

Issue	Air Date	Title/Slug	Length	Air Time	Narrative
					The Eddie Murphy comedy "Trading Places" celebrates its 30th anniversary this summer.
Business	7/1/2013	The Turtles-Final	0:04:00	4:44; 6:00	The box office hit explored whether a person who has no formal training can make millions in the markets.
					WBEZ's Yolanda Perdomo has the story of what happened when two Chicago traders asked the same question. A federal court is delaying the sentencing of ex-Illinois Congressman Jesse Jackson Junior and his wife.
Courts	7/1/2013	Jackson reader	:30	3:20	The Jacksons were going to be sentenced this Wednesday for illegally spending 750-thousand dollars from campaign funds on personal expenses.
					But the judge in the case today (mon) says she's moving the hearing to an unspecified date - quote - "to accommodate the Court." A federal judge this week (wed) is set to sentence Jesse Jackson Junior and his wife for stealing campaign money.
					His lawyers are expected to bring up the ex-Congressman's mental illness. Student loan rates nationwide double today. (MON)
Education	7/1/2013	Student Loans	:45	5:05, 7:05	The U-S Senate failed to agree on a plan to keep rates steady before adjourning.
					Interest rates on new subsidized loans are set to go from 3-point-4 percent to just under 7 percent unless lawmakers take action.
Environment	7/1/2013	BP	0:01:00	4:00; 5:30	Indiana could grant BP oil refinery in Whiting a permit to dump more toxins in Lake Michigan than federal standards allow.
					Chicago's Pride Parade drew more than several hundred thousand spectators.
Gay Marriage	7/1/2013	Pride Parade	0:01:00	6:05; 8:05	The parade came on the heels of the federal overturn to portions of the Defense of Marriage Act and the reversal of proposition 8 in California
					Illinois Republican Mark Kirk says he expects the U-S Senate to find a solution to rising student loan rates soon.
Illinois Statehouse	7/1/2013	kirk loans	45	3:00, 5:00	College students taking out subsidized Stafford loans will see interest rates double for the fall term.
					The Senate failed to agree on a plan to keep the rates steady before they adjourned last week.
					But Senator Kirk says he expects a compromise after the July 4th holiday.
Labor	7/1/2013	Hyatt READER	:25	4:30	Chicago-based Hyatt Hotels and a national union are hailing a deal that could end a four-year-old labor dispute.

					Illinois today starts enforcing a new rule to stop drunk drivers.
Law Enforcement	7/1/2013	Breathalyzer	:45	5:33, 7:33	In the past, drivers who have been arrested for driving under the influence need to use a breathalyzer locked to their car. If they don't pass, the car won't start.
Media	7/1/2013	Trib TV	0:01:00	4:30; 6:00	Now, these devices will come with cameras. The parent company of the Chicago Tribune says it's reached a deal to buy 19 TV stations around the country.
Politics	7/1/2013	bill daley	:45	3:00; 5:00	That's also as the company looks to sell its newspaper operation. A candidate for Illinois governor says politicians should be limited as to when they can raise campaign cash.
Sports	7/1/2013	Bulls	0:01:00	4:00; 5:30	Former White House Chief-of-Staff Bill Daley says state politicians should not raise money on any day the legislature is in session. Today (MON) is the first day of the NBA's free agency period, which usually sparks a flurry of horse trades.
Technology	7/1/2013	SUPERCOMPUTER	0:01:00	4:00; 5:30	But not in Chicago. A supercomputer at Argonne National Laboratory enters full production today (MON). It will help design better jet engines, build a computer model of the universe and run other virtual experiments.
Weather	7/1/2013	rain rain go away	0:01:00	7:05, 8:33	The city of Chicago has seen record-breaking rainfall over the last 6 months. The National Weather Service measures the totals from the first of the year to June 30th.
Education	7/2/2013	Schools	1:00:00	4:30, 6:00	This year, rain storms dumped 28.46 inches of rain in Chicago - breaking a record set back in 1975. A group of state and local lawmakers says Chicago schools are facing a budget crisis and the city should use TIF dollars to head it off. Some suburban mayors are having mixed reactions to Governor Pat Quinn's partial veto of a concealed carry bill today (tues).
Illinois Statehouse	7/2/2013	St. Charles carry	:45	4:00, 5:30	Some mayors praised Quinn's change to allow local municipalities WILL be allowed to regulate assault weapons.
Labor	7/2/2013	Funeral	55	3:00, 5:00	The original bill would have given that power only to the state. Chicago Funeral directors and drivers employed by North America's largest funeral home network on are strike. WBEZ's Shannon Heffernan reports.

Labor	7/2/2013	Hyatt	:62	6:05; 8:05	Chicago-based Hyatt Hotels and a national union are hailing a deal that could end a four-year-old labor dispute.
Politics	7/2/2013	bill daley 2	1:00:00	5:05, 7:05	A candidate for Illinois governor says he wants to limit WHEN politicians can raise money.  Critics say it will hurt challengers more than incumbents. Chicago Transit Authority President Forrest Claypool says the Red Line South renovation is on track and on budget.
Transportation	7/2/2013	Red Line	:45	4:30, 6:00	The first phase of the five-month project has included removal of tracks and ties between 95th Street and Cermak-Chinatown.  Claypool and city officials gave an update today [Tuesday] at the 47th Street station, one of eight being rehabbed while the entire rail line is rebuilt. Even though fall is months away...people are raking leaves this summer.
Environment	7/3/2013	Lost Leaves	:50	2:00, 4:30	WBEZ's Yolanda Perdomo reports...some trees are shedding their leaves because of the season's wet weather. Some suburban mayors are reacting to Governor Pat Quinn's partial veto of concealed carry legislation.
Guns	7/3/2013	Suburban guns	1	6:33, 8:33	That's after they rushed to pass new restrictions on assault weapons.
Illinois Governor	7/3/2013	Ryan	1	3:00, 5:00	Federal Inmate number one six six two seven dash four two four, better known as former Illinois Governor George Ryan, is done serving time.
Illinois Statehouse	7/3/2013	pensions	1:00:00	4:00, 5:30	A committee tasked with coming up with a pension reform compromise spent much of this morning listening to proposals that have little chance of passing.
Immigration	7/3/2013	Naturalization	1:00:00	4:30, 6:00	Sixty seven immigrants from 32 countries became U.S. Citizens today at a naturalization ceremony in Chicago.  WBEZ was there and asked the new Americans, what citizenship means to them. Clergy sex abuse is still dogging Chicago Cardinal Francis George.
Religion	7/3/2013	Catholic Abuse	4:00:00	4:44, 6:20	Attorneys for alleged victims of one former priest got to grill George for a full day last week.
Violence	7/3/2013	guns mom	:45	5:05, 7:05	A number of parents whose children have been killed by gun violence support stricter regulations on a new concealed carry law.
City of Chicago	7/4/2013	Rahm protest			Governor Pat Quinn says a bill allowing Illinois residents to carry concealed guns won't protect people. Some protesters spent their Independence Day marching on the North Side home of Chicago Mayor Rahm Emanuel.

