

WIHS-FM
Middletown, Connecticut
Quarterly Issues/Program List
First Quarter, 2024

10 Minute Programs Airing at 3:15am, 12:13 & 5:50pm Monday through Friday

15 Minute Programs Airing at 3:15am, 12:15 & 5:10pm Saturday

January 15-20, 2023

Public File

Monday & Tuesday: The issue on these broadcasts was a counseling service operating in the Great Hartford area. Tasha Rose was the guest to explain how her method to help clients talk it out with a Christian counselor can help them get clear of their issues. Gerry Williams hosted these broadcasts.

Wednesday: The issue on this broadcast was the operation of the Shakan Global Mission Center. The head of the ministry is Rosie Dennerien who explained how the Mission reaches out to people in other countries and immigrants entering America with the message of Jesus Christ as Savior. The host was Anissa Porticelli.

Thursday: The issue on this broadcast was an introduction of the Acts 4 Ministry in Waterbury. Sarah Dimeo Carabetta is the director of the ministry and was the guest to speak about how it reaches out to the disadvantaged with Good News. Matt Harper was the host of the broadcast.

Friday: The issue on this broadcast was an introduction of LiveBeyond, a Christian medical ministry that helps local residents in third world countries open up their own works which LiveBeyond helps establish and then moves on to another countries with needs. David Vanderpool, MD was the guest and Paul Kretschmer was the host.

Saturday: The issue on this broadcast was the goals for young people in Connecticut from lobby group "CT Voices for Children." Executive Director Emily Byrne explained what areas her organization wants to focus on during the so-called short session of the Connecticut General Assembly that will help children most. Paul Kretschmer was the host.