to drill in parts of the original Bears Ears National Monument. From KUER's Southeast News Bureau, Kate Groetzinger has more.									16	5:04			17:32
Tribal Police Ruling	6/1/2021	Nate Hegyi	01:02	Crime and Law Enforcement		Wrap	The U-S Supreme Court ruled today {Tuesday} that tribal police can search and detain non- native people travelling through reservation lands. The Mountain West News Bureau's Nate Hegyi reports.										16:	32			18:04
Eviction Deadlines	6/1/2021	Stephanie Serrano	00:34	Business, Economics and Finance		Voicer	It's the beginning of the month, which means rent is due. Some people are still having a hard time making payments. The federal eviction moratorium is set to expire this month though. The Mountain West News Bureau's Stephanie Serrano has more.												17:04			18:32

							The Interior Department recently released in Climate Corps	6/2/2021	Nate Hegyi	00:58	Politics and Government		Wrap	The Interior Department recently released its budget proposal for fiscal year 2022. The agency is asking Congress for 85 million dollars to create public lands jobs for youth, tribal members and veterans. The Mountain West News and veterans. The Mountain West News Bureau's Nate Hegyi has mor Yesterday was the FIRST of the monthwhich means RENT is due.									16:32				18:04
Eviction Deadlines	6/2/2021	Stephanie Serrano	00:57	Business, Economics and Finance		Wrap	SOME people are still avamments. The federal eviction MORATORIUM is set to EXPIRE this month though. The Mountain West News Bureau's Stephanie Serrano has more.	6:04			7:	32
BYU Researcher Finds The Collection Of Skin Cells In Sexual Assault Cases Can Be 'Groundbreaking'	6/2/2021	Ivana Martinez	01:01	Crime and Law Enforcement		Wrap	TOUCH D-N-A is the collection of SKIN cells from a surface — like clothing or skin. And now, new research from Brigham Young University says it could be a GAME changer in sexual assault cases. K-U-E-R's Ivana (EE-von-uh) Martinez has more.		6:32			8:04	L
Brown Grass Isn't Dead Grass — Lawn Experts Say Watering Less During Drought Won't Ruin It Forever	6/2/2021	Pamela McCall	04:43	Agriculture and Environment		Two-Way	State University. Her work focuses on landscape water CONSERVATION. I talked			6:43				8:43
Beef	6/2/2021	Madelyn Beck	00:37	Business, Economics and Finance		Voicer	Beef processing giant J-B-S was hacked over the weekend. It ground about a fifth of U-S beef production to a hait. That includes some plants in our region. Experts say having too few companies controlling so much of that market could make supply chains mo										17	:04			18:32
Utah Parents Feel Civics Is One Of The Most Important Subjects In School, But Say It's Not Taught Very Well	6/2/2021	Jon Reed	01:03	Education		Wrap	Utah schools have more civics standards than most other states. But a new study from the Sutheriand Institute — a nonpartisan think tank — found that many parents feel that civics education is still lacking in Utah KUER's Jon Reed has more.								16:04			1	7:32
LGBTQ Youth	6/3/2021	Robyn Vincent	00:39	Medicine and Health		Voicer	Young people have struggled to adapt to new realities wrought by the pandemic. That's especially true for L-G-B-T-Q youth. The Mountain West News Bureau's Robyn Vincent has more.										17	:04			18:32
Vaccine Incentive	6/3/2021	Savannah Maher	01:00	Politics and Government	COVID- 19	Wrap	With COVID-19 vaccination rates slowing, two states in our region are offering a BIG incentive! The Mountain West News Bureau's Savannah Maher (mar) reports.										17	:04			18:32
Experts Say Utah's Ranked Choice Voting Method For Multi-Seat Races Favors The Majority Over Proportional Repr	6/3/2021	Sonja Hutson	01:09	Politics and Government		Wrap	When it comes to ranked choice voting, Utah uses a different method than other states for elections with multiple seats up for grabs. As KUER's Sonja (SONE-yuh) Hutson reports, experts say it helps out the majority party or ideology.									16:32				18:04
Beef	6/3/2021	Madelyn Beck	01:03	Business, Economics and Finance		Wrap	Beef processing (PRAW-cessing) giant J-B-S was HACKED over the weekend. It GROUND about a fifth of U-S beef production to a halt. That includes some plants in oUR region. Experts say having too few companies controlling so MUCH of that market could make				7:04		8:32
Utah Power Companies Prepare For Wildfire Season With Preventative Shutoffs, Energy Efficiency Program	6/3/2021	Lexi Peery	00:58	Business, Economics and Finance		Wrap	Some utility companies in the West are turning to "power shut offs" to prevent and contain wildfires. High winds can damage transmission lines which can spark nearby dry vegetation. From K-U-E-R's Southwest news bureau Lexi Peery reports on what energy		6:32			8:04
Conservation Funding	6/4/2021	Nate Hegyi	00:47	Politics and Government		Wrap	The Interior Department plans to spend nearly 3 billion dollars to improve infrastructure at national parks and public lands. The Mountain West News Bureau's Nate Hegyi {HEDGE-ee} reports.									16:32				18:04
