

Date	Issue	Program/Segment	Narration of type and description of the program/segment.
1/6/2019	health issues	Finger Lakes Focus (15 min)	Guests were Kim Ilaqua and Dr Matthew Talbot of Finger Lakes Health. Dr. Talbot talked about the structure of the emergency departments at Finger Lakes Health-affiliated hospitals as well as the importance of primary care physicians in a family's health plan.
1/13/2019	city of Geneva business	Finger Lakes Focus (15 min)	Guests were Marueen Ballatori and Chris Cooley, who talked about Port 100, a program offering access to planning and infrastructure assistance to existing businesses and others looking to relocate to the area.
1/20/2019	state politics	Finger Lakes Focus (15 min)	Guest was Mark Lavigne of the NYS Association of Counties. The discussion revolved around the recently proposed State Budget and breaking down the new budget allocations that would affect the region.
1/27/2019	local event	Finger Lakes Focus (15 min)	Guests from the YMCA of Geneva discussed the annual Frostfest event and its moving to a new location at 3 Brothers Winery. The event is the biggest fundraiser for the YMCA yearly.
2/3/2019	local scholarship program	Finger Lakes Focus (15 min)	Guest was Abby Shiply, who discussed the beginning of the process of selecting recipients for the annual ACE Athena Scholarships, which focus on continuing education.
2/10/2019	city council update	Finger Lakes Focus (15 min)	Guest was Geneva City Manager Sage Gerling, who discussed the Main Street Grant Program and what it may be used for, as well as updates to pedestrian crossing across Routes 5 and 20 near the lakefront area.
2/17/2019	scouting update	Finger Lakes Focus (15 min)	Guest was Steven Hoitt from the Pathways Council, who discussed the rollout of girls joining the Boy Scout program.
2/24/2019	regional politics	Finger Lakes Focus (15 min)	Guest was regional US Congressman Tom Reed, who talked about the Land & Water Conservation Fund that had just passed the Senate, as well as drug enforcement policies and immigration issues.
3/3/2019	local chamber update	Finger Lakes Focus (15 min)	Guest was Tara Johnson from the Geneva Chamber of Commerce, who updated the continuing series of Business After Hours events and other upcoming chamber functions.
3/10/2019	Americorp Vista program	Finger Lakes Focus (15 min)	Guest was Kevin Collado, an Americorps Vista volunteer. He talked about being a Hobart graduate and working with the Americorps Vista group on food security and food access in the area.
3/17/2019	law enforcement	Finger Lakes Focus (15 min)	Guest was new Ontario County Sherriff Kevin Henderson, who talked about settling into his new role. He also talked about recent phone/door to door scams in the area and how citizens can detect them and report them.
3/24/2019	local library sale	Finger Lakes Focus (15 min)	Guests were Deb Brewer and Spike Herzog of the Geneva Library. They talked about the upcoming Spring Book Sale and how the sale offers much more than books, including audiobooks, DVD's, and puzzles.