Some protestors are spending

City of Chicago	7/4/2013	Rahm protest CUT	:1		Several dozen people participated in the march to the mayor's North Side home this afternoon.
Immigration	7/4/2013	Naturalization 2	:45		Kelly Hayes is one of the organizers. For the first time in her life, Anita Ong is a woman with a country. Ong is one of 67 immigrants naturalized as U.S. citizens at a ceremony yesterday at the Chicago Cultural Center. Egypt has undergone a second revolution with the ousting of Mohammed Morsi yesterday (Wednesday) in a military coup.
Politics	7/4/2013	Egypt React	1		Local Chicagoans with ties to Egypt reacted to the news with a mixed emotions.  Ahmed Rehab an Egyptian activist says it was time for people to respond to promises that were not met after Morsi took control. Large-scale photography is gracing buildings in blighted areas on Chicago's South Side.
Art	7/5/2013	see potential	4:17:00	6:35, 8:35	This isn't just a beautification project.  It's a step toward getting community input about what future development should look like.
Chicago City Council	7/5/2013	Mell	1	4:00, 6:00	One of Chicago's longest serving alderman discussed his retirement at City Hall today (FRIDAY).  The so-called sequestration is one of the main challenges facing the new Chief Judge of the federal courts in Chicago.
Courts	7/5/2013	Castillo Sequester	60	3:00, 5:00	The University of Illinois Hospital is screening patients to test a bionic eye.
Health	7/5/2013	Bionic Eye	:45	2:00	The Argus 2 prosthesis treats adults with advanced retinitis pigmentosa or RP.  It is a genetic condition that damages the light sensing cells in the eye.
Transportation	7/5/2013	Handicap taxis	:51	5:05, 7:05	This summer it should get easier for people with disabilities in Chicago to get a taxi.  A new service will dispatch all the city's wheelchair-accessible cabs,
Agriculture	7/8/2013	Illinois Drought	:50	5:33, 7:05	Illinois farmers are having a much better planting year.  Farmers last year lost a lot of money last year when crops were unable to withstand the drought and high temperatures.

					Design plans for a 10-thousand seat stadium at McCormick Place are due tomorrow (TUES).
City of Chicago	7/8/2013	South Loop	:45	4:30, 6:00	The facility will host DePaul University basketball games, among other events.
					The Metropolitan Pier and Exposition Authority, also known as McPier, has high hopes for the project.
Crime	7/8/2013	CAPS	1:06:00	4:00, 5:30	Chicagoans who witness crimes can now send pictures of the crimes and the perpetrators from their cell phones to the police department.
Education	7/8/2013	ED SURVEY	1:00:00	4:30, 6:00	Illinois parents and educators will have another tool to gauge their school's performance.
					Illinois U.S. Senator Dick Durbin today (Monday) met with immigrant community leaders in Chicago to talk about immigration reform.
Immigration	7/8/2013	Immigration 1	1	3:00, 5:00
					U.S. House Republicans are set to discuss the issue this week.
Violence	7/8/2013	Ceasefire	1:00:00	5:05, 7:33	Summer months can mean more violence in Chicago.
					But it's also when some successful violence prevention programs close their doors.
City of Chicago	7/9/2013	Garbage	1	4:00, 5:30	Chicago Mayor Rahm Emanuel is defending his administration's refusal to cooperate with an audit of the city's new system for collecting garbage.
Guns	7/9/2013	concealed carry2	1:00:00	4:00	Illinois residents will soon be able to legally carry concealed guns.
Immigration	7/9/2013	Immigration 2	1	5:33, 7:33	Illinois U.S. Senator Dick Durbin is taking heat at a small forum with Chicago-area immigration leaders.
					Some Some people hope immigration reform might be the saving grace of Chicago's Polish Village.
					It once was a thriving community... but its vibrance has faded.
					hope immigration reform might be the saving grace of Chicago's Polish Village.
Immigration	7/9/2013	Polish Village FEATURE	4:15:00	6:35, 8:35	It once was a thriving community... but its vibrance has faded.
					Some people hope immigration reform might be the saving grace of Chicago's Polish Village.
					It once was a thriving community... but its vibrance has faded.
Religion	7/9/2013	RAMADAN CONFUSION	1	4:30, 6:00	For Muslims, Ramadan is one of the most important times of the year.
					But unfortunately, this year, there's a lot of confusion about when it starts.
Transportation	7/9/2013	Gary Airport	:59	4:30, 6:00	Despite some bad news lately, the mayor of Gary, Indiana says there's reason to be optimistic about the city's fledgling airport.