No Longer Lost In Translation — Teachers And Non-English Speaking Parents Able To Connect Through New Service	6/4/2021	Jon Reed	01:02	Education		Wrap	The Ogden School District is trying something new to connect teachers with parents who don't speak English — a translation phone service. As KUER's Jon Reed reports, the district says it's needed because of the growing diversity in the area. // OPT: You				7:04		8:32
LGBTQ Youth	6/4/2021	Robyn Vincent	01:01	Medicine and Health		Wrap	Young people have struggled to adapt to new realities wrought by the pandemic. That's especially true for L-G-B-T-Q youth. The Mountain West News Bureau's Robyn Vincent has more. // If you or someone you know needs help, contact the National Suicide Preve		6:32			8:04
Black Lives Matter Boycotts Utah Pride Center's Events Amid 'Lack Of Diversity'	6/4/2021	Ivana Martinez	00:55	Race, Identity and Culture		Wrap	Pride festivities are happening this weekend in Utah. Black Lives Matter Utah announced yesterday (Thursday) they would be boycotting the events, citing concerns over a lack of diversity. KUER's lvana (EE-von-uh) Martinez has more.										17	:04			18:32

									1	1			1
University of Utah Study Shows Incarcerated People Face Barriers To Solving Legal, Civil Problems	6/7/2021	Emily Means	01:06	Crime and Law Enforcement	Wrap	A recent report from the University of Utah looks at the challenges incarcerated people face when TRYING to solve their CIVIL legal problems. K-U-E-R* Emily Means has more.		6:32			8:04
Broadband Boom	6/7/2021	Robyn Vincent	01:00	Business, Economics and Finance	Wrap	As federal pandemic relief dollars start FLOWING into state coffers, states are looking at ways to SPEND the money. Broadband internet IS on the list. The Mountain West News Bureau's Robyn Vincent explains.	6:04			7:32
As Lawmakers Work To Silence Minden Siren, Community Remains Divided	6/7/2021	Paul Boger	03:38	Race, Identity and Culture	Feature				6:43			8:43
Conservation Funding	6/7/2021	Nate Hegyi	00:36	Politics and Government	Voicer	The Interior Department plans to spend nearly 3 billion dollars to improve infrastructure at national parks and public LANDS. The Mountain West News Bureau's Nate Hegyi (HEDGE-ee) reports.			7:04	L		8:32
Highway Through The Book Cliffs Is Back On The Table, Despite Protests By Property Owners And Grand County	6/7/2021	Kate Groetzinger	01:42	Business, Economics and Finance	Superspo	A proposed highway through the Book Cliffs in eastern Utah is back on the table. It was suspended last year due to susphack from							16:04		17:3	2
Heavy Metal Runoff	6/7/2021	Madelyn Beck	01:02	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	Debris from last year's wildfires is polluting water systems for towns in our region. The Mountain West New Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports.							16:3	2		18	04
Empty Headquarters	6/8/2021	Maggie Mullen	00:57	Politics and Government	Wrap	When the Bureau of Land Management headquarters moved from D-C to Colorado, about 40 B-L-M employees were reassigned. But the agency told Colorado Newsline this week that only three of those people actually landed in the new office in Grand Junction									17:04		18:	32
Native Deaths	6/8/2021	Savannah Maher	00:36	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19 Voicer	Indigenous Americans have suffered the highest rate of COVID-19 deaths in the U-S. That's according to data from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. Those numbers could be an undercount though. The Mountain West News Sureau's Savannah Maher							16:3	2		18:	04
We Certainly Have Work To Do' — Utah Republican Women Lawmakers Look To Change The Party's Dismal Record On	6/8/2021	Sonja Hutson	01:09	Politics and Government	Wrap	A group of Utah Republicans officially launched a political action committee today (Tuesday) aimed at getting more women from their party elected. KUER's Sonja Hutson has more.							16:04		17:3	2
Members Of Utah Law Enforcement Look At Relationship Building As A Tool For De- escalation	6/8/2021	Emily Means	01:40	Crime and Law Enforcement	Superspo	The Utah FRATERNAL Order of Police hosted DE-ESCALATION training for LAW enforcement yesterday. It was VOLUNTARY for police ACROSS the state. The training comes amid calls for police REFORM and more training. KUER's Emily Means has more.			7:04	L.		8:32
Heavy Metal Runoff	6/8/2021	Madelyn Beck	00:46	Agriculture and Environment	Voicer	Debris from last year's wildfires is polluting water systems for towns in our region. The Mountain West New Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports.		6:32			8:04
Labor Shortage	6/8/2021	Maggie Mullen	00:58	Business, Economics and Finance	Wrap	In several parts of the region, there are about THREE open positions for EVERY unemployed job seeker. That's according to analysis from the job SEARCH site "ZipRecruiter". The Mountain West News Bureau's Maggie MULLEN has more.	6:04			7:32
