

KZYX 90.7 FM & KZYX 91.5 FM
PO Box 1
Philo, CA 95466

SIGNIFICANT TREATMENT OF COMMUNITY ISSUES

Quarterly Report: April - June 2023

During the 2st quarter of 2023, KZYX & KZYX provided coverage of issues of importance to Mendocino County and adjacent communities in Northern California. Examples of programming that address important issues are listed below.

ISSUE	PROGRAM TITLE & DESCRIPTION	DATE/TIME	DURATION
Race, Identity and Culture	Good Ancestors and Local Treasures with Corine Pearce: Guest: Ali Meders-Knight & Casey Carr. Host Corine Pearce celebrates local folks doing amazing things for our community and environment. She welcomes Ali Meders-Knight an artist, activist and master Tek practitioner of the Mechoopda and Casey Carr a environmental protector and Steward from Cloverdale. Learn about the actions they are taking as environmental warriors and educators.	4/3/23 9am	59min
Science and Technology	On The Renewable Energy Hour, hosts Doug and Alex discussed the latest developments in renewable energy.	4/4/23 7pm	59min
Politics and Government	On Citizen "U", 4th District County Supervisor Dan Gjerde spoke about the priorities and work of Supervisor Glenn McGourty, this year's chair of the Mendocino County Board of Supervisors.	4/5/23 9am	59min
Agriculture and Environment	Wildoak Living - Host Johanna Wildoak talks with veteran activist, thinker, doer, storyteller, and Climate Clock co-creator Andrew Boyd about his just	4/6/23 9am	59min

	released book “I Want a Better Catastrophe: Navigating the Climate Crisis with Grief, Hope, and Gallows Humor”. The book is an existential manual for tragic optimists, can-do pessimists and compassionate doomers. Boyd addresses questions such as how do we continue to live and remain engaged in the face of loss and despair, what is still worth doing and is there reason for hope?
Race, Identity and Culture	On Pride Nation 101, takes a deep dive into the tangled world of eating disorders, body image, and mental health in the Queer community and beyond. Cohosts Roland Cory Medina and Chad Swimmer are joined by Emily O'rourke Mills MFT and Carrie Becker Fishman, actress, educator, and life coach for a round table discussion.	4/7/23 7pm	59min
Agriculture and Environment	The Farm and Garden Show -Host Elizabeth Archer interviews Debbie Leland and Bob Farnbach of the Ukiah Garden Club about the club's programs and events, and will also discuss spring garden preparations and how gardens have been impacted by this wet n' wild winter.	4/6/23 3pm	59min
Medicine and Health	Mind Body Health- Dr. Casey Johnston on the Mind, Body, Health program for an in-depth discussion about the health benefits of sports with Kyle Nuss, the sports coordinator for the City of Ukiah Department of Recreation.	4/11/23 9am	59min
Science and Technology	The Ecology Hour, Hosts Tim Bray and Bob Spies speak with Dr. Nathan Senner, director of The Senner Lab at the University of Massachusetts, who	4/11/23 7pm	59min

	has been studying the remarkable adaptations that enable migratory shorebirds to switch between breeding and wintering territories that are thousands of miles apart. He is also discovering the effects of climate change on the critical timing of these movements, and the effects of human alteration of key habitats.
Politics and Government	Universal Perspectives, Host Chris Skyhawk examines Child Protective Services, and asks the question: are they properly servicing families on the state and local level? His guest is Michelle Chan of California Families Rise, which is a statewide organization that attempts to inform parents of their rights and how to ensure them. They then turn to the local Mendocino County issues, with guest Trent James; Trent is a former law enforcement officer and is now a private investigator; and he addresses CPS issues that he has observed in his career.	4/13/23 7pm	59min
Arts and Culture	Art Waves: Shanx interviews Ross Travis about his solo clown performance on Saturday April 22nd, as part of the Point Arena Fringe Festival. Marty Durlin interviews Gordon Black and Dan Roberts about this year's Mendocino Spring Poetry Celebration, and we get a preview of the Sierra Nevada World Music Festival.	4/18/23 9 am	59min
Agriculture and Environment	The Beyond Stewardship Ecology Hour, host Chad Swimmer has an extended conversation with one of the world authorities on tall trees, Professor Steven Sillett. They talk about Intentional Forests, forest	4/18/23 7 pm	59min

