

Issues/Programs List 3rd Quarter 2018

- program title: “International Summer Chamber Music Festival”
- the community issue addressed: Youth Music Programs
- time: 9am to noon
- date: July 3, 2018
- duration: 3 hours
- brief narrative description of how the program addressed the issue: Three hour live broadcast at Fleetwood Bank in Kutztown focusing on nurturing the love of great music and developing the young artists of the future, Kutztown University's Summer Chamber Music Festival allows emerging musicians to experience the Art of Chamber Music with internationally acclaimed artists.

- program title: “Access to Treatment”
- the community issue addressed: Drug/Alcohol Treatment
- time: 11am to noon
- date: July 16, 2018
- duration: 1 hour
- brief narrative description of how the program addressed the issue: COCA Berks, Council on Chemical Abuse Marcia Goodman Hinnershitz, Director of Planning & Resource Development. Stacey Short, Clinical Evaluator. What is Treatment Access Service Center (TASC)? How can someone access their services and seek treatment?

- program title: “The Global African Super Center”
- the community issue addressed: International Cultures/Traditions
- time: 9am to noon
- date: August 2, 2018
- duration: 1 hour
- brief narrative description of how the program addressed the issue: Elizabeth Sichinga, Executive Director of the Global African Super Center hosted a three-day International Business Conference and Festival/Street Fair. August 30th – Sept. 1st.

- program title: Talking Law with Attorney Scott Hoh
- the community issue addressed: "End of Life issues"
- time: 11am to noon
- date: Sept 11, 2018
- duration: 1 hour
- brief narrative description of how the program addressed the issue: Estate Administration Attorney Scott Hoh covered wills, probate, power of attorney. He took calls/questions from listeners on the topic of "getting your house in order."

- program title: Are you covered?
- the community issue addressed: "Earthquake, flood, & home insurance"
- time: 9am to noon
- date: Sept 13, 2018
- duration: 3 hours
- brief narrative description of how the program addressed the issue: Fall Open House at the Chester Perfetto Agency. Heather Wilson, Personal Lines Agent reviewed various types of insurances for your home. We also reviewed retirement funds with Dennis Mullally, Financial Advisor.

- program title: Rehab Month
- the community issue addressed: "National Rehabilitation Month"
- time: 9am to noon
- date: Sept 19, 2018
- duration: 3 hours
- brief narrative description of how the program addressed the issue: Amy Teal, CEO of Health South Reading Rehabilitation Hospital. Brandon Kline, Home Health Division Manager. Dr. Suzanne Adam, Medical Director. 9th Annual Car Show. In Pennsylvania patients can choose where they go for their rehab/physical therapy. Technology is making rehab a lot easier.

- program title: "Ask the Conductor"
- the community issue addressed: Music/Symphony
- time: 11am to noon
- date: Sept. 21, 2018
- duration: 1 hour
- brief narrative description of how the program addressed the issue: Music Director Andrew Constantine previewed the 2018-19 season at the Reading Symphony Orchestra. The RSO is in its 106th consecutive season. Callers called in to win FREE tickets.