Wild Horses	6/9/2021	Nate Hegyi	00:41	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	President Joe Biden's pick to run the Bureau of Land Management faced Senate confirmation hearings this week. Tracy Stone-Manning told lawmakers she supports decreasing the number of wild horses on federal lands. The Mountain West News Bureau's Nate Hegyi									17:3	2	18:	32
Scientists Say 'Localscapes' Are One Way To Cut Down On Outdoor Water Use	6/9/2021	Lexi Peery	01:03	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	Utah is in the midst of its worst drought since the 1950s. Now, state leaders are calling on people to CONSERVE water. Some homeowners and developers have turned to "coalscapes" to do so. From K-UE-R's Southwest news bureau Lexi Peery has more.	6:04			7:32
Native Deaths	6/9/2021	Savannah Maher	00:55	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19 Wrap	Indigenous Americans have suffered the highest rate of COVID-19 deaths in the U-S. That's according to data from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. Those numbers could be an undercount though. The Mountain West News Bureau's Savannah Maher (m		6:32	7:04
U.S. Supreme Court Rules No Green Cards For Temporary Protection Status Holders Who Entered Unlawfully	6/9/2021	Ivana Martinez	01:02	Immigration and Refugees	Wrap	TPS or temporary protection status will NOT grant a pathway to citizenship for people who entered the United States unlawfully. That comes after a U.S. Supreme Court ruling earlier in the week. K-U-E-R's Ivana (EE-von-uh) MaRtinez has more on how this aff							16:3			18	04
GOP Climate	6/10/2021	Robyn Vincent		Politics and Government	Wrap	A group of conservatives say the climate crisis shouldn't be a partisan issue. In fact, they're working to create a new Congressional caucus focused on climate. The Mountain West News Bureau's Robyn Vincent reports.									17:04		18:	32

						Five large fires in Utah have started in the last week. They've each burned over 400 acres so for late day wind acres have formed the
'Bone Dry Conditions' In Utah Are Hindering Fire Suppression Efforts	6/10/2021	Lexi Peery	01:03	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	far. Hot, dry, windy conditions have fanned the flames making suppression efforts difficult. From KUER's Southwest news bureau Lexi Peery has more.									16:04				17:32
Wild Horses	6/10/2021	Nate Hegyi	00:34	Agriculture and Environment	Voicer	President Joe Biden's pick to run the Bureau of Land MANAGEMENT faced Senate confirmation hearings this week. Tracy Stone-Manning told lawmakers sho SUPPORTS decreasing the number of wild horses on federal lands. The Mountain West News Bureau's Nate Hegyi				7:04		8	32
Salt Lake City's New Homelessness Policy Director Calls For More Money For Affordable Housing	6/10/2021	Emily Means	01:01	Business, Economics and Finance	Wrap	Former Salt Lake City Council member Andrew Johnston has been in his new role as the city's director of homelessness policy for about a month. He has a BIG goal: making sure everyone has safe and reliable housing. KUER's Emily Means talked with him about	6:04				7:32
GOP Climate	6/11/2021	Robyn Vincent	00:39	Politics and Government	Voicer	A group of conservatives say the climate crisis shouldn't be a partisan issue. In fact, they're working to create a new Congressional caucus focused on climate. The Mountain West News Bureau's Robyn Vincent reports.				7:04		8	32
An Academic Debate: How Critical Race Theory Is And Isn't Being Applied In Utah Classrooms	6/11/2021	Jon Reed	04:45	Education	Feature	Several Republican-led states have passed legislation limiting schools from teaching concepts they associate with Critical Race Theory. In Utah, lawmakers pushed the state school board to issue new guidelines around the academic framework. Schools here sa											16:44			17:44			18:44
ESA Rule Change	6/11/2021	Maggie Mullen	00:54	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	The Biden administration wants to make BIG changes to five Endangered Species Act regulations. The Mountain West News Bureau's Maggie Mullen reports.		6:32				8:04
Cost Is One Of The Biggest Barriers Students Face Going To College, But Lack Of Clear Information About Applyi	6/11/2021	Jon Reed	00:55	Education	Wrap	Cost is one of the biggest barriers high school students face going to college. But a recent report from the nonprofit group Envision Utahfound another major challenge is a lack of clear information. KUER's Jon Reed has more.									16:04				17:32
Sage Grouse	6/11/2021	Nate Hegyi	00:50	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	A federal judge pressed pause this week on new oil and gas drilling, It applies to 630 square miles of public lands in the region. The Mountain West News Bureau's Nate Hegyl (HEDGE-ee) reports.										16:32					18:04
Native Mascots	6/11/2021	Savannah Maher	00:43	Race, Identity and Culture	Voicer	Colorado and Nevada's state legislatures are the latest to approve bans of most racialized mascots in public schools. The Mountain West News Bureau's Savannah Maher {mar] reports.												17:04				18:32
