

Quarterly Needs and Programs Report

2nd Quarter, 2018

Description of Programming

KSJQ Perspective

A three-minute program on a topic of interest, often one of the top news stories of the week, based on interviews with the people involved. Perspective is broadcast Saturday at 5:50 am.

Government

4.7.18 Wyeth Tootle Mansion opens for the season Friday with several events already planned; with Kathy Reno of the Saint Joseph Museums.

4.14.18 Missouri Department of Transportation urges drivers to be extra cautious in work zones as construction season approaches; with Northwest District Engineer Chris Redline.

Business

4.21.18 The St. Joseph Chamber of Commerce has released the schedule for this year's Parties on the Parkway; with St. Joseph Chamber Director of Communications & Marketing Kristi Bailey.

Service Organizations

4.28.18 For the eleventh year, Habitat for Humanity and Lowe's are engaging women nationwide as well as in Saint Joseph to build Habitat homes during this year's National Women Build Week; with Lorna Davis of the Saint Joseph Habitat for Humanity.

6.23.18 The AFL-CIO Community Services Agency is starting to collect shoes for the Soles for Christ program; with Penny Adams, executive director.

Education

5.5.18 A Lafayette High School teacher was recently nominated for the Harris History Teacher Award; with teacher Derek Frieling.

5.12.18 Northwest Missouri State University will begin a program in August to help registered nurses continue their educational journey; with Northwest Director of Nursing Brook McAtee.

5.26.18 Dr. Robert Newhart has attended his last high school graduations as Saint Joseph Superintendent of Schools; with Robert Newhart.

Law Enforcement

6.2.18 Fingerprinting, the K-9 unit and more will be part of the Saint Joseph Police Department's Junior Police Academy; with Officer Devin Kallauner.

6.16.18 After a shooting last week in St. Joseph that resulted in the death of a 2-year-old, the Buchanan County Sheriff and others are encouraging gun safety education and keeping guns out of the reach of children; with Buchanan County Sheriff Bill Puett and Shawn Harper of Midwest Best Handgun Instructors.

Quality of Life

5.19.18 The theme and Main Stage artists for this year's Trails West festival in St. Joseph were announced Tuesday night; with Colleen Kowitch, festival chair, and Natalie Redmond, entertainment co-chair.

6.9.18 New art pieces are being installed this week at various places in downtown St. Joseph for the 2018 Sculpture Walk; with Allied Arts Council Executive Director Teresa Fankhauser and Tyler Kimball, whose piece "Glass Towers" was installed at 9th and Francis.

6.30.18 Pet safety over the Independence Day holiday period; with Kappy Hodges of the Friends of the Animal Shelter.