He considers whether or not God would have him leave the toy industry in favor of working for Whit. This episode teaches about prioritizing family, and following God wherever he leads, even when it comes with an apparent loss of status or finances.
2	Bible Principles for Children	Life at the Pond	1/11/2024 at 10:04:04	0:10:33	Fun stories for children where talking animals teach Biblical truths through life lessons. This episode, called "Greener Grass" finds Tony the Frog winning a hopping contest. Bill the Duck was sure to win the upcoming flying contest, and Methuselah the Alligator would win the tug-of-war. Despite everyone having unique giftings, Tony is jealous of Methuselah's strength, but learns to regret it when he is able to trade places with Methuselah for a day. We should be thankful for who God made us to be, and not keep comparing ourselves to others.
3	Bible Principles for Children	Down Gilead Lane	1/14/2024 at 13:01:30	0:24:30	In today's episode, called "Aim Higher," there is an air show near Coleraine. Janet from the Coleraine Quartely discovers that Justin has a real talent for photography, and sends him to the show along with her existing photography intern Lauren. She is jealous, but Justin is able remind her that she's also talented, and shouldn't compare herself to others. Listeners learn that we should do our best in all we do, not to elevate ourselves, but to honor God. They also learn of the folly of pride, deception, and selfishness as Tiffany's attempts to make everything about her keep backfiring in dramatic ways.
4	Bible Principles for Children	Kids Corner Liz & Friends	1/21/2024 at 15:00:53	0:25:00	This episode of Liz and Friends is an episode called "Sunday Selfie Superstar." In this episode, Liz enters a local selfie-taking contest on the MyGecko social media site. Liz gets caught up in looking good, and especially comparing himself to Skink, who always seems to be one step ahead of him. Instead of vainly focusing on ourselves, or comparing ourselves to others, we should use social media to connect with each other, to do good, to build each other up, and to lead people to God.

5	Bible Principles for Children	Life at the Pond	1/31/2024 at 16:02:19	0:09:47	Today's episode, titled "Bible Jeopardy," finds the pond creatures studying and memorizing Scripture ahead of a Bible Trivia competition. When the competition gets heated, Tony and Jake get angry at Methuselah, who always seems to be one step ahead of them. After the competition, they apologize for saying hurtful things. We shouldn't let competitiveness get in the way of treating people with respect, and shouldn't jealously compare ourselves to others.
6	Bible Principles for Children	Dan and Louie	2/07/2024 at 14:04:00	0:07:32	A humorous and educational show to help teach the Bible to children. Today's episode, called "The Transfiguration" teaches about the Biblical story of when Jesus went up a mountain with some of His disciples. His appearance was transformed, and he shone brightly in heavenly glory. He was joined by Moses and Elijah, and God spoke audibly from the heavens. The experience proved to them that Jesus was the Son of God.
7	Bible Principles for Children	Your Story Hour	2/16/2024 at 11:01:18	0:29:35	Teaches lessons through radio dramas based on Bible stories, historical figures, and other true stories. The story teaches history and the value of persistence and good character as it tells how Isabella relies on her faith in God. She courageously fights first to rescue her son from an illegal slave trade, then later advocates for women and black people throughout the nation.
8	Bible Principles for Children	Keys for Kids	2/19/2024 at 17:33:40	0:04:30	Kids devotions, for learning more about God's love through a short fictional story with a Key Verse. Today's episode, called "God's Jewels (Part 1)," finds Mr. Billings letting his Sunday School class visit his gem-cutting shop. The kids can't tell the difference between a cubic zirconium and a real diamond, but Mr. Billings has the experience to easily tell them apart. In the same way, we need to be sure that we're real Christians, not just giving the appearance that we are one. He knows the difference, and wants us to be one of His. Today's verse is Malachi 3:17 .
9	Bible Principles for Children	Adventure Pals	2/29/2024 at 8:59:42	0:10:43	Stories and songs, with an object lesson. Today's episode, called "The Cave," finds Jim and Dave "borrowing" someone's boat to explore the lake. They find a cave, and decide to explore it once they can retrieve flashlights. While at home, Jim lies to his mother about their plans, so that no one knows where they will be. The batteries run out on the flashlight when they're deep in the cave, and they get lost. With no one knowing where to look for them, Dave prays for God to help them. Their boat drifts toward the entrance, and they're saved. This episode teaches that God loves us even when we've done wrong, and that we can always turn to Him.

10	Bible Principles for Children	Visit with Mrs. G	3/7/2024 at 14:30:09	0:13:09	Dramatic educational retelling of stories, primarily from the Bible. This episode tells the Biblical story of Jesus' final days on earth after the resurrection, as told in Matthew 28 and elsewhere. While imagining who might have attended, Mrs. G gives an overview of many of the miracles that Jesus performed during His time on earth.
11	Bible Principles for Children	Keys for Kids	3/15/2024 at 11:34:05	0:04:30	Kids devotions, for learning more about God's love through a short story with a Key Verse. Today's episode finds Gianna and Cosima's family accidentally setting the table with dirty dishes. They really aren't appealing, because we value cleanliness. God values it, too, but He's more concerned about the condition of our hearts. We should strive to have clean hearts and show God's peace and love to others with our good behavior, not just with words. Today's verse is 2 Timothy 2:21.
12	Bible Principles for Children	Dan and Louie	3/19/2024 at 14:01:05	0:11:52	A humorous and educational show to help teach the Bible to children. Today's episode tells the Biblical story of Jacob, Rachel, and Leah. Jacob loved Rachel, and worked for seven years in order to earn the right to marry Rachel. On his wedding night, he discovered that he'd been tricked by his father-in-law Laban into marrying Rachel's less beautiful older sister Leah instead. In a way, this was deserved, since Jacob had himself tricked his brother Esau out of his father's blessing. If we deal selfishly with others, we should expect to experience the same sort of treatment in return.
13	Bible Principles for Children	Kids Corner Liz & Friends	3/24/2024 at 15:00:53	0:25:00	This episode of Liz and Friends is a special episode called "Carats in the Cupcake." In this episode, Granny Gecko is helping Liz and Lucille bake 500 cupcakes for a fundraiser. When Granny Gecko steps away, Liz gets distracted from the task at hand, plays with her heirloom ring, and loses it in the cupcake batter. To hide their disobedience, they don't tell Granny, and keep hoping that somebody will bite into the right cupcake and return the ring. The kids learn that we should not let ourselves get distracted from important work, and that when we do wrong, we should admit to it quickly instead of trying to hide our sins.