	carbon, Potential Elder Trees, and biodiversity, with some true tall tales thrown in for good measure.
Politics and Government	Citizen U, Host Mari Rodin introduces listeners to the subject of urban planning with Craig Schlatter, Director of Community Development for the City of Ukiah. Their conversation focuses on housing development and the avoidance of suburban sprawl.	4/19/23 9 am	59min
Medicine and Health	Mind Body Health, Dr. Casey Johnston on the Mind, Body, Health program for an in-depth discussion with local orthopedic surgeon Dr. Yoshihiro Katsuura about his recently published book The Spine Encyclopedia .	4/25/23 9am	59min
Politics and Government	TKO with Karen Ottoboni, Host Karen Ottoboni speaks with Mendocino County Sheriff Matt Kendall about recent deaths in our county, what's the impact on the Sheriff's department and our communities.	4/26/23 9am	59min
Science and Technology	On the Renewable Energy Hour, Host Doug Livingstone covers developments in Renewable Energy. With caller inspirations, questions and concerns.	4/26/23 7pm	59min
Agriculture and Environment	The Farm and Garden Show, Host Michael Foley interviews Blair Philips and Cheyenne Clark at Wanosh Forest Garden, outside of Willits. Blair, Cheyenne and friends are engaged in a permaculture-inspired, long-term project of forest and watershed stewardship, growing food and medicine, and regenerating the forest and aquifer they depend on. Wanosh (formerly Abuela Garden) is a 40 acre	4/27/23 9am	59 min demonstration, education, and regeneration center.

Education	Inside Education, Host Michele Hutchins honors Autism Awareness Month by interviewing local educators and students whose lives are impacted by Autism.	4/27/23 7pm	59min
Politics and Government	Forthright Radio, host Joy LaClaire speaks with sociologist Katherine S. Newman about her latest book, MOVING THE NEEDLE: WHAT TIGHT LABOR MARKETS DO FOR THE POOR.	4/29/23 9am	59min
Race, Identity and Culture	Good Ancestors and Local Treasures, host Corine Pearce as she welcomes Madonna Feather-Cruz Proud member of Round Valley Indian Tribes, Wife, mother and community member as she discusses her efforts to bring awareness to the Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women epidemic. Corine also welcomes U'ilani Wesley, a Kanaka Maoli activist, singer, lei maker and Land steward on Northern Pomo Land. Hear about the impact she is having on the local community and culture through her activism, leadership and land tending.	5/1/23 9am	59min
Agriculture and Environment	On The Ecology Hour, host Hannah Bird speaks with GrizzlyCorps Fellow Chloe Wanaselja, about what she's learned from and contributed to the UC Hopland Research and Extension Center.	5/2/23 7pm	59min
Politics and Government	Citizen U, host Supervisor Dan Gjerde speaks with former county supervisor, Kendall Smith, to provide some historical context to the position	5/3/23 9am	59min

Race, Identity and Culture	On Wildoak Living, host Johanna Wildoak speaks with Danilla Sands about the organization, United Disaster Relief of Northern California. Then she speaks with Joann Rosen, a local psychotherapist and Buddhist meditation teacher, about an upcoming retreat.	5/4/23 9am	59min
Arts and culture	Be More Now, host Blake More interviews Mendocino County authors Dot Brovarney and Kate Dougherty, about Brovarney's new book, Mendocino Refuge: Lake Leonard & Reeves Canyon, which explores the Mendocino canyon that holds the County's largest natural lake and a fascinating history, telling a multifaceted story of place through the interconnected lives of its plants, wildlife, and human inhabitants from geological time to the present.	5/4/23 7pm	59min
Race, Identity and Culture	On Forthright Radio, host Joy LaClaire features interviews with upcoming Mendocino Film Festival filmmaker Eric Bendick, about his film, PATH OF THE PANTHER, and filmmakers, KRISTY GUEVARA-FLANAGAN & Helen Hood Scheer, about their documentary, BODY PARTS.	5/5/23 9am	59min
Race, Identity and Culture	Pride Nation 101, Hosts Roland Cory Medina and Chad Swimmer dive into the slew of anti-transgender bills popping up across the country. They take you through how ludicrous and dangerous they really are, and how grave of a threat they are to people's lives.	5/5/23 7pm	59min
Medicine and Health	Mind Body Health, host Dr. Casey Johnston for an in-depth discussion with Ryan Veness and Lucy	5/9/23 9am	59min