Chicago City Council	7/10/2013	Human Trafficking	:45	4:30, 6:00	Chicago aldermen today (Wednesday) joined law enforcement, advocates and prostitution survivors in calling for an end to human trafficking and prostitution.  At a committee hearing, they asked for outreach campaigns that would, for example, giving out cards with information that would connect prostitutes to social services. Chicago Mayor Rahm Emanuel insists nepotism will NOT play a role when he appoints a successor to veteran Alderman Dick Mell.
Chicago City Council	7/10/2013	Rahm Mell	1:00:00	5:05, 7:05	Mell's daughter reportedly is interested in the seat. Chicago is doubling the amount of wind power in its electricity supply.
Environment	7/10/2013	rahm energy 1	0:00:40	6:05, 8:05	Mayor Rahm Emanuel's office says the city will get 5 percent of its power from two downstate wind farms.  Michael Negron (neh-GROWN) works with the mayor's policy team. ComEd is signing a 200-million dollar contract to produce so-called "smart meters" on Chicago's South Side.
Environment	7/10/2013	Smart grid	:45	5:05	The utility announced yesterday (tues) it has reached a deal for G-E to assemble about 4 million of the automated electricity meters at a plant on the south side.
Gay Marriage	7/10/2013	Lambda	1	4:30, 6:00	Lawyers for 25 Illinois gay couples are asking a Cook County judge today (wed) to strike down the state's ban on same-sex marriage - before their case even goes to trial. A 2-year-old girl who was implanted with a windpipe grown from her own stem cells has died.
Health	7/10/2013	hannah warren	:30	6:33, 8:05	Hannah Warren died Saturday at the Children's Hospital of Illinois in Peoria - three months after she became the youngest person to receive the experimental treatment. The Tribune Company is splitting in two.
Media	7/10/2013	tribune	:30	7:05, 8:33	The company today (Wed.) announced plans to separate its publishing arm from the rest of its business. State Representative Dennis Reboletti (Reb-oh-let-e) says he has some pointed questions for the head of the Illinois Department of Juvenile Justice.
Criminal Justice	7/11/2013	Juvenile hearing 2	:45	3:00, 5:00	Reboletti is with the Restorative Justice Committee which is investigating high levels of reported sexual abuse inside Illinois youth prisons. Chicago Public Schools are shoring up their security.
Education	7/11/2013	cps security	:45	5:30, 4:00	The district is purchasing 500 scanning wands meant to detect firearms and other dangerous objects.
Education	7/11/2013	TIFs	1	4:30, 6:00	Cook County Clerk David Orr wants Chicago politicians to use special taxing funds to help struggling city schools.

Time for Curious City, where you ask questions and we get answers together.

Dabney Lyles is a grad student at DePaul University.

Education	7/11/2013	Curious City: ed	5:30:00	6:21, 8:21	She asked this question about higher education: What effect do Chicago's colleges and universities have on our local economy? That question is huge, so together, we narrowed it. WBEZ's Susie An looks at the economic impact of when a university is a neighbor.
Guns	7/11/2013	NRA	:30:00	6:33, 8:05	Officials at the Illinois State Rifle Association say lawmakers did NOT meet a deadline to pass concealed carry because the state's ban on carrying guns outside the home is still in effect. Chicago is running out of time to pass an assault weapons ban.
Guns	7/11/2013	Burke	:45	5:05, 7:05	Illinois' new concealed carry law has a 10-day deadline for municipalities to adopt or revise a local assault weapons ban. Fewer Chicago homes entered the foreclosure process in June, but more homes were scheduled for auctions.
Housing	7/11/2013	Foreclosure		4:00, 5:30	The latest from RealtyTrac reports that local foreclosure filings dropped 24 percent from last year. But 65 percent more homes were set for auctions compared to a year ago.
Illinois Governor	7/11/2013	Gay Marriage	1:00:00	6:05, 7:33	Federal Inmate number one six six two seven dash four two four, better known as former Illinois Governor George Ryan, is done serving time. Stocks in Chicago-based Boeing plummeted after an internal fire broke out on a 787 Dreamliner parked at London Heathrow Airport.
Business	7/12/2013	Boeing Fire	:45	4:00, 5:30	The stock fell almost 9 percent this afternoon (Fri.) after reaching an all-time high - of $108.15 per share. A dozen people are being vetted to replace veteran Dick Mell as the 33rd Ward alderman.
Chicago City Council	7/12/2013	Mell replacement	:45	4:30, 6:00	Chicago Mayor Rahm Emanuel named a committee to screen applications. The members include one of his staff, alderman Michelle Harris, two community activists and the principal of a local high school.

					A group of Chicago eighth graders have taken an unusual route to finishing a class project today (fri).
Education	7/12/2013	Elephant hooks	:45	3:00, 5:00	They didn't get an exam - but concluded a campaign on the crowd-funding site Kickstarter.  For the past four months, students from Nettelhorst school in Lakeview worked with local designers to create and market hooks shaped like elephant heads. Chicago Public Schools officials say they share the frustration of parents and teachers over school budgets.
Education	7/12/2013	School cuts	:45	6:33, 8:33	But they say devastating cuts are coming unless Illinois lawmakers fix the state's pensions.  One Local School Council member says that excuse isn't convincing.
Health	7/12/2013	Medicaid	1	4:30, 6:00	Cases of medicaid fraud in Southern Illinois are raising concerns about the entire statewide homecare program. Illinois' pension committee is not deterred by Governor Pat Quinn's move to cancel their pay.
Illinois Statehouse	7/12/2013	Pension works	:45	6:05, 8:05	The committee of 10 state lawmakers has the job of coming up with a plan to cut Illinois' pension costs Diep Nguyen (ZIP new-WIN) describes her family as "twice refugees."
Immigration	7/12/2013	StoryCorps Daniel Diep	3:50 + musical tail	4:44	As Catholics in Vietnam, they feared for their lives under Communist rule.  They left North Vietnam for the South - and then fled again to the U-S.  Nguyen (new-WIN) visited the Chicago StoryCorps booth with her son, Daniel Shaw, to remember her childhood home.
Transportation	7/12/2013	Tollway	:56	5:33, 7:33	A legal challenge may stall a proposed expressway in Chicago's far southern suburbs.  Illinois' executive inspector general is investigating the large severance package of Metra's former C-E-O.
Transportation	7/12/2013	quinn	:45	4:30, 6:00	Alex Clifford stands to gain 718-thousand dollars for resigning from the rail agency.  Metra's board of directors has come under fire for agreeing to the big pay-out.  Illinois Governor Pat Quinn says he has the power to fire the entire Metra board - but he has to wait to see what the inspector general finds.
Art	7/15/2013	south shore	1:00:00	4:30, 6:00	Chicago's long-running South Shore Jazz Festival has been canceled. WBEZ's Alison Cuddy reports.