San Juan School District Internet Project Has Connected Around A Third Of Navajo Student Homes, Despite Delays	6/11/2021	Kate Groetzinger	00:57	Business, Economics and Finance	Wrap	The San Juan School District is still working on getting internet access to all of its students on the Navajo Nation. The project was supposed to be completed by the summer, but it ran into some delays. From KUER's Southeast News Bureau, Kate Groetzinger	6:04				7:32
Colorado's Water Scarcity May Finally Be Coming For Your Local Duck Pond	6/14/2021	Luke Runyon	04:16	Agriculture and Environment	Feature	Water supplies are so tight in the West that many states keep close watch over every creek, river, ditch and reservoir. A complex web of laws and rules makes sure water is put to use. To prevent any waste, Colorado has started cracking down on what may se			6:43				8:4	3
As Utah National Refugee Week Begins, Some Members Hesitate To Gather In-Person	6/14/2021	Ivana Martinez	01:10	Immigration and Refugees	Wrap	Today (Monday) marks the start of National Refugee Week. Salt Lake County houses one of the largest refugee populations in the state. But over the last year—they—like so many haven't had a chance to gather. Until now. KUER's Ivana Martinez has more.	6:04				7:32
Native Mascots	6/14/2021	Savannah Maher	01:00	Race, Identity and Culture	Wrap	The state legislatures of Colorado and Nevada are the latest to approve bans of most racialized mascots in public schools. The Mountain West News Bureau's Savannah Maher reports.		6:32				8:04
The Church Of Jesus Christ Of Latter-day Saints Partners With The NAACP To Fund Scholarships For Black Student	6/14/2021	Emily Means	01:10	Religion	Wrap	The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints announced today (Monday) it will be funding programs to help Black communities. KUER's Emily Means reports it's a continuation of an ongoing partnership with the N double-A C-P.												17:04				18:32
BLM Nominee	6/14/2021	Nate Hegyi	01:00	Politics and Government	Wrap	President Biden's nominee to oversee federal public lands in our region is under fire from Senate Republicans. As our Mountain West News Bureau's Nate Hegyl reports, the criticism stems from Tracy Stone-Manning's lies to a criminal case more than three de										16:32					18:04
Dixle State University Committee Recommends 'Utah Polytechnic State University' As New Name	6/14/2021	Sonja Hutson	01:10	Race, Identity and Culture	Wrap	Dixie State University is one step closer to a new name. A university committee voted today {Monday} to recommend Utah Polytechnic State University as the school's new name. KUER's Sonja Hutson has more									16:04				17:32

						A Republican Utah state representative is
Jtah Lawmaker Attempts To Revive Bill Restricting Gender Affirming Healthcare For Transgender And	6/15/2021	Sonja Hutson	01:06	Medicine and	Wrap	bringing back a bill, to ban gender affirming healthcare for transgender kids. KUER's Sonja
Healthcare For Transgender And Gender Diver				Health		Hutson reports a legislative committee will discuss the proposal tomorrow morning {Wednesday}.									17:0	04			18:32
On The Nine Year Anniversary Of DACA, One Recipient Calls On Sen. Romney To Pass The American Promise Dream Ac	6/15/2021	Ivana Martinez	01:02	Immigration and Refugees	Wrap	The Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals or DACA, turns nine-years-old today {Tuesday}. As KUER's Ivana {EE-von-uh} Martinez reports, uncertainty remains for many Utahns in the program.								16:32				18:04
High Elevation Fires	6/15/2021	Maggie Mullen	00:33	Agriculture and Environment	Voicer	Climate change is causing more wildfires in an unlikely place — subalpine forests. That's according to a new study published in the National Academy of Sciences this week yesterday (Monday). The Mountain West News Bureau's Maggie Mullen report.							16:04			17:3	2
BLM Nominee	6/15/2021	Nate Hegyi	00:38	Politics and Government	Voicer	President Joe Biden's NOMINEE to OVERSEE federal public lands in the Mountain West region- - is under FIRE from Senate Republicans. The criticism stems from Tracy Stone-Manning's ties to a CRIMINAL case more than THREE decades ago. The Mountain West News			7:04			3:32
Popular Parks	6/15/2021	Madelyn Beck	00:57	Arts and Entertainment	Wrap	National and state parks are seeing RECORD turnouts this year. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports that parks in the Navajo Nation may soon see the same.		6:32			8:04
With Evictions Moratorium Nearing Its End, Housing Advocates Encourage Renters To Be Proactive	6/15/2021	Jon Reed	00:55	Business, Economics and Finance	Wrap	A federal moratorium on evictions is set to expire at the END of the month. As K-U-E-R's Jon Reed reports, housing advocates are worried THAT could put thousands of Utahns at risk of LOSING their homes. // For anyone who needs assistance, they can go to R	6:04			7:32
