Branson was one of only four cities in Missouri and 88 cities and counties in the midwest to receive this upgrade in ratings. Lori Helle, Branson's finance director, says the increase in Branson's credit rating by S & P will be advantageous to the city when it comes to issuing and selling bonds for important capital improvement projects. It will also give the city a more favorable interest rate on the bonds, which in turn benefits taxpayers.

Two teenagers came down with symptoms and their parents took them to the doctor. The confirmation was made Monday, but by the time that confirmation of the H1-N1 virus was made in the Taney County teens -- they had already recovered. Health Department Epidemiologist Robert Niezoda says Commission was sentenced last week following an Alford plea to charges of stealing funds from the Taney County Animal Control facility. Twenty-eight year old Christy Teel was sentenced to to five years of supervised probation, 100 hours of community service, and ordered to pay restitution of nearly 7-thousand dollars. Teel was charged last April with taking cash the Taneycomo Bridge project on Business 65 between Branson and Hollister. Those plans will be reviewed next week in Jefferson City. MoDOT's Chad Zickefoose updated area officials on the project Thursday. The final plans for the rehab of the existing bridge are in Jefferson City as well. That bridge will be re-worked once the new bridge is opened to traffic. A pre-bid meeting is going to be held September 23rd in Springfield. Bids will be taken October 23rd.

In a couple of instances, police received reports of bogus 20-dollar bills showing up. Police Captain Paul Woodruff says one came through a bank deposit from a business, and in another case a clerk at a convenience store discovered a fake bill by using one of those special markers designed to turn the ink a different color if the bill is counterfeit. Police are asking merchants to keep their eyes peeled for more fake bills.

Skaggs Regional Medical Center hosted its 12th annual drive-through flu shot clinic Saturday, with nurses administering 760 shots in a two hour period. The line of cars proved just how many people are heeding the advice of health care professionals when it comes to the flu. Skaggs medical personel made it clear this vaccine was for the standard seasonal flu, and not the H1N1 virus. The Taney County Health Department will be coordinating the H1N1 vaccinations when they become available.