					Florida's Stand Your Ground law played a big role in the acquittal of George Zimmerman.
Guns	7/15/2013	Stand Your Ground	4:00:00	4:44	Twenty-one other states have similar laws including right next door to us in Indiana.
					But while some states are reconsidering the controversial provision, Hoosiers say they will, in fact, stand their ground.
Politics	7/15/2013	dillard	1:00:00	3:00, 5:00	Illinois State Senator Kirk Dillard is touring the state today (MON) to kick off his campaign for governor. Local black pastors are leading peaceful demonstrations protesting the acquittal of George Zimmerman.
					Meantime, they say it's a dangerous era for black youth.
Religion	7/15/2013	trayvon clergy	:50	3:00, 5:00	Ira Acree (AH kree) is the pastor at Greater Saint John Bible Church on Chicago's west side.
					A donor gives the Art Institute of Chicago nearly a thousand pieces of art.
Art	7/16/2013	art donation	:45	6:05, 8:05	Massachusetts collector Dorothy Braude (BROW-dee, brow like eyebrow) Edinburg donated the works in honor of her parents.
					The collection includes about 800 prints and drawings from artists including Picasso and Matisse.
					Chicago photographer Paul Natkin's (NAT-kin) shot pictures of some of the biggest names in rock.
Art	7/16/2013	rock photographer	7:00:00	4:50, 6:20	His work's been featured in magazines from Rolling Stone to Newsweek.
					Now the Elmhurst Historical Museum is showing a retrospective of his work.
Chicago City Council	7/16/2013	Concealed carry			Chicago's City Council is debating whether to beef up the city's assault weapons ban. Some aldermen say the changes aren't tough enough - while the N-R-A says they're illegal.
Education	7/16/2013	ISAT		4:00, 5:30	Chicago school officials say that despite a tumultuous school year that included a strike and a new, longer day... elementary students IMPROVED on state exams. Economists say the Affordable Care Act could lead to voluntary unemployment among low-income adults.
Labor	7/16/2013	Healthcare jobs	:45	5:33, 7:33	Matt Notowidigdo (NO-to-we-dig-doe) teaches at the University of Chicago. He also co-authored a study released yesterday (MONDAY.) He says the Affordable Care Act will mean anywhere between 500-thousand to 900-thousand childless, single adults will choose to stop working.

					A candidate for Illinois governor says Metra's board of directors should lose their jobs.
Transportation	7/16/2013	dillard 2	:45	5:05, 7:05	Metra is under fire for offering its outgoing C-E-O a 700-thousand dollar severance deal.  The C-E-O alleges he was forced out for refusing to carry out political favors at the request of Illinois State House Speaker Mike Madigan. Survivors of Flight 2-14 which crash-landed in San Francisco are suing Chicago-based Boeing.
Business	7/17/2013	Boeing	:45	4:30, 6:00	More than 80 survivors say Boeing's seat belts and evacuation slides caused them injuries. A group of Chicago residents is learning to think more like police.
Criminal Justice	7/17/2013	Citizen's Police Academy	1:00:00	5:05, 7:05	For WBEZ, Patrick Smith checked in with the Citizens' Police Academy.
Education	7/17/2013	Injunction 2	1:05:00	6:33, 8:33	A federal judge today is expected to hear more evidence about Chicago's plan to close 50 public schools. Despite a lot stacked against them. elementary school kids in Chicago are doing better on state tests.
Education	7/17/2013	ISAT 2	:55	5:33, 7:33	WBEZ's Linda Lutton reports.  The controversial Keystone XL pipeline is raising more than environmental concerns.
Environment	7/17/2013	Keystone	:45	6:33, 8:33	A new report from Consumer Watchdog warns gas prices could rise as much as 40 cents.  The Midwest would be the hardest hit because it currently gets more than half its oil from refineries in Canada.
Guns	7/17/2013	Safety vox	:50	5:05, 7:05	The Chicago City Council today will consider measures to strengthen the city's ban on assault weapons.  The new statewide Concealed Carry law gave local governments ten days to update existing gun laws. Chicago leaders acknowledge that tweaks to the city's assault weapons ban won't do much to prevent violence.
Guns	7/17/2013	Assault Weapons	1:00:00	3:00, 5:00	But they say, it is the best they can do.
Guns	7/17/2013	Concealed carry 2 1		6:05, 8:05	Chicago's City Council today is set to vote on whether to expand the city's ban on so-called assault weapons.
Art	7/18/2013	4K movies	:45	4:00, 5:30	If you want to stay out of the sun for a while, the Gene Siskel Film Center in Chicago is showing remastered movies in a new digital format. 4K has four times the amount of pixels than the current digital standard.  Marty Rubin is the center's associate director of programming.

Education	7/18/2013	principal		3:00, 5:00	A north side Chicago elementary school principal delivered a scathing criticism of Chicago Public School budgets today (THURS)—at City Hall.
Education	7/18/2013	CPS Injunction 2 way		4:44, 6:20	The raging debate over school closures in Chicago is focused largely on one man right now, Federal Court Judge John Lee. For the last three days he's been hearing testimony, much of it contentious in a lawsuit challenging the school closings. WBEZ's Robert Wildeboer has been in court and he joins us now. Chicago Alderman Bob Fioretti says a new school safety law is more likely to create confusion than make kids safer.
Guns	7/18/2013	Assault weapons 2	:45	5:33, 7:33	The new ordinance creates a safety zone of 1-thousand feet around schools. Zones also include buses, parkland near schools and routes designated as safe passage for kids getting to school. This month, the DuPage County coroner's office has seen one heroin overdose a day. Which would put it on pace for a record-setting number of heroin deaths this year.
Health	7/18/2013	heroin	:45	2:00, 5:30	After her brother Alex overdosed on heroin, Chelsea LaLiberte (lah LA burr tay) began educating DuPage county residents about the dangers of drug use. Illinois Senate President John Cullerton says he and his colleagues are still trying to whittle away the state's pension deficit.
Illinois Statehouse	7/18/2013	Cullerton Cost Shift	:45		And he's zeroed in on one way to slash it. .
Politics	7/18/2013	obama	1	4:30, 6:00	First Lady Michelle Obama today (thursday) gave words of wisdom to a group of Chicago students involved in a work readiness program. Cooling centers are open across the city of Chicago and the state today (Thurs) for residents trying to beat the heat.
Weather	7/18/2013	heat 1	:45	7:05, 8:33,	A heat advisory starts at 11 this morning and ends at 7:00 Friday night. Temperatures are rising across the Chicago area this afternoon (Thurs).
Weather	7/18/2013	heat 3	:40	2:00	A heat advisory is in effect until 11:00 Friday evening. Heat index values are currently between 98 and 102 degrees in the metro area. Richard Castro is a meteorologist with the National Weather Service.