Telehealth Laws	6/16/2021	Madelyn Beck	00:51	Medicine and Health	Wrap	Telehealth blossomed during the pandemic. Lawmakers temporarily rolled back regulations on seeing your doctor via computer or phone. Now, they want to keep it that way. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports.		6:32			8:04
Wildfires Are Burning Twice As Much Of Rocky Mountains Than Last 2,000 Years	6/16/2021	Maggie Mullen	00:54	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	RECORD breaking temperatues are being recorded in the Mountain west. And, amid THAT, a new study published this week-shows MORE wildfres are happening in the high- elevation forests of the Rocky Mountain region than at any point in the past 2 thousand y			7:04			3:32
Lawmakers Signal There May Be Room For Compromise On Transgender Girls' Sports Participation	6/16/2021	Sonja Hutson	01:03	Medicine and Health	Wrap	Utah lawmakers debated transgender girls participating in school sports again today (Wednesday). Earlier this year the Legislature decided NOT to pass a bill banning them from competing. KUER's Sonja Hutson reports the sponsor is now trying to find a comp								16:32				18:04
Homeless Heat	6/16/2021	Maggie Mullen	00:47	Medicine and Health	Wrap	The excessive heat this week has worsened our region's orgoing drought. And there are several wildfires currently burning. It's also been especially dangerous for people without housing. The Mountain West News Bureau's Maggie Mullen explains.									17:0)4			18:32
Protesters Accused Of Painting Salt Lake County District Attorney's Office Red Plead Guilty To Lesser Charges	6/16/2021	Emily Means	01:42	Crime and Law Enforcement	Superspot	Last summer, demonstrators painted the Salt Lake County District Attorney's building RED. It was in protest of D-A "Sim Gills" ruling —which found police were justified in shooting and KILLING Bernardo Palacios-Carbajal (puh-LAW- see-ose car-buh-HALL).	6:04			7:32
'Droughts Don't Cause Water Scarcity — People Do': Experts Say Utah Needs To Permanently Reduce Water Use	6/17/2021	Kate Groetzinger	01:05	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	Utah is in the midst of its worst drought in decades. State officials have focused on IT to explain the water shortage we are facing. But experts say there's more to the story. From K-U- E-R's Southeast News Bureau, Kate Groetzinger has more.	6:04			7:32
Hunting Rights	6/17/2021	Savannah Maher	00:59	Politics and Government	Wrap	A Shoshone {shuh-SHO-nee} tribe in Utah is suing the state of Idaho for the right to hunt off- reservation. The Mountain West News Bureau's Savannah Maher{MAR} explains.		6:32			8:04
Homeless Heat	6/17/2021	Maggie Mullen	00:34	Medicine and Health	Voicer	This week's extreme heat wave is breaking records in our region, and leaving homeless people that much more vulnerable to the elements. The Mountain West News Bureau's Maggie Mullen reports.			7:04			3:32
Record Visitation And Long Lines tevive The Push For A Reservation System For Arches	6/17/2021	Kate Groetzinger	04:35	Business, Economics and Finance	Feature	Arches National Park is on track to have its busiest year ever. {OPT That increase in visitation has caused the park to close its gates over 80 times this year.} Park advocates and local officials say a reservation system could help alleviate congestion A								16	:44					18:4
'It's Worse Than You Think' — Gov. Cox Urges Utahns To Hold Off On Fireworks This Year Because Of Drought	6/17/2021	Emily Means	00:59	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	Utah Governor Spencer Cox says the state's drought is worse than people think. So he's cautioning them to hold off on the fireworks this year. KUER's Emily Means has more.									17:0)4			18:32

Juneteenth Regional	6/17/2021	Robyn Vincent	01:02	Race, Identity and Culture		Wrap	Juneteenth celebrations are scheduled throughout the region this weekend. The Mountain West News Bureau's Robyn Vincent spoke with advocates just as it became a federal holiday.								16:32				18:04
Utah Organizers Work To Continue Focus On Racial Equality Issues In This Year's Juneteenth Celebrations	6/18/2021	Ivana Martinez	00:59	Race, Identity and Culture		Wrap	Last summer's protests against racial injustice put Juneteenth on the map for mary Utahns. For celebrations this year, organizers are working to keep the focus going for racial equality issues. KUER's Ivana (EE-von-uh) Martinez has more on the June 19th h	6:04			7:32
Twitter Outbreaks	6/18/2021	Madelyn Beck	01:05	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19	Wrap	New research shows that partisan, anti-science tweets came ahead of COVID-19 outbreaks in the region. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports.										17:04			18:32
Romney Announces Legislation To Target The Country's Wildfire Problems	6/18/2021	Lexi Peery	01:03	Politics and Government		Wrap	Utah Senator Mitt Romney announced legislation today (Friday) in Draper to address the country's wildfire policies. His bill would create a commission tasked with recommending ways to mitigate and manage wildfires. KUER's Lexi Peery was there.								16:32				18:04
