- DURATION: 2 hrs
- SYNOPSIS: Topics discussed on today's program:
- Congress succeeded in raising the debt ceiling, forcing the issue of the increasing national debt onto future generations.
 - Interest rates are currently low, but will eventually increase, increasing the cost of borrowing and severely impacting the funds the government can use for various things.
 - Dr. Ben Carson, a neurologist from Johns Hopkins, reportedly stated the healthcare law is just like slavery. It puts people under the subservience of the government and is the roadmap to socialization.
 - The healthcare exchange services had three years to be set up but individuals are still unable to receive services even after registering.
 - Cost of healthcare for many significantly increased through the exchanges instead of decreasing.

Callers aired their different viewpoints, both sides were given equal time for callers to voice support or content.