Weather	7/18/2013	hot	1	4:00, 5:30	Temperatures continue to climb in the Chicago region today (Thurs). And it looks like there won't be much relief from the oppressive heat until this weekend. Chicago's old Main Post Office may finally be coming back to life.
City of Chicago	7/19/2013	post office	30	6:05, 8:05	The city's Plan Commission yesterday unanimously approved a redevelopment plan. It is expected to take 20 years to complete.
City of Chicago	7/19/2013	wifi beaches	:45	4:00, 5:30	The first phase is estimated to cost $1.5 billion dollars. Starting today (FRI) Chicago is offering free wifi at North Avenue, Osterman, Montrose, Foster and Rainbow beaches. W-B-E-Z asked beachgoers at North Avenue whether they would use wifi and what they would do with it. Chicago Public Schools is laying off a massive number of teachers and school staff today (Fri)
Education	7/19/2013	CPS layoffs 1	40	5:05, 6:05	2,113 employees will get pink slips—about half of them are teachers. Teacher aides, clerks, lunch staff, and security guards are also affected.
Education	7/19/2013	CTU		4:30, 6:00	This is on top of 855 layoffs announced in June due to school closings and turnarounds. Teachers are reacting to news that 21-hundred staff from Chicago public schools were laid off today. To date, more than three thousand Chicago public school teachers and staff have lost their jobs.
Education	7/19/2013	Fired teachers	:45	3:00, 5:00	Gage Park tenured teacher Xian (she-ahn) Barrett is one of 21-hundred employees to find out TODAY that he was pink-slipped. This is his second layoff in four years.
Health	7/19/2013	West Nile	:45	3:00; 5:00	The peak of the West Nile virus season has hit Chicago. Mosquitoes testing positive for West Nile have recently been found in the North Shore communities of Lincolnwood and Northfield.

Immigration	7/19/2013	Filipino vet	4:20:00	5:35, 7:35	Ever since WWII, a group of veterans has been fighting for recognition.
					Filipino vets helped protect U.S. interests in the Pacific.
					Right after the war, Congress stripped them of military benefits.
					Over time, they've won some of those back.
					But some Filipino vets still struggle to prove they served the U.S.
Religion	7/19/2013	New Unions	:40	6:33, 8:33	Striking funeral directors and drivers in Chicago are getting help from a group of religious leaders.
					The clergy is part of the community organization Arise Chicago.
Science	7/19/2013	Post Office	:45	11:00, 1:00	Board member John Thomas says they're stepping in because traditional unions face difficult times.
					Chicago residents can look to the Southeast corner of the sky this afternoon and know a NASA spacecraft will be taking detailed pictures of Saturn and Earth.
StoryCorps	7/19/2013	storycorps eddie shirley	4:00:00	4:44, 6:20	A former gang member is working to stop the kind of violence, he once committed himself.
					Eddie Bocanegra (boe-kah-NEG-rah) has become a prominent voice against violence at the YMCA of Chicago and other agencies.
					His list of accomplishments is long.
					But as he tells Shirley Alfaro (al-FAHR-oh), at the Chicago StoryCorps booth, the path to his life's work wasn't easy.
Transportation	7/19/2013	uber	:45	2:00, 4:30	Chicagoans trying to beat the heat won't have to look much further than their smart phones.
					Today until 5 p.m., the car service app Uber can be used to request an ice cream truck instead of the normal cab, black car or SUV.
Chicago City Council	7/22/2013	progressive caucus	1	3:00, 5:00	Andrew McDonald is the general manager of Uber Chicago.
					He says it's a great relief from the heat and it supports local business.
Guns	7/22/2013	durbin guns	:45	3:00, 5:00	A group of aldermen want to use special taxing funds to help fix Chicago Public Schools' budget crisis.
					Illinois US Senator Dick Durbin is introducing legislation that aims to tackle gun trafficking.

					In June, Chicago saw the largest year-over-year price increase since 2008.
					A new report shows Chicago's home sales surged almost 19 percent in June.
Housing	7/22/2013	Home Prices	:45	3:00, 5:00	The median price increased about 13 percent from last year.
					President of Chicago Association of Realtors Zeke Morris says the increased mortgage rates don't pose a threat to the market. Congressman Bobby Rush is introducing a bill that would use federal money toward more trauma centers.
Politics	7/22/2013	bobby rush	1	4:00; 5:30	From our South Side Bureau, WBEZ's Natalie Moore reports.
					Chicago isn't alone in suffering through a violent summer of homicides and shootings.
Violence	7/22/2013	Gary police	:52	8:33; 6:33	So is neighboring Gary, Indiana.
					WBEZ's Michael Puente reports. Chicago residents are remembering character actor Dennis Farina (Fah-REE-nah)
Art	7/23/2013	farina	1:00:00	5:05, 7:05	He died yesterday.
					WBEZ's Alison Cuddy reports. Students from a South Side high school are reacting to news that some of their courses will be offered ONLINE only.
Education	7/23/2013	cps protest	1:00:00	4:30; 6:00
					WBEZ's Linda Lutton reports. Chicago's Zoning Committee is considering an ordinance today (TUESDAY) requiring the city's largest buildings to track and release their energy efficiency scores.
Environment	7/23/2013	Benchmarking	:50	5:33, 7:33	The Building Managers and Owners Association of Chicago has a problem with that.
					35 hundred buildings would have to submit their data to the city for an annual report.
					A candidate for Illinois governor says he wants to see the state's income tax rate drop in 20-15.
Illinois Governor	7/23/2013	daley taxes	:45	6:05; 8:05	Democratic challenger Bill Daley says two years ago - the legislature approved a hike in the income tax rate.
					He'd allow that hike to expire in two years.
Politics	7/23/2013	bobby rush 2	1	6:33, 8:33	Congressman Bobby Rush's push for an additional trauma center in Chicago may face an uphill battle.
					WBEZ's Natalie Moore reports.

Sports	7/23/2013	Wrigley Reader	:30	6:00	Renovations to Wrigley Field have jumped another major hurdle today.
Chicago City Council	7/24/2013	Joe Moore	1	6:33; 8:33	The Chicago City Council Zoning committee has approved a 500-million dollar proposal to update the stadium and construction to adjacent property. A former aide to 49th Ward Alderman Joe Moore is speaking out about alleged ethical violations in his office. The claims were first detailed in a report this week by the city's legislative inspector general.
Chicago City Council	7/24/2013	Mell Midday	:40	12:04	Chicago Mayor Rahm Emanuel says Deb Mell is the right person to replace her father on the city council.  And it has nothing to do with her name. Illinois State Representative Deb Mell will be Chicago's next alderman.
Chicago City Council	7/24/2013	MELL	:45	10:00	Mayor Rahm Emanuel announced this morning Deb Mell will take over in the 33rd ward for her father, Richard Mell.  In his speech in Galesburg Illinois today, President Barack Obama accused Washington of getting distracted from the economy.
economy	7/24/2013	obama at galesburg	:45	1:04	The president is trying to refocus on pocketbook issues after months dominated by what he calls "phony scandals" and "stale debates."  While speaking in a community that just years ago lost nearly three thousand jobs, Obama zeroed in on high quality education and strengthening our manufacturing sector.
economy	7/24/2013	galesburg	:45	11:00	Local businesses in Galesburg, Illinois are excited to hear President Obama's ideas on improving the economy.  The President is expected to address the economy at his appearance at Knox College later today (WEDNESDAY).  Galesburg Chamber of Commerce president Steven Brody says the presidential visit alone is attracting attention.
Education	7/24/2013	cps budget		4:30; 6:00	Chicago Public Schools today unveiled a budget it has been keeping close to the chest.
Environment	7/24/2013	Emerald ash	:45	5:33; 7:33	The invasive beetle Emerald Ash borer may have moved farther west in Illinois.  Nearly half of Illinois' counties, including Cook, are under a federal Emerald Ash Borer quarantine.  It mean ash trees and firewood cannot be moved from the area.

