Certification of Compliance with the Commercial Time Limits in Television Programs Primarily Intended for Children Ages 12 and Under

2022

This Certification of Compliance with the Commercial Time Limits in Television Programs Primarily Intended for Children Ages 12 and Under applies to Children's Programs broadcast by this station during the period January 1, 2022, through December 31, 2022. As used herein, the term "Children's Program" means a program originally produced and broadcast primarily for children 12 years of age and under.

I hereby certify that NBC Nightly News with Lester Holt: Kids Edition, supplied by the NBC Network and aired on the station's primary channel, was the only Children's Program originally produced and broadcast primarily for children 12 years of age and under on either the station's primary channel or on any multicast channel. The station has received the attached certification from the NBC Network that NBC Nightly News with Lester Holt: Kids Edition was formatted to comply with the commercial limits requirements set forth in 47 C.F.R. § 73.670. The station did not insert any additional content that would cause the commercial limits to be exceeded or that would otherwise violate 47 C.F.R. § 73.670.

Except as described above, this station did not air any Children's Programs originally produced and broadcast primarily for children 12 years of age and under on either its primary channel nor on any multicast channel.

NBC NETWORK
ANNUAL CERTIFICATION OF COMPLIANCE
WITH COMMERCIAL LIMITS IN CHILDREN'S PROGRAMMING
January 1, 2022 – December 31, 2022

This certification confirms that during the above-referenced year, NBC Network (the "Network") complied with the commercial limits in children's programming required by the FCC as follows:

During 2022, the Network televised episodes of NBC Nightly News with Lester Holt: Kids Edition, which complied with the FCC's commercial limits requirements set forth in 47 C.F.R. §73.670 ("FCC Rules").

Except as noted herein, the educational and informational (E/I) programming televised by the Network in 2022 was originally produced and broadcast primarily for an audience of children aged 13 to 16 years old, and therefore, was not subject to the commercial limits set forth in the FCC Rules.
