Monday: The issue on this broadcast was the developing story of the Encountering Prayer Movement story created by the Reverend Franco Martinez. He was the guest on this program to talk about the creation of the story about Encountering Prayer. The host was Anissa Porticelli.

Tuesday & Wednesday: The issue on these two broadcasts was a Christian member of society with reflections on how the society of America appears to be coming apart. The guest was retired judge and current President of Southern Evangelical Seminary, Phil Ginn. The host was Paul Kretschmer.

Thursday & Friday: The issue on these broadcasts was the intersection of politics and religion in the marketplace of ideas. A long time observer, David Elcott, PhD compared and contrasted how these two forces have developed and changed, from relatively close cooperation years ago to often being at odds in public policy, also dissention within self-identified Christians. The host was Paul Kretschmer.

Saturday: The issue on this broadcast was Christian Gospel music and how it may be used to reach people who have not yet made a decision to follow Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior. The guest was Connecticut resident Sarah McMahon to discuss her background and training to taking her music to the performance stage. The host was Gerry Williams.