					Chicago is among the top 15 American cities where you can make a good profit flipping foreclosed homes.
Housing	7/24/2013	foreclosure flipping	:45	2:00	That's according to new numbers released by the research group RealtyTrac.
					Real Estate expert Dennis Rodkin says Chicago's rebounding market is responsible for making investors money when they buy a damaged home, fix it and sell it.
Illinois Statehouse	7/24/2013	Gutierrez Immigration	:54	5:33; 7:33	Congressman Luis Gutierrez testifies about issues affecting children of undocumented immigrants.
City of Chicago	7/25/2013	Indian Boundary	1	6:05; 8:05	Some residents are livid about the Chicago Park District's plan to get rid of a small zoo in their far north-side neighborhood.
					Time now for another check in with Curious City, where you ask questions and we find answers ... together.
City of Chicago	7/25/2013	Curious City: Libraries	4:17:00	6:35; 8:35	In this edition, Chicago resident Shanlie (SHAN-lee) Ann Stead (STED) tells us she loves libraries, so she asked this:  "Well, my question was "What interesting things might there be in this area that you can check out of the library?"
Education	7/25/2013	BBB	:45	4:00; 5:30	Chicago Public Schools CEO Barbara Byrd Bennett is gathering a group to pressure state lawmakers to fix the district's pension crisis. Chicago Public Schools continue to face severe budget problems.
					The district is laying off staff and cutting programs.
Education	7/25/2013	cost shift feature	4:10:00	4:44	Part of the reason for the reductions has to do with the district's pension obligations.
					But Chicago Public Schools' struggling pension system could actually turn into the model for every other school in Illinois
Education	7/25/2013	cps budget 2	:52	6:33; 8:33	Chicago Public Schools' proposed budget means a property tax increase for residents and deep cuts in the classroom.
					Southern Illinois President Glenn Poshard (po-SHARD) will retire next summer.
Education	7/25/2013	SIU retirement	45	4:00; 5:30	The long-time SIU administrator submitted his letter of resignation at a board meeting today (Thurs).  Speculation about his retirement had been swirling since discus

					Chicago health officials are spraying insecticide tonight (THURSDAY) to kill mosquitoes on the Northwest Side.
Environment	7/25/2013	Mosquito spraying	:45	12:04; 3:40	The area includes parts of the Albany Park, Irving Park and Avondale neighborhoods.  Cort Lohff (LOFF) is a medical director at the Chicago Department for Public Health.
Labor	7/25/2013	Car wash workers	1	5:33; 7:33	A car wash on Chicago's west side is voting whether to become the only unionized car wash in the city.
Politics	7/25/2013	daley collection	4:07:00	5:35; 7:21	The University of Illinois at Chicago unveils a collection of documents from Richard J. Daley's 20-plus years as Chicago mayor.  The archive includes shelves of papers, memorabilia and more than 7-thousand photographs.  WBEZ's Richard Steele toured the collection with its archivist, Peggy Glowacki [gloh-ACK-ee].
Art	7/26/2013	concord hall	:45	7:05; 8:33	Starting this week, music lovers in Chicago have another venue to catch their favourite acts.  The Concord (CON-cord) Music Hall in Logan Square will feature a range of artists performing everything from punk to electronic dance music.
Art	7/26/2013	Curious City: School budgets	4:20:00	6:35; 8:35	Starting this week, music lovers in Chicago have another venue to catch their favourite acts.  The Concord (CON-cord) Music Hall in Logan Square will feature a range of artists performing everything from punk to electronic dance music.
Business	7/26/2013	Malatia	1:00:00	4:00; 5:30	Chicago Public Media's long-time President and CEO, Torey Malatia, resigned from his post today.
City of Chicago	7/26/2013	Boston website	:45	3:00; 5:30	Chicago Mayor Rahm Emanuel wants residents to make videos celebrating Chicago for the city of Boston's website.  That's all thanks to a bet with Mayor Menino (meh-NEEN-no) of Boston over the Stanley Cup Final.  In addition to food and theatre tickets, Menino promised to post a video on the Boston website for a day telling everyone how great Chicago is.

					Illinois state lawmakers will miss their first paycheck next week.
Illinois Statehouse	7/26/2013	pension committee	:45	5:05; 7:05	Governor Pat Quinn vetoed their pay from the budget. He said lawmakers don't deserve to be paid until they overhaul the state's pension systems.
Labor	7/26/2013	DAWWN	1:00:00	4:00; 5:30	A disability advocacy organization demonstrated today (FRIDAY) in front of a Chicago Goodwill. They are demanding Goodwill stop paying disabled workers less than minimum wage.
Science	7/26/2013	Muon ring	:45	6:05; 7:33	A 50-foot wide magnetic ring is now at Fermilab. The ring is part of an accelerator complex that experiments on subatomic particles called muons (MEW-ons). It traveled all the way from Long Island to Fermilab in Batavia. The trip took a month and cost $3.5 million dollars. Physicist Brendan Casey says it's exactly like an electron, except for its mass. [PLAY "STORYCORPS THEME SONG" at top and fade under as music bed over HOST INTRO only]
StoryCorps	7/26/2013	storycorps marta marta	3:41:00	4:44; 6:20	When Marta Liriano (leer-ee-AH-no) was nine, Fidel Castro and the communist party took control in Cuba. As upper middle class land-owners, her family lost much of its property and faced a hostile regime. When Marta was just fifteen, she met and married an older man who offered her a way out of the country. She visited the Chicago StoryCorps booth with her daughter Marta Garcia to recount what happened ... when she started wanting to become her own person.
Transportation	7/26/2013	Peotone airport	:59	6:33; 8:05	The push to build a third major airport far south of Chicago takes a big step forward.

