

WIHS-FM

Middletown

Quarterly Issues/Program List

First Quarter, 2024

10 Minute Programs Airing at 3:15am, 12:13 & 5:50pm Monday through Friday

15 Minute Programs Airing at 3:15am, 12:15 & 5:10pm Saturday
February 19-24, 2024

Public File

Monday: The issue on this broadcast was an update on the ministry of “Open Doors,” an organization that seeks to help Christian believers living outside the United States in countries where religious believers are persecuted by the authorities for the sake of their faith. Ryan Brown was the guest and Anissa Porticelli was the host.

Tuesday: The issue on this broadcast was the observance of American Heart Month in the state for the year 2024. The guest was Connecticut State Health Commissioner Manisha Juthani, who explained what listeners can do to take care of their heart and how to avoid damaging conduct. Paul Kretschmer was the host.

Wednesday: The issue on this broadcast was “Solving Connecticut Homelessness.” A news conference was hosted by End Homeless Connecticut, and speaker was Sarah Fox who explained the goals of her organization in lobbying for legislation to reach the goals of the group. Paul Kretschmer was the host.

Thursday: the issue on this broadcast was the airing of viewpoints from residents of Middletown’s Central Sanitation District. The public works department picks up trash and recycled items and residents oppose paying for special bags to use in putting out items for recycling. Paul Kretschmer was the host.

Friday & Saturday: The issue on these broadcasts a story called “The Watchman” which is novel about the Christian faith and uses the imagery to convey how believer needs to reach out to others with the Gospel, knowing time is limited. The guest was Lind Adwoa Aidoo and the host was Alicia Morgan.