

Quarterly issues report for Viewpoint Alabama January-March 2024

Saturday January 6th and Sunday January 7th, 2024

Salvation Army's Red Kettle Commissioner Kenith Potter talks about the need state wide for assistance in the homeless community then Kathy Stokes with the AARP talks about the scams to watch out for as we get into tax season in the NewYear

Saturday January 13th and Sunday January 14th, 2024

George F. Koob, Ph.D., Director of NIAAA at the National Institutes of Health, is an internationally recognized expert on alcohol and the neurobiology of alcohol and drug addiction joins us to talk about Dry January.

JT then talks with both Senators Tommy Tuberville and Katie Britt about the 2024 elections and the roll Alabama will play in the shaping of the race and the American political landscape.

Saturday January 20th, and Sunday January 21st, 2024

January is National School Choice Month and we are joined by Shelby Doyal the Vice President of the National School Choice awareness foundation. She makes a case for why parents should be able to move their child to the public, private or homeschool of their choice.

Saturday January 27th, and Sunday January 28th, 2024

Local Hoover Middle school Teacher Logan Greene talks about why he received the coveted Robert I. Goldman Award for Excellence in Holocaust Education. He explained the importance of his lessons and the methods he uses to reach the kids in his 8th grade classroom at Berry Middle School.

Saturday February 3rd and Sunday February 4th, 2024

Robert Ginyard is a prostate cancer survivor, patent advocate, Chair of the Zero Prostate Cancer board of directors and host of the Internationally overheard podcast. He talks about why early detection is so important for men's survival.

Saturday February 10th and Sunday February 11th, 2024

Adina Peyton's son was shot and killed by a SWAT team in Huntsville at a time when he was suffering from a mental health Crisis. Now Adina is on a mission to get mental health training for law enforcement officers.

Saturday February 17th and Sunday February 18th 2024

February is American Heart Month, and we are joined by Celina Gorre CEO of WomenHeart, an organization dedicating to education and research into woman's heart health.

Saturday February 24th and Sunday February 25th, 2024

In light of the possibility of the legalization of gambling in Alabama, we talk with Jack Galassini the director of the Alabama Council on Compulsive Gambling. Then we talk with Sarah DeArmond from Voiceless Behind Bars talks about her efforts to provide lawyers and pay legal fees for the wrongfully convicted in Alabama.

Saturday March 2nd, and Sunday March 3rd, 2024

Dr. Renee Harmon shares her experiences caring for her husband has he battled with Early onset Alzheimer's Disease, and previews an upcoming event for friends and family who are also caring for people dealing with Alzheimer's.

Saturday March 9th, and Sunday March 10th, 2024

CEO of No More Fighting Pamala Zaballa joins to talk about her organizations fight against Domestic abuse and violence against Women. Then Dr. Kristy Marynack from the CDC talks about the dangers of Smoking Tobacco.

Saturday March 16th, and Sunday March 17th, 2024

In Gadsden Alabama, a non-profit has furnished a "Baby Box" which would allow new mothers who do not want to care for their babies to surrender them anonymously at a local fire station. Gadsden State Rep Mack Butler joins us to explain how this came to be and why it will save lives.

Saturday March 23rd and Sunday March 24th, 2024

Genealogist Bernice Bennett Joins us to talk about the Family Health History Road Trip, a program designed to drive conversations between family members about their health history so they can have a better understanding of their risk for developing hereditary ATTR (hATTR) amyloidosis.

Saturday March 30th and Sunday March 31st, 2024

IRS Criminal Investigation Atlanta Field Office Assistant Special Agent in Charge Lisa Fontanette joins us to talk about Money Mules, and how to prevent yourself from becoming a victim. Then Matthew Kenslow the author of the book "Unstoppable: How One Person with Autism is Never Giving Up on His Lifelong Dream to Become a Teacher and Worldwide Influencer" joins us to talk about his Journey and how he is helping others who are on the spectrum.