This weekend marks the first month of Chicago's bike sharing program.

Divvy reports that more than 14 thousand people have rented the bikes.

But the service has got mixed reviews.

Transportation 7/26/2013 Divvy :45 3:00; 5:00

Chicagoans say now they have more options to get around, but it's a challenge to return bikes before the time expires.

Chicagoan Siri Lin says she's also concerned about bikers' safety.

City and state officials are urging concertgoers to take safety precautions at Lollapalooza this weekend.

Art 7/29/2013 lolla preview 45 6:30

The three-day festival brings 100 thousand music fans each day to Grant Park.

Officials at the Illinois Poison Center say they'll be on watch for illegal drug usage - especially hallucinogenic drugs like ecstasy or molly.

Starting this week, music lovers in Chicago have another venue to catch their favourite acts.

Art 7/29/2013 Concord Hall :45 5:30; 7:00

The Concord (CON-cord) Music Hall in Logan Square will feature a range of artists performing everything from punk to electronic dance music.

Zach Partin (par-TIN) is the publicist for React Presents, one of the promoters booking events at Concord.

A new report scheduled to be released today (MON) is expected to show an improvement in Chicago's manufacturing industry.

Business 7/29/2013 MMI :45 6:00; 7:30

The Midwest Manufacturing Index tracks the steel, machinery and auto sectors.

Morningstar analyst Robert Johnson says the auto industry is doing so well, it's making up for losses in other sectors.

Cook County Sheriff Tom Dart's office has been trying to collect cards and weapons from people whose firearms licenses have been revoked.

Guns 7/29/2013 FOID 1 4:30; 6:00

And Dart says Illinois' concealed carry law could help and HURT their efforts.

WBEZ's Lauren Chooljian reports.

Transportation 7/29/2013 Gabe Klein :40 4:30; 6:00

Chicago Department of Transportation Commissioner Gabe Klein says Chicagoans should expect more safety measures meant to increase pedestrian traffic.

And that includes adding more clocks that count down the time pedestrians have to cross the street.

					Chicago gas prices are the most expensive in the country.
Transportation	7/29/2013	Gas Prices	:45	4:30; 6:00	The Lundberg Survey shows that Chicagoans have paid an average of 4 dollars and 10 cents per gallon in the past two weeks.
					That's 43 cents more than the national average.
United States Congress	7/29/2013	Durbin GLRI	:45	3:00; 5:00	Illinois U.S. Senator Dick Durbin is speaking out against proposed cuts to Great Lakes Chicago bicyclists have another reason to rejoice.
City of Chicago	7/30/2013	complete streets	:45	6:00; 7:30	The Weber Spurr bike trail on the north side of Foster Avenue is getting a Complete Streets treatment.
					Commissioner Gabe Klein of the Chicago Department of Transportation says that means bike travel along the high-speed, four-lane traffic area will be prioritized.
					Central Illinois Democrats as well as some academics and agriculture experts are rallying around President Obama's action last month on climate change.
Environment	7/30/2013	Climate Change	:30	6:00; 7:30	The President is instituting power plant carbon pollution limits among other things
					Bloomington Mayor Tari Renner says it's way past time for Washington to address climate change.
Illinois Statehouse	7/30/2013	paychecks lawsuit	1:00:00	4:30; 6:00	The two top lawmakers in Illinois are suing Governor Pat Quinn for suspending the pay of Springfield legislators.
					Chicago Transit Authority officials say they've cracked down significantly on employee absenteeism.
Labor	7/30/2013	Rahm	1:02:00	4:30; 6:00	But it's still costing the agency around $30 million dollars a year.
					Chicago's Police Superintendent Garry McCarthy is looking for younger and more diverse recruits to better reflect the makeup of the city.
Law Enforcement	7/30/2013	McCarthy	:45	4:00; 5:30	The police department has lowered the age requirement so 18-year-olds can take the exam, and join the force when they turn 21.
					McCarthy says the hiring efforts will replenish staff who retire and get promoted..

					LGBT advocacy group Equality Illinois wants Chicago to suspend its sister city program with the Russian capital of Moscow (MOSS-coh).
Civil Rights	7/31/2013	Equality Illinois	:45	5:00; 6:30; 8:00	Russia recently passed a law that prohibits people from holding gay pride rallies and informing minors about the LGBT community.  Equality Illinois also calls for Illinoisans to cancel business dealings or travel plans to the eastern European country.
Courts	7/31/2013	Kiferbaum	1:04:00	4:00; 5:30	A central figure in the Blagojevich investigation was sentenced today (Wednesday) to 27 months in federal prison.
Criminal Justice	7/31/2013	juviePriz2	1:00:00	6:00; 7:30	Illinois state legislators are considering reforms to the youth prison system to address sexual abuse that was brought to light in a recent federal study. Federal Authorities are trying a new tactic to fight Medicare and Medicaid fraud.
Health	7/31/2013	Medicare Fraud	:45	5:30; 7:00	The authorities are targeting three high fraud areas, including Chicago, Houston and Miami.  In each city they will ban new companies from signing up to provide certain government funded medical programs. State officials say they're not happy that the private company running the state lottery failed to meet their target revenue for the second year in a row.
Illinois Statehouse	8/1/2013	Lotto	:45	4:00; 5:30	Reports estimate that Northstar Lottery Group missed the target by one hundred and 34 million dollars this year.  They may have to pay the state 40 million dollars in penalties.  Time for Curious City where we answer your questions.  Well, when the weather is rough and Metra trains run late, we let you know.
Transportation	8/1/2013	CC Metra	0:04:00	4:44; 6:20	But curious commuter Cory Feign (FAIN) wonders just how Chicago's commuter rail system decides to delay or cancel trains.  For WBEZ Chris Bentley explains. A group of House Democrats has proposed a bill to ban racial profiling by police.
Civil Rights	8/2/2013	Racial Profiling	:45	3:00; 5:00	The legislation would require sensitivity training and a full report to the Department of Justice of racial profiling investigations.  Illinois Congresswoman Jan Schakowsky is one of the sponsors.
Education	8/2/2013	cps budget	0:51:00	5:00	Chicago Public School officials got an earful last night (THURSDAY) at two public hearings on this year's DIFFICULT budget.

