Beech Creek Wesleyan Church would like to extend an invitation to GloryWay in concert. The church will be hosting GloryWay on Sunday, April 23rd with the concert beginning at 6:00 p.m. Beech Creek Wesleyan Church is located at 217 Main St. in Beech Creek.

GloryWay began as a group of friends singing around town and has blossomed into a powerful full-time ministry. The group is made up of owner/lead singer Justin Crank, tenor Bryan Langley, and baritone John Cole. They put on a unique and versatile performance that blends classic harmony with exciting and inspiring new sounds and styles. GloryWay travels over 60,000 miles annually, across the United States. Every weekend of the year, plus some, is packed full of exciting ministry opportunities for GloryWay. Their songs can be heard on nationwide radio including 'Nobody', 'God, You're Amazing', and 'End of the Story'. Many GloryWay fans have found comfort in 'Just a little While', a ballad written by GloryWay's own John Cole.

GloryWay has participated in numerous showcases at the National Quartet Convention. In 2017 and 2018 they were nominated for 'Sunrise Quartet of the Year' for SGN Scoops Diamond Awards, taking home the honor in 2018. They have been named Southern Gospel Artist of the Year by Southern Gospel New York and have been honored to perform at Dollywood many times of the years.

A love offering will be collected to show our support and appreciation for their ministry. We hope to provide a nice audience for GloryWay and hope to see you there.
