

 QUARTERLY PUBLIC AFFAIRS REPORT – WNSV NASHVILLE, IL 62263

JULY 2016 – SEPTEMBER 2016

- 7/3/16
28:00 Illinois Rising - Rep. Jeanne Ives talks about the stopgap budget discussions in Springfield
- 7/10/16
28:00 Illinois Rising – A break down what the state’s largest government-sector union is asking for in its new contract negotiations.
- 7/17/16
41:08 Interview with Joyce Fickery of the Dairy Council about National Ice Cream Month
- 7/24/16
28:00 Illinois Rising - Faisal Khan, former legislative inspector general for Chicago and current CEO of Project Six, discusses the widespread corruption in Chicago.
- 7/31/16
28:00 Illinois Rising - Jeffrey Tucker from the Foundation for Economic Education talks about the impact of Pokemon GO, and political discourse in 2016.
- 8/7/16
28:00 Illinois Rising – A discussion on the state’s decision to decriminalize marijuana with defense attorney David Camic.
- 8/14/16
28:00 Illinois Rising - Steve Brown, press secretary for House Speaker Michael Madigan, debate a series of issues ranging from K-12 education to pensions.
- 8/21/16
28:00 Illinois Rising – A discussion of a Georgia town that successfully relies on the private sector for most of its services.
- 8/28/16
28:00 Illinois Rising – Food stamp trafficking and other financial problems in the state.
- 9/4/16
28:00 Illinois Rising – Experts break down what comes next in the state’s partial impasse with AFSCME.

9/11/17
28:00

Illinois Rising – Topics include the looming Chicago Teachers Union strike.

9/18/17
28:00

Illinois Rising - Illinois Manufacturers' Association President Greg Baise talks about how to improve the state's poor manufacturing climate.

9/25/17
28:00

Illinois Rising - A child care worker leads a nationwide fight against unionization of home child care providers.