Illinois Statehouse	8/2/2013	Roskam	:45	5:30; 7:30	Local experts are questioning whether a new bill will stop political favoritism within the Internal Revenue Service.
Labor	8/2/2013	Unemployment	:45	4:00; 5:30	Contrary to the national trend, Illinois's most recent numbers show that the unemployment rate is creeping up.
Violence	8/2/2013	Murder Numbers	55	5:30; 7:00	Chicago Police Superintendent Garry McCarthy says Chicago is on track this year to have one of the lowest murder rates in decades.
Agriculture	8/5/2013	Farm Bill	1:00:00	5:33; 7:33	Local farmers are being warned to prepare for more uncertainty as they await an extension of the farm bill.
Criminal Justice	8/5/2013	Parolees	1:00:00	4:00; 5:30	The Rockford Police Department is working with the state of Illinois to develop a new way to keep track of people on parole.
Education	8/5/2013	St. Viator	:45	3:00; 5:00	Students at St. Viator High School in Arlington Heights will face mandatory alcohol tests starting this fall.
Sports	8/5/2013	A Rod	:45	7:05; 8:33	Embattled New York Yankee Alex Rodriguez will likely make his season debut tonight on Chicago's South Side.
Transportation	8/5/2013	South Airport	:45	4:30; 5:30	Leaders from Chicago's South Suburbs want to make sure that local residents will benefit from a proposed airport.
Business	8/15/2013	Boeing	:45	4:00; 5:30	Experts say the Dreamliner's ongoing problems could give Boeing's competitors an advantage.
Crime	8/15/2013	ACA scams	1:00:00	3:00; 6:00	Consumer advocates are warning people about new insurance scams.
Housing	8/15/2013	Renters Energy	4:15:00	6:35; 8:35	It hasn't been difficult to get some homeowners to shell out the cash to make energy upgrades on their homes. After all, they're paying for electricity and gas. But when it comes to rental units, many property owners are reluctant to invest in changes because they're not covering the utility bills...the renters are.
Illinois Statehouse	8/15/2013	Franks Bill	:42	5:00; 7:00	Democratic State Representative Jack Franks is proposing legislation to close a loophole...he says....will avoid Governor Pat Quinn's recent attempt to put political allies on mass transit boards.
Politics	8/15/2013	Reverend Jackson	:45	6:30; 8:30	Jesse Jackson Junior's father says he now wonders whether he missed the signs of his son's mental illness.
United States Congress	8/15/2013	kirk	1:00:00	4:00; 5:30	Illinois U-S Senator Mark Kirk took center stage today (THURS) in Springfield for a Republican rally. His appearance comes nearly a year-and-a-half after he suffered a stroke.
Education	8/19/2013	whittier demolition FEATURE_13081 9_LL	6:00	6:21; 8:21	There was a surprise demolition over the weekend. Chicago Public Schools tore down a small, dilapidated wooden field house at an elementary school in Pilsen, on the Southwest Side

Guns	8/19/2013	Gun Checks	:45	4:00; 5:30	Lawmakers say Illinois's new gun law needs federal involvement to truly stop or even curb illegal gun trafficking.  There's good news for the Greater Chicago Area.
Housing	8/19/2013	home building	:45	4:30; 6:00	Homebuilding is up throughout the region.  But there is a discrepancy between the city and suburbs.
Politics	8/19/2013	Ahmad update	:57	6:33; 8:33	Chicago Mayor Rahm Emanuel is asking for a review of city finances after one of his top deputies was arrested on corruption charges.
Politics	8/19/2013	Daley judge	1:00:00	3:00; 5:00	Jesse Jackson Junior's father says he now wonders whether he missed the signs of his son's mental illness.
Violence	8/19/2013	Safe Passage	:62	4:00; 5:30	Chicago Public Schools this week is training hundreds of adults to work along safe-passage routes for students whose schools have been closed.
Education	8/21/2013	Pep Rally	:35	4:30; 6:00	Chicago Mayor Rahm Emanuel led a pep rally this afternoon [Wed] for a school district program called Safe Passage.
Education	8/21/2013	Safe Passage McCarthy	1	4:30; 6:00	Chicago's top cop is responding to concerns about violence along Safe Passage routes.
Health	8/21/2013	Female Viagra	:45	5:33; 7:33	A Chicago-area doctor has developed a new product that experts say is offering a feminine counterpart to Viagra.
Housing	8/21/2013	Home Sales	:45	3:00; 5:00	Experts say some of Illinois's less populated suburbs could see growth if the trend of strong home sales continues.
Health	8/28/2013	Heroin	1	4:00; 5:30	Local law enforcement says a recent drug raid underscores the growing problem of heroin trafficking in Chicago and DuPage County.
Housing	8/28/2013	Segregated Housing	:45	4:00; 5:30	Local law enforcement says a recent drug raid underscores the growing problem of heroin trafficking in Chicago and DuPage County.  Exactly 50 years ago today, Martin Luther King, Jr. uttered the famous phrase 'I Have a Dream.'  As we mark this anniversary, it's worth remembering Dr. King rarely walked alone.
Religion	8/28/2013	Archibald Carey Jr FEATURE	7-ish	6:21; 8:32	One of his closest allies was a black preacher here in Chicago.  Few people remember him today.  But this preacher gave his own landmark speech on civil rights -- and he did it long before Dr. King.

Art	8/29/2013	MJ Gary	1	4:30; 6:00	It's been four years since Michael Jackson died. But the city where he was born has yet to build a permanent museum in his honor.
Cook County	8/29/2013	Oglesby 2	:45	6:33; 8:33	A former top aide to ex-Cook County Board President Todd Stroger faces prison time for theft and money laundering.
Education	8/29/2013	cps	1	6:05; 8:05	There are still questions about whether Chicago's school district barred people from yesterday's board meeting.
Gay Marriage	8/29/2013	IRS gay marriage	:45	3:00	Local gay rights activists say today's decision to allow gay married couples to file joint federal tax returns underscores the need for Illinois to pass same-sex marriage.
Immigration	8/29/2013	Immigration-1-NEW	:57	4:00; 5:30	A local legal analyst says the NFL may have dodged a bullet with its tentative settlement over concussion-related brain injuries among former players.
Sports	8/29/2013	Concussion	1	4:30; 6:00	A local legal analyst says the NFL may have dodged a bullet with its tentative settlement over concussion-related brain injuries among former players.