

WIHS-FM
Middletown, Connecticut
Quarterly Issues/Program List
Fourth Quarter, 2021

10 Minute Programs Airing at 3:15am, 12:13 & 6:50pm Monday through Friday

15 Minute Programs Airing at 3:15am, 12:15 & 5:10pm Saturday

February 14-19, 2022

Public File

Monday: The on this program was the shift in employment of a past WIHS Journal guest to a related industry position. Venton Forbes was employed by a ministry called, "Faith Care." He is now employed by medical ministry based in East Hartford, CT called, "Intercommunity Health Care. His job is outreach to those who would benefit from his employer services. The host was Gerry Williams.

Tuesday: The issue on this programs was a thumbnail review of the budget proposals being offered by Governor Ned Lamont for consideration by the Connecticut General Assembly in its 2022 "short session" from February 2 through May 15, 2022. On the program to discuss line items was State Revenue Commissioner Mark Boughton, Office of Policy & Management Director Melissa McCaw and Governor Ned Lamont. The host was Paul Kretschmer.

Wednesday: The issue on this program was of interest to supporters of the State of Israel. Professor Mordecai Keder discussed the possibility former Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu might accept a plea bargain deal to wrap up long running prosecution against him for alleged corruption while in office. The host was Paul Kretschmer.

Thursday & Friday: The issue on these programs was the relationship between teachers and the young students they teach. Dr. Deborah JA Miller, a former teacher and presently a consultant to Christian private schools on the West coast. She discussed how she believes teachers should be vitally interested in their students, even be able to develop an affectionate relationship with their students. The host was Paul Kretschmer.

Saturday: This program focused on the Commission on Connecticut Development & Future. It develops new opportunities for business & housing in the state. The commission is an arm of the General Assembly. As this was the airing of an organizational meeting, it reflected the aims of the members. The chair/host was Representative Jason Rojas and the host was Paul Kretschmer.