

QUARTERLY PUBLIC AFFAIRS REPORT – WNSV NASHVILLE, IL 62263

OCTOBER 2021 – DECEMBER 2021

10/03/21 Illinois In Focus- Greg Bishop has the top stories this week, including Truth In Accounting (TIA) evaluating state governments for how much debt states have versus how much they bring in. For Illinois the amount owed per taxpayer went from about $30,000 in 2009 to $57,000 in the most recent report which released Tuesday. (26:00)

This week's top news and commentary, where the TIA evaluates state governments, on how much debt that states have vs how much they bring in, and more

St. John's Lutheran Church had a Bible Study program (30:30)

10/10/21 Illinois In Focus- Greg Bishop has the top stories this week, with Gov. J.B. Pritzker had an indoor mask mandate in place for more than a year until he let the order expire in May. He then re-instituted a mask mandate in July for all indoor gatherings. On Monday, he couldn't say what the benchmark would be to lift the mandate. (26:00)

This week's top news and commentary, where the mask mandate indoors may not have an expiration date for a while, and more

St. John's Lutheran Church had a Bible Study program (30:30)

10/17/21 Illinois In Focus- Greg Bishop has the top stories this week, with Gov. J.B. Pritzker seeking to change a law, following citizens invoking to fight on vaccine mandates. (26:00)

This week's top news and commentary, where Governor Pritzker continues to have people upset over the mask mandate, as he fights to keep these indoor mandates, and more

St. John's Lutheran Church had a Bible Study program (30:30)

10/24/21 Illinois In Focus- Greg Bishop has the top stories this week, with Governor Pritzker making a 'grifter' comment, and attorney suing over COVID mandates considers defamation case (26:00)

This week's top news and commentary, where lawsuits continue in Illinois against Governor Pritzker for mask mandates and vaccination requirements, and more

St. John's Lutheran Church had a Bible Study program (30:30)

10/31/21 Illinois In Focus- Greg Bishop has the top stories this week, where changes are coming to a state law prohibiting discrimination against people for conscientiously objecting to medical procedures in the name of enforcing COVID-19 mandates, but the changes won't go into effect until July 1, 2022.. (26:00)

This week's top news and commentary, where changes are pending for a state law prohibiting discrimination against people with medical procedures in covid-19 mandates, and more

St. John's Lutheran Church had a Bible Study program (30:30)

11/07/21 Illinois In Focus- Greg Bishop has the top stories this week, where large employers in Illinois, and across the country, now have Jan. 4 to have employees comply with President Joe Biden's vaccine mandate and the Illinois Chamber of Commerce is bracing for the fallout. (26:00)

This week's top news and commentary, where large employers in Illinois have until January 4th to have employees comply with the vaccine mandate, and more

St. John's Lutheran Church had a Bible Study program (30:30)

11/14/21 Illinois In Focus- Greg Bishop has the top stories this week, where Gov. J.B. Pritzker signed changes to the Health Care Right of Conscience Act he said will allow for COVID-19 mandates to be enforced at the workplace. (26:00)

This week's top news and commentary, where governor Pritzker has signed changes for the Health Care Right of Conscience Act, and more

St. John's Lutheran Church had a Bible Study program (30:30)

11/21/21 Illinois In Focus- Greg Bishop has the top stories this week, where Illinois is one of six states in the U.S. that still has a statewide mask mandate and is the only state east of the Mississippi that still has such a requirement. Gov. J.B. Pritzker implemented an executive order to re-introduce a statewide indoor mask mandate on Aug. 30, to help slow the spread of COVID-19 amid an increase of cases from the delta variant. (26:00)

This week's top news and commentary, where Illinois is one of 6 states that still has a state mandate of masks, and more

St. John's Lutheran Church had a Bible Study program (30:30)

11/28/21 Illinois In Focus- Greg Bishop has the top stories this week, where in Illinois some drivers can expect to pay more for Thanksgiving travel. Others hitting the road in electric vehicles may have to plan on where to charge up. (26:00)

This week's top news and commentary, where drivers asked to pay more attention while traveling this Thanksgiving, and more

St. John's Lutheran Church had a Bible Study program (30:30)

12/05/21 Illinois In Focus- Greg Bishop has the top stories this week, where an analysis by the University of Illinois Extension looked at demographic trends and revealed the number of people aged 25 to 39 in Illinois decreased, one of the few states in the country to see a decline. Illinois also lost population in the 40 to 59 age group. (26:00)

This week's top news and commentary, where an analysis by the U of I Extension looked at the demographic trends, concluding that the number of people between 25 and 39 years old have decreased covid cases, and more

St. John's Lutheran Church had a Bible Study program (30:30)

12/12/21 Illinois In Focus- Greg Bishop has the top stories this week, where about 90 teachers and school staff are suing their school districts and Gov. J.B. Pritzker's administration over COVID-19 mandates such as vaccines, testing and masks. (26:00)

This week's top news and commentary, where more lawsuits are coming forward from teachers, and more

St. John's Lutheran Church had a Bible Study program (30:30)

12/19/21 Illinois In Focus- Greg Bishop has the top stories this week, where Pritzker was asked Tuesday about a possible sunset date for the statewide mandate, but the governor declined. The governors of New York and California have set end dates to their mask mandates. Pritzker said Illinoisians will continue to follow the science. (26:00)

This week's top news and commentary, where the governor was asked about the state mandate of possible sunset dates, and more

St. John's Lutheran Church had a Bible Study program (30:30)

12/26/21 Illinois In Focus- Greg Bishop has the top stories this week, and according to the latest figures from the U.S. Census Bureau, from July 2020 to July 2021, there were 113,776 fewer people in Illinois. Only the District of Columbia and New York had a greater percent decline in population. (26:00)

This week's top news and commentary, where the US Census Bureau has 113,776 fewer people in Illinois, and more

St. John's Lutheran Church had a Bible Study program (30:30)