

WIHS-FM
Middletown, Connecticut
Quarterly Issues/Program List
First Quarter, 2024

10 Minute Programs Airing at 3:15am, 12:13 & 5:50pm Monday through Friday

15 Minute Programs Airing at 3:15am, 12:15 & 5:10pm Saturday

January 8-13, 2024

Public File

Monday: The issue on this broadcast was an explanation of the work of Joe Young Entertainment. This organization promotes Christian values in the entertainment field in the greater Hartford area. Joe Young was the guest and the host was Gerry Williams.

Tuesday: The issue on this broadcast was the conducting of a prayer meeting for the future of the State of Israel. The House of Prayer in Hartford was the organizing agency for the event, directed by Audrey McIntyre. Anissa Porticelli was the host.

Wednesday: The issue on this broadcast was interacting with people without relying on stereotypes of people who are different from ourselves. A book by Dorothy Logan is entitled "Black and White." She stressed the title does not refer to ethnic identity. The host was Paul Kretschmer,

Thursday: The issue on this broadcast was special education services provided by a Christian ministry. Lynn Wogamon is the founder and operator of Wogamon Educational Services. Respect for people and treating them as Christ would is the focus. Paul Kretschmer hosted.

Friday: The focus of this broadcast was an introduction to a Pastor's Commentary on Philippians. The Reverend Wayne Detzler found he had drawn more sermons from that New Testament than any other and reflected on how he could bless others with what he has learned. The host was Paul Kretschmer.

Saturday: The focus of this broadcast was "Football to Evangelism," the story of former NFL football player Joe Jackson. In this interview, Jackson explained how personal faith in Jesus Christ caused him to redirect his life from the game to reaching others with the Gospel. Paul Kretschmer hosted.