Air Conditioning	6/18/2021	Maggie Mullen	00:43	Medicine and Health		Wrap	Heat waves, like the one we saw this week, are expected to happen more frequently and to last longer. But a lot of homes in the region don't have air conditioning. The Mountain West News Bureau's Maggie dullen reports. New research shows that partisan, anti-science		6:32		8	04
Twitter Outbreaks	6/21/2021	Madelyn Beck	00:43	Medicine and Health	COVID- 19	Voicer	tweets came AHEAD of COVID-19 outbreaks in the region. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports.			7:04		8:32	2
Indian Country Infrastructure	6/21/2021	Savannah Maher	00:58	Politics and Government		Wrap	As Congress negotiates an INFRASTRUCTURE package, tribal leaders across OUR region say it SHOULD include SIGNIFICANT investments in INDIAN Country. The Mountain West News Bureau's Savannah Maher has THE STORY		6:32		8	04
Will The Bureau of Land Management's New HQ Stay In The West?	6/21/2021	Madelyn Beck	04:17	Politics and Government		Feature	The Trump administration moved headquarters for the Bureau of Land Management out of Washington D-C and into Colorado. But will Biden's administration keep it there? The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck went to Grand Junction, Colorado, to ask loc									16:44				18:44
Wildfire Risk	6/21/2021	Maggie Mullen	00:56	Agriculture and Environment		Wrap	Werk to orban's double, book abort to bask do New research shows how mountain community residents underestimate wildfire risk – and overestimate how prepared they are. The Mountain West News Bureau's Maggie Mullen reports.								16:32	10.44			18:04	10.44
Regional Unemployment	6/21/2021	Madelyn Beck	00:41	Business, Economics and Finance		Voicer	Unemployment rates vary significantly across the region as people get vaccinated and states lift COVID-19 restrictions. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports. // Utah's May unemployment rate was at 2 point 7 percent, well below the national										17:04			18:32
String Of Recent Drownings At Utah Reservoirs Have Officials Urging People To Wear Life Jackets	6/21/2021	Lexi Peery	01:04	Medicine and Health		Wrap	At least four people have drowned on Utah reservoirs in the last week. Now, state and local officials are urging people to be cautious when they're out recreating this summer. From KUER's Southwest news bureau Lexi Peery has more.							16:04	ł		17:3	2
Energy Regulators Say The West's Power Grid Isn't Ready For The State To Shut Down Coal Plants	6/21/2021	Jon Reed	00:58	Business, Economics and Finance		Wrap	Political and market forces are steering many Western states towards adopting MORE renewable energy — like wind and solar. But ultilly regulates in Utah say the state should KEEP coal plants and OTHER traditional sources GOING to prevent OUTAGES. KUER's	6:04			7:32
Boarding Schools	6/22/2021	Savannah Maher	00:54	Race, Identity and Culture		Wrap	Interior Secretary Deb Haaland {HAW-lind} announced a framework today {Tuesday} for addressing the legacy of the Indian Boarding School era. The Mountain West News Bureau's Savannah Maher has more.										17:04			18:32
'They're Our Mountains': Moab Community Reflects On Pack Creek Fire At Live Reading	6/22/2021	Kate Groetzinger	01:35	Arts and Entertainment		Superspot	Moab residents gathered last night (Monday) at a local bookstore to read pieces they wrote about the Pack Creek Fire. It has scorched almost 9,000 acres in the nearby La Sal Mountains. From KUER's Southeast News Bureau, Kate Groetzinger was there. // Ther							16:04	L.		17:3	2
Researchers Find More Gen Z Mormons Identify As Queer Than Previous Generations	6/22/2021	Caroline Ballard, Lexi Peery	04:43	Religion		Two-Way	One in 5 Generation Z Latter-day Saints identify as Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, or another sexual orientation besides heterosexual. That's according to analysis of the Nationscape Dataset, a national survey conducted ahead of the 2020 presidential election. R									16:44				18:44
Fire Restoration	6/22/2021	Alex Hager	04:30	Agriculture and Environment		Feature	Now, many communities in the West are in recovery mode. It's tough work to make a burned area accessible for recreation – and to keep nearby waterways from being filled with ash and charred debris. From Aspen Public Radio in Colorado reporter Alex Hage		6:43				8:43

Regional Unemployment	6/22/2021	Madelyn Beck	00:48	Business, Economics and Finance	Wrap	Unemployment rates vary significantly across the region as states lift COVID-19 restrictions and people get vaccinated. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports. // Utah's May unemployment rate was at 2.7%, well BELOW the national average of a		6:32			8:04
