4th Quarter 2013 Issues & Programs

KUOA

1. Domestic Violence - Public Affairs Program airs at 1:30am and 5:30am every Saturday morning and is a four minute program.

Dan Storrs interviewed Washington County police officers about the problem of domestic violence. The theme from the officers was that family and friends need to be aware of the lookout signs and know who to report it to. Dan put together audio clips from the officers and turned it into a segment. The segment was aired on October 10, 2013 at 1:30 and 5:30am.

4 minute segment

2. Lack of Clothing - Public Affairs Program airs at 1:30am and 5:30am every Saturday morning and is a four minute program.

Nick Mason, along with staff, set up big boxes at Fayetteville Auto Park for people to come and donate coats and blankets for the winter months. We promoted this on the radio on October 12th, 19th, 26th and also on November 2nd, 9th, and 16th at 1:30am. 60 second live reads

3. Public School Distance - Public Affairs Program airs at 1:30am and 5:30am every Saturday morning and is a four minute program.

Dan Storrs was able to meet with the people of Goshen, Arkansas to hear their complaints in regards to the distance their kids had to travel before arriving at school. Dan put together some major points and pre recorded a segment that voiced how important it was to build schools closer or in Goshen, Arkansas. 4 minute segment.
