

WIHS-FM
Middletown, Connecticut
Quarterly Issues/Program List
Third Quarter, 2022

10 Minute Programs Airing at 3:15am, 12:13 & 5:50pm Monday through Friday

15 Minute Programs Airing at 3:15am, 12:15 & 5:10pm Saturday
February 26-March 2, 2024

Public File

Monday: The issue on this broadcast was the introduction of a new food bank serving the Manchester, Connecticut area .Cori Barrett represents the Midwest Food Bank. It's origins are in the Midwest but is now expanding to the northeast. Barrett explained the need for a new food bank and where it operates. Anissa Porticelli hosted.

Tuesday: The issue on this program was the “Awake Teachers Retreat” and how it helps educators continue their education in teaching and maintaining high standards. Colleen Bjorbekk and Angela Blake spoke about the retreat. The host was Anissa Porticelli.

Wednesday: The issue of this broadcast was the “2024 Iron Sharpens Iron” event for men. Founder Executive Director Brian Doyle provided a preview of the keynote speaker and breakout sessions intended to equip met to be Godly husbands and fathers. Matt Harper hosted.

Thursday & Friday: The issue on these broadcasts was an introduction to Christian Artist and Worship leader Kecia Holden. Holden explained what it means to dedicate musical to God and how to avoid burnout. The host was Gerry Williams Saturday: The issue of this broadcast was describing the Connecticut Voices for Children legislative agenda for 2024. Executive Director Emily Byrne explained how many children lack food, and a safe place to live and how the organization will lobby for solutions. The host was Paul Kretschmer.