	Bartholomew of the Blue Zones Project of Mendocino County.
Agriculture and Environment	Ecology Hour, For the second time this century, there will be no commercial or recreational fishing for salmon in California waters. To find out what caused the decline of Chinook salmon here, we turn to Dr. Nathan Mantua of the NOAA Fisheries Science Center. Dr. Mantua brings us the big picture, describing how the complex life cycle of these great fish exposes them to threats from changes in rivers and in the Pacific ocean. It's a remarkable story with a surprising twist, as a seemingly healthy ocean producing abundant anchovies is leading to a vitamin deficiency that kills the young fish.	5/9/23 7pm	59min
Politics and Government	TKO, host Karen Ottoboni takes a look at hot topics in local politics with guest Ted Williams, Mendocino County 5th District Supervisor.	5/10/23 9am	59min
Agriculture and Environment	The Cannabis Hour, host Jenn Procacci as she discusses the results of the North Coast Cannabis Economic Impact study with Genine Coleman of Origins Council, and Sonoma State Economics Professor Dr. Robert Eyster.	5/11/23 9am	59min
Arts and Culture	Art Waves, hosts Marty Durlin and Victor Palomino talk about the Anderson Valley Art Guild Open Studio Tour and the Mendocino County Art Association Art in Our Gardens event.	5/16/23 9am	59min
Science and Technology	Beyond Stewardship Ecology Hour, Host Chad Swimmer speaks with ecologists Peter Baye and Teresa Sholars about a proposed reservoir in the sensitive Mendocino Cypress	5/16/23 7pm	59min

	Woodlands near Fort Bragg. They also delve into potential solutions for a water-scarce future.
Politics and Government	Citizen U, Host Mari Rodin speaks with Jen Dalton and Miles Gordon. They work with communities, local governments, and nonprofits, to facilitate community engagement.	5/17/23 9am	59min
Science and Technology	On Point and Click, hosts Bob Loughton and Jim Heid talked about the latest computer news, with listener calls for tech advice.	5/17/23 7pm	59min
Agriculture and Environment	Corporations and Democracy, hosts Annie Esposito and Steve Scalmanini talked about BANKING ON CLIMATE CHAOS is a new study of the big bad banks that enable continued, massive fossil fuel development. Steve and Annie interview Shawna Foster of Rainforest Action Network who will examine the banks that are funding climate disaster.	5/18/23 7pm	59min
Medicine and Health	Mind Body Health, host Dr. Casey Johnston on the Mind-Body-Health program for an in-depth discussion with Megan Peterson of MendoLeap, an empowering space in Ukiah for children of all ages and abilities to learn, explore, and adapt through the art of play.	5/23/23 9am	59min
Agriculture and Environment	Ecology Hour, host Anna Halligan interviews the Mendocino Resource Conservation District's Navarro River Watershed Coordinator Linda MacElwee about the history of land use and conservation in the watershed.	5/23/23 7pm	59min