Salt Lake County Lawmakers Urge Residents to Hold Off On Fireworks	6/22/2021	Ivana Martinez	00:57	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	Fireworks can be sold in Utah starting Thursday. It comes as the STATE faces its WORST drought in DECADES As KUER's Ivana (EE- von-uh) Martinez reports, elected officials are asking people to LIMIT their USE of the explosives.	6:04			7:32
The Teen Got A Concussion. The School Got A Pass.	6/23/2021	Will Craft	04:45	Medicine and Health	Feature	For DECADES Utah has been the EPICENTER of the teen TREATMENT industry in the U-S. BUT, up until just TWO years ago, the state almost NEVER penalized (PEE-nai- IZED) those treatment programs for breaking rules – even AFTER cases of abuse. Will Craft i			6:43			8:43
Orphan Wells	6/23/2021	Robyn Vincent	00:52	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	Two NEW bills were introduced in Congress yesterday to address orphan GAS wells that dot land across the country. The Mountain West News Bureau's Robyn Vincent reports they may have a BETTER chance than previous bills.		6:32			8:04
Republican Rep. Kera Birkeland Proposes Funding Statewide De- escalation Training For Law Enforcement	6/23/2021	Emily Means	01:04	Crime and Law Enforcement	Wrap	Members of Utah law enforcement agencies were recently introduced to a de-escalation training. If coused on building relationships with communities. Now, one state legislator wants to require police across the state to take it. KUER's Emily Means has mor	6:04			7:32
Park City Residents Say There Needs To Be More Input On Toxic Soil Repository	6/23/2021	Ivana Martinez	01:00	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	Park City officials met yesterday {Tuesday} to answer questions about a proposed toxic soil facility near the outskirts of the city. As KUER's Ivana Martinez reports, some residents are not on board with that idea citing potential health effects.									17:04			18:32
Wind Energy	6/23/2021	Maggie Mullen	00:36	Agriculture and Environment	Voicer	When it comes to wind energy development much of the Mountain West lags behind other parts of the country. That's according to new federal data out this week. The Mountain West News Bureau's Maggie Mullen reports.								16:32			18:04
Interior Budget	6/23/2021	Madelyn Beck	00:58	Politics and Government	Wrap	The Interior Department is asking Congress for 17 point 6 billion dollars next year. That's about 2 and a half billion more than this year. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports – it's the first interior budget under the Biden administrati								16:32			18:04
Wind Energy	6/24/2021	Maggie Mullen	00:51	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	Our region has some of the most powerful wind resources IN the country. But according to new federal data, most of the wind capacity built since 2011 is in the middle of the country. The Mountain West News Bureau's Maggie Mullen reports.		6:32			8:04
Rep. Mike Winder 'Cautiously Optimistic' About Sponsoring A Bill To Use Ranked-Choice Voting In Statewide Elec	6/24/2021	Sonja Hutson	01:07	Politics and Government	Wrap	A Utah STATE representative wants to RESURRECT a proposal to bring RANKED choice voting to some STATEWIDE elections. KUER's Sonja (SONE-ya) Hutson explains.	6:04			7:32
Farm Relief Act	6/24/2021	Savannah Maher	00:54	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	A federal judge has temporarily blocked part of the federal stimulus package. It would provide debt relief to non-white farmers. The Mountain West News Bureau's Savannah Maher reports.								16:32			18:04
Students, Community Members Rally Against Dixie State University's Newly Recommended Name	6/24/2021	Lexi Peery	01:01	Race, Identity and Culture	Wrap	Students and community members rallied last night (Wednesday) AGAINST Dixie State University's new recommended name. Some want to keep Dixie while others just don't feel Utah Polytechnic State represents them. From KUER's Southwest news bureau Lexi Pee							16:04		17	:32
More Buses Or A Gondola Selected As Finalists For Little Cottonwood Canyon Traffic Plan	6/25/2021	Jon Reed	01:00	Business, Economics and Finance	Wrap	After 3 years of analysis, the Utah Department of Transportation has settled on two proposals to reduce traffic through Little Cottonwood Canyon. It's the route from the Salt Lake Valley to Alta (AL- tah) and Snowbird. As KUER's Jon Reed reports, the goal								16:32			18:04
New Housing For Homeless People Opens Up In Salt Lake City, But Nearby Dozens Of People Are Displaced	6/25/2021	Emily Means	01:02	Business, Economics and Finance	Wrap	A new PERMANENT supportive HOUSING complex opened YESTERDAY in Salt Lake City. It's for people experiencing HOMELESSNESS. At the same TIME, city and county officials shut DOWN a large homeless ENCAMPMENT across town. KUER's Emily Means has more.	6:04			7:32
GYE Assessment	6/25/2021	Maggie Mullen	00:57	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	YELLOWSTONE will see LOWER snowfall and MORE hot days because of CLIMATE change. That's according to a new Greater Yellowstone Climate Assessment. The Mountain West News Bureau's Maggie Mullen reports.		6:32			8:04
