

KZYZ 90.7 FM & KZYZ 91.5 FM
PO Box 1
Philo, CA 95466

SIGNIFICANT TREATMENT OF COMMUNITY ISSUES

Quarterly Report: July - September 2023

During the 3rd quarter of 2023, KZYZ & KZYZ provided coverage of issues of importance to Mendocino County and adjacent communities in Northern California. Examples of programming that address important issues are listed below.

ISSUE	PROGRAM TITLE & DESCRIPTION	DATE/TIME	DURATION
Medicine and Health	Mind Body Health Join Dr. Casey Johnston on the Mind-Body-Health program for an in-depth discussion with Brie Abbe, a certified nurse midwife at the MCHC Care for Her Clinic.	7/11/23 9am	59min
Science and Technology	The Ecology Hour a delightful conversation about Owls, with science writer Jennifer Ackerman, bestselling author of "The Bird Way" and "The Genius of Birds." Her newest book is "What an Owl Knows" and she tells us about some of their remarkable adaptations, and the many ways they mystify and delight humans	7/11/23 7pm	59min
Politics and Government	TKO , host Karen Ottoboni takes a look at hot topics in local politics. This week's topic is Insurance Companies leaving California, cost increases and the impact on our communities. Guests are Harvey Rosenfield from Consumer Watchdog and Amy Bach from United Policy Holders	7/12/23 9am	59min
Politics and Government	TUC radio , join host Maria Gilardin for a conversation with Dr Neta Crawford, Professor in international relations at the University of Oxford and the author of "The Pentagon, Climate Change, and War: Charting the Rise and Fall of U.S. Military Emissions"	7/12/23 3 pm	29 minutes

Politics and Government	Universal Perspectives , Host Chris Skyhawk talk with guest Matt Rossell of the Animal Defense League; Matt will discuss the growing movement for cities to ban 4th of July Fireworks, due to their harmful impact upon wildlife and Julie Beardsley; President of Mendocino County Service Employees International Union 1021; Julie will discuss the crisis in staffing County positions; and the Union's attempts to get the Board Of Supervisors to address the crisis.	7/13/23 7pm	59min
Politics and Government	Forthright Radio journalist, David Neiwert, discusses his four decades of reporting on anti-democracy extreme right movements in the United States and his latest book, THE AGE OF INSURRECTION: THE RADICAL RIGHT'S ASSAULT ON AMERICAN DEMOCRACY	7/14/23 9 am	59 minutes
Arts and Culture	Art Waves features visual artist Danza Davids, Willits Center for the Arts and the Mendocino International Summer Music Academy Virtuoso Concert Series.	7/18/23 9 am	59min
Agriculture and Environment	Ecology Hour Host Chad Swimmer tasks about alternative wood sources, with Nathan Anderson of Anderson's Alternatives. You will also hear the history of Laura Mahon, a little-known and likely queer 19th-century hero of the redwoods, with Braid Koplring, a docent at Humboldt Redwoods State Park.	7/18/23 7pm	59min
Politics and Government	TUC Radio host Maria Gilardin discussion on the temperature records set in the current, first, truly global heatwave on land and in the ocean with speakers Dr. Peter Carter, Paul Beckwith and Regina Valdez of the Climate Emergency Forum. This recording was made on July 12th when the World Meteorological Organization confirmed one record hottest day after another.	7/26/23 3 pm	29 minutes

Race, Identity and Culture	Pride Radio 101 hosts Roland Cory Medina and Chad Swimmer this Friday at 7 pm for Pride Nation 101. The theme of the episode is "lest we forget," examining the lives queer people in America lived just a couple generations back, with an archival interview with WW2 veteran Calvin McIntosh.	8/4/23 7pm	59min
Race, Identity and Culture	Good Ancestors and Local Treasures Host COorin talks to Buffie Schmidt: Vice Chairwoman of Sherwood Valley Rancheria and the Northern Pomo Language teacher at Ukiah High School and South Valley/Big Picture High School. She will also be welcoming Weshoyot Alvitre, a female author and illustrator from the Tongva tribe of Southern California whose work focuses on representing and amplifying the Indigenous lens and voice from children's books for adult graphic novels.	8/7/23 9 am	59 minutes
Medicine and Health	Mind Boday and Health Join Dr. Casey Johnston on the Mind-Body-Health program for an in-depth discussion about rural medicine and palliative care with Dr. Mark Apfel.	8/8/23 9 am	59min
Agriculture and Environment	The Ecology Hour Sea Otters are considered a keystone species in the kelp forest ecosystem of the eastern Pacific Ocean. Yet, they have been absent from northern California for a century, except for an isolated population around Monterey. On The Ecology Hour we talk with Dr. Brent Hughes of Sonoma State University, who studies kelp and other coastal ecosystems, about the complex role of Sea Otters and the possibility of re-establishing	8/8/23 7 pm	59min