Agriculture and Environment	The Farm and Garden Show, host Sara Grusky as she interviews local researcher Bill Bruneau, who has been exhaustively documenting everything science and tradition know about the world's best herbal antibiotics. His first book, on the genus Sida, has been widely used. Now he is finishing up a similar review of Biden's pilosa . Many local herbalists are already growing and using both. Sara and Bill will be discussing the many traditional and contemporary uses of Bidens and Sida and the ins and outs of growing and preparing them.	5/25/23 3pm	59min
Education	Inside Education, Host Michelle Hutchins speaks about the importance of art and music education, and why it's important that the state continue to fund it. We'll also hear some student created music, both locally and throughout the state.	5/25/23 7pm	59min
Arts and Culture	Upwelling, host Michelle Blackwell speaks with Mario Dell'Olio about his latest book, Letters from Italy: A Transatlantic Love Story . Afterwards, she speaks with Elizabeth Kirkpatrick-Vrenios about some of her poetry.	5/31/23 9am	59min
Agriculture and Environment	Wildoak Living, host Johanna talks with Yana Valachovic, a University of California wildfire and home hardening expert, and Scott Cratty, Executive Director of the Mendocino Fire Safe Council. They discuss the science of how wildfires threaten homes, and how simple changes can make all the difference in whether or not a home can survive.	6/1/23 9am	59min

Agriculture and Environment	The Farm and Garden Show, host Elizabeth Archer interviews guest Marie Hoff of Full Circle Wool, based locally. They discuss all things fiber, including slow fashion, fiber arts, and a monthly mending circle hosted at locations throughout Mendocino County.	6/1/23 3pm	59min
Race, Identity and Culture	Good Ancestors and Local Treasures, Corine Pearce speaks with Woniya Thibeault, ancestral skill teacher and 2 time contestant on the History Channel series, Alone . They speak about her experience on the show, and her book Never Alone: A Solo Arctic Survival Journey .	6/5/23 9am	59min
Education	The Mendocino College Radio Hour, host Julie McGovern talks about connecting students and graduates to local employers in our community with Pamela Heston, Director of Employer Partnerships; Julia Siderakis, Cooperative Work Experience Education Coordinator; and Joel Shura, Career Hub Specialist.	6/6/23 9am	59min
Politics and Government	Citizen U, host Supervisor Dan Gjerde speaks with Mary Anne Petrillo, Executive Director of West Business Development Center, about jobs in the economy within Mendocino County.	6/7/23 9am	59min
Agriculture and Environment	The Renewable Energy Hour, host Doug Livingstone covers developments in Renewable Energy. With caller inspirations, questions and concerns.	6/8/23 7pm	59min
Politics and Government	Universal Perspectives, host Chris Skyhawk continues his series, Surviving Late Stage Capitalism: What's Next? He speaks with	6/8/23 9am	59min

	Wendsler Nosie about his efforts to protect Oak Flats.
Medicine and Health	Mind Body Health, Host Dr. Casey Johnston speaks with Internal Medicine Doctor, Sarah Alvord, about her work at the Dora Clinic of the Mendocino Community Health Clinic System.	6/13/23 9am	59min
Agriculture and Environment	On The Ecology Hour, hosts Tim Bray and Bob Spies discuss marine mammal disease, with Dr. Padrick Duignan, Director of Pathology, Marine Mammal Center, Sausalito. Dr. Duignan talks about Leptospirosis in California Sea Lions, the recent gray whale mortality event in the Eastern Pacific, killer whale predation, Narwhal population decline in the Arctic Ocean, and the widespread DDT contamination of the Southern California Bight. Woven throughout is the effects of climate change on these processes.	6/13/23 7pm	59min
Politics and Government	TKO, Karen Ottoboni speaks with Mendocino County 5th District Supervisor, Ted Williams & 1st District Supervisor Glenn McGourty. The topic is what's the financial state of our county.	6/14/23 9am	59min
Science and Technology	Point and Click Radio, hosts Bob Laughton and Jim Heid every other Wednesday at 7pm for Point and Click Radio, with the latest computer news and time for calls.	6/14/23 7pm	59min
Medicine and Health	Mind Body and Health, host Dr. Casey Johnston on the Mind-Body-Health program for an in-depth discussion with	6/27/23 9am	59min

	Vicente Duarte, a local school counselor.
Race, Identity and Culture	Pride Nation 101, hosts Roland Corey Medina and Chad Swimmer. Featuring LGBTQIA+ perspectives, opinions, music, and lives from Mendocino County and Beyond.	6/30/23 7 pm	59min