Nez on Boarding Schools	6/25/2021	Pamela McCall	05:25	Race, Identity and Culture	Two-Way	751 UNMARKED graves. That's the latest DISCOVERY at the site of a former RESIDENTIAL school for NIDIGENOUS children in Canada. Another 215 bodies were found just late MONTH. Native AMERICANS are REELING at the news — and reflecting on WHAT might have hap			6:43			8:43

Boarding School Trauma	6/25/2021	Savannah Maher	00:56	Race, Identity and Culture	Wrap	Another unmarked, mass-grave was identified at the site of a residential school in Canada. The Mountain West News Bureau's Savannah Maher and Gandle		reports the emotional toll is also being felt in the United States.									16	:04		17:32
Farm Relief	6/25/2021	Savannah Maher	00:38	Politics and Government	Voicer	A federal judge has temporarily blocked part of the federal stimulus package. It would provide debt relief to non-white farmers. The Mountain West News Bureau's Savannah Maher {mar} reports.				7:04			8:32
Hozho Book	6/28/2021	Kate Groetzinger	01:05	Race, Identity and Culture	Wrap	High school and elementary students in Monument Valley recently published a book of oral histories. They conducted interviews with their grandparents and relatives about what life used to be like on the Navajo Nation. From KUER's Southeast News Bureau, K											17:04			8:04
Alaska Ruling	6/28/2021	Savannah Maher	01:01	Politics and Government	Wrap	The Supreme Court has ruled that corporations that serve Indigenous Alaskans are eligible for tribal coronavirus relief. The Mountain West News Bureau's Savannah Maher reports.									16	:04
From Finger to Flame	6/28/2021	Lexi Peery	05:21	Agriculture and Environment	Feature	THIS year could be one of the WORST wildfire seasons in Utah's HISTORY The leading cause? PEOPLE K-U-E-R's Lea/ Peory brings us a story of ONE way they can start. // There are currently no red flag warnings in place in Utah. There IS a hazardous weather			6:43					8:43
Red Flag Laws	6/28/2021	Robyn Vincent	00:59	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	Opponents of red flag gun laws say they violate constitutional rights. In a new study, legal scholars refute that argument. The Mountain West News Bureau's Robyn Vincent reports.		6:32				8:04
Utah's Bail Reform: Reducing Inequities Between Poor And Rich Defendants	6/28/2021	Sonja Hutson	01:31	Crime and Law Enforcement	Superspot	Main PLAYERS in Ulah's criminal justice system are BACk at the table. They're TRYING to find bail REFORM policy they can ALL agree with — from the COURTS and PROSECUTORS to DEFENSE attorneys and LAWMAKERS. They say they ALL agree with the same UNDERLYING	6:04				7:32
Fireworks Are On Sale. But How Will Restrictions And Bans Impact Business?	6/29/2021	Lexi Peery	00:55	Race, Identity and Culture	Wrap	Fireworks are now on sale in Utah just in time for summer holidays. But it comes as citiles set restrictions and bans because of the historic drought. From KUER's Southwest news bureau Levi Peery has more on how the current state of things is affecting											17:04		1	8:04
CO River Negotiations	6/29/2021	Luke Runyon	00:51	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	Colorado River water managers could be pulled back to the negotiating table as scon as next year- to keep its BIGGEST reservoirs from declining FURTHER. From K-U-N-C, Luke Runyon has more.				7:04
Indigenous Languages	6/29/2021	Savannah Maher	04:14	Race, Identity and Culture	Feature	Learning Indigenous languages became even HARDER during the pandemic. In SOME communities, language learning ground to a HALT. And many TRIBAL communities saw the tragic deaths of native SPEAKERS. The latest federal REFLIEF package includes 20 million dol			6:43					8:43
Utah's Bail Reform: How The Cost Is Pushing Rural Counties Away From The Benefits	6/29/2021	Sonja Hutson	01:38	Crime and Law Enforcement	Superspot	In part two of K-U-E-R's series on bail reform, Sonja (SONE-ya) Hutson takes us INSIDE the debate that has PROSECUTORS divided. // Tune in tomorrow to Morning Edition, to hear part three of KUER's series on bail reform. (OPT We'll focus on what role monet	6.04					8:04
Utah's Bail Reform: Defense Attorneys' View On The Role Of Cash Bail	6/30/2021	Sonja Hutson	01:42	Crime and Law Enforcement	Superspot	Members of Utah's criminal justice system are back at the table to try to find bail reform policy they can ALL get on board with. In part three of KUER's series on bail reform, Sonja (SONE-ya) Hutson looks at what's driving a WEDGE between defense attorme	6:04					8:04
Kindergarten-Prep Program Upstart Is Free For Families, But Barriers Still Exist		Jon Reed	00:57	Education	Wrap	This year, the Utah-based kindergarten prep program Upstart is being offered to all pre-K kids in the state for free. It's been shown to help students develop foundational skills. But as KUER's Jon Reed reports, some families still have a hard time access									16	:04			1	8:04