	populations in estuaries from San Francisco Bay north
Politics and Government	Forthright Radio host Joy LaClaire talks with author and attorney with Americans United for Separation of Church & State, Andrew Seidel, discusses his work and books, The Founding Myth: Why Christian Nationalism Is Un-American and American Crusade: How the Supreme Court is Weaponizing Religious Freedom	8/11/23 9 am	59min
Arts and Culture	Art Waves This month's edition features Mark Gross with the KGUA writers and Teo Arila with the Gualala Theater Project.	8/15/23 9am	59min
Politics and Government	"Citizen U", Host Mari Rodin discuss urban planning, people-friendly streets, and active transportation with her guest Josh Meyer, Community Design Program Director at CivicWell, a Sacramento-based nonprofit devoted to helping communities thrive	8/16/23 9am	59min
Politics and Government	Radiogram Joy LaClair's discussion with Andrew Seidel (as in sidle up), author of AMERICAN CRUSADE: HOW THE SUPREME COURT IS WEAPONIZING RELIGIOUS FREEDOM. They talked about the "For Sale" sign on our highest court. Well... fear not! Host Jamie Roberts will re-broadcast the August 11 edition of Forthright Radio so that no one needs to miss this critical conversation.	8/16/23 7pm	59min

Politics and Government	Corporations and Democracy Think initiative campaigns are free from interference from corporations? Join Annie and Steve on Corporations and Democracy Thursday at 7:00 p.m. when they'll discuss How Local Governments Are Blocking Ballot Initiatives at the Behest of Corporations with Kai Huschke ["hooshɔ kuh"], Executive Director of the Community Environmental Legal Defense Fund (CELDF.)	8/17/23 7 pm	59 min
Arts and Culture	Upwelling Host Michelle Blackwell, interviews local author Tansy Chapman about her first novel, Rose Gray , eco poet Maureen Epstein about her 2020 poetry collection Horizon Line and two-time emmy award winning writer Laura Maria Gensabella about her play Paradise .	8/30/23 9 am	59min
Race, identity and culture	"Pride Nation 101" Co hosts Chad Swimmer and Roland Cory Medina will bring you a special show in ingles y espanol, featuring Afro-colombian transgender artist La Morena del Chichamocha, hablando de derechos LGBTQ en Colombia and the long tradition of afro-transgenderism	9/1/23 7 pm	59min
Medicine and Health	Mind Body Health Join Dr. Casey Johnston on the Mind-Body-Health program for a discussion with Tim Pletcher and Neil Davis of the Ukiah Valley Trail Group about the growing hiking trail system of Mendocino County.	9/12/23 9am	59min
Agriculture and Environment	The Ecology Hour Tim Bray and Bob Spies interview marine ecologist Dr. Julie Thayer from the Farallon Institute. Dr. Thayer is an expert on forage fish, especially the	9/12/23 7pm	59min

	northern Anchovy population, which has returned to the Mendocino County coastal waters in great abundance this year. Anchovies are prey for whales, birds, and large fish, and are a key part of the marine food web. We talk about changes in the populations of these and other forage fishes in the California Current System, and the effects on their predators, including salmon.
Politics and Government	TKO host Karen Ottoboni takes a look at hot topics in local politics. This week's guest is Mendocino County 3rd District Supervisor John Haschak, discussing county issues	9/13/23 9am	59min
Race, Identity and Culture	MendoLatino interviews Chilean history professor Patricio Quiroga Zamora, personal friend of Salvador Allende, the president of Chile assassinated during the coup d'etat in Sept 11th, 1973 fifty years ago. We discuss history, memory and "Unidad Popular", the governmental program that propelled Allende to the Presidency of Chile in 1970. The program commemorates 50 years of the coup in Chile	9/25/23 9am	59min
Medicine and Health	Mind Body Health Join Dr. Casey Johnston on the Mind-Body-Health Program for a discussion with Dr. Erica Valdovinos and Austin Peterson about the opioid crisis and solutions.	9/26/23 9 am	59min
Politics and Government	TUC Radio Radio host Maria Gilardin presents: The extradition of Julian Assange to the US may be only weeks away. He is running out of options to	9/27/23 3 pm	29min

	appeal and has been stripped of all personal and civil liberties. Chris Hedges says that the intent of the US government is not only to silence Assange, but to send a message to all whistle-blowers and journalists who are exposing US war crimes. Chris Hedges is the former Middle East bureau chief of the New York Times. Craig Murray disclosed torture by the CIA and is one of Britain's most important human rights campaigners.
Agriculture and Environment	Renewable Energy Hour Hosts Chris and Doug will be joined by Brant Arthur, Program Manager at Sonoma Clean Power. They will be discussing rebates, tax credits and other incentives available from the utility, state and federal governments for renewable energy systems, high efficiency electrical appliances and weatherization and electric vehicles, how much some of these actions will lower operating costs and the corresponding environmental footprints. They will also address some of the issues people have around EVs as well as talk about their EV showcase event on Saturday and other resources available through Sonoma Clean Power	9/27/23 7pm	59min
Politics and government	Forthright Radio, host Joy LaClaire talks with Kehinde Andrews, Birmingham City University Professor of Black Studies and Director of its Center for Critical Critical Social Research, about his work as Founder and Chair of the Harambee Organization of Black Unity and Editor-in-Chief of MAKE IT PLAIN, as well as his latest book, NEW AGE OF EMPIRE: HOW RACISM AND COLONIALISM STILL RULE THE WORLD.	9/29/23 9am	59min