

WIHS-FM

Middletown, Connecticut

Quarterly Issues/Program List

Fourth Quarter, 2023

10 Minute Programs Airing at 3:15am, 12:13 & 5:50pm Monday through Friday

15 Minute Programs Airing at 3:15am, 12:15 & 5:10pm Saturday

January 29-February 3, 2024

Public File

Monday: The issue on this broadcast was a program called “Brighter Days Ahead.” It’s a book of poetry by Kernimay Fénelon. It’s intended to be an encouraging work for people who are either Christian believers or seekers looking for reasons to continue on. Anissa Porticelli hosted.

Tuesday: The issue on this broadcast was a scene setter for the Vision New England organization for 2024. The head of the ministry was Charles Galda who was the guest for the conversation, hosted by Anissa Porticelli.

Wednesday & Thursday: The issue on these broadcasts was the ministry of the Norwich Worship Center in Connecticut, as told by its leader Patrick Toomey. Toomey became a Christian believer after following other lifestyle choices. When he made a declaration of faith, he was inspired to become educated to become a leader. The host was Gerry Williams.

Friday: The issue on this broadcast was a conversation about the safety of old river dams previously used as power sources for mills in New England and especially Connecticut. These dams are no longer maintained properly and could become a danger for those living downstream. The host was Andrew Fisk and the host was Paul Kretschmer.

Saturday: The issue on this broadcast was about civic participation as a citizen of the country hosted by the Old State House in Hartford. Its director, Sally Whipple explained how the program works in schools across the state and how its funded. The host was Paul